PART III -- NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Chordiant Software, Inc. (the "Registrant") could not file its Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006 without unreasonable effort or expenses because on November 26, 2006, the Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee and management, after considering the quantitative and qualitative analysis prepared by management arising from a review by Registrant's Audit Committee of Registrant's historical stock option grant practices, concluded that the Registrant should restate its historical financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2001, 2002 and 2003, the nine-month period ended September 30, 2004, the fiscal year ended September 30, 2005, and the quarters ended December 31, 2005 and March 31, 2006 because the differences were deemed to be material. Registrant is working with its former and current auditors to complete the restatement process and Registrant does not believe it will be completed within the prescribed time period.

PART IV -- OTHER INFORMATION

(1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification

Peter S. Norman	408	517-6100
(Name)	(Area Code)	(Telephone Number)

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).  Yes  No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?  Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Audit Committee of Registrant's Board of Directors reached the conclusion that, pursuant to the requirements of Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees" (APB 25), the correct measurement dates for certain stock option grants made by the Registrant during the period 2000 to 2006 differ from the measurement dates previously used to account for such option grants. Based on that conclusion Management and the Audit Committee of Registrant's Board of Directors have determined that non-cash stock-based compensation expense should have been recorded with respect to those stock option grants and recognized over the vesting period of the options, and that the amount of such additional non-cash expense for the period 2001 through 2006 is expected to be approximately $8 million. The Registrant is continuing its review of factors that may have led to incorrect measurement dates. On November 26, 2006, the Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee and management, concluded that the Registrant should restate its historical financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2001, 2002 and 2003, the nine-month period ended September 30, 2004, the fiscal year ended September 30, 2005, and the quarters ended December 31, 2005 and March 31, 2006 because the differences were deemed to be material. The Registrant is working with its former and current auditors to complete the restatement process and Registrant intends to issue results for the quarterly periods ended June 30, 2006 and the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006, together with restated historical financial statements as soon as practicable. However, the Registrant cannot at this time reasonably estimate when this process will be completed.
