PROXY STATEMENT 1

PROXY STATEMENT

ABOUT THE 2010 ANNUAL MEETING

This proxy statement (the "Proxy Statement") is being furnished to holders of common stock, $0.01 par value per share (the "Common Stock"), of Motorola, Inc. ("Motorola", or the "Company"). Proxies are being solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") to be used at the 2010 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Annual Meeting") to be held at The Meadows Club, 2950 W. Golf Road, Rolling Meadows, Illinois 60008 on Monday, May 3, 2010 at 5:00 P.M., local time, for the purposes set forth in the Notice of 2010 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

This Proxy Statement, the form of proxy and the Company's 2009 Annual Report are being provided to stockholders on or after March 12, 2010.

All stockholders may view and print Motorola's Proxy Statement and the 2009 Annual Report at the Company's website at www.motorola.com/investor.

VOTING PROCEDURES

Who Is Entitled to Vote?

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on March 8, 2010 (the "record date") will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof. On the record date, there were issued and outstanding 2,314,437,239 shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. The Common Stock is the only class of voting securities of the Company.

A list of stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting will be available for examination at the corporate offices of Motorola Inc., 1303 E. Algonquin Road, Door 53, Schaumburg, Illinois 60196 for ten days before the Annual Meeting and at the Annual Meeting.

Why Did I Receive a Notice of Internet Availability?

The Securities and Exchange Commission has adopted rules for the electronic distribution of proxy materials. Again this year, we have elected to provide our stockholders access to our proxy materials and 2009 Annual Report on the Internet instead of sending a full set of printed proxy materials to all of our stockholders. This enables us to reduce costs, provide ease and flexibility for our stockholders and lessen the environmental impact of our Annual Meeting. On or about March 15, 2010, we intend to mail most of our stockholders a Notice of Internet Availability of Proxy Materials (a "Notice"). If you receive a Notice by mail, you will not receive a printed copy of the proxy materials in the mail unless you request it. Instead, the Notice instructs you on how to access and review all of the important information contained in the 2010 Proxy Statement and 2009 Annual Report. The Notice also instructs you on how you may submit your proxy over the Internet or by telephone. If you receive a Notice by mail and would like to receive a printed copy of our proxy materials, you should follow the instructions for requesting such materials included in the Notice.

How Can I Vote Without Attending the Annual Meeting?

There are three convenient methods for registered stockholders to direct their vote by proxy without attending the Annual Meeting. Stockholders can:

Vote by Internet. You can vote via the Internet. The website address for Internet voting is provided on your Notice or proxy card. You will need to use the control number appearing on your Notice or proxy card to vote via the Internet. You can use the Internet to transmit your voting instructions up until 11:59 P.M. Eastern Time on Sunday, May 2, 2010. Internet voting is available 24 hours a day. If you vote via the Internet you do NOT need to vote by telephone or return a proxy card.

Edgar Filing: MOTOROLA INC - Form DEF 14A

Vote by Telephone. You can also vote by telephone by calling the toll-free telephone number provided on your Notice or on your proxy card. You will need to use the control number appearing on your Notice or proxy card to vote by telephone. You may transmit your voting instructions from any touch-tone telephone up until 11:59 P.M. Eastern Time on Sunday, May 2, 2010. Telephone voting is available 24 hours a day. If you vote by telephone you do NOT need to vote over the Internet or return a proxy card.

Vote by Mail. If you received a printed copy of the proxy card, you can vote by marking it, dating it and signing it, and returning it in the postage-paid envelope provided. Please promptly mail your proxy card to ensure that it is received prior to the closing of the polls at the Annual Meeting.

If you are a beneficial owner, or you hold your shares in "street name," please check your voting instruction card or contact your bank, broker or nominee to determine whether you will be able to vote by Internet or telephone.

2 PROXY STATEMENT

How Can I Change My Vote?

Registered stockholders can revoke their proxy at any time before it is voted at the Annual Meeting by either:

Submitting another timely, later-dated proxy by Internet, telephone or mail;

Delivering timely written notice of revocation to the Secretary, Motorola, Inc., 1303 East Algonquin Road, Schaumburg, Illinois 60196; or Attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

If your shares are held in the name of a bank, broker or other nominee, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the holder of record (that is, your bank, broker or nominee) to be able to vote at the Annual Meeting.

How Many Votes Must be Present to Conduct Business at the Annual Meeting?

In order for business to be conducted, a quorum must be represented in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting. A quorum is a majority of the shares entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Shares represented by a proxy marked "abstain" will be considered present at the Annual Meeting for purposes of determining a quorum.

How Many Votes Am I Entitled to Cast?

You are entitled to cast one vote for each share of Common Stock you own on the record date. Stockholders do not have the right to vote cumulatively in electing directors.

How Many Votes Are Required to Elect Directors?

In February 2006, Motorola's Board of Directors amended the Company's Bylaws and Board Governance Guidelines to adopt a majority vote standard for non-contested director elections. Because the number of nominees properly nominated for the 2010 Annual Meeting is the same as the number of directors to be elected at the 2010 Annual Meeting, the 2010 election of directors is a non-contested election. To be elected in a non-contested election, a director nominee must receive more "For" votes than "Against" votes. Abstentions will have no effect on the director election since only votes "For" and "Against" a nominee will be counted.

How Many Votes Are Required to Approve the Company's Overall Executive Compensation Policies and Procedures?

With regard to the stockholder advisory vote, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting will be required to approve the Company's overall executive compensation policies and procedures. Abstentions will have the same effect as a vote "Against" the proposal.

How Many Votes Are Required to Ratify the Appointment of KPMG LLP as Motorola's Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm?

Edgar Filing: MOTOROLA INC - Form DEF 14A

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting will be required to ratify the selection of KPMG LLP. Abstentions will have the same effect as a vote "Against" the proposal.

How Many Votes Are Required to Pass Any Shareholder Resolution?

In order to recommend that the Board consider adoption of any shareholder proposal, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is required. For any shareholder proposal, an abstention will have the same effect as a vote "Against" the proposal. Broker non-votes will have no effect on the shareholder proposals.

Will My Shares be Voted if I Do Not Provide Instructions to My Broker?

If you are the beneficial owner of shares held in "street name" by a broker, the broker, as the record holder of the shares, is required to vote those shares in accordance with your instructions. If you do not give instructions to the broker, the broker will be entitled to vote the shares with respect to "discretionary" items, but will not be permitted to vote the shares with respect to "non-discretionary" items (resulting in a "broker non-vote"). The ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP and the stockholder advisory vote on the Company's overall executive compensation policies and procedures are "discretionary" items. The election of directors and the two shareholder proposals are "non-discretionary" items.

Who Represents My Proxy at the Annual Meeting?

If you do not vote in person at the Annual Meeting, but have voted your shares over the Internet, by telephone or by signing and returning your proxy card, you have authorized certain members of Motorola's senior management designated by the

Table of Contents

PROXY STATEMENT 3

Board and named in your proxy to represent you and to vote your shares as instructed.

What if I Return a Proxy But Do Not Provide Specific Voting Instructions For Some or All of the Items?

All shares that have been properly voted whether by Internet, telephone or mail and not revoked will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with your instructions. If you sign your proxy but do not give voting instructions, the shares represented by that proxy will be voted as recommended by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors recommends a vote: (1) "For" the election of the 11 director nominees named in this Proxy Statement, (2) "For" the approval of the Company's overall executive compensation policies and procedures, (3) "For" the ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP as the Company's independent public accounting firm for 2010, and (4) "Against" each of the two shareholder proposals.

What if Other Matters Are Voted on at the Annual Meeting?

If any other matters are properly presented at the Annual Meeting for consideration and if you have voted your shares by Internet, telephone or mail, the persons named as proxies in your proxy will have the discretion to vote on those matters for you. At the date we filed this Proxy Statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Board of Directors did not know of any other matter to be raised at the Annual Meeting.

How Do I Vote if I Participate in the Company's 401(k) Plan?

If you own shares of Common Stock through the Motorola 401(k) Plan (the "401(k) Plan"), the Notice or proxy card includes the shares you hold in the 401(k) Plan as well as the shares you hold outside of the 401(k) Plan. Under the 401(k) Plan, participants are "named fiduciaries" to the extent of their authority to direct the voting of shares of Common Stock credited to their 401(k) Plan accounts and their proportionate share of allocated shares for which no direction is received and unallocated shares, if any (together, "Undirected Shares"). The trustee of the 401(k) Plan will vote Undirected Shares in the same proportion as the shares for which directions are received, except as otherwise provided in accordance with ERISA. By submitting voting instructions by Internet, telephone, or if hardcopies are requested, by signing, dating and returning the proxy card, you direct the trustee of the 401(k) Plan to vote these shares, in person or by proxy, as designated therein, at the Annual Meeting.

8 PROXY STATEMENT

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE MATTERS

What Are the Board's Corporate Governance Principles?

The Board has long adhered to governance principles designed to assure the continued vitality of the Board and excellence in the execution of its duties. The Board has responsibility for management oversight and providing strategic guidance to the Company. The Board believes that it must continue to renew itself to ensure that its members understand the industries and the markets in which the Company operates. The Board also believes that it must remain well-informed about the positive and negative issues, problems and challenges facing Motorola and its industries and markets so that the Board members can exercise their fiduciary responsibilities to Motorola stockholders.

What Are Some of the Major Corporate Governance Initiatives the Board Has Adopted in Recent Years?

The Board recognizes the importance of evolving the Company's corporate governance practices and is committed to regularly reviewing specific elements of the Company's corporate governance and making changes when the Board deems them in the best interests of the Company and stockholders. As a result, Motorola is a leading adopter of many corporate governance best-practices. Again this year, Motorola is holding a stockholder advisory vote on the Company's overall executive compensation policies and procedures (commonly known as a "say-on-pay" vote). We elect all of our directors annually and in 2006 adopted a majority voting standard for uncontested director elections. The same year, we eliminated our shareholder rights plan (commonly known as a "poison pill"). Recently, we provided holders of 20% or more of Motorola's Common Stock the ability to request a special meeting of stockholders. We also have a recoupment policy to recover certain executive pay in the event of misconduct leading to a financial restatement (commonly known as a "clawback policy").

What Are Our Directors' Qualifications to Serve on the Motorola Board?

The Board believes it should be comprised of individuals with appropriate skills and experiences to meet its board governance responsibilities and contribute effectively to the Company. Our Governance and Nominating Committee carefully considers the skills and experiences of current directors and new nominee candidates to ensure that they meet the needs of the Company before nominating directors for election to the Board. All of our non-employee directors serve on Board committees, further supporting the Board by providing expertise to those committees. The needs of the committees also are reviewed when considering nominees to the Board.

The Board is comprised of active and former CEOs and CFOs of major corporations and individuals with experience in high-tech fields, media, investment banking and academia. As such, they have a deep working knowledge of matters common to large companies, generally including experience with financial statement preparation, compensation determinations, regulatory compliance, corporate governance, public affairs and legal matters. Our directors are qualified to serve as directors and members of the Committees on which they serve based on the following experience:

Mr. Dorman's experience in private equity and as the chief executive officer of a global public company in the telecommunications industry,

Mr. Hambrecht's experience as the chairman and chief executive officer of an investment banking firm focusing on high-tech companies,

Ms. Lewent's experience as the chief financial officer of a global public company in the pharmaceutical industry,

Mr. Meister's experience as a senior executive of a diversified holding company and investment companies,

Mr. Meredith's experience as the general partner of an investment management firm and as the chief financial officer of a global public high-tech company,

Edgar Filing: MOTOROLA INC - Form DEF 14A

Mr. Scott's experience as the chairman and chief executive officer of a global public company in the corn refining industry,

Mr. Stengel's experience as the chief marketing officer of a global public consumer products company,

Mr. Vinciguerra's experience as the chairman and chief executive officer of a global media company,

Mr. Warner's experience as the chairman and chief executive officer of a global public commercial and investment banking firm, and

Dr. White's experience as the chancellor of a university, dean of an engineering college and author of financial text books.

Many of our directors also serve on the boards of one or more other publicly traded companies. We believe Motorola benefits from the experience and expertise our directors gain from serving on those boards.

The Board also believes that it is important to effective board governance and collaboration to have our Co-CEOs serve on the Board.

Which Directors Are Independent?

On February 10, 2010, the Board made the determination, based on the recommendation of the Governance and Nominating Committee and in accordance with the Motorola, Inc. Director Independence Guidelines, that Mr. Dorman, Mr. Hambrecht, Ms. Lewent, Mr. Meister, Mr. Meredith, Mr. Negrofonte, Mr. Scott, Mr. Stengel, Mr. Sommer, Mr. Vinciguerra, Mr. Warner, Mr. White and Dr. J. White were independent during the periods in 2009 and 2010 that they were members of the Board. Mr. Brown and Dr. Jha do not qualify as independent directors since they are employees of the Company. The Board determined on February 21, 2008 that following the completion of Mr. Meredith's interim employment with the Company, from April 1, 2007 to March 31, 2008, he was again considered independent. See "What is Motorola's Relationship with Entities Associated with Independent Directors?" for further details.

How Was Independence Determined?

The Motorola, Inc. Director Independence Guidelines include both the NYSE independence standards and categorical standards the Board has adopted to determine if a relationship that a Board member has with the Company is material. The categorical standards adopted by the Board are as follows:

Contributions or payments (including the provision of goods or services) from Motorola to a charitable organization (including a foundation), a university, or other not-for-profit organization, of which a director or an immediate family member of a director (defined to include a director's spouse, parents, children, siblings, mothers and fathers-in-law, sons and daughters-in-law, brothers and sisters-in-law and anyone (other than domestic employees) who shares the director's home) is an officer, director, trustee or employee, will not impair independence unless the contribution or payment (excluding Motorola matches of charitable contributions made by employees or directors under Motorola's or the Motorola Foundation's matching gift programs):

- (i) is to an entity of which the director or the director's spouse currently is an officer, director or trustee, and such person held such position at the time of the contribution,
- (ii) was made within the previous three years, and
- (iii) was in an amount which, in the entity's last fiscal year prior to the year of the contribution or payment, exceeded the greater of $300,000 or 5% of such entity's consolidated gross revenues (or equivalent measure).

Indebtedness of Motorola to a bank or similar entity of which a director or a director's immediate family member is a director, officer, employee or 10% Owner (as defined below) will not impair independence unless the following are applicable:

- (i) the director or the director's spouse is an executive officer of such entity or an owner who directly or indirectly has a 10% or greater equity or voting interest in such entity (a "10% Owner") and he or she held that position at any time during the previous twelve months, and
- (ii) the total amount of Motorola's indebtedness during the previous twelve months is more than 5% of the total consolidated assets of such entity in its last fiscal year.

Other business relationships between a director or a director's immediate family member, such as consulting, legal or financial advisory services provided to Motorola, will not impair independence unless the following are applicable:

- (i) the director or the director's spouse is a partner, officer or 10% Owner of the company or firm providing such services, and he or she held such position at any time during the previous twelve months, and
- (ii) the services that were provided during the previous twelve months were in an amount which, in the company's or firm's last fiscal year, exceeded the greater of $1 million or 2% of such company's or firm's consolidated gross revenues.

Edgar Filing: MOTOROLA INC - Form DEF 14A

This categorical standard does not include business relationships with Motorola's independent registered public accounting firm because those relationships are covered by the NYSE independence standards.

Motorola's ownership of voting stock of a company of which the director or the director's immediate family member is a director, officer, employee or 10% Owner will not impair independence unless the following are applicable:

- (i) the director or the director's spouse is an executive officer of that company, and
- (ii) Motorola is currently a 10% Owner of that company.

The ownership of Motorola common stock by a director or a director's immediate family member will not be considered to be a material relationship that would impair a director's independence.

When applying the NYSE independence standards and the categorical standards set forth above, "Motorola" includes Motorola, Inc. and any of its subsidiaries and the Motorola Foundation. A complete copy of the Motorola, Inc. Director Independence Guidelines is available on the Company's website at www.motorola.com/investor.

What is Motorola's Relationship with Entities Associated with Independent Directors?

As previously disclosed, Mr. Meredith's term as Acting Chief Financial Officer and Executive Vice President of Motorola ended on March 1, 2008 and, under the terms of his agreement, his employment ended on March 31, 2008. In February 2008, the Board determined that after the end of his employment Mr. Meredith's independence under the Motorola, Inc. Independence Guidelines and the NYSE independence requirements was not impaired by his status as an employee of the Company from April 1, 2007 through March 31, 2008, because he was serving as an interim employee of the Company at the request of the Board while the Company conducted a search for a permanent chief financial officer.

As previously disclosed, Motorola and the Motorola Foundation have had various commercial and charitable relationships with the Massachusetts Institute of Technology ("MIT") and the MIT Media Laboratory. Judy Lewent is a life member of the MIT Corporation. Nicholas Negroponte, a former director, is a tenured professor of MIT on leave, and formerly the Chairman of the MIT Media Laboratory, an academic and research laboratory at MIT. Motorola made payments to MIT in each of the last three years significantly below the threshold described in the guidelines. Neither Ms. Lewent nor Mr. Negroponte directed the relationship nor have they voted as a member of the Motorola Board of Directors to approve MIT relationships.

All independent directors, other than Mssrs. Meister, Sommer and Warner, had relationships with entities that were reviewed by the Board under the NYSE's independence standards and/or the Board's categorical standards described above covering contributions or payments to charitable or similar not-for-profit organizations. In each case, the payments or contributions were significantly less than the NYSE independence standards or the categorical standards and were determined by the Board to be immaterial. Relationships with entities related to Mssrs. Hambrecht, Meredith and Vinciguerra were also reviewed under "Other Relationships" of the categorical standards and each were determined by the Board to be immaterial.

Are the Members of the Audit and Legal, Compensation and Leadership and Governance and Nominating Committees Independent?

Yes. The Board has determined that all of the current members of the Audit and Legal Committee, the Compensation and Leadership Committee and the Governance and Nominating Committee are independent within the meaning of the Motorola, Inc. Director Independence Guidelines and the NYSE listing standards for independence.

Where Can I Receive More Information About Motorola's Corporate Governance Practices?

Motorola maintains a corporate governance page on its website at www.motorola.com/investor that includes information about its corporate governance practices. The following documents are currently included on the website:

The Motorola, Inc. Board Governance Guidelines, the current version of which the Board adopted on January 26, 2010;

The Motorola, Inc. Director Independence Guidelines, the current version of which the Board adopted on September 11, 2008;

The Principles of Conduct for Members of the Motorola, Inc. Board of Directors, the current version of which the Board adopted on November 10, 2009;

The Motorola, Inc. Code of Business Conduct, which applies to all employees;

The charters of the Audit and Legal Committee, Compensation and Leadership Committee and Governance and Nominating Committee, the current versions of each of which the Board adopted on January 26, 2010;

PROXY STATEMENT 11

BOARD OF DIRECTORS MATTERS

How Often Did the Board Meet in 2009?

The Board of Directors held 8 meetings during 2009. Overall attendance at Board and committee meetings was 95%. Each incumbent director attended 92% or more of the combined total meetings of the Board and the committees on which he or she served during 2009.

How Many Directors will Comprise the Board?

The Board of Directors is currently comprised of 12 directors. Immediately following the Annual Meeting, the Board will consist of 11 directors. In the interim between Annual Meetings, the Board has the authority under the Company's Bylaws to increase or decrease the size of the Board and to fill vacancies.

How Many Executive Sessions of the Board Were Held in 2009?

Independent directors of the Company meet regularly in executive session without management as required by the Motorola, Inc. Board Governance Guidelines. Generally, executive sessions are held in conjunction with regularly-scheduled meetings of the Board of Directors. In 2009, the non-employee independent members of the Board met in executive session 8 times.

What is the Leadership Structure of the Board? Why was that Structure Chosen? Who Serves as Chairman of the Board and Presiding Director?

The Board is led by a non-executive, independent Chairman who has never been an employee of the Company. David Dorman became the Company's first non-executive chairman in May 2008. The Board decided to elect a non-executive chairman because it believes this structure supports our plan to separate the Company into two independent, publicly traded companies. As Chairman, Mr. Dorman had a significant role in hiring Dr. Jha as Co-CEO of the Company and CEO of our Mobile Devices business. Mr. Dorman also works closely with our Co-CEOs as we continue to execute on our separation plans. As Chairman, he performs many duties on behalf of the Board, including reviewing and approving the Board agenda and presiding over all Board meetings and executive sessions. Mr. Dorman also acts as the presiding director at meetings of the independent directors.

Will the Directors Attend the Annual Meeting?

Board members are expected to attend the Annual Meeting as provided in the Motorola, Inc. Board Governance Guidelines. All of our directors who stood for election at the 2009 Annual Meeting attended that meeting.

What is the Board's Role in the Oversight of Risks?

The Board of Directors oversees the business of the Company, including Co-CEO and senior management performance and risk management, to assure that the long-term interests of the shareholders are being served. Each committee of the Board of Directors is also responsible for reviewing the risk exposure of the Company related to the committee's areas of responsibility and providing input to management on such risks.

Management and our Board have a robust process embedded throughout the Company to identify, analyze, manage and report all significant risks facing the Company. The Company's Co-CEOs and other senior managers regularly report to the Board on significant risks facing the Company, including financial, operational and strategic risks. Each of the Board committees reviews with management significant risks related to the committee's area of responsibility and reports to the Board on such risks, which includes the Compensation and Leadership

Committee's review of Company-wide compensation-related risks. The independent Board members also discuss the Company's significant risks when they meet in executive session without management.

The Company's Audit Services department has a very important role in the risk management program. The role of the department is to provide management and the Audit and Legal Committee of the Board with an overarching and objective view of the risk management activity of the enterprise. The department's engagements span financial, operational, strategic and compliance risks and the engagement results assist management in maintaining tolerable risk levels. The department conducts engagements utilizing an enterprise risk management (ERM) model. The director of the department reports directly to the Audit and Legal Committee and meets regularly with the committee, including in executive session.

PROXY STATEMENT 13

What Are the Functions of the Governance and Nominating Committee?

Identify individuals qualified to become Board members, consistent with the criteria approved by the Board

Recommend director nominees and individuals to fill vacant positions

Assist the Board in interpreting the Company's Board Governance Guidelines, the Board's Principles of Conduct and any other similar governance documents adopted by the Board

Oversee the evaluation of the Board and its committees

Generally oversee the governance and compensation of the Board

What Are the Functions of the Finance Committee?

Review the Company's overall financial posture, asset utilization and capital structure

Review the need for equity and/or debt financing and specific outside financing proposals

Review and approve major transactions, such as restructurings, acquisitions, divestitures, joint ventures and equity investments

Monitor the performance and investments of employee retirement and related funds

Review the Company's dividend payment plans and practices

What Are the Functions of the Executive Committee?

Act for the Board between meetings on matters already approved in principle by the Board

Exercise the authority of the Board on specific matters assigned by the Board from time to time

What is the Decision-Making Process to Determine Executive Compensation?

The Board has delegated to the Compensation and Leadership Committee the responsibility to oversee the programs under which compensation is paid or awarded to Motorola's executives and to evaluate the performance of Motorola's senior management. The Compensation and Leadership Committee is responsible for bringing recommended compensation actions involving each Co-CEO to the Board for its concurrence. The specific functions of the Compensation and Leadership Committee are described in this Proxy Statement under "What Are the Functions of the Compensation and Leadership Committee?" and in the Compensation and Leadership Committee's charter, which the Compensation and Leadership Committee and the Board annually review and revise as necessary.

The Global Rewards department in Motorola's Human Resources organization supports the Compensation and Leadership Committee in its work and, in some cases, acts pursuant to delegated authority from the Compensation and Leadership Committee to fulfill various functions in administering Motorola's compensation programs.

In carrying out its duties, the Compensation and Leadership Committee has direct access to outside advisors, independent compensation consultants and others to assist them. During 2009 and 2010, the Compensation and Leadership Committee directly engaged an outside compensation consulting firm to assist them in their review of the compensation for Motorola's executive officers. In September 2009, the Committee unilaterally chose to change its compensation consultant firm from Mercer to Compensation Advisory Partners LLC, retaining the same individual consultants formerly at Mercer.

For more information on the decisions made by the Compensation and Leadership Committee, see the "Compensation Discussion and Analysis".

What is the Decision-Making Process to Determine Director Compensation?

The Governance and Nominating Committee recommends to the Board the compensation for non-employee directors, which is to be consistent with market practices of other similarly situated companies and is to take into consideration the impact on non-employee directors' independence and objectivity. The Board has asked the Compensation and Leadership Committee to assist the Governance and Nominating Committee in making such recommendations. The charter of the Governance and Nominating Committee does not permit the Committee to delegate director compensation matters to management and management has no role in recommending the amount or form of director compensation.

What is the Role of Independent Compensation Consultants in Executive and Director Compensation Determinations?

In accordance with the Compensation and Leadership Committee's charter, the Committee has the sole authority, to the extent deemed necessary and appropriate, to retain and terminate any compensation consultants, outside counsel or other advisors, including the sole authority to approve the firm's or advisor's fees and other retention terms.

Table of Contents

In accordance with this authority, in 2008 and 2009, the Compensation and Leadership Committee retained Mercer ("Mercer") and beginning in September 2009 changed its consultant firm to Compensation Advisory Partners LLC ("Compensation Advisory Partners"). Each external independent consultant provided insight and advice on matters regarding trends in executive compensation, relative executive pay and benefits practices, relative assessment of pay of Motorola executives to performance, and other topics as the Compensation and Leadership Committee deemed appropriate. See "Independent Consultant Review of Executive Compensation" in "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" for further details on the compensation-related elements the Compensation and Leadership Committee requested be reviewed.

In the 2008, 2009 and 2010 independent reviews of Motorola's senior leadership team's compensation, performed by the consultant firm at the time, found that Motorola's current executive compensation programs are fundamentally competitive and sound. The Compensation and Leadership Committee intends to engage an external independent consultant to complete an exhaustive evaluation of the Company's executive rewards program on a periodic basis. The Compensation and Leadership Committee intends to engage an external independent consultant to review the specific compensation of the Co-CEOs and all members of the senior leadership team annually. The Compensation and Leadership Committee agreed with the consultants' studies' conclusions that no substantive revisions to the compensation programs are required.

In January 2010, the Committee engaged Compensation Advisory Partners to independently review Motorola's executive rewards program and the compensation of Motorola's senior leadership team, including the Named Executive Officers. Compensation Advisory Partners' 2010 executive compensation review studied: (1) the relationship between Motorola's actual 2008 senior executive compensation levels and the Company's performance using available proxy data at that time, (2) the competitiveness of Motorola's target executive pay program for 2009 in light of Motorola's executive compensation strategy, and (3) the competitiveness of Motorola's "pay mix", long-term incentive compensation ("LTI") mix, equity grants and LTI performance metrics compared to the market.

Compensation Advisory Partners reviewed the following compensation components in its competitive assessment: base salary; annual bonus (target annual bonus opportunity); total cash compensation (base salary + target annual bonus opportunity); LTI (long-range incentive compensation target opportunity plus equity compensation); and total direct compensation (total cash compensation + LTI).

See the "Independent Consultant Review of Executive Compensation" in the "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" for more information on consultant engagement.

What Role, if any, do Executive Officers Play in Determining or Recommending Executive and Director Compensation?

Motorola's senior leadership team, comprised of the Co-CEOs and certain executives designated by the Co-CEOs, provides recommendations regarding the design of the Company's compensation program to the Compensation and Leadership Committee. Additionally, the Committee's compensation consultant provides input on these recommendations from time to time. Upon Compensation and Leadership Committee approval, the senior leadership team is responsible for executing the objectives of the approved compensation program.

Each member of Motorola's senior leadership team is ultimately responsible for approving all compensation actions for their respective organizations. When these compensation actions involve other Motorola executives, the involved senior leadership team member is accountable for ensuring adherence to all established governance procedures.

The Co-CEOs are responsible for recommending all compensation actions involving any member of the senior leadership team or officer subject to Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (a "Section 16 Officer"), to the Compensation and Leadership Committee for its approval. The Co-CEOs take an active role in Compensation and Leadership Committee meetings at which compensation actions involving the above officers are discussed.

As discussed above, the Compensation and Leadership Committee directly engages an independent outside consulting firm to assist it in its review of the compensation for Motorola's senior leadership team. This consultant also participates in certain Committee meetings.

The Global Rewards department in Motorola's Human Resources organization, together with the Senior Vice President, Human Resources and the Committee's independent compensation consultant, prepares recommendations regarding Co-CEO compensation and brings those recommendations to the Compensation and Leadership Committee. Neither

PROXY STATEMENT 15

Co-CEO is involved in the preparation of recommendations related to his compensation and does not participate in the discussions regarding his compensation at Committee meetings. The consultant is also available at such meetings.

The Compensation and Leadership Committee is responsible for bringing recommended compensation actions involving each Co-CEO to the independent members of the Board for their concurrence. The Compensation and Leadership Committee cannot unilaterally approve compensation changes for the Co-CEOs.

As stated above, management does not recommend or determine director compensation.

What Are the Director Stock Ownership Guidelines?

Our Board Governance Guidelines provide that, within five years of joining the Board, directors are expected to own Motorola Common Stock with a value equivalent to at least four times the annual retainer fee for directors. For the purposes of these guidelines, Motorola Common Stock includes stock units.

How Are the Directors Compensated?

During 2009, the annual retainer fee paid to each non-employee director was $100,000. In addition: (1) the chair of the Audit and Legal Committee received an additional annual fee of $20,000; (2) the chair of the Compensation and Leadership Committee received an additional annual fee of $15,000; (3) the non-employee chairs of the other committees each received an additional annual fee of $10,000; and (4) the members of the Audit and Legal Committee, other than the chair, each received an additional annual fee of $5,000. Effective May 5, 2008, the non-employee Chairman of the Board received an additional annual fee of $280,000. The Company also reimburses its directors and, in certain circumstances, spouses who accompany directors, for travel, lodging and related expenses they incur in attending Board and committee meetings or other meetings as requested by Motorola.

A director may elect to receive all or a portion of his or her retainer and other fees in the form of deferred stock units.

Non-employee directors receive an annual grant of deferred stock units in the second quarter of the fiscal year. On May 7, 2009, each non-employee director received a deferred stock unit award of 19,293 shares of Common Stock. The number of deferred stock units awarded was determined by dividing $120,000 by the fair market value of a share of Common Stock on the date of grant (rounded up to the next whole number) based on the closing price on the date of grant. The deferred stock units are paid to the director in shares of Common Stock upon termination of service from the Motorola Board of Directors.

For a non-employee director who becomes a member of the Board of Directors after the annual grant of deferred stock units, the award will be pro-rated based on the number of months served ($10,000 per month) divided by the closing price of Motorola stock on the day of election to the Board.

As of January 1, 2006, non-employee directors are no longer eligible to participate in the Motorola Management Deferred Compensation Plan. Motorola does not currently have a non-equity incentive plan or pension plan for non-employee directors.

Non-employee directors do not receive any additional fees for attendance at meetings of the Board or its committees or for additional work done on behalf of the Board or a committee. Mr. Brown and Dr. Jha who are employees of Motorola, receive no additional compensation for serving on the Board or its committees. Further, Mr. Meredith did not receive any additional compensation for Board service while he was Acting Chief Financial Officer and an employee of the Company from April 1, 2007 until March 31, 2008.

Certain de minimis amounts (less than $50) were paid in cash in lieu of fractional shares.

The amounts shown in this column are earnings under the Motorola Management Deferred Compensation Plan that were in excess of the threshold for "above-market earnings". Pursuant to SEC rules, all earnings in 2009 in excess of 4.9% have been deemed "above market earnings". As of January 1, 2006, new non-employee directors were not eligible to participate in the plan. Dr. J. White is the only non-employee director who participates in the plan. Pursuant to SEC rules, all earnings on non-qualified deferred compensation in 2009 for Dr. J. White in excess of 4.9% are deemed "above market earnings."

Director Retirement Plan and Insurance Coverage

In 1996, the Board terminated its retirement plan. In 1998, Ms. Lewent, Mr. Scott and Dr. J. White, the only current directors with interests in the plan at the time of termination, converted their accrued benefits in the retirement plan into shares of restricted Common Stock. They may not sell or transfer these shares and these shares are subject to repurchase by Motorola until such directors are no longer members of the Board because either: (1) they do not stand for re-election or are not re-elected, or (2) their disability or death. Accordingly, there are no current non-employee directors entitled to receive payment of retirement benefits.

Non-employee directors are covered by insurance that provides accidental death and dismemberment coverage of $500,000 per person. The spouse of each such director is also covered by such insurance when traveling with the director on business trips for the Company. The Company pays the premiums for such insurance. The total premiums for coverage of all such non-employee directors and their spouses during the year ended December 31, 2009 was $2,660.

Related Person Transaction Policy and Procedures

The Company has established written policies and procedures (the "Related Person Transaction Policy" or the "Policy") to assist it in reviewing transactions in excess of $120,000 ("Transactions") involving Motorola and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Company") and Related Persons (as defined below). This Policy supplements the Company's other conflict of interest policies set forth in the Principles of Conduct for Members of the Motorola, Inc. Board of Directors and the Motorola Code of Business Conduct for employees and its other internal procedures. A summary description of the Related Person Transaction Policy is set forth below.

For purposes of the Related Person Transaction Policy, a Related Person includes the Company's directors, director nominees and executive officers since the beginning of the Company's last fiscal year, beneficial owners of 5% or more of any class of the Company's voting securities ("5% Holder") and members of their respective Immediate Family (as defined in the Policy).

The Policy provides that any Transaction since the beginning of the last fiscal year is to be promptly reported to the Company's General Counsel. The General Counsel will assist with gathering important information about the Transaction and present the information to the Board committee responsible for reviewing the Transaction. The appropriate Board committee will determine if the Transaction is a Related Person Transaction and approve, ratify or reject the Related Person Transaction. In approving, ratifying or rejecting a Related Person Transaction, the applicable committee will consider such information as it deems important to conclude if the transaction is fair to the Company. The Governance and Nominating Committee will make all determinations regarding transactions involving a director or director nominee. The Audit and Legal Committee will make all determinations involving an executive officer or 5% Holder.

During 2009, Motorola paid $200,000 to the United Football League (the "UFL") in sponsorship fees in connection with the UFL's 2009 premiere season. The Company received marketing opportunities with the UFL. William R. Hambrecht, a director of the Company, is a founder of, and has a controlling interest in, the UFL. Mr. Hambrecht did not participate in the negotiations between Motorola and the UFL with respect to the sponsorship and the arrangement was negotiated on an arm's length basis. Pursuant to the Related Person Transaction Policy, the arrangement was pre-approved by the Governance and Nominating Committee. Mr. Hambrecht's independence was not impaired by the transaction pursuant to the criteria set forth in the Motorola, Inc. Director Independence Guidelines.

The Company had no other Related Person Transactions in 2009.

What is the Process for Identifying and Evaluating Director Candidates?

As stated in the Motorola, Inc. Board Governance Guidelines, when selecting directors, the Board and the Governance and Nominating Committee review and consider many factors, including: experience in the context of the Board's needs; leadership qualities; diversity; ability to exercise sound judgment; existing time commitments; years to retirement age; and independence. It also considers ethical standards and integrity. The Governance and Nominating Committee annually assesses the effectiveness of its director nomination process and the Board Governance Guidelines.

The Governance and Nominating Committee will consider nominees recommended by Motorola stockholders provided that the recommendation contains sufficient information for the Governance and Nominating Committee to assess the suitability of the candidate, including the candidate's qualifications. Stockholder-recommended candidates that comply with these procedures will receive the same consideration that candidates recommended by the Committee and management receive as discussed above.

The Governance and Nominating Committee considers recommendations from many sources, including members of the Board, management and search firms. From time-to-time, Motorola hires global search firms to help identify and facilitate the screening and interview process of director candidates. The search firm screens candidates based on the Board's criteria, performs reference checks, prepares a biography for each candidate for the Committee's review and helps set up interviews. The Committee and the Chairman of the Board conduct interviews with candidates who meet the Board's criteria. The Committee has full discretion in considering its nominations to the Board.

PROPOSAL NO. 2

APPROVAL OF THE COMPANY'S OVERALL EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The Board of Directors has adopted a Corporate Governance Guideline to annually provide stockholders with the opportunity to endorse or not endorse the Company's executive compensation policies and procedures (commonly known as a "say-on-pay" vote) through consideration of the following non-binding advisory resolution:

"Resolved, that the stockholders approve the overall executive compensation policies and procedures employed by the Company, as described in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis regarding named executive officer compensation (together with the accompanying narrative disclosure) in this Proxy Statement."

Motorola's executive compensation policies and procedures are designed to attract, retain and motivate key individuals with competitive compensation differentiated for superior performers to correlate with such individuals' contributions to Company success. Motorola uses meaningful equity awards to provide compensation that is dependent on the Company's performance (or "at-risk") to align the interests of our executives and stockholders.

Because your vote is advisory, it will not be binding upon the Board. However, the Compensation Committee will take into account the outcome of the vote when considering future executive compensation arrangements.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE APPROVAL OF THE COMPANY'S OVERALL EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION POLICIES AND PROCEDURES. UNLESS OTHERWISE INDICATED ON YOUR PROXY, YOUR SHARES WILL BE VOTED FOR THE APPROVAL OF THE EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION POLICIES AND PROCEDURES.

PROPOSAL NO. 3

RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF KPMG LLP AS THE COMPANY'S INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM FOR 2010

The Audit and Legal Committee of the Board has appointed KPMG LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2010. Services provided to the Company and its subsidiaries by KPMG LLP in fiscal year 2009 are described under "Audit and Legal Committee Matters Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm Fees".

We are asking our stockholders to ratify the selection of KPMG LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm. Although ratification is not required by our Bylaws or otherwise, the Board is submitting the selection of KPMG LLP to our stockholders for ratification as a matter of good corporate practice.

Representatives of KPMG LLP will be present at the Annual Meeting to respond to appropriate questions and to make such statements as they may desire.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting will be required to ratify the selection of KPMG LLP. Abstentions will have the same effect as a vote "Against" the proposal.

Edgar Filing: MOTOROLA INC - Form DEF 14A

In the event stockholders do not ratify the appointment, the appointment will be reconsidered by the Audit and Legal Committee and the Board. Even if the selection is ratified, the Audit and Legal Committee in its discretion may select a different independent registered public accounting firm at any time during the year if it determines that such a change would be in the best interests of the Company and our stockholders.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF KPMG LLP AS THE COMPANY'S INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM FOR 2010. UNLESS OTHERWISE INDICATED ON YOUR PROXY, YOUR SHARES WILL BE VOTED FOR THE RATIFICATION OF KPMG LLP.

PROPOSAL NO. 4

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSAL RE: "SHAREHOLDER RESOLUTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS POLICY"

The Company has been advised that the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), the beneficial owner of 750 shares intends to submit the following proposal for consideration at the 2010 Annual Meeting. The following proposal has also been co-filed by The Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church and the Mercy Investment Program.

2010 Motorola Shareholder Resolution on Human Rights Policy

Whereas, Motorola, as a global corporation, faces increasingly complex problems as the international social, and cultural context within which Motorola operates changes.

Companies are faced with ethical and legal challenges arising from diverse cultures and political and economic contexts. Today, management must address issues that include human rights, workers' right to organize and bargain collectively, non-discrimination in the workplace, protection of the environment and sustainable community development. Motorola does business in countries with human rights challenges including China, Malaysia, Russia, and Israel and the occupied Palestinian territories.

Several international conventions, declarations and treaties set forth internationally recognized standards designed to protect human rights civil, political, social environmental, cultural and economic that should be reflected in Motorola's policies. These include the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the Fourth Geneva Convention, the Hague Conventions, International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the core labor standards of the International Labor Organization, and the International Covenant on Economic, Cultural and Social Rights. We believe that these documents will help inform Motorola's revision of its human rights policy. Also, United Nations resolutions and reports of the special rapporteurs on countries where Motorola does business, and "Norms on the Responsibilities of Transnational Corporations and Other Business Enterprises with Regard to Human Rights," adopted by the United Nations Sub-Commission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights in August 2003 are helpful, as are the comprehensive human rights policies developed for global companies found in "Principles for Global Corporate Responsibility: Bench Marks for Measuring Business Performance," developed by an international group of religious investors.

As companies formulate comprehensive policies, we believe significant commercial advantages may accrue through enhanced corporate reputation, improved employee recruitment and retention, improved community and stakeholder relations and reduced risk of adverse publicity, consumer boycotts, divestment campaigns and lawsuits.

RESOLVED, shareholders request the Board to amend, where applicable, within ten months of the 2010 Annual Meeting, Motorola's policies related to human rights that guide its international and U.S. operations to conform more fully with international human rights and humanitarian standards.

Supporting Statement

We believe Motorola's current human rights policies are limited in scope, and provide little or no guidance for determining business relationships where our products or services could entangle the company in human rights violations. Although we are not recommending any specific provision of the above-named documents be included in the revised policy, we believe that our company's policies should reflect a more comprehensive understanding of human rights.

Motorola should be able to assure shareholders that employees are treated fairly and with dignity wherever they work in the global economy. Going beyond internal practices, however, Motorola should be able to provide similar assurance that its products and services are not used in human rights violations. One element of ensuring compliance is utilization of independent monitors composed of respected local human rights, religious and non-governmental organizations that know local culture and conditions. We believe the adoption of a more comprehensive human rights policy, coupled with implementation, enforcement and independent monitoring, will assure shareholders of Motorola's global leadership.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE AGAINST ADOPTION OF THIS SHAREHOLDER PROPOSAL FOR THE REASONS SET FORTH BELOW. UNLESS OTHERWISE INDICATED ON YOUR PROXY, YOUR SHARES WILL BE VOTED AGAINST THE ADOPTION OF THIS PROPOSAL.

The Company agrees with the principles on which this proposal is based and already addresses the concerns it raises, making this proposal unnecessary. In fact, the Company already has in place a comprehensive set of policies and procedures that address human rights, which are designed to ensure that its operations worldwide are conducted using the highest standards of integrity and ethical business conduct applied uniformly and consistently.

The Company's policies include: the Motorola Code of Business Conduct, the Motorola Human Rights Policy, the Motorola Supplier Code of Conduct, and the Motorola Environment, Health & Safety Policy. These specific policies are based upon internationally recognized human rights standards, such as the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the core labor standards of the International Labour Organization, the United Nation's Global Compact, Social Accountability 8000 (SA 8000) standard, and the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises, to name a few.

The Company's policies reflect a comprehensive understanding of human rights and support the following important areas:

Compliance

Anti-corruption

No unfair business practices

Anti-discrimination

No forced labor

No child labor

No harsh or inhumane treatment

Freedom of association and collective bargaining

Fair working hours and wages

Safe and healthy working conditions

Environmental sustainability

As part of the Company's management practices, we periodically perform thorough reviews of the aforementioned policies and update them to keep them in alignment with internationally recognized human rights standards. Such a review was undertaken in 2008, and was informed by the international conventions, declarations and treaties cited in this proposal. The amended policies have been posted to our website.

The Board of Directors believes that the Company's policies effectively articulate our long-standing support for, and continued commitment to, human rights rendering the proposal duplicative and unnecessary. For these reasons and the others stated above, the Board of Directors recommends that you vote AGAINST the adoption of this shareholder-submitted proposal.

PROPOSAL NO. 5

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSAL RE: REINCORPORATE IN A SHAREOWNER-FRIENDLY STATE

The Company has been advised that Kenneth Steiner, the beneficial owner of 5,000 shares, intends to submit the following proposal for consideration at the 2010 Annual Meeting.

5 Reincorporate in a Shareowner-Friendly State

Resolved: That shareowners hereby request that our board of directors take the necessary steps to reincorporate the Company in North Dakota with articles of incorporation that provide that the Company is subject to the North Dakota Publicly Traded Corporations Act.

This proposal requests that our board initiate the process to reincorporate the Company in North Dakota under the new North Dakota Publicly Traded Corporations Act. If our company were subject to the North Dakota act there would be additional benefits:

There would be a right of proxy access for shareowners who owned 5% of our Company's shares for at least two years.

Shareowners would be reimbursed for their expenses in proxy contests to the extent they are successful.

Shareowners would vote each year on executive pay practices.

These provisions, together with others in the North Dakota act, would give us as shareowners more rights than are available under any other state corporation law. By reincorporating in North Dakota, our company would instantly have the best governance system available.

The merit of this Reincorporating in a Shareowner-Friendly State proposal should be considered in the context of the need for improvements in our company's 2009 reported corporate governance status:

The Corporate Library www.thecorporatelibrary.com, an independent investment research firm, rated our company "High Concern" in executive pay. Our company awarded our Co-CEO Sanjay Jha two mega-grants totaling $103 million. Mr. Jha would also receive $80 million with a change in control. This lucrative arrangement was formalized in the context of a 4,000-employee workforce reduction.

The members of our executive pay committee received 23% to 27% in against-votes: William Hambrecht, James Stengel, Judy Lewent and Samuel Scott. Our board was the only significant directorship for six of our directors. This could indicate a significant lack of current transferable director experience for one-half of our directors. John White, Judy Lewent and Samuel Scott had 14 to 16 years director tenure independence concern.

Our directors served on 7 boards rated "D" or "F" by the Corporate Library: David Dorman, CVS Caremark (CVS) and Yum! Brands (YUM); Douglas Warner, General Electric (GE); Samuel Scott, Abbott Laboratories (ABT) and Keith Meister (age 35), Federal-Mogul (FDML), WCI Communities (WCIMQ.PK) and XO Holdings (XOHO.OB).

We gave impressive 79%-support to a 2009 shareholder proposal for a shareholder right to call a special meeting. This 79% support even surpassed 58%-support from all shares outstanding.

The above concerns shows there is need for improvement. Reincorporation in North Dakota provides a way to switch to a vastly improved system of governance in a single step. And reincorporation in North Dakota does not require a major capital investment or layoffs to improve financial performance. Please encourage our board to respond positively to this proposal reincorporation in North Dakota Yes on 5.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE AGAINST ADOPTION OF THIS SHAREHOLDER PROPOSAL FOR THE REASONS SET FORTH BELOW. UNLESS OTHERWISE INDICATED ON YOUR PROXY, YOUR SHARES WILL BE VOTED AGAINST THE ADOPTION OF THIS PROPOSAL.

The Board of Directors believes that it is in the best interest of Motorola's stockholders to remain incorporated in the State of Delaware where it has been incorporated since 1973. More than 50% of all U.S. publicly traded companies and more than 60% of the Fortune 500 companies have chosen to be incorporated in Delaware. Delaware has adopted comprehensive, modern and flexible corporate laws which are frequently revised to respond to changing legal and business concerns. Delaware courts have established case law and expertise in resolving issues of corporate law, thereby creating greater legal predictability.

By contrast, the North Dakota Publicly Traded Corporations Act, which is essentially a collection of provisions favored by certain activists for their own agenda, has only been in effect since 2007 and there are very few publicly traded corporations incorporated in North Dakota. Reincorporating in a jurisdiction that is largely unproven, unfamiliar and based on specific activist agendas may have a serious adverse effect on commercial relationships, investor interest, director recruitment and stockholders' interests. Further, if reincorporated in North Dakota, the Company would be forced to litigate in a distant, unfamiliar, inexperienced and untested state, even if the matters did not arise there. The risks to the Company would be particularly heightened because North Dakota law is significantly different from any other state and the Model Business Corporation Act.

In reviewing each element of corporate governance, the Board does not believe a one-size-fits-all North Dakota approach is the most prudent for the Company. Unlike Delaware, North Dakota does not permit companies to decide for themselves which elements of corporate governance are best suited for their company and stockholders. This is particularly problematic on issues where even corporate governance experts have differing opinions.

The Board is committed to reviewing specific elements of its corporate governance and making changes when the Board deems them in the best interest of the Company and stockholders. Motorola has been a leading adopter of many corporate governance best-practices, thereby eliminating the proposed purpose for reincorporation. In fact, Motorola already adopted and has held its first annual stockholder advisory vote on executive pay practices (commonly known as a "say-on-pay"), which the proposal strangely seeks to adopt again by unnecessarily reincorporating in North Dakota.

The Board has determined that the unnecessary costs and unpredictability risks associated with reincorporating in North Dakota outweigh the proponent's argued benefits. Further, the Board has concluded that all of the perceived benefits from reincorporating in North Dakota can be obtained, without the costs and risks associated with reincorporation, by the Company with the tailored, deliberate approach to corporate governance that the Board currently maintains with Delaware incorporation. For these reasons and the others stated above, the Board of Directors recommends that you vote AGAINST the adoption of this shareholder-submitted proposal.

EQUITY COMPENSATION PLAN INFORMATION

The following table summarizes the Company's equity compensation plan information as of December 31, 2009. The table does not include information with respect to shares subject to outstanding options granted under equity compensation plans assumed by the Company in connection with mergers or acquisitions where the plans governing the options will not be used for future awards, as described below.

Plan Category	Number of securities to be issued upon exercise of outstanding options and rights (a)	Weighted-average exercise price of outstanding options and rights (b) ⁽¹⁾	Number of securities remaining available for future issuance under equity compensation plans (excluding securities reflected in column (a)) (c)
Equity compensation plans approved by Motorola stockholders	200,920,537 ^{(2),(3),(4)}	$12.22	136,664,085 ⁽⁵⁾
Equity compensation plans not approved by Motorola stockholders ^{(6),(7)}	16,059,269 ⁽⁸⁾	$10.04	0
Total	216,979,806	$12.02	136,664,085

- (1) The weighted-average exercise price does not include outstanding restricted or deferred stock units.
- (2) This includes shares subject to outstanding options granted under the Motorola Omnibus Incentive Plan of 2006 (the "2006 Plan") and prior stock incentive plans no longer in effect for new grants.
- (3) This also includes an aggregate of 54,898,271 restricted or deferred stock units that have been granted or accrued pursuant to dividend equivalent rights under the 2006 Plan and prior stock incentive plans which are no longer in effect for new grants. Each restricted or deferred stock unit is intended to be the economic equivalent of one share of Common Stock.
- (4) This does not include 834,459 outstanding stock appreciation rights ("SARs") of which 564,064 were granted under the 2006 Plan ("2006 Plan SARs") and 270,395 were granted under prior stock incentive plans that are no longer in effect for new grants ("Prior SARs"). These SARs enable the recipient to receive, for each SAR granted, a settlement amount equal to the excess of the fair market value of one share of Common Stock on the date the SAR is exercised over the fair market value of one share of Common Stock on the date the SAR was granted. The settlement amount for the Prior SARs may only be paid in cash. No security is issued upon the exercise of these Prior SARs. The settlement amount of the 2006 Plan SARs is payable in shares of Common Stock. Because the grant price of all 2006 Plan SARs is greater than the closing price of a share of Common Stock on December 31, 2009, these 2006 Plan SARs are not included in the above table.
- (5) Of these shares: (1) 76,188,685 shares remain available for future issuance under the Company's employee stock purchase plan, the Motorola Employee Stock Purchase Plan of 1999, as amended; and (2) an aggregate of 60,475,400 shares remain available for future issuance under the 2006 Plan. In addition to stock options, other equity benefits which may be granted under the 2006 Plan are SARs, restricted stock, restricted stock units, deferred stock units, performance shares and other stock awards. In addition, at the discretion of the Compensation and Leadership Committee, shares of Common Stock may be issued under the 2006 Plan in payment of awards under the Long-Range Incentive Plans.
- (6) The Company's non-stockholder approved plans are: (i) the Motorola Compensation/Acquisition Plan of 2000 (the "C/A Plan"), under which no further grants may be made, and (ii) the inducement exception plan pursuant to NYSE rules for awards granted to

Dr. Sanjay K. Jha, Co-Chief Executive Officer and Chief Executive Officer, Mobile Devices and Home business, pursuant to his employment agreement ("Jha Inducement Exception Awards"), under which no further grants may be made. Since its inception, the major purposes of the C/A Plan were to grant awards: (1) to persons newly hired by the Company, and (2) in connection with the acquisition of businesses. Otherwise, grants were generally made by the Company under the Company's stockholder approved incentive plans. Awards could not be made under the C/A Plan to directors or executive officers of the Company. The C/A Plan and the Jha Inducement Exception Awards are more fully described below.

As of December 31, 2009, there were 27,514 shares subject to outstanding stock options which had been assumed by the Company in connection with acquisition transactions, at a weighted average exercise price of $17.74. These options were issued under equity compensation plans of companies acquired by the Company. No additional options may be granted under these equity compensation plans. The table does not include information with respect to these assumed options.

(8)

This includes 1,444,950 restricted stock units granted to Dr. Jha as an Inducement Exception Award. Each restricted stock unit is intended to be the economic equivalent of one share of Common Stock.

Compensation/Acquisition Plan of 2000

The Motorola Compensation/Acquisition Plan of 2000 (the "C/A Plan") was initially adopted on November 7, 2000 by the Board of Directors. Upon the adoption of the 2006 Plan, no further grants may be made under the C/A Plan. The C/A Plan provided that awards could be granted to employees of the Company and its subsidiaries who were not executive officers or directors of the Company, in connection with its recruiting and retention efforts. From its inception, the major purposes of the C/A Plan were to grant awards: (1) to persons newly hired by the Company, and (2) in connection with the acquisition of businesses. The C/A Plan permitted the granting of stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock and restricted stock units, performance stock, performance units and other stock awards.

Awards included options to acquire shares of Common Stock, shares of restricted Common Stock and restricted stock units. Each option granted has an exercise price of 100% of the market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant. Generally, options expire 10 years from the date of grant and vest and become exercisable at 25% increments over four years. Awards of restricted stock or restricted stock units consist of shares or rights to shares of Common Stock. The restrictions on individual grants vary, but are designed so that the awards are subject to substantial risk of forfeiture by the employee.

Upon the occurrence of a change in control, each stock option outstanding on the date on which the change in control occurs, will immediately become exercisable in full. In addition, the restrictions on all shares of restricted stock or restricted stock units outstanding on the date on which the change in control occurs will be automatically terminated.

Jha Inducement Exception Awards

The Jha Inducement Exception Awards were made pursuant to the inducement award exception under the New York Stock Exchange rules to induce an executive officer to join the Company. These awards were granted to Dr. Sanjay K. Jha pursuant to his employment agreement and were made in order to attract and retain an executive of his unique caliber and experience. In light of the desire to grant Dr. Jha a significant amount of make-whole and inducement equity awards, the plan limits of the Motorola Omnibus Incentive Plan of 2006 were exceeded and the remaining amounts were granted under the Jha Inducement Exception Awards, consisting of: (i) restricted stock units corresponding to 2,167,422 shares of Common Stock, of which 722,472 restricted stock units vested on July 31, 2009 and the remaining 1,444,950 restricted stock units vest ratably on July 31, 2010 and July 31, 2011, subject to continued employment; and (ii) options to purchase 13,594,884 shares of Common Stock, of which 4,531,622 options became exercisable on July 31, 2009 and the remaining 9,063,262 options vest ratably on July 31, 2010 and July 31, 2011.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Introduction

In 2009, recognizing the challenging global economic and business climate, we implemented difficult rewards actions to suspend merit increases in most countries, freeze the U.S. defined benefit pension plan, and suspend the Company match of employee contributions to the U.S. 401(k) Plan. In January 2010, we made the decision to continue the suspension of annual salary increases in most countries, including the U.S. These tough decisions impacted substantially all employees, including the Named Executive Officers ("NEOs"). At the same time, we focused rewards programs to retain and motivate employees while providing a strong link between pay and performance and alignment to stockholders' interests.

Specifically, in 2009, we (1) increased focus on cash conservation as a performance goal for the 2009 Motorola Incentive Plan ("MIP"), (2) tailored the MIP goal criteria for each NEO to maximize business performance and recognize their Company-wide role, (3) adjusted the portfolio of long-term incentive vehicles so that awards to NEOs are optimized only when absolute stock price growth is combined with best-in-class performance against the Company's peers, particularly by amending the long-range incentive plan, (4) increased stock ownership guidelines for senior management to further align their interests with the interests of stockholders, and (5) implemented a stock option exchange program that provided a renewed stake in the Company and fostered retention for employees that participated in the program (none of the NEOs were eligible to participate in the program).

The Company is in a unique management situation under the leadership of two Co-CEOs. This situation is necessitated by anticipation of the separation of the Company into two independent, publicly traded companies. Significant compensation opportunities for our Co-CEOs, Mr. Brown and Dr. Jha, have been crafted to be contingent on our business strategy to separate into two independent, publicly traded companies, which remains a Company priority. Pursuant to their employment agreements, each Co-CEO has contingent equity awards that are only granted upon successful completion of the separation. The annual equity grants made to Mr. Brown in 2009 are linked to this business strategy, with the vesting of such awards tied to the timing of the separation. No annual equity grant was made to Dr. Jha in 2009, recognizing his accumulated awards, which provided necessary incentive for him to join Motorola.

Our Co-CEOs also recognize the challenging global economic and business climate. Both Mr. Brown and Dr. Jha voluntarily agreed to reduce their base salary by 25% from $1,200,000 to $900,000 during 2009 and 2010.

General Compensation Philosophy

Our general compensation philosophy is to provide world-class reward strategies and programs that attract, retain and motivate the right people, in the right places, at the right time. We strive to provide a total compensation package that is competitive with the prevailing practices for the industries and countries in which we operate, allowing for above average total compensation when justified by business results and individual performance.

Executive Compensation Guiding Principles

Our general compensation philosophy is further guided by the following principles specific to our executives:

a strong link between pay and performance both at the Company and the individual level;

the opportunity to receive total compensation above the prevailing market median for outstanding Company performance and the correlation of total compensation with the level of success achieved;

strongly differentiated pay for superior performers that is proportional to their contributions to the Company's success;

alignment of our executives' and our stockholders' interests to encourage management of the Company from the perspective of owners with a meaningful equity stake;

a competitive total rewards package that enables us to attract, motivate and retain high-performing talent and that is competitive with other large-cap, high-tech companies;

Edgar Filing: MOTOROLA INC - Form DEF 14A

appropriate incentives and compensation plans aligned with the Company's goals that avoid excessive risk taking and risk exposure;

retention of high performers through meaningful wealth creation opportunities; and a simple and cost-efficient program design.

Components of Our Compensation Program

The compensation program for our Named Executive Officers consists of:

- base salary;
- short-term incentives through our annual Motorola Incentive Plan (the "MIP");
- long-term incentives through our Long-Range Incentive Plans (the "LRIP") and equity grants;
- executive benefits and perquisites; and
- broad-based employee benefits.

With each component of our compensation program, we strive to align the interests of our executives with the interests of our stockholders by attracting and retaining qualified individuals, by focusing on short-term and long-term performance goals, by requiring significant ownership in the Company, and by linking individual performance to the Company's performance.

The Role of the Compensation and Leadership Committee and Executive Officers in Determining Compensation

Motorola's senior leadership team, comprised of the Co-Chief Executive Officers (each a "Co-CEO" and, together, the "Co-CEOs") and certain executives designated by the Co-CEOs, provides recommendations regarding the design of the Company's compensation program to the Compensation and Leadership Committee (the "Committee"). Additionally, the Committee's compensation consultant provides input on these recommendations from time to time. Upon Committee approval, the senior leadership team is responsible for executing the objectives of the approved compensation program. Each member of Motorola's senior leadership team approves all compensation actions for his or her respective part of the organization and is accountable for compliance with established governance procedures.

The Co-CEOs are responsible for recommending all compensation actions involving any member of the senior leadership team or any officer subject to Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (a "Section 16 Officer") to the Committee for its approval, including any modifications to their compensation. The Co-CEOs take an active role in Committee meetings at which compensation actions involving these officers are discussed. The Committee's independent compensation consultant, Compensation Advisory Partners LLC ("Compensation Advisory Partners"), previously consultants at Mercer, also participates in these Committee meetings.

The Global Rewards department in Motorola's Human Resources organization, together with our Senior Vice President, Human Resources and the Committee's independent compensation consultant, prepares recommendations regarding Co-CEO compensation for the Committee. Neither Co-CEO is involved in the preparation of recommendations related to his compensation and does not participate in the discussions regarding his compensation at Committee meetings. The Committee is responsible for bringing recommended compensation actions involving the Co-CEOs to the Board for its concurrence. The Committee cannot unilaterally approve compensation or compensation changes for the Co-CEOs without the Board's concurrence.

Our Compensation Mix

We measure the competitiveness of our total direct compensation (base salary + target short-term incentive opportunity + target long-term incentive opportunity) against high-tech market practices. In 2009, total direct compensation levels for each executive position are targeted at the 50th percentile of similar positions in our comparator group, consisting of 16 large-cap, high-tech companies. We structure our compensation mix to be market competitive for each compensation element. Both base salary and incentives (including annual and long-term incentives) are generally targeted at the 50th percentile of the comparator group, but the exact percentile may differ by individual.

However, as described in more detail below, the Committee, primarily on the recommendation of management for positions other than CEO, has the discretion to set total compensation above or below the targeted percentile of similar positions in our comparator group when the value of the individual's experience, performance and specific skill set justifies variation. As a result, competitively superior pay is awarded to those executives who earn it through performance, and the greatest retention value is invested in our strongest performers.

Edgar Filing: MOTOROLA INC - Form DEF 14A

The cost of our compensation program impacts our financial performance. As a result, we continue to remain focused on ensuring that our compensation program is optimized to motivate employees to improve our results on a cost-effective basis without encouraging excessive risk taking.

We also recognize the need to balance the components of our compensation program appropriately depending on an individual's position and ability to impact the Company's results. Accordingly, our compensation program is generally structured so that more than three-fourths of our Named Executive Officer's targeted total compensation is "at risk" (in the form of equity grants and awards under LRIP and MIP) and is dependent upon the Company's results and stock price.

30 PROXY STATEMENT

Annually, at the beginning of each year when the Committee reviews salary increases for that year, the Committee reviews an outline of each element of compensation granted and total overall compensation for each member of the senior leadership team. In early 2010, the Committee reviewed the total compensation outline provided by Compensation Advisory Partners.

The compensation package for Dr. Sanjay Jha is an exception to the Company's general pay mix principle. Unique circumstances demanded the Company attract a top quality leader for our Mobile Devices business, particularly in light of the planned separation of Motorola into two independent, publicly traded companies. The Committee determined it was necessary to have a competitive and compelling compensation package involving a significant amount of "at-risk" equity awards. Attracting Dr. Jha to Motorola required both guaranteeing certain elements of compensation and also providing inducements to take on the additional risk of leading a turnaround. We believe Dr. Jha will successfully lead the Mobile Devices business during its transition and is one of very few industry leaders qualified to meet this challenge. Due to the weak economic environment, the planned separation of the Company into two independent, publicly traded companies was delayed and the Company announced on February 11, 2010 that the separation is now expected to be completed in the first quarter of 2011. These unique circumstances required amendments to the terms of Dr. Jha's original employment agreement to ensure that economic incentives were aligned to incent Dr. Jha to remain at the Company. On February 11, 2010, Dr. Jha's employment agreement was amended to extend the date by which the separation was previously expected to be completed. For further details see "Employment Agreement with Sanjay K. Jha".

The Impact of Compensation Amounts Realizable on the Other Elements of Compensation

We deliberately design our compensation program to attract, retain and motivate high-quality talent. In making compensation decisions, the Committee reviews and benchmarks total compensation against our comparator group. We follow a policy of ensuring that total compensation, as well as each element comprising total compensation, is competitive. As a result, we do not specifically limit one element of compensation in response to the amounts potentially realizable under other compensation elements. However, we place certain limits on benefits available under our life and disability plans and our investment plans, including our pension plans, while ensuring competitiveness in the marketplace. Our "qualified" plans are also subject to IRS limits.

Compensation Benchmarking

The individual elements, as well as the total direct compensation, of our rewards program for Named Executive Officers are benchmarked against our comparator group. We strive to award both competitive forms of compensation (base salary, short-term incentive compensation and long-term incentive compensation) and to ensure that the individual elements comprising our compensation are competitively positioned in the marketplace.

Our comparator group consists of 16 large-cap, high-tech companies that, in the aggregate, both the Company and the Committee believe best represent our portfolio of businesses and our competition for executive talent. We believe using our comparator group for our Named Executive Officers in the United States is an appropriate method to understand the executive talent market in which we must compete to attract and retain top-quality talent. The Committee reviews the composition of the comparator group annually to determine if any changes are necessary. Since 2000, we have sought to more closely align our compensation program with that of our large-cap, high-tech peers.

In 2009, our comparator group consisted of the following companies: Alcatel-Lucent, Apple, Inc., Cisco Systems, Inc., Dell Inc., EMC Corp., LM Ericsson Telephone Co., Hewlett Packard Co., Intel Corp., International Business Machines Corp., Microsoft Corp., Nokia Corp., Nortel Networks Corp., Oracle Corp., QUALCOMM Inc., Sun Microsystems, Inc. and Texas Instruments Inc. Based upon the markets in which we compete for executive talent within our industries, the Committee approved our comparator group, and Mercer, the Committee's compensation consultant at the time, confirmed that the companies comprising the comparator group were appropriate.

In addition to our comparator group data, we also gather and analyze supplemental compensation market data from multiple survey sources in order to obtain a more complete picture of the overall compensation environment for the broader executive group and, from time to time, for the Named Executive Officers. During 2009, we utilized supplemental data for some of the Named Executive Officers that was gathered from the following survey sources:

Cash Compensation and Long-Term Incentive Compensation Survey Sources

CHiPS Executive & Senior Management Total Compensation Survey, published by Pearl Meyer & Partners, a Clark Consulting Practice;

Table of Contents

PROXY STATEMENT 31

Radford Executive Survey Custom Compensation Report, published by Radford, an Aon company; and 2009 US Global Premium Executive Remuneration Suite, published by Mercer.

Because these surveys contain competitive compensation market data on a number of companies spanning a number of different industries, our market analysis involves narrowing the available data to "cuts" that most accurately reflect our competitive labor market.

The "data cuts" for the supplemental data used for some of the Named Executive Officers during 2009 were:

the 16 large-cap, high-tech companies that comprise our comparator company group and participate in the above surveys;

an expanded comparator company group that includes other high-tech companies (e.g., Google Inc., Palm, Inc., Advanced Micro Devices Inc.); technology companies generally with annual revenue greater than $1 billion; and large-cap companies with annual revenue in the $1 billion to $50 billion range.

We strongly believe in engaging the best talent for critical functions, which may require negotiations with individual executives who have significant retention packages in place with other employers. In order to compensate these individuals for the compensation that they would forfeit by terminating their then-current employment, the Committee, on the recommendation of management, may determine that it is in the Company's best interest to offer compensation packages that deviate from our general compensation principles in order to recruit executive talent.

The Committee, on the recommendation of management, may determine it is appropriate to provide certain individuals with compensation outside of our normal cycles. The Committee makes such decisions based on:

increased responsibilities or job changes related to shifts in our strategic priorities, retention of critical talent, and strategic investment in individuals identified as candidates for our leadership succession plans.

Accordingly, for some Named Executive Officers, the individual compensation elements are above and below the target of the 50th percentile. In determining actual compensation for a Named Executive Officer, the Committee considers such Named Executive Officer's role, responsibilities, experience, performance, and skill set in making its judgment of the Named Executive Officer's value to our Company and in the marketplace. These determinations are generally subjective, and the Committee does not rely on formulaic weighting of these factors in making its compensation decisions. Rather, the Committee uses these factors to provide an overall context for its decisions on specific elements of compensation.

Independent Consultant Review of Executive Compensation

The Committee has the discretion, to the extent deemed necessary and appropriate, to retain and terminate compensation consultants, outside counsel or other advisors, including the sole authority to approve fees and other retention terms for any such consultant, counsel or advisor. The Committee's practice is to engage an external independent consultant to complete an evaluation of our compensation program on a periodic basis, typically every one or two years, and to annually review the specific compensation of our Co-CEOs and our Co-CEOs' senior leadership team. During 2009, the Committee chose to engage a new compensation consulting firm (discussed further below), a decision solely made by the Committee without recommendation from management.

The Committee's compensation consultant has been Compensation Advisory Partners since September 2009. Compensation Advisory Partners is independent from the Company and reports directly to the Chair of the Committee. The Committee's current compensation consultants from Compensation Advisory Partners also served as the Committee's consultant as employees of Mercer up until September 2009.

Edgar Filing: MOTOROLA INC - Form DEF 14A

The Committee believes that Compensation Advisory Partners is the appropriate consultant to review and assist in the development of our compensation program. Compensation Advisory Partners does not have any other business relationships with the Company and no additional business relationships are expected in the future. When appropriate, the Committee has discussions with Compensation Advisory Partners without management present to protect impartiality.

Prior to September 2009, the Committee's compensation consultant was Mercer. The Company's 2009 expenditures with Marsh & McLennan Companies, which includes affiliates of Mercer, were approximately $2.1 million, of which approximately 8% or $170,000 was paid to Mercer for work with the Committee and 92% or $1.93 million was paid to Marsh & McLennan affiliates for other work.

Management reports to the Committee regarding any fees for unrelated services and products purchased from Mercer, but the Committee does not preapprove such services. The most recent review took place in July 2009. The Committee reviewed the services Mercer provided Motorola and other matters of judgment to ensure Mercer's objectivity in advising the Committee.

2010 Executive Compensation Review

In January 2010, the Committee engaged Compensation Advisory Partners to independently review our executive rewards program and the compensation of our senior leadership team, including the Named Executive Officers. Compensation Advisory Partners' 2010 executive compensation review studied: (1) the relationship between our actual 2008 senior executive compensation levels and the Company's performance using available proxy data at that time, (2) the competitiveness of our target executive pay program for 2009 in light of our executive compensation strategy, and (3) the competitiveness of our "pay mix", long-term incentive compensation ("LTI") mix, equity grants and LTI performance metrics compared to the market.

Compensation Advisory Partners reviewed the following compensation components in its competitive assessment:

base salary;

annual bonus (target annual bonus opportunity);

total cash compensation (base salary + target annual bonus opportunity);

LTI (long-range incentive compensation target opportunity plus equity compensation); and total direct compensation (total cash compensation + LTI).

Compensation Advisory Partners relied on the peer company proxy data to determine the competitive positioning for our compensation relative to the market for our Named Executive Officers. Each position reviewed matched the market and was reviewed based on position, responsibility and the scope of the business for which the position was responsible.

Pay and Performance Relationship

Compensation Advisory Partners' study found that our compensation structure is highly leveraged so that strong Company performance leads to above-market pay and weak Company performance results in below-market pay. Compensation Advisory Partners found that, overall, Motorola's business-based performance on select metrics was below the 25th percentile of our peers for 2008 based on twelve key financial metrics of success.

Compensation Advisory Partners also found that actual total cash compensation (2008 base salaries plus 2008 actual bonus) for our current named executive officers that were also in the 2008 Proxy Statement was below the 25th percentile of the competitive market and aligned with performance. Our total compensation (cash and equity) on a present value basis (2008 base salary plus 2008 actual bonus and 2009 LTI value), was generally between the median and 75th percentile of the peer group.

2009 Target Pay Levels Relative to Market and Compensation Strategy

Compensation Advisory Partners' study found that for the Named Executive Officers:

Competitive benchmarking results show that our target total compensation program is generally positioned between the market median and the 65th percentile.

Base salaries and target annual cash compensation opportunities are below the market median.

Long-term incentives approximate the 65th percentile.

2009 Pay Mix and Program Provisions Compared to the Market

Edgar Filing: MOTOROLA INC - Form DEF 14A

Compensation Advisory Partners' study found that:

Our total target pay mix has a slightly greater emphasis on the LTI component, due to promotion-related awards granted to the Named Executive Officers during 2009; when the promotion-related awards are excluded, the pay mix is more in line with peers. Our LTI mix is fairly well aligned to peers when excluding the promotional awards made in 2009.

Our annual equity use (run rate) increased in 2009 and exceeded the 75th percentile of our peer group. This is due in large part to a lower Motorola stock price and the stock option exchange program that took place during 2009.

Beginning in 2009, we shifted our pay philosophy from targeting the 65th percentile to targeting the market median for total direct compensation levels as well as each individual component. As we continue the shift to a median pay philosophy, as our Named Executive Officer population stabilizes, and as we continue to shift to a consistent mix of LTI vehicles, we expect our actual pay to be better aligned with actual performance and target pay levels and pay mix to approximate the median of our peer group.

The Committee agreed with the conclusions from Compensation Advisory Partners study and, as discussed below, relied on the study's findings in setting the 2010 compensation levels for our senior leadership team.

PROXY STATEMENT 33

Base Salary

Base salary levels for each Named Executive Officer are generally targeted at the 50th percentile of the comparator group, but the exact percentile may differ by individual. As such, the base salaries for our senior leadership team, including the Named Executive Officers, were established in accordance with an external market competitiveness analysis by Compensation Advisory Partners. As previously described, the Committee, on the recommendation of management, has the discretion to deviate from the targeted percentile range when a Named Executive Officer's experience, performance and specific skill set justifies variation. In January 2009 and January 2010, in response to economic realities, annual salary increases were not provided to employees, including the Named Executive Officers, in the United States and most other countries, except when warranted for promotions.

Mr. Brown's Base Salary

In late 2008, Mr. Brown voluntarily agreed to reduce his base salary for 2009 by 25% from $1,200,000 to $900,000. In January 2010, Mr. Brown voluntarily agreed to have his base salary remain at the reduced level of $900,000 for 2010.

Dr. Jha's Base Salary

In late 2008, Dr. Jha voluntarily agreed to reduce his base salary for 2009 by 25% from $1,200,000 to $900,000. In January 2010, Dr. Jha voluntarily agreed to have his base salary remain at the reduced level of $900,000 for 2010.

Mr. Fitzpatrick's Base Salary

In January 2009, Mr. Fitzpatrick's base salary increased from $253,000 to $400,000 in connection with his promotion to Senior Vice President, Corporate Controller. In February 2009, Mr. Fitzpatrick was named Senior Vice President, Corporate Controller and Acting Chief Financial Officer, but no base salary or other compensation actions were taken. Effective October 2009, Mr. Fitzpatrick's base salary increased from $400,000 to $450,000 in connection with his promotion to Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. In January 2010, the Committee decided that Mr. Fitzpatrick's base salary of $450,000 would not be increased at that time.

Mr. Liska's Base Salary

Mr. Liska's annual base salary was $750,000 in 2009. On February 2, 2009, Mr. Liska was replaced as Chief Financial Officer and ceased to be an executive officer. On February 19, 2009, Mr. Liska was terminated from the Company. For a discussion of Mr. Liska's termination, see "Employment Offer Agreement with and Termination of Paul J. Liska".

Mr. Delaney's Base Salary

In January 2009, Mr. Delaney's base salary increased from $510,000 to $575,000 in connection with his promotion to Executive Vice President, Enterprise Mobility Solutions. In January 2010, the Committee decided that Mr. Delaney's base salary of $575,000 would not be increased at that time.

Mr. Moloney's Base Salary

Mr. Moloney's annual base salary was $600,000 in 2007, 2008, and 2009. In January 2010, the Committee decided that Mr. Moloney's base salary would not be increased at that time. On March 5, 2010, Mr. Moloney left the Company.

Mr. Lawson's Base Salary

Mr. Lawson's annual base salary was $540,000 in 2007, 2008, and 2009. In January 2010, the Committee decided that Mr. Lawson's base salary would not be increased at that time.

Short-Term Incentives

Edgar Filing: MOTOROLA INC - Form DEF 14A

The Motorola Incentive Plan ("MIP") is a cash-based, pay-for-performance annual incentive plan that was initiated in January 2002 and applies to all of our regular employees (excluding those employees participating in a sales incentive plan), including the Named Executive Officers. This discussion of MIP relates to MIP awards granted in 2009 under the 2009 MIP Plan approved by the Committee in March 2009 (the "2009 MIP"). For information regarding the impact of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code on awards granted under MIP, see the discussion set forth under "The Impact of Favorable Accounting and Tax Treatment on Compensation Program Design".

Similar to many of our competitors, we use our annual incentive plan, MIP, to reward employees for their contributions to strong annual business performance. Through MIP, we strive to promote teamwork and strengthen our financial performance. Moreover, MIP supports our goals of: attracting and retaining the talent we need to succeed; focusing employees' attention on critical business goals; sharing the financial benefits of superior performance; and providing pay that is competitive with our comparator companies.

MIP Incentive Formula

The payout value of awards under MIP is based on the following incentive formula:

MIP Individual Incentive Target

The MIP Individual Incentive Targets are based on market-competitive data and are established as a percentage of eligible earnings (generally, base salary). At the beginning of each year, the Committee designates individual target levels for each of our Named Executive Officers. For 2009, Individual Incentive Targets for each Named Executive Officer were generally targeted at the 50th percentile of the comparator group, but the exact percentile may differ by individual.

For 2009, the Individual Incentive Targets for our Named Executive Officers ranged from 75% to 220% of base salary, depending on the responsibilities of each individual's position, as set forth below:

Named Executive Officer	Individual MIP Target as % of Base Salary
Mr. Brown	220%
Dr. Jha	200% ⁽¹⁾
Mr. Fitzpatrick	75%
Mr. Liska	n/a ⁽²⁾
Mr. Delaney	95%
Mr. Moloney	95%
Mr. Lawson	95%

- (1) Pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, Dr. Jha was entitled to a minimum 2009 MIP award of $1,200,000.
- (2) Mr. Liska was not eligible for the 2009 MIP.

The Individual Incentive Targets for our Named Executive Officers were established by the Committee based on Mercer's market competitiveness analysis in January 2009.

MIP Business Performance Factor

At the beginning of each year, the Committee establishes MIP-related Business Performance Factor targets for both the Company as a whole and for specified business units. For 2009, due in large part to the challenging macroeconomic environment and difficult business conditions, the Committee placed an increased focus on cash conservation by applying a higher weighting (35%) to the Business Performance Factor relating to cash flow than it had in previous years. For 2009, in general, the Business Performance Factor applicable to employees in each of our businesses was based on the performance of their particular business unit against the established performance targets. For corporate employees, the Business Performance Factor was based on the performance of total Motorola against the established performance targets.

The 2009 MIP Business Performance Factors for each of our Co-CEOs had one component based on the performance of the Broadband Mobility Solutions ("BMS") business, which is led by Mr. Brown, and one component based on the performance of the Mobile Devices ("MDb") business, which is led by Dr. Jha. The performance metrics necessary to achieve the minimum, maximum and target payouts applicable to each of these businesses were the same for each of the Co-CEOs. In the case of both Mr. Brown and Dr. Jha, their Business Performance Factor had a higher weighting (70%) on the performance of the business led by the particular Co-CEO, reflecting the fact that the Co-CEO had the greatest impact on the results of his own business. Although each Co-CEO has a lower weighting (30%) placed on the performance of the business he does not lead, the performance of that business was included in his Business Performance Factor due to his ability to impact the performance of total Motorola. Dr. Jha's actual 2009 MIP award of $1,200,000 reflects the minimum payment he was guaranteed pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, as amended.

The 2009 MIP Business Performance Factor for Mr. Delaney and Mr. Moloney was weighted 70% on the performance of the BMS business (which, in 2009, included the Enterprise Mobility Solutions business led by Mr. Delaney and the Home and Networks business led by Mr. Moloney) and was weighted 30% on the performance of the MDb business. Although greater weight was placed on the BMS business, where Mr. Delaney and Mr. Moloney are able to have a more direct impact on business performance, the performance of the MDb business was included in their Business Performance Factor due to their ability to impact the performance of total Motorola. In addition, because Mr. Delaney and Mr. Moloney have a more indirect impact on the performance of the MDb business, the performance metrics necessary for them to achieve the minimum, maximum and target payouts applicable to the MDb component of their Business Performance Factor vary from those applicable to the Co-CEOs and MDb employees.

Since they are corporate employees with responsibilities that relate equally to all Motorola businesses, the 2009 MIP Business Performance Factor for Mr. Fitzpatrick and Mr. Lawson is based on the performance of total Motorola (i.e., BMS+MDb) against the established performance targets for total Motorola.

PROXY STATEMENT 35

In 2009, the MIP Business Performance Factor measures and their relative weights for the NEOs were:

Operating Earnings (65% weight): which is calculated as operating earnings according to generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), excluding the effect of the following items: (i) reorganization, asset impairment, extraordinary, unusual and/or non-recurring items of gain or loss, separately identified in the Company's quarterly earnings press releases, (ii) changes in tax or accounting regulations or laws, (iii) the effect of discontinued operations, (iv) the effect of a significant merger or acquisition, and (v) expenses related to the issuance of employee stock options and MOTshare, intangible amortization, and unallocated incentive and function costs.

Controllable Free Cash Flow (35% weight): which is calculated as operating cash flow according to GAAP, excluding cash flow related to: (i) income taxes, (ii) non- operating income or expense, and (iii) unallocated incentive and function costs, less Capital Expenditures. (A Capital Expenditure is defined as the original cost of acquiring property, plant and equipment, as reported in the investing section of the cash flow statement per GAAP).

The following tables set forth the minimum, maximum and target levels for each of the 2009 MIP Business Performance measures that pertain to each of the Named Executive Officers, as well as the actual 2009 performance levels. Assuming business performance meets the minimum threshold for a payout, the Business Performance Factor formula allows for a range of 20% of the established target award level (at the minimum level of performance) to 130% of the established target award level (at the maximum level of performance).

The BMS+MDb actual 2009 performance with relation to the Operating Earnings measure fell below target performance but above the minimum performance threshold and, accordingly, contributed to a below-target payout. The BMS+MDb actual 2009 performance with relation to the Controllable Free Cash Flow measure also fell below target performance but above the minimum performance threshold and, accordingly, contributed to a below-target payout.

The BMS actual 2009 performance with relation to the Operating Earnings measure fell below target performance but above the minimum performance threshold and, accordingly, contributed to a below-target payout. The BMS actual 2009 performance with relation to the Controllable Free Cash Flow measure also fell below the target performance but above the minimum performance threshold and, accordingly, contributed to a below-target payout.

The MDb actual 2009 performance with relation to the Operating Earnings measure fell below the minimum performance threshold. The MDb actual 2009 performance with relation to the Controllable Free Cash Flow measure also fell below the minimum performance threshold.

Given the improved performance of MDb, management recommended and the Compensation Committee of the Board acted to exercise discretion in determining the final MIP Business Performance Factors for all businesses. Although the financial performance of MDb in 2009 was below the levels required to generate a payout, management and the Committee felt it was appropriate to recognize the efforts of MDb employees to improve cost structure, strengthen operations, reduce product platforms, simplify processes and deliver two Android-based smartphone families on time and with high levels of customer satisfaction. As a result, the business performance factor for MDb was adjusted upward for MDb employees and the Co-CEOs.

MIP Individual Performance Factor

The MIP Individual Performance Factor gives the Committee the ability to adjust the awards, which are formula-driven based on business results, according to an individual's contribution to the Company's success. We believe that the most effective performance management process establishes a tight and clear link between individual and organizational goals and performance. We strive to establish a clear line of sight between our performance management process and our business strategy. Individual performance is measured by both what an individual accomplishes (goal achievement) and how the individual accomplishes those goals (behaviors).

Since not all Named Executive Officers perform at the same level, nor contribute equally to the metrics used to determine the MIP Business Performance Factors, the Committee has the discretion to adjust awards to account for these differences in individual contribution and performance. We believe that this discretion results in a stronger pay-for-performance culture. Individual Performance adjustments are made by the Committee based on its determination of how much to differentiate among individual participants. Individual Performance multipliers for our Named Executive Officers range from 0% (no award paid) for poor performance to 130% (130% of the formula-driven award) for exceptional performance, demonstrating our commitment to strongly differentiate rewards for superior performers.

PROXY STATEMENT 37

The Committee determined that the 2009 MIP payouts for the Named Executive Officers would not be increased or decreased from the resulting Business Performance Factor and the Individual Performance Factor was set at 1.0 or 100% for each of the Named Executive Officers, with an exception for Mr. Fitzpatrick, whose Individual Performance Factor was set at a higher level to more accurately reflect his contributions during 2009 and the market competitive incentive opportunity commensurate with his role.

Based on the 2009 Business Performance Factors and the 2009 Individual Performance multiplier, the actual 2009 MIP award and the target 2009 MIP award for each of our Named Executive Officers are set forth in the following table:

Named Executive Officer	Target 2009 MIP Award	Actual 2009 MIP Award
Mr. Brown	$1,992,693	$836,931
Dr. Jha	$1,811,538	$1,200,000⁽¹⁾
Mr. Fitzpatrick	$298,985	$189,357
Mr. Liska	n/a ⁽²⁾	n/a⁽²⁾
Mr. Delaney	$541,024	$270,512
Mr. Moloney	$570,000	$285,000
Mr. Lawson	$513,000	$256,500

(1) Pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, Dr. Jha was entitled to a minimum 2009 MIP award of $1,200,000.

(2) Mr. Liska was not eligible for a 2009 MIP award.

Mr. Brown's 2009 MIP Individual Incentive Targets

In 2008, Mr. Brown's MIP target was 220% of his eligible earnings. In addition, as acting head of the Mobile Devices business, Mr. Brown was also eligible for a special 2008 MIP award in the amount of 130% of his eligible earnings. In December 2008, Mr. Brown voluntarily decided to forego any 2008 bonuses under MIP.

In 2009, the Committee set Mr. Brown's 2009 MIP target at 220%, the minimum rate per his employment agreement.

Dr. Jha's 2009 MIP Individual Incentive Targets

Pursuant to Dr. Jha's employment agreement, his annual bonus target is 200% of base salary with a 2009 minimum bonus of $1,200,000.

Long-Term Incentives ("LTI")

Our LTI programs are designed to encourage creation of long-term value for our stockholders, promote employee retention and encourage stock ownership. These programs include: (1) the LRIP, (2) grants of stock options, and (3) grants of restricted stock units or other equity.

Many of our employees participate in one or more of our LTI programs, which we believe promote a focus on long-term results and align employee and stockholder interests. In designing and refining our programs, we carefully consider the impact of equity expensing, actions taken by our comparator group to reduce the use of stock options, and our dilution and overhang levels. As a result, our equity programs were redeveloped in 2008 in the interest of achieving the appropriate balance between cost competitiveness and maintaining employee incentive, by replacing stock options with restricted stock units for the annual equity grant to those below the vice president level. In 2009, a one-time stock option exchange program was implemented to provide improved employee retention and engagement. The exchange program restored economic value to certain stock options held by certain employees at an insignificant cost to Motorola. None of the Named Executive Officers were eligible to participate in the Stock Option Exchange Program.

For 2009, LTI levels for our Named Executive Officers were generally targeted at the 50th percentile of the comparator group (although the exact percentile may differ by individual) and were established based on a market competitiveness analysis by Mercer from January 2009.

Edgar Filing: MOTOROLA INC - Form DEF 14A

Our Named Executive Officers receive a large proportion of their overall targeted compensation (approximately two-thirds) in the form of LTI in order to align their interests with those of stockholders and to promote a focus on long-term results. In 2009, the LTI mix was reallocated for consistency in the mix of LTI vehicles to our Named Executive Officers and refocused on LTI vehicles that incent either absolute stock price performance or relative total shareholder return performance over a three-year period. The LTI for the Named Executive Officers were designed to deliver total LTI value equally amongst three LTI vehicles. The 2009 LRIP (discussed below) was designed to pay for Motorola's three-year total shareholder return versus the peer group, which emphasizes the importance of winning in the marketplace. Stock options and restricted stock units pay for absolute stock price performance. The wealth creation of these vehicles are only maximized when absolute stock price growth is combined with best-in-class performance against the Company's peers.

Long-Range Incentive Plan

The LRIP is a pay-for-performance, multi-year incentive plan. A three-year cycle started on January 1, 2008 and will conclude on December 31, 2010 and another three-year cycle started on January 1, 2009 and will conclude on December 31, 2011. On April 21, 2008, the Compensation and Leadership Committee of the Board of Directors of Motorola, Inc. approved the cancellation of the January 1, 2007 to December 31, 2009 (2007-2009) performance cycle under the Company's Long-Range Incentive Plan of 2006 without the payment of awards for such performance cycle. This cycle, together with a previous cycle, was cancelled due to the poor performance of the Company versus the established plan goals and metrics and there were no new awards granted in their place. As a result, there were no LRIP payouts in 2009.

Table of Contents

38 PROXY STATEMENT

Participation in the LRIP is limited to our elected officers including all Named Executive Officers and corporate, senior and executive vice presidents (approximately 90 participants in total).

2009-2011 LRIP

The 2009-2011 LRIP program was redesigned to solely focus on Motorola's three year total shareholder return relative to the three year total shareholder return of the peer group. The relative total shareholder performance that is incented by this plan is one component of the portfolio of LTI vehicles discussed above.

2009-2011 LRIP Incentive Formula

The payout value of awards under the LRIP is based on the following incentive formula:

2009-2011 LRIP Individual Incentive Targets

The LRIP Individual Incentive Targets are based on market-competitive data and are established as a percentage of base salary at the start of a performance cycle. The Committee designates target levels for all LRIP participants. For the LRIP cycle beginning in 2009, the Individual Incentive Targets for our Named Executive Officers ranged from 87.5% to 350% of base salary at the start of the performance cycle, depending on the responsibilities of each individual's position, as set forth below:

Named Executive Officer	Individual LRIP Target as % of Base Salary
	2009-2011
Mr. Brown	350% ⁽¹⁾
Dr. Jha	n/a ⁽²⁾
Mr. Fitzpatrick	87.50% ⁽³⁾
Mr. Liska	n/a ⁽⁴⁾
Mr. Delaney	185%
Mr. Moloney	185% ⁽⁵⁾
Mr. Lawson	185%

- (1) The Committee decided, with the independent Board members' concurrence, to maintain Mr. Brown's 2009 LRIP target at 350%. The terms of Mr. Brown's employment agreement required that his 2009 LRIP target be not less than 250%.
- (2) Pursuant to the terms of his amended employment agreement, Dr. Jha was not eligible to participate in the 2009-2011 cycle of LRIP.
- (3) Mr. Fitzpatrick's 2009 LRIP target has been prorated to account for participation at lower levels prior to his current role.
- (4) Mr. Liska was not eligible for the 2009-2011 LRIP cycle.
- (5) In connection with Mr. Moloney's departure from the Company on March 5, 2010, he forfeited any award under LRIP.

TSR Rank Payout Factor

The TSR Rank Payout Factor is calculated in a two step process:

Edgar Filing: MOTOROLA INC - Form DEF 14A

Step 1: Measure the three-year total shareholder return ("TSR") for Motorola and each of the companies in the peer group to determine the Relative TSR Payout Factor to be used for the LRIP cycle.

For 2009 LRIP purposes, TSR is calculated as follows:

$$\begin{aligned} & \text{Ending share price} \\ & \text{(Daily average during the final three months of the Performance Cycle)} \\ + & \text{ Value of reinvested dividends} \\ \\ = & \text{ Total ending value} \\ \\ - & \text{ Beginning share price} \\ & \text{(Daily average during the three months preceding the Performance Cycle)} \\ \\ = & \text{ Total value created} \\ \\ \div & \text{ Beginning share price} \\ = & \text{ Total shareholder return} \end{aligned}$$

For 2009 LRIP purposes, the peer group is as follows:

Alcatel-Lucent (ALU)	LM Ericsson Telephone Co.
Apple Inc. (AAPL)	(ERIC)
Cisco Systems, Inc. (CSCO)	Microsoft Corporation (MSFT)
Dell Inc. (DELL)	Nokia Corp. (NOK)

2008-2010 LRIP

The 2008-2010 LRIP program was designed to focus on creating shareholder value through stock price goals and a "haircut" reduction if total shareholder return relative to peers is below the 55th percentile.

2008-2010 LRIP Incentive Formula

The payout value of awards under the LRIP is based on the following incentive formula:

$$\begin{array}{l} \text{Base Salary} \\ \text{at Cycle} \\ \text{Start} \end{array} \times \begin{array}{l} \text{Individual} \\ \text{Incentive} \\ \text{Target} \end{array} \times \begin{array}{l} \text{LRIP} \\ \text{Business} \\ \text{Performance} \\ \text{Factor} \end{array} = \text{LRIP Award}$$

2008-2010 LRIP Individual Incentive Targets

The LRIP Individual Incentive Targets are based on market-competitive data and are established as a percentage of base salary at the start of a performance cycle. The Committee designates target levels for all LRIP participants. For the LRIP cycle beginning in 2008 the Individual Incentive Targets for our Named Executive Officers ranged from 150% to 350% of base salary at the start of the performance cycle, depending on the responsibilities of each individual's position, as set forth below:

	2008-2010

Mr. Liska	n/a ⁽⁴⁾
Mr. Delaney	170% ⁽³⁾
Mr. Moloney	180% ⁽⁵⁾

180%

- (1) Pursuant to Mr. Brown's employment agreement, his 2008 LRIP target was 350% of base salary and his target for subsequent years shall not be less than 250%.
- (2) Pursuant to the terms of his amended employment agreement, Dr. Jha was not eligible to participate in the 2008-2010 cycle of LRIP.
- (3) Mr. Fitzpatrick's and Mr. Delaney's 2008 LRIP targets have been prorated to account for participation at lower levels prior to their current roles.
- (4) Mr. Liska was not eligible for any incentive award under the 2008-2010 LRIP.
- (5) In connection with Mr. Moloney's departure from the Company on March 5, 2010, he forfeited any award under LRIP.

LRIP Business Performance Factor

The LRIP Business Performance Factor is calculated in a two-step process.

Step 1: Calculate Motorola's 20-day average stock price at the end of the 2008-2010 LRIP cycle.

Motorola's 20-day average stock price at the end of the 2008-2010 LRIP cycle will determine the potential size of the 2008-2010 cycle award, as illustrated in the following performance table.

December 31, 2010	Performance Factor
20-day Average Stock Price
$27.00	2.00x
$18.00	1.00x
$16.00	0.25x
<$16.00	0.00x

If Motorola's 20-day average stock price at the end of the cycle is less than $16.00, then no payout shall be made for the 2008-2010 LRIP cycle.

Table of Contents

40 PROXY STATEMENT

Step 2: Measure our three-year TSR compared with our comparator group to determine the final Business Performance Factor to be used for the LRIP cycle.

For LRIP purposes, TSR is calculated as follows:

$$\begin{aligned}
 & \text{Ending share price} \\
 & \text{(20-day average through last day of cycle, e.g. December 31, 2010)} \\
 + & \text{ Value of reinvested dividends} \\
 = & \text{ Total ending value} \\
 & \text{Beginning share price} \\
 - & \text{(20-day average through day preceding first day of cycle, e.g. December 31, 2007)} \\
 = & \text{ Total value created} \\
 \div & \text{ Beginning share price} \\
 = & \text{ Total shareholder return }
 \end{aligned}$$

For the 2008-2010 LRIP cycle, in order for a full LRIP award to be paid: (1) our three-year TSR must exceed the 55th percentile of our comparator group, and (2) our "absolute" three-year TSR must be positive (i.e., greater than 0%).

If our three-year TSR is equal to or above the 55th percentile of our comparator group, then the full LRIP Business Performance Factor is applied. If our three-year TSR is below the 55th percentile but above the 25th percentile of our comparator group, then a "haircut" reduction is applied to the LRIP Business Performance Factor. The "haircut" is linear between performance at the 55th percentile (no reduction) and the 25th percentile (50% reduction). If our three-year TSR is below the 25th percentile of our comparator group, then the Committee will use its discretion to determine if any 2008-2010 LRIP cycle awards are paid.

Impact of Individual Performance on 2008 and 2009 LRIP Awards

Our Co-CEOs may recommend adjustment to the amount of the LRIP award to any participant at any time prior to payment as a result of the participant's performance during the performance cycle; provided, however, that any such adjustment may not result in a payment to the participant in excess of the participant's maximum award under the LRIP. Any such adjustment to a payment to a member of the senior leadership team, including any Named Executive Officer, is subject to the approval of the Committee.

Likewise, the Committee (with or without counsel from the Co-CEOs) may reduce the amount of the LRIP award to any member of the senior leadership team, including any Named Executive Officer, at any time prior to payment as a result of the participant's performance during the performance cycle.

Equity Awards

Equity awards are the other component of our long-term incentive program. To reward, retain and motivate employees in 2009, the Committee, on the recommendation of management, awarded stock options and restricted stock units ("RSUs") to a wide range of employees, including the Named Executive Officers. Stock options and stock appreciation rights provide economic value to the holder if the price of our Common Stock increases from the grant date to the time the option or right is exercised. In contrast, RSUs convert to shares of our Common Stock when they vest, so they have a gross value at the time of vesting equal to the then-current market value of our Common Stock. While stock options motivate employees by providing more potential upside, RSUs assist us in retaining employees because RSUs have value even if our stock price does not increase.

Only the Committee may grant equity awards to a Co-CEO, a member of the senior leadership team or a Section 16 Officer. We do not structure the timing of equity award grants to precede or coincide with the disclosure of material non-public information. Since 2002, the grant date for the annual equity award has always been within a few days of the annual stockholders meeting in early May. This practice is expected to continue in 2010.

A wide range of employees participate in our equity plans. On May 7, 2009, the Committee granted equity to approximately 27,000 employees, including the Named Executive Officers, as part of our annual equity awards. The annual equity grants generally vest and become exercisable in four equal annual installments, with the first installment vesting on May 7, 2010. The per share exercise price for the annual stock option grant is $6.22, the Fair Market Value of our Common Stock on the date of the grant. The stock options expire on May 7, 2019. Approximately 90% of the equity awards covered by the May 7, 2009 general grant were granted to employees other than the Named Executive Officers.

We also grant stock options and/or RSUs: (1) to help make new employees "whole" for the compensation that they forfeit by terminating their previous employment; (2) to attract new critical talent; (3) to encourage retention of critical talent; (4) as a strategic investment in individuals deemed critical to our leadership succession plans; and (5) to reward strong performance. In 2009, approximately 600 of our approximately 53,000 employees received a grant of stock options or restricted stock units outside of the May annual award of equity and the June stock option exchange program.

2009 One-Time Stock Option Exchange Program

In 2009, stockholders approved a one-time stock option exchange program that was designed to restore economic value to certain stock options held by certain employees, while not creating material additional expense to Motorola. None of the Named Executive Officers were eligible for the stock option exchange program. Additional objectives of the program included improved employee retention and engagement. The program allowed for certain underwater stock options to be exchanged for a smaller number of stock options with an exercise price set as the Fair Market Value of our Common Stock on the date the replacement options were issued. Replacement stock options were granted on June 12, 2009 in exchange for eligible underwater stock options that were elected to be exchanged. The replacement stock options vest in two equal annual installments, with the first installment vesting on June 12, 2010. The per share exercise price for the replacement options issued in the stock option exchange is $6.73. The replacement options expire on June 12, 2014. Approximately 82% of the employees that were eligible for the program chose to participate in the program and 87% of the eligible options were exchanged for replacement options.

Fair Market Value Definition

Until March 1, 2007, "Grant Date Fair Market Value" was defined as the closing price for a share of our Common Stock on the last trading day before the date of grant for equity awards. For equity award grants on or after March 1, 2007, "Grant Date Fair Market Value" (also termed "Fair Market Value") is defined as the closing price for a share of our Common Stock on the date of grant. The official source for the closing price is the New York Stock Exchange Composite Transactions in the Wall Street Journal at www.online.wsj.com.

Mr. Brown's 2009 Equity Grants

In May 2009, as part of the annual award of equity, the Committee decided, with the independent Board members' concurrence, to grant Mr. Brown options to acquire 1,137,500 shares of Common Stock that expire on the tenth anniversary of the date of grant. Additionally, the Committee granted Mr. Brown 378,800 RSUs. As an incentive to work toward the separation of Motorola into two independent, publicly traded companies, the stock options and RSUs granted to Mr. Brown vest in three equal installments on the later of: (1) (a) separation into two independent, publicly traded companies, or (b) announcement by the Company to not effect a separation, and (2) each of May 7, 2010, 2011 and 2012, respectively.

The Committee determined that the grants of stock options and RSUs appropriately rewarded Mr. Brown for his strong leadership, appropriately incented Mr. Brown to work toward the separation of Motorola into two independent, publicly traded companies, and were necessary to provide a level of equity awards appropriate for the competitive market.

Dr. Jha's 2009 Equity Grants

In 2008, Dr. Jha was granted a significant number of stock options and RSUs in connection with his employment agreement. Under the terms of his employment agreement, the Company has no obligation to grant additional equity until at least twelve months following a separation of the Mobile Devices business into an independent, publicly traded company. In 2009, the Committee determined no additional equity grants were necessary in 2009 to further incent Dr. Jha, other than as described below.

In 2008, Dr. Jha voluntarily decided to forego any 2008 bonus under MIP. At that time, the Committee agreed to make a grant of RSUs to Dr. Jha in the first quarter of 2009 with a value equal to: $2,400,000 less the amount of cash that would have been payable to Mr. Brown under MIP had he not also foregone his 2008 bonus under MIP. The total cash value of the RSU award was determined on February 11, 2009 to be $1,334,000. On February 11, 2009, based on the closing price of Motorola's Common Stock, 344,615 RSUs were granted to Dr. Jha. These RSUs vest in two equal installments on February 11, 2010 and October 31, 2010.

Mr. Fitzpatrick's 2009 Equity Grants

In January 2009, in connection with his promotion to Senior Vice President, Controller, the Committee granted Mr. Fitzpatrick options to acquire 125,000 shares of Common Stock. The stock options vest in four equal annual installments beginning on January 20, 2010. Additionally, the Committee granted Mr. Fitzpatrick 50,000 RSUs that vest in four equal annual installments beginning on January 20, 2010.

In May 2009, as part of the annual award of equity grants, the Committee granted Mr. Fitzpatrick options to acquire 124,600 shares of Common Stock. Additionally, the Committee granted Mr. Fitzpatrick 41,500 RSUs. The stock options and RSUs vest in three equal annual installments beginning on May 7, 2010.

In February 2009, Mr. Fitzpatrick was named Senior Vice President, Corporate Controller and Acting Chief Financial Officer. At that time, no additional equity was granted or other compensation actions were taken. In November 2009, in connection with his promotion to Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, the Committee granted Mr. Fitzpatrick options to acquire 200,000 shares of Motorola Common Stock. Additionally, the Committee granted Mr. Fitzpatrick 100,000 RSUs. The stock options and RSUs vest 50% on November 11, 2011 and 50% on November 11, 2012.

With Mr. Fitzpatrick's promotions, the Committee reviewed his current compensation profile, external market pricing data and a summary of historical equity grants for Mr. Fitzpatrick and determined that the grants of stock options and RSUs appropriately rewarded Mr. Fitzpatrick for his strong, progressive leadership of the Finance organization, recognized his increased responsibilities, further aligned his interests with stockholders' interests to create long-term value, and were necessary to provide a level of equity awards appropriate for the competitive market.

Mr. Delaney's 2009 Equity Grants

In January 2009, in connection with his promotion to Executive Vice President, Enterprise Mobility Solutions, the Committee granted Mr. Delaney options to acquire 200,000 shares of Common Stock. Additionally, the Committee granted Mr. Delaney 100,000 RSUs. The stock options and RSUs vest 50% on January 28, 2011, and January 28, 2012.

In May 2009, as part of the annual award of equity grants, the Committee granted Mr. Delaney options to acquire 710,900 shares of Common Stock and 236,700 RSUs. The stock options and RSUs vest in three equal annual installments beginning on May 7, 2010.

With Mr. Delaney's promotion, the Committee reviewed his current compensation profile, external market pricing data and a summary of historical equity grants for Mr. Delaney and determined that the grants of stock options and RSUs appropriately rewarded Mr. Delaney for his strong leadership of the Enterprise Mobility Solutions business, recognized his increased responsibilities, further aligned his interests with stockholders' interests to create long-term value, and were necessary to provide a level of equity awards appropriate for the competitive market.

Mr. Moloney's 2009 Equity Grants

In May 2009, as part of the annual award of equity grants, the Committee granted Mr. Moloney options to acquire 681,200 shares of Common Stock and 226,800 RSUs. The stock options and RSUs would have vested in three equal annual installments beginning on May 7, 2010. On March 5, 2010, as a result of his decision to leave the Company, Mr. Moloney forfeited all unvested equity awards.

The Committee determined that the grants of stock options and RSUs appropriately rewarded Mr. Moloney for his strong leadership of the Home and Networks Mobility business, further aligned his interests with stockholders' interests to create long-term value, and were necessary to provide a level of equity awards appropriate for the competitive market.

Mr. Lawson's 2009 Equity Grants

In May 2009, as part of the annual award of equity grants, the Committee granted Mr. Lawson options to acquire 398,100 shares of Common Stock and 132,600 RSUs. The stock options and RSUs vest in three equal annual installments beginning on May 7, 2010.

The Committee determined that the grants of stock options and RSUs appropriately rewarded Mr. Lawson for his strong leadership of the legal organization, further aligned his interests with stockholders' interests to create long-term value, and were necessary to provide a level of equity awards appropriate for the competitive market.

Recoupment of Incentive Compensation Awards Upon Restatement of Financial Results

Effective January 1, 2008, if, in the opinion of the independent directors of the Board, the Company's financial results are restated due to intentional misconduct by one or more of the Company's executive officers, the independent directors have the discretion to use their best efforts to remedy the misconduct and prevent its recurrence. The independent directors may, based upon the facts and circumstances surrounding the restatement, direct that the Company recover all or a portion of any bonus or incentive compensation paid, or cancel the stock-based awards granted, to an executive officer on or after January 1, 2008. In addition, the independent directors may also seek to recoup any gains realized after January 1, 2008 with respect to equity-based awards, including stock options and restricted stock units, regardless of when issued.

The remedies that may be sought by the independent directors are subject to a number of conditions, including, that: (1) the bonus or incentive compensation to be recouped was calculated based upon the financial results that were restated, (2) the executive officer in question engaged in the intentional misconduct, and (3) the bonus or incentive compensation calculated under the restated financial results is less than the amount actually paid or awarded.

Table of Contents

PROXY STATEMENT 43

In addition, the independent directors may take other disciplinary action, including, without limitation: (1) adjustment of future compensation of the executive officer, (2) termination of the executive officer's employment, (3) pursuit of any and all remedies available in law and/or equity in any country, and (4) pursuit of such other action as may fit the circumstances of the particular case. The independent directors may take into account penalties or punishments imposed by third parties, such as law enforcement agencies, regulators or other authorities. The independent directors' power to determine the appropriate punishment for the wrongdoers is in addition to, and not in replacement of, remedies imposed by such entities and is in addition to any right of recoupment against the Co-CEOs or CFO under Section 304 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

Executive Benefits and Perquisites

The Committee and management continue to seek to more closely align our total executive rewards programs with that of our comparator group. Our philosophy is to pay at the 50th percentile for total rewards for executive positions in our comparator group given average business performance. These rewards are supplemented by additional performance-based compensation that is substantially leveraged. As a result, we provide few executive-only benefits and perquisites. Our executive benefits and perquisites are described below.

Motorola Executive Financial Planning Program. The Motorola Executive Financial Planning Program provides our elected officers, including each of our Named Executive Officers, with comprehensive financial planning assistance, designed to help them achieve the highest value from their compensation package. For our senior executives, including our Named Executive Officers, the annual allowance ranges from $10,000 to $16,500 in the first or last year of receiving the benefit and ranges from $7,000 to $13,500 in subsequent years of receiving the benefit.

Change in Control Protection. The Board considers the maintenance of a sound management team to be essential to protecting and enhancing the Company's best interests and the best interests of our stockholders. To that end, we recognize that the possibility of a change in control may exist from time to time, and that this possibility, and the uncertainty and questions it may raise among management, may result in the departure or distraction of management personnel to the detriment of the Company and our stockholders. Accordingly, the Board has determined that appropriate steps should be taken to encourage the continued attention and dedication of members of our management to their assigned duties without the distraction that may arise from the possibility of a change in control. As a result, we have established the Senior Officer Change in Control Severance Plan. Our Senior Officer Change in Control Severance Plan uses a "double trigger". In other words, in order for severance benefits to be "triggered" both: (1) a change in control must occur, and (2) an executive must be involuntarily terminated for a reason other than "cause" or must leave for "good reason" within 24 months of the change in control. For a description of benefits provided under our Senior Officer Change in Control Severance Plan, see the information under "Change in Control Arrangements".

Personal Aircraft Use. Each Co-CEO is active in professional and civic communities, has significant amounts of private and personal information readily available about him on the Internet, has strong visibility and travels extensively as Co-CEO. As a result, while serving as Co-CEO, both Mr. Brown and Dr. Jha are required to use our aircraft for personal travel in connection with our overall security program. From time to time and on a limited basis, we permit other executives to use our aircraft for personal travel.

Motorola Management Deferred Compensation Plan. Effective January 1, 2008, because of low participation in the plan, we temporarily closed the Motorola Deferred Compensation Plan to new deferrals. The Motorola Management Deferred Compensation Plan is a non-qualified deferred compensation plan that is unfunded and unsecured and allows our eligible elected officers, including the Named Executive Officers, the opportunity to defer taxes on their base salary and cash incentive compensation. The Company does not contribute to this plan. The plan is not intended to provide above-market or preferential earnings (as these terms are defined under SEC regulations) on compensation deferred under the plan.

Relocation Benefits. Motorola provides relocation benefits under its Relocation Policy to employees, including the Named Executive Officers, who meet the criteria outlined in the policy. From time to time, in order to attract a particular employee and/or pursuant to an employment agreement, arrangements may be made that offer enhanced benefits beyond the terms of the Relocation Policy, such as an extended duration of temporary housing as in the case of Dr. Jha.

Commuting Benefits. Motorola provides commuting benefits under its Commuting Assignment Policy to employees, including the Named Executive Officers, who meet the criteria outlined in the policy. From time to time, in order to attract a particular employee and/or pursuant to an employment agreement, arrangements may be made that offer enhanced benefits beyond the terms of the Commuting Assignment Policy, such as an extended duration of commuting benefits or allowances as in the case of Mr. Fitzpatrick.

Broad-based Employee Benefits

As U.S. employees, our Named Executive Officers have the opportunity to participate in a number of benefits programs that are generally available to all regular U.S. employees. These benefits include: (1) healthcare plans (medical and dental benefits, health coaching, and onsite wellness programs and wellness centers/fitness centers); (2) life and disability plans (group life insurance, business travel accident insurance and short-term and long-term disability income plans); (3) investment plans (the 401(k) Plan, the MOTshare Plan (Employee Stock Purchase Plan) and previously existing pension plans that were available to employees who began employment prior to January 1, 2005); and (4) work/life plans (programs that assist with daily needs such as childcare, adoption assistance, dependent care account and long-term care insurance).

Pension Plans

Our Pension Plans were offered to pension-eligible employees hired before January 1, 2005. We offer two different qualified pension plans, the Portable Pension Plan and the Traditional Pension Plan. We also offer a non-qualified plan, the Motorola Supplemental Pension Plan (the "MSPP"), to highly-compensated employees whose qualified pension plan benefits are reduced by annual salary limits imposed by the IRS.

On December 15, 2008, the Board of Directors of the Company authorized amendments to both the Motorola Pension Plan (the "Pension Plan") and the MSPP. On this date, the Board determined that, effective March 1, 2009, all future benefit accruals and compensation increases used to compute benefit accruals would automatically cease for all individuals who were participants under the Pension Plan and/or MSPP as of February 28, 2009, but allowing such participants to continue to earn vesting credit towards their Pension Plan benefit on and after March 1, 2009, if not already fully vested. Additionally, the MSPP was further amended to freeze any future participation in the MSPP after January 1, 2009, unless such participation was due to a prior contractual entitlement.

Both Pension Plan formulas use "average earnings" to calculate the relevant pension benefit. Prior to January 1, 2008, a participant's "final average earnings" were used to calculate the relevant pension benefit, with final average earnings (base salary and lump-sum merit pay, excluding incentive plan awards) being the five years of highest pay during the last 10 calendar years ending December 31, 2007. On and after January 1, 2008, a participant's "modified average earnings" are used to calculate the relevant pension benefit, with modified average earnings starting with the participant's final average earnings as of December 31, 2007 and additionally including in the numerator and denominator the earnings from each and every subsequent year of employment after January 1, 2008 and up to March 1, 2009 (unless earlier terminated). Further, when computing pension benefits, annual compensation used to calculate a participant's benefit may not exceed certain limits set by the IRS ($245,000 in 2009) and hence is limited to this number if required. The benefit payable to plan participants eligible for MSPP is the amount by which their pension plan benefit is reduced by the applicable IRS limits or as a result of their participation in the Motorola Management Deferred Compensation Plan. A participant's pension benefit and MSPP benefit together cannot exceed 70% of their modified average earnings at retirement.

The "Elected Officer Supplemental Retirement Plan", which was closed to new participants as of January 1, 2000, uses the sum of (1) the participant's base salary at retirement (or the base salary in place on June 30, 2005, whichever is earlier) and (2) the average of the five highest Motorola Incentive Plan awards received within the last eight years preceding retirement. This supplemental retirement plan caps the benefit at an annual income of up to 70% of the participant's base salary at retirement or on June 30, 2005, whichever is earlier. Mr. Delaney and Mr. Lawson are the only Named Executive Officers that are eligible for the Elected Officer Supplemental Retirement Plan.

The Impact of Favorable Accounting and Tax Treatment on Compensation Program Design

Favorable accounting and tax treatment of the various elements of our compensation program is an important, but not the sole, consideration in its design. Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code limits the deductibility of certain items of compensation paid to the Co-CEOs and certain other highly compensated executive officers (the "covered officers") to

Table of Contents

PROXY STATEMENT 45

$1,000,000 annually. Our short-term and long-term incentive programs have been designed to provide for the deductibility of compensation paid to the covered officers under our incentive plans. In particular, in order to satisfy the Section 162(m) qualification requirements, under our 2006 Omnibus Incentive Plan, each year the Committee allocates an incentive pool, equal to 5% of our consolidated operating earnings, among the covered officers under our MIP. Once the amount of the pool and the allocations are determined at the end of the year, the Committee retains "negative discretion" to reduce (but not increase) the amount of any award payable from the incentive pool to the covered officers to the amounts payable based on the MIP performance criteria using the actual minimum, target and maximum awards by position. For 2009, the Committee exercised this discretion to reduce the value of the awards payable under the incentive pool to Mr. Brown, Mr. Delaney, Mr. Moloney and Mr. Lawson to the value of each such officer's 2009 MIP award. For a discussion of the covered officers' 2009 MIP awards, see "Short-Term Incentives". Notwithstanding the above, the Committee reserves the right to provide for compensation to executive officers that may not be deductible pursuant to Section 162(m).

In the first quarter of 2006, we began expensing equity awards in accordance with FAS 123R (now ASC Topic 718). This results in significantly higher accounting expenses for our stock option awards. Like many of the companies within our comparator group, we have taken measures to ensure our equity grant practices remain competitive but also cost-effective (e.g., by generally lowering grant guidelines and participation rates). In 2009, stockholders approved a one-time stock option exchange program that was designed to restore economic value to certain stock options held by certain employees, while not creating significant additional expense to Motorola. None of the Named Executive Officers were eligible for the stock option exchange program.

Stock Ownership Requirements

In order to align the interests of senior management with the interests of our stockholders, the Board requires our senior leadership team, including each of our Named Executive Officers, and all other senior and executive vice presidents (approximately 30 executives), to maintain prescribed ownership levels of our Stock (as defined below). During 2009, the Committee reviewed and approved revised stock ownership requirements that set minimum levels of ownership, as follows:

Executive Level	Minimum Stock Ownership Required
Co-Chief Executive Officer	6 times base salary
Executive Vice Presidents and Senior Leadership Team members	3 times base salary
Senior Vice Presidents (other than members of the Senior Leadership Team)	2 times base salary

The 2009 revisions to the guidelines included: (1) increasing the required minimum level of ownership for our Co-CEOs to stock with a value equal to six times their base salary (up from the previous level of four times base salary), (2) requiring the senior leadership team, regardless of title, to own stock with a value equal to three times their base salary, and (3) requiring all senior vice presidents (other than members of the senior leadership team) to own stock with a value equal to two times their base salary.

For purposes of these stock ownership requirements, "stock" means shares of Common Stock owned outright, restricted stock, restricted stock units and stock owned in benefit plans such as the 401(k) Plan and the MOTshare Plan, each of which count toward fulfilling the ownership guidelines. New senior executives are given five years from the date of hire, promotion or elevation to meet the ownership requirements.

Securities Trading Policy

Executives and other employees, including our Named Executive Officers, may not engage in any transaction in which they may profit from short-term speculative swings in the value of our securities. This includes "short sales" (selling borrowed securities that the seller hopes can be purchased at a lower price in the future) or "short sales against the box" (selling owned, but not delivered securities), "put" and "call" options (publicly available rights to sell or buy securities within a certain period of time at a specified price) and hedging transactions, such as zero-cost collars and forward sale contracts. Our securities trading policy is designed to ensure compliance with applicable insider trading rules.

REPORT OF COMPENSATION AND LEADERSHIP COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Throughout 2009, Director Samuel C. Scott III was the Chair of, and Directors William R. Hambrecht, Judy C. Lewent and James R. Stengel served on, the Compensation and Leadership Committee (the "Committee") of Motorola, Inc.

The Committee has reviewed and discussed the "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" required by Item 402(b) of Regulation S-K with Motorola management. Based on such review and discussions, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" be included in this Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A and incorporated by reference into Motorola's 2009 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Respectfully submitted,

Samuel C. Scott III, Chairman

James R. Stengel

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

During 2009, Motorola paid $200,000 to the United Football League (the "UFL") in sponsorship fees in connection with the UFL's 2009 premiere season. The Company received marketing opportunities with the UFL. William R. Hambrecht, a director of the Company, is a founder of, and has a controlling interest in, the UFL. Mr. Hambrecht did not participate in the negotiations between Motorola and the UFL with respect to the sponsorship and the arrangement was negotiated on an arm's length basis. Pursuant to the Related Person Transaction Policy, the arrangement was pre-approved by the Governance and Nominating Committee. Moreover, Mr. Hambrecht's independence was not impaired by the transaction pursuant to the criteria set forth in the Motorola, Inc. Director Independence Guidelines.

(1) Salary includes amounts deferred pursuant to salary reduction arrangements under the 401(k) Plan and the Motorola Management Deferred Compensation Plan. Effective January 1, 2009, the Company suspended its matching contributions to the Company's 401(k) Plan.

(2) The amounts in columns (e) and (f) reflect the aggregate grant date fair value of the stock and option awards granted in the respective fiscal year as computed in accordance with ASC Topic 718, excluding the effect of estimated forfeitures. Assumptions used in the calculation of these amounts are included in Note 8, "Share-Based Compensation Plans and Other Incentive Plans" in the Company's Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009. These amounts reflect the valuation method recently adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), which is the aggregate grant date fair value of the equity awards, rather than the dollar amounts recognized that year for financial statement reporting purposes, as previously required. The new aggregate grant date fair value method applies to previous years in the table as well. As such, in the year of a grant, the full aggregate grant date fair value appears, rather than the portion being expensed for financial statement reporting purposes in that year. As a result, columns (e) and (f) for 2007 and 2008 are calculated differently this year, causing them to vary from the amounts included in previous Company proxy statements.

(3)

For 2009 and 2008, the amounts in column (g) are the awards earned under the Motorola Incentive Plan ("MIP"). There were no payments under any Motorola Long-Range Incentive Plan ("LRIP") cycle ending in 2009 or 2008. In 2007, the amounts in column (g) consist of awards earned by eligible Named Executive Officers at that time under MIP and the 2005-2007 cycle of LRIP as follows:

	Mr. Brown	Mr. Lawson	Mr. Moloney
2007 MIP	$125,242	$ 61,560	$ 65,550
2005-2007 LRIP	$360,972	$270,000	$240,000

(4)

Mr. Brown and Dr. Jha voluntarily elected to take a 25% decrease in base salary for 2009 and forego any 2008 bonuses under MIP, including Dr. Jha's contractually guaranteed cash bonus of $2,400,000.

(5)

For 2009, the aggregate change in present value from December 31, 2008 to December 31, 2009 of Mr. Brown's benefits under all pension plans was negative and is therefore reflected as $0. During that period, the change in present value of his benefit under the Motorola Pension Plan was $24,829 and under the Motorola Supplemental Pension Plan ("MSPP") was ($82,475). The negative change in MSPP present value is a result of the Company freezing all future benefit accruals and compensation increases under the MSPP, effective March 1, 2009, when calculated with the assumptions under SEC rules. For 2008, the aggregate change in present value from December 31, 2007 to December 31, 2008 of Mr. Brown's benefits under the Motorola Pension Plan was $7,030 and under the MSPP was $18,060. For 2007, the aggregate change in present value from December 31, 2006 to December 31, 2007 of Mr. Brown's benefits under the Motorola Pension Plan was $1,889 and under the MSPP was $7,467.

- (6) This amount consists of Company perquisite costs for Mr. Brown of $359,708, including $233,846 for personal use of Company aircraft, $62,519 for personal use of car and driver, $40,000 for security system installation and monitoring, and costs for home wireless coverage and financial planning. The incremental cost to the Company for Mr. Brown's personal use of Company aircraft is calculated by multiplying the number of hours Mr. Brown travels in a particular plane by the direct cost per flight hour per plane. Direct costs include fuel, maintenance, labor, parts, loading and parking fees, catering and crew. The incremental cost to the Company for Mr. Brown's personal use of a car and driver is calculated by adding the costs for the driver, including salary and benefits, on a pro-rata basis to the cost of fuel for driving to and from work and Company events.
- (7) This amount consists of two awards under the Company's patent award program.
- (8) This amount is the aggregate grant date fair value of RSUs granted to Dr. Jha on February 11, 2009. When Dr. Jha decided to voluntarily forego his 2008 contractually guaranteed cash bonus, the Compensation and Leadership Committee decided to make a grant of RSUs to Dr. Jha with a value equal to: $2,400,000, less the amount of cash that would have been payable to Mr. Brown under MIP had he not also foregone his 2008 bonus under MIP. The total cash value of the award was determined on February 11, 2009 to be $1,334,000. On February 11, 2009, based on the closing price of Motorola's Common Stock, 344,615 RSUs were granted to Dr. Jha. The RSUs vest in two equal installments on February 11, 2010 and on October 31, 2010.
- (9) This amount reflects the cash bonus guaranteed to Dr. Jha for 2009 pursuant to his employment agreement.
- (10) This amount consists of Company perquisite costs for Dr. Jha of $323,366, including $208,579 for personal use of Company aircraft, $66,769 in relocation benefits, and $34,906 for personal use of car and driver and costs for security system monitoring. The incremental cost to the Company for Dr. Jha's personal use of Company aircraft and car and driver are calculated in the same manner as set forth for Mr. Brown. The amount reported for personal use of Company aircraft is net of a reimbursement made by Dr. Jha pursuant to the Aircraft Time Sharing Agreement dated May 4, 2009 between the Company and Dr. Jha, as previously disclosed in the Company's quarterly report on Form 10-Q filed on May 6, 2009.
- (11) These amounts are the aggregate grant date fair value of equity awards granted on August 4, 2008 in connection with Dr. Jha's employment agreement. He was granted 2,304,653 "make-whole" restricted stock units and 10,211,226 "make-whole" options to replace awards of equivalent value that Dr. Jha forfeited at his prior employer upon joining the Company. Also in connection with Dr. Jha's employment agreement, he was granted 1,362,769 "inducement" restricted stock units and 6,383,658 "inducement" options. These grants were made to Dr. Jha in order to attract and retain an executive of his unique caliber and experience. The stock options will result in no payment unless the price of the Company's stock increases from the grant date price of $9.82.
- (12) This amount is the aggregate change in present value from December 31, 2008 to December 31, 2009 of Mr. Fitzpatrick's benefits under all pension plans, including benefits under the General Instrument Pension Plan. During 2009, the change in the present value of his benefit under the Motorola Pension Plan was $28,808 and under the General Instrument Pension Plan was $2,473. There was a negative change in present value of his benefit under the MSPP of ($1,916). The negative MSPP present value is a result of the Company freezing all future benefit accruals and compensation increases under the MSPP, effective March 1, 2009, when calculated with the assumptions under SEC rules.
- (13) This amount consists of Company perquisite costs for Mr. Fitzpatrick of $156,300, including $150,000 for commuting allowance and costs for financial planning and a club membership.

- (14) In March 2008, Mr. Liska joined the Company as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. At that time, pursuant to Mr. Liska's employment offer agreement dated February 15, 2008 (the "Liska Employment Offer Agreement"), the Company provided a sign-on bonus to Mr. Liska of $400,000 that was paid to Mr. Liska in two installments during 2008. On February 19, 2009, Mr. Liska was terminated for cause. Therefore, pursuant to the Liska Employment Offer Agreement, Mr. Liska is required to repay the $400,000 sign-on bonus to the Company.
- (15) Mr. Liska did not receive a 2008 MIP award.
- (16) This amount consists of: (i) the aggregate change in present value from December 31, 2008 to December 31, 2009 of Mr. Delaney's benefits under the Motorola Pension Plan of $124,268 and under the Motorola Elected Officers Supplementary Plan of $471,267, and (ii) $169,017 in earnings on nonqualified deferred compensation in excess of the threshold for 2009 "above-market earnings" established pursuant to SEC rules. As further described in the "Nonqualified Deferred Compensation in 2009" table, all earnings in 2009 above 4.9% have been deemed "above market earnings".

- (17) This amount consists of: (i) Company perquisite costs for Mr. Delaney for financial planning and income imputed for guest attendance at a Company event, and (ii) a tax gross-up of $1,119 for income imputed to Mr. Delaney.
- (18) On March 5, 2010, as a result of his decision to leave the Company, Mr. Moloney forfeited these unvested options and restricted stock units.
- (19) For 2009, this amount consists of $25,283 in earnings on nonqualified deferred compensation in excess of the threshold for 2009 "above-market earnings" established pursuant to SEC rules. The aggregate change in present value from December 31, 2008 to December 31, 2009 of Mr. Moloney's benefits under all pension plans, including benefits under the General Instrument Pension Plan and the General Instrument SERP plan ("GI SERP") was negative and therefore is reflected as $0. During 2009, the change in the present value of his benefits under the Motorola Pension Plan was $46,849 and under the MSPP was ($142,336). The change in present value of his benefit under the General Instrument Pension Plan was $32,799 and under the General Instrument SERP plan ("GI SERP") was $14,655. The negative change in MSPP present value is a result of the Company freezing all future benefit accruals and compensation increases under the MSPP, effective March 1, 2009, when calculated with the assumptions under SEC rules. For 2008, the aggregate change in present value from December 31, 2007 to December 31, 2008 of Mr. Moloney's benefits under the Motorola Pension Plan was $8,763, under the MSPP was $13,953, under the General Instrument Pension Plan was $11,145 and under the GI SERP was $4,979. For 2007, the aggregate change in present value from December 31, 2006 to December 31, 2007 of Mr. Moloney's benefits under all pension plans, including benefits under the General Instrument Pension Plan and the GI SERP was negative and therefore is reflected as $0. During 2007, the change in the present value of his benefit under the Motorola Pension Plan and the MSPP were $410 and $2,069, respectively. In 2007, there was a negative change in the present value of his benefit under the General Instrument Pension Plan and the GI SERP of ($14,055) and ($6,279), respectively. In connection with the Company's acquisition of General Instrument Corporation in January of 2000, the value of Mr. Moloney's benefits under the General Instrument Pension Plan and the GI SERP were frozen as of December 31, 2000.
- (20) This amount is Company perquisite costs for Mr. Moloney for financial planning.
- (21) In April 2007, Mr. Moloney received a one-time discretionary cash bonus in recognition of his efforts and to promote his retention.
- (22) For 2009, the aggregate change in present value from December 31, 2008 to December 31, 2009 of Mr. Lawson's benefits under the Motorola Pension Plan was $173,854 and under the Motorola Elected Officers Supplementary Plan was $85,565. For 2008, the aggregate change in present value from December 31, 2007 to December 31, 2008 of Mr. Lawson's benefits under all pension plans was negative and is therefore reflected as $0. During that period, there was a negative change in present value of his benefit under the Motorola Pension Plan of ($20,250) and a negative change in the present value of his benefit under the Motorola Elected Officers Supplementary Plan of ($61,413). For 2007, the aggregate change in present value from December 31, 2006 to December 31, 2007 of Mr. Lawson's benefits under all pension plans was negative and therefore is reflected as $0. During that period, there was a negative change in the present value of his benefit under the Motorola Pension Plan of ($21,368) and there was a negative change in the present value of his benefit under the Motorola Elected Officers Supplementary Plan of ($431,650).
- (23) This amount is Company perquisite costs for Mr. Lawson for financial planning.
- (24) This amount reflects a one-time, discretionary, cash "Merit Award" granted to Mr. Lawson in 2007.

Compensation Proportion

Our executive compensation program is structured so that more than three-fourths of our senior executives' targeted total compensation is "at risk" (in the form of equity grants, awards under LRIP and awards under MIP) and is therefore dependent upon Motorola's results. In determining the "at risk" proportion between cash and equity among our total mix of compensation, we consider the employee's position and responsibilities, the employee's ability to impact Motorola's results, and the competitive market for executive talent in our industry. We strive to balance the components of our compensation program appropriately in light of these factors. For a further discussion of our compensation methodology, see the "Compensation Discussion and Analysis". For a discussion of the material terms of employment agreements with our Named Executive Officers, see "Employment Contracts". For a discussion of the material terms of the 2009 grants of plan based awards, see the footnotes to the "Grants of Plan-Based Awards in 2009" table and the "Compensation Discussion and Analysis".

(1) In the aggregate, the restricted stock units ("RSUs") described in this table represent approximately 0.070% of the total shares of Common Stock outstanding on January 31, 2010. RSUs granted on or after May 1, 2006 are not eligible for dividend equivalent rights. Each of these RSU awards were granted under the Motorola Omnibus Incentive Plan of 2006. All RSUs entitle the holder to acquire shares of Common Stock and were valued at the fair market value at the time of the grant, as defined in the "Fair Market Value Definition" section of "Compensation Discussion and Analysis".

(2) In the aggregate, the options described in this table are exercisable for approximately 0.155% of the total shares of Common Stock outstanding on January 31, 2010. Each of these option awards were granted under the Motorola Omnibus Incentive Plan of 2006. All

RSUs entitle the holder to acquire shares of Common Stock and were granted at the fair market value at the time of grant as defined in the "Fair Market Value Definition" section of the "Compensation Discussion and Analysis". The options carry with them the right to elect to have shares withheld upon exercise and/or to deliver previously-acquired shares of Common Stock to satisfy tax-withholding requirements. Options may be transferred to family members or certain entities in which family members have an interest. Unvested options are generally forfeited upon retirement. These options could expire earlier in certain situations.

The exercise price of option awards is based on the fair market value of Motorola Common Stock at the time of grant. See the "Fair Market Value Definition" section of "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" for further details.

- (4) These 2009 grants are made pursuant to the 2009 Motorola Incentive Plan ("MIP"), and are payable in cash. MIP is Motorola's annual pay-for-performance bonus plan that is based upon a formula that combines Company performance and individual performance. Awards may be $0 under the formula. Targets assume individual and business performance factors of 1.0. Awards under MIP are determined using a participant's "eligible earnings" (generally, base salary) for the plan year. Maximum assumes individual performance factors of 1.3.
- (5) These grants are for the 2009-2011 cycle under the Motorola Long-Range Incentive Plan of 2009 ("LRIP"). Awards under the 2009-2011 LRIP cycle are determined in dollars but, at the discretion of the Compensation and Leadership Committee, may be paid in cash or Common Stock. The measure/metric used is relative total shareholder return. For a discussion of the LRIP, including the targets and plan mechanics, see "Compensation Discussion and Analysis". The amounts in the table represent 2009 performance which may be reduced to $0 at the end of the three-year cycle based upon total cycle performance. The amounts under "Threshold" assume the performance level necessary to generate an award was achieved. The amounts under "Target" assume performance factors of 1.0. The amounts under "Maximum" will be payable if Motorola's three-year total shareholder return ranks first or second amongst the peer companies, which would be a significant accomplishment, the probability of which is remote though possible.
- (6) Pursuant to Dr. Jha's employment agreement, he was entitled to a 2009 cash bonus of not less than $1,200,000.
- (7) Mr. Brown was granted 378,800 RSUs on May 7, 2009. The restrictions on the grant lapse in three equal installments on the later of: (1) (a) separation into two independent, publicly traded companies, or (b) announcement by the Company to not effect a separation; and (2) each of May 7, 2010, 2011 and 2012, respectively.
- (8) Mr. Brown was granted 1,137,500 options on May 7, 2009. The options vest and become exercisable in three equal installments on the later of: (1) (a) separation into two independent, publicly traded companies, or (b) announcement by the Company to not effect a separation; and (2) each of May 7, 2010, 2011 and 2012, respectively.
- (9) As previously disclosed on December 17, 2008, Dr. Jha voluntarily decided to forego his 2008 contractually guaranteed cash bonus of $2,400,000. At that time, the Compensation and Leadership Committee agreed to make a grant of RSUs to Dr. Jha in the first quarter of 2009 with a value equal to: $2,400,000 less the amount of cash that would have been payable to Mr. Brown under MIP had he also not foregone his 2008 bonus under MIP. The total cash value of the award was determined on February 11, 2009 to be $1,334,000. On February 11, 2009, based on the closing price of Motorola's Common Stock, 344,615 RSUs were granted to Dr. Jha. The RSUs vest in two equal installments on February 11, 2010 and October 31, 2010.
- (10) Mr. Fitzpatrick was granted 50,000 RSUs on January 20, 2009. The restrictions on these RSUs lapse in four equal annual installments beginning on January 20, 2010.
- (11) Mr. Fitzpatrick was granted 125,000 options on January 20, 2009. The options vest and become exercisable in four equal annual installments beginning on January 20, 2010. The options expire on January 20, 2019.
- (12) On May 7, 2009, as part of the Company's annual broad-based employee equity grant, Mr. Fitzpatrick was granted 41,500 RSUs, Mr. Delaney was granted 236,700 RSUs, Mr. Moloney was granted 226,800 RSUs and Mr. Lawson was granted 132,600 RSUs. The restrictions on these RSUs lapse in three equal annual installments beginning on May 7, 2010. On March 5, 2010, as a result of his decision to leave the Company, Mr. Moloney forfeited unvested options and RSUs.
- (13) On May 7, 2009, as part of the Company's annual broad-based employee equity grant, Mr. Fitzpatrick was granted 124,600 options, Mr. Delaney was granted 710,900 options, Mr. Moloney was granted 681,200 options, and Mr. Lawson was granted 398,100 options. The options vest and become exercisable in three equal annual installments beginning on May 7, 2010. The options expire on May 7, 2019, 10 years from the date of grant. On March 5, 2010, as a result of his decision to leave the Company, Mr. Moloney forfeited all unvested options and RSUs.

Edgar Filing: MOTOROLA INC - Form DEF 14A

- (14) Mr. Fitzpatrick was granted 100,000 RSUs on November 10, 2009. The restrictions on these RSUs lapse in two equal installments on November 10, 2011 and November 10, 2012.
- (15) Mr. Fitzpatrick was granted 200,000 options on November 10, 2009. The options vest and become exercisable in two equal installments on November 10, 2011 and November 10, 2012. The options expire on November 10, 2019.
- (16) Mr. Delaney was granted 100,000 RSUs on January 28, 2009. The restrictions on these RSUs lapse equally on January 28, 2011 and January 28, 2012.
- (17) Mr. Delaney was granted 200,000 options on January 28, 2009. The options vest and become exercisable equally on January 28, 2011 and January 28, 2012.

(1) Restricted stock units accrued pursuant to dividend equivalent rights are included for the purpose of this table.

(2) The "Value Realized on Vesting" is computed by multiplying the number of shares of stock or units by the market value of the underlying shares on the vesting date. When an award vests on a non-trading day, the most recent previous market closing price is used for the purpose of this calculation.

Nonqualified Deferred Compensation in 2009

The Motorola Management Deferred Compensation Plan allows eligible executive participants, including the Named Executive Officers, the opportunity to defer portions of their base salary and annual cash incentive compensation and thereby defer taxes. Motorola does not contribute to this plan. The Motorola Management Deferred Compensation Plan is not intended to provide for the payment of above-market or preferential earnings on compensation deferred under the plan, however, as described below and pursuant to SEC rules, all earnings on nonqualified deferred compensation in 2009 in excess of 4.9% would have been deemed "above-market earnings". Of the Named Executive Officers, only Mr. Delaney and Mr. Moloney participate in the plan. Effective January 1, 2008, because of low participation, the Motorola Deferred Compensation Plan was temporarily closed to new deferrals.

Pursuant to SEC rules, all earnings on nonqualified deferred compensation in 2009 in excess of 4.9% are deemed "above-market earnings". Based on the performance of the funds elected in advance by the participant (as described below), for "above-market earnings" on nonqualified deferred compensation see the "Change in Pension Value and Nonqualified Deferred Compensation Earnings" column of the "Summary Compensation Table".

The Motorola Management Deferred Compensation Plan uses the following funds as the index for calculating investment returns on a participant's deferrals. The participant's deferrals are deemed to be invested in these funds as per the participant's election. The participant does not actually own any share of the investment options he/she selects. The investment fund choices mirror the fund choices available in the Motorola 401(k) plan (with the exception of the Motorola stock fund). The funds are available only through variable universal life insurance products and are not publicly traded mutual funds.

Fund Offering	Investment Classification	1-Year Annualized Average
* Short-Term Investment Fund	Money Market	0.40%
* Short-Term Bond Fund	Short-Term Bond	6.35%
* Long-Term Bond Fund	Long-Term Bond	6.55%
* Balanced Fund I	Moderate Allocation	20.31%
* Balanced Fund II	Moderate Allocation	23.32%
* Large Company Equity Fund	Large Blend	27.03%
* Mid-Sized Company Equity Fund	Mid-Cap Blend	38.03%
* Small Company Equity Fund	Small Blend	28.03%
* International Equity Fund	Foreign Large Blend	32.19%

Deferral elections can be changed only during the open enrollment period prior to each plan (calendar) year. Changes to distribution elections must be filed at least 12 months in advance. Any change will require that the payment start date be at least five years later than the previous payment start date. A participant may postpone or change his/her termination payment distribution election once per plan (calendar) year. Hardship withdrawals are available, but no other nonscheduled withdrawals are available. Termination payments cannot be earlier than six months after separation from service, except in the event of disability, death or, possibly, a change in control of the Company. The amounts reported in the "Aggregate Earnings in Last FY" column represent all earnings on nonqualified deferred compensation in 2009. The portion of earnings reported as "above-market earnings" in the Summary Compensation Table in the "Change in Pension Value and Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Earnings" column would have represented the amount in excess of the 4.9% threshold established for 2009 pursuant to SEC rules.

PROXY STATEMENT 57

RETIREMENT PLANS

The Motorola Pension Plan (the "Pension Plan") and the Motorola Supplemental Pension Plan (the "MSPP") are intended to provide pension benefits to the Named Executive Officers in the future. Prior to January 1, 2005, most regular U.S. employees who had completed one year of employment with the Company or certain of its subsidiaries were eligible to participate in one or more of the Company's pension plans. Those employees become vested after five years of service. Effective January 1, 2005, newly-hired employees were no longer eligible to participate in the Pension Plan or the MSPP. Effective January 1, 2008, employees in the Pension Plan not yet vested, become vested after three years of service. Normal retirement is at age 65. Effective January 1, 2000, no additional officers were eligible for participation in the Motorola Elected Officers Supplementary Retirement Plan.

As previously disclosed, effective March 1, 2009, all future benefit accruals and compensation increases under the Pension Plan and MSPP automatically ceased for all individuals who are participants under the Pension Plan as of February 28, 2009. However, active participants continue to earn vesting credit towards their Pension Plan benefit on and after March 1, 2009 if not already fully vested.

Traditional and Portable Plan

The Pension Plan contains two benefit formulas, referred to as the Traditional Plan and the Portable Plan. The Traditional Plan provides an annual pension annuity benefit based on the participant's average earnings and the participant's benefit service, offset by the participant's estimated Social Security benefit at age 65. The Traditional Plan formula consists of (1) for service from 1978 through 1987, (a) the sum of (i) 40% of the first $20,000 of final average earnings, plus (ii) 35% of final average earnings in excess of $20,000, multiplied by (b) a fraction whose numerator is the number of months of service during that period and whose denominator is 420, plus (2) for service after 1987, 75% of final average earnings, multiplied by a fraction whose numerator is the number of months of service after 1987 (not exceeding 420) and whose denominator is 420, minus (3) 50% of the participant's projected primary annual Social Security benefit at age 65 (or the participant's later retirement age (including any delayed retirement credits or similar adjustments)) multiplied by a fraction whose numerator is the number of months of benefit service after 1977 (not exceeding 420) and whose denominator is 420.

The Portable Plan provides a lump-sum pension benefit based on the participant's average earnings, and a "benefit percentage" determined by the participant's vesting service and the participant's benefit service. The Portable Plan formula consists of (1) average earnings multiplied by the participant's cumulative benefit percentage, which cumulative benefit percentage is based on benefit service earned on or after July 1, 2000 and vesting service (where a participant's benefit percentage is determined as follows: 4% for each year of benefit service earned while the participant has five or fewer years of vesting service, plus 5% for each year of benefit service earned while the participant has more than five but less than 10 years of vesting service, plus 6% for each year of benefit service earned while the participant has more than 10 but less than 15 years of vesting service, plus 7% for each year of benefit service earned while the participant has more than 15 years of vesting service), plus (2) the participant's Traditional Plan benefit as of June 30, 2000 (if applicable) converted to a lump-sum based on the participant's age and the interest rate in effect for the year of payment.

Both Pension Plan formulas use "average earnings" to calculate the relevant pension benefit. Prior to January 1, 2008, a participant's "final average earnings" were used to calculate the relevant pension benefit, while the participant's "modified average earnings" are used to calculate the relevant pension benefit beginning on and after January 1, 2008.

A participant's "final average earnings" are his/her average earnings for the five (5) years of his/her highest pay during the last ten (10) calendar years (including years he/she did not work a complete year) of the participant's Motorola employment. A participant's "modified average earnings" are: (1) the sum of (a) his/her average earnings for the five (5) (or fewer if hired after 2002) years of his/her highest pay during the ten (10) calendar years before January 1, 2008, plus (b) his/her earnings during all years after 2007 in which he/she participated in the pension plan, divided by (2) the sum of (a) the number of years of the participant's benefit service under the Pension Plan prior to January 1, 2008, up to a maximum of five (5) years (or fewer, if less than five); plus (b) the participant's total years of participation in the Pension Plan for all years after 2007. Eligible earnings include regular earnings, commissions, overtime, lump-sum merit pay, participant contributions to the Motorola 401(k) Plan and other pre-tax plans and incentive pay with respect to the period January 1, 2000 to February 3, 2002. After February 3, 2002, incentive pay was excluded from the definition of eligible compensation.

401(k) Plan

As previously disclosed, on December 15, 2008, the Board of Directors authorized amendments to the Motorola 401(k) Plan. On this date, the Board determined that, effective January 1, 2009, the Company match of employee contributions to the 401(k) Plan were suspended until subsequent Board action in the future reactivates contributions, if any, made by the Company to the 401(k) Plan. On January 25, 2010, the Compensation and Leadership Committee recommended the Board reinstate the Company 401(k) matching contributions during the 2010 calendar year and approved an amendment to permit after-tax contributions by employees.

Motorola Supplemental Pension Plan

The Motorola Supplemental Pension Plan (the "MSPP") provides benefits for highly compensated individuals whose tax-qualified Pension Plan benefits are reduced by certain IRS limits or by participation in the Motorola Management Deferred Compensation Plan. The IRS annual salary limitation (Section 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended (the "Code")) and certain other IRS requirements reduce pension benefits from tax-qualified Pension Plans for certain highly compensated individuals. The MSPP is designed to offset these limitations. The MSPP is a non-qualified plan, which means benefits are not subject to certain nondiscrimination testing and reporting requirements of the Employment Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"); however, these amounts are unsecured, leaving the participants in the status of a general creditor of the Company.

As previously disclosed, on December 15, 2008, the Board of Directors authorized amendments to the MSPP. On this date, commensurate with the Board of Director's decision to freeze the Motorola Pension Plan, the Board of Directors also authorized the amendment of the MSPP, effective March 1, 2009, to freeze all future benefit accruals and compensation increases under this plan for all individuals who were participants under this plan as of February 28, 2009. Additionally, the MSPP was further amended to freeze any future participation in the MSPP after January 1, 2009 unless such participation was due to a prior contractual entitlement.

Effective January 1, 2007, the MSPP began imposing a limitation on the amount of eligible compensation considered when calculating any MSPP benefit. For purposes of determining whether an employee was eligible for an MSPP benefit, the amount of eligible compensation used for the benefit formula under the MSPP was equal to the Section 401(a)(17) limit plus $175,000 (the "Earnings Cap"). Consequently, the Earnings Cap only increased if the IRS statutorily increased the Section 401(a)(17) limit from year to year. Regardless of the Earnings Cap, a special transition rule was provided for those employees whose eligible compensation already exceeded the newly imposed Earnings Cap. If, as of January 1, 2007, an employee's eligible compensation exceeded the Earnings Cap effective January 1, 2007, for MSPP purposes, that employee's MSPP benefit from January 1, 2007 through February 28, 2009 was computed assuming the employee's eligible compensation was the greater of (1) the employee's frozen January 1, 2007 eligible compensation amount, or (2) the Earnings Cap for the given year. Additionally, beginning in January 2008, the benefit computation was impacted by the Pension Plan change of migrating from final average earnings to modified average earnings for benefit computation purposes under the Pension Plan.

An individual was eligible to participate in MSPP if he or she was age 55 or older with at least five years of service, was eligible to receive a Pension Plan benefit, was currently eligible to accrue additional benefits under the Pension Plan at the time of termination of employment, and the individual's pension benefit was reduced by Internal Revenue Code limitations. A participant's pension benefit and MSPP benefit together cannot exceed 70% of his or her final average earnings at retirement.

Elected Officers Supplementary Retirement Plan

The Company also maintains the Motorola Elected Officers Supplementary Retirement Plan (the "SRP Plan") for certain elected officers. Since January 1, 2000, no additional officers are eligible for participation in the SRP Plan. Mr. Delaney and Mr. Lawson are the only Named Executive Officers who participate in the SRP Plan and no other Named Executive Officer is eligible to participate in the SRP Plan. The SRP Plan provides that if the benefit payable annually (computed on a single life annuity basis) to any participating officer under one of the Company's pension plans (which is based on a percentage of final average earnings for each year of service) is less than the benefit calculated under the SRP Plan, that officer will receive supplementary payments upon retirement.

On December 15, 2008, the Board of Directors authorized amendments to the SRP Plan. On this date, commensurate with the Board of Director's decision to freeze the Motorola Pension Plan, the Board of Directors also authorized the amendment of the SRP Plan (which uses the Motorola Pension Plan retirement benefits as an offset), effective March 1, 2009, to freeze all future benefit accruals and compensation increases under those plans for all individuals who are participants under those plans as of February 28, 2009.

Table of Contents

PROXY STATEMENT 59

Generally, the total annual payments to an officer participating in the SRP Plan will equal a percentage of the sum of such officer's rate of salary at retirement (or the base salary in place on June 30, 2005, whichever is earlier) plus an amount equal to the highest average of the annual bonus awards paid to such officer for any five years within the last eight years preceding retirement. Such percentage ranges from 40% to 45%, depending upon the officer's years of service and other factors. Under an alternate formula, the total annual payments to such officer from both plans will equal the amount of the officer's retirement benefit calculated under the terms of the pension plan in which he participates, without regard to the limitation on considered compensation under qualified retirement plans in Section 401(a)(17) of the Code, or the technical benefits limitation in Section 415 of the Code. However, the total annual pension payable on the basis of a single life annuity to any Named Executive Officer from the applicable pension plan and SRP Plan is subject to a maximum of 70% of that officer's base salary prior to retirement (or the base salary in place on June 30, 2005, whichever is earlier). If the officer is vested and retires at or after age 55 but prior to age 60, he or she may elect to receive a deferred unreduced benefit when he or she attains age 60, or an actuarially reduced benefit at or after age 57, contingent upon entering into an agreement not to compete with the Company. Officers may elect a lump sum payment in lieu of annuity payments. The amount of the lump sum is based on annuity quotes from annuity providers at the time of commencement. If a change in control (as defined in the SRP Plan) of the Company occurs, the right of each non-vested elected officer to receive supplementary payments will become vested on the date of such change in control and unreduced payments may begin or be made upon retirement at or after age 55.

Mr. Lawson is vested in his SRP Plan benefit. At the time of vesting, the Company makes a contribution to the trust for that plan. The purpose of that contribution is to enable the trust to make payments of the benefits under the SRP Plan due to the participant after retirement. Federal and state tax laws require that the participant include in income the amount of any contribution in the year it was made even though the participant receives no cash in connection with such contribution or any payments from the retirement plan. Because the participant receives no cash yet incurs a significant income tax liability, the Company believes that it is appropriate to reimburse the participant so that he or she is not paying additional taxes as a result of a contribution. Mr. Lawson was reimbursed for such a tax liability in 2001. This is the Company's policy with respect to all participants in the SRP Plan.

Mr. Delaney is not vested in his SRP Plan benefit and therefore the Company has not yet made a contribution to the trust for that plan.

Participants in the SRP Plan generally become vested in the plan at age 55 with 5 years of service, or at age 60 with two years of service, or at age 65 or upon becoming disabled (without regard to years of service).

A participant's benefits derived solely under the Portable Plan and the MSPP are calculated based on an employee's length of service and the average plan compensation (generally, base pay) for the five years of highest pay during the last ten years of employment with the Company. The estimated annual pension benefits payable at age 65 are computed as a single life annuity and are not offset by Social Security benefits.

General Instrument Corporation Pension Plan and Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan

The Company acquired General Instrument Corporation in January of 2000. The General Instrument Corporation Pension Plan (the "GI Pension"), frozen on December 31, 2000, provides a pension annuity benefit based on the participant's benefit service, average monthly compensation and excess monthly compensation. Mr. Moloney and Mr. Fitzpatrick are the only Named Executive Officers who participated in the GI Pension.

The General Instrument Corporation Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan ("GI SERP"), frozen on December 31, 2000, provides benefits for highly compensated individuals whose tax qualified pension plan benefits are reduced by certain IRS limits, similar to the MSPP. Mr. Moloney is the only Named Executive Officer who participated in the GI SERP.

PROXY STATEMENT 61

EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS*Employment Agreement with Gregory Q. Brown*

On August 27, 2008, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Gregory Q. Brown, Co-Chief Executive Officer of the Company and Chief Executive of Motorola's Broadband Mobility Solutions business and a member of the Board of Directors of Motorola, Inc. The employment agreement memorialized Mr. Brown's existing base salary of $1,200,000, an annual bonus target of not less than $2,640,000, a long-range incentive award target of not less than 350% of base salary for 2008 and 250% thereafter and a 2008 special bonus target. The employment agreement has an initial three-year term, with automatic one-year renewals absent a notice of non-renewal. As previously disclosed on December 17, 2008, Mr. Brown voluntarily decided to forego any 2008 annual or special bonus under the Motorola Incentive Plan ("MIP").

On February 11, 2010, Mr. Brown's title changed to Co-Chief Executive Officer of the Company and Chief Executive Officer of Motorola's Enterprise Mobility Solutions and Networks business. The Company has announced that it plans to separate into two independent, publicly traded companies in the first quarter of 2011. The separation will result in one public company comprised of the Company's Mobile Devices and Home businesses, led by Dr. Jha, and one public company comprised of the Company's Enterprise Mobility Solutions and Networks businesses, led by Mr. Brown.

Under his employment agreement, Mr. Brown was granted 583,123 restricted stock units, 2,320,652 stock options, and 564,064 stock appreciation rights dependent on the value of Motorola Common Stock. Each of these contract awards vest ratably in three equal annual installments, with the first installment having vested on July 31, 2009. Pursuant to the employment agreement, a "post-separation equity award" of options worth $3,333,333 and restricted stock worth $1,666,667 would be granted only if and when Motorola's Mobile Devices business becomes a separate publicly traded company with a minimum market capitalization of at least $2.0 billion and will contain an additional vesting hurdle tied to a post-separation increase in the price of Motorola Common Stock. Subject to continued employment, the post-separation options and restricted stock will vest in three installments, each vesting date to be the later of: (1) the date on which the average closing price of Motorola Common Stock over a fifteen day trading period is 10% greater than the average closing price of Motorola Common Stock over the fifteen day trading period immediately following the date that the Mobile Devices business becomes a separate, publicly traded company and (2) the first, second and third anniversary of the grant.

In the event of Mr. Brown's termination of employment "without cause" or by Mr. Brown for "good reason", Mr. Brown is entitled to: (1) accrued and unpaid obligations (including base salary, vacation pay and undistributed bonuses); (2) severance equal to two times (prior to a change of control) or three times (on or after a change of control) the sum of his base salary and target annual bonus; (3) a pro-rata annual bonus based on actual performance during the year in which termination occurs; (4) two years (prior to a change of control) or three years (following a change of control), of medical insurance continuation; and (5) prior to a change of control, accelerated vesting of the contract restricted stock units, contract stock options and contract stock appreciation rights and two years continued vesting of all other equity awards; or, following a change of control, accelerated vesting of all equity awards. In the event the Company terminates Mr. Brown's employment "for cause" or Mr. Brown terminates employment without "good reason", he is entitled only to accrued and unpaid base salary and vacation pay. In the event of a termination of employment due to death or disability, Mr. Brown is entitled to accrued and unpaid obligations (including base salary, vacation pay and undistributed bonuses) and vesting of all then unvested equity awards that are outstanding at the date of termination.

"Good reason" for Mr. Brown to terminate his employment and receive the above generally includes: (1) if Mr. Brown is not the sole Chief Executive Officer of Motorola on and after January 1, 2011; (2) a reduction in salary, bonus targets or benefits; (3) a failure to continue on the Board of Directors or negative change in reporting structure; (4) a relocation of employment beyond 50 miles of Schaumburg, Illinois; (5) the failure of the successor to the Broadband Mobility Solutions business to assume the employment agreement; or (6) any other breach of the agreement.

During his employment term, Mr. Brown is eligible to participate in the health and welfare, perquisite, fringe benefits and other arrangements generally available to other senior executives, Mr. Brown is entitled to the use of the Company's aircraft for business and personal travel pursuant to the Company's security policy. Mr. Brown is not covered by the Senior Officer Change in Control Severance Plan. Mr. Brown is entitled to a gross-up for excise taxes on excess parachute payments, subject to a 10% "cut-back" (i.e., change of control payments will be reduced below the 280G safe harbor if the total payments are less than 10% in excess of 280G safe harbor).

62 PROXY STATEMENT

Mr. Brown's employment agreement contains customary restrictive covenants, including perpetual confidentiality obligations and employee non-solicitation and business non-compete provisions relating to the Company that apply during the employment period and the two-year period following termination of employment.

Employment Agreement with Sanjay K. Jha

On August 4, 2008, Dr. Sanjay K. Jha became Co-Chief Executive Officer of Motorola, Inc., Chief Executive Officer of the Mobile Devices business (the "Mobile Devices business") of Motorola, Inc. and a member of the Board of Directors of Motorola, Inc. On this same date, the Company and Dr. Jha entered into an employment agreement (the "original employment agreement") providing Dr. Jha with a base salary of $1,200,000 and a guaranteed bonus of $2,400,000 for 2008 and $1,200,000 for 2009 and a target bonus of not less than 200% of base salary thereafter. The agreement was subsequently amended on December 15, 2008 and February 11, 2010 (collectively, the "amended employment agreement").

On February 11, 2010, Dr. Jha's title changed to Co-Chief Executive Officer of the Company and Chief Executive Officer of Motorola's Mobile Devices and Home business. The Company has announced that it plans to separate into two independent, publicly traded companies in the first quarter of 2011. The separation will result in one public company comprised of the Company's Mobile Devices and Home businesses led, by Dr. Jha, and one public company comprised of the Company's Enterprise Mobility Solutions and Networks businesses, led by Mr. Brown. On this date, the Company and Dr. Jha also entered into the Second Amendment (the "Second Amendment") to Dr. Jha's amended employment agreement.

As previously disclosed on December 17, 2008, Dr. Jha voluntarily decided to forego any 2008 bonus under MIP. At that time, the Committee agreed to make a grant of RSUs to Dr. Jha in the first quarter of 2009 with a value equal to: $2,400,000 less the amount of cash that would have been payable to Mr. Brown under MIP had he not also foregone his 2008 bonus under MIP. The total cash value of the RSU award was determined on February 11, 2009 to be $1,334,000. On February 11, 2009, based on the closing price of Motorola's Common Stock, 344,615 RSUs were granted to Dr. Jha. The RSUs vest in two equal installments on February 11, 2010 and October 31, 2010.

Pursuant to make-whole awards under his original employment agreement, Dr. Jha was granted 2,304,653 RSUs and 10,211,226 options to purchase shares of Company Common Stock. Pursuant to inducement awards ("Inducement Awards") under his original employment agreement, Dr. Jha was granted 1,362,769 RSUs and 6,383,658 options to purchase shares of Company Common Stock. Each of the above equity awards vest or restrictions lapse in three equal annual installments with the first installment having vested on July 31, 2009.

Pursuant to the amended employment agreement, in the event the Mobile Devices business becomes a separate, publicly traded company (the "new Mobile Devices entity" or "new MDb"), all of Dr. Jha's outstanding equity awards that relate to Motorola Common Stock would convert into equity awards that relate to the stock of the new Mobile Devices entity. The new Mobile Devices entity will grant Dr. Jha a post-separation equity award (the "Post-Separation Equity Award") in an amount that, together with his Inducement Awards, represent between 1.8% and 3% ownership of the new Mobile Devices entity, depending on the entity's initial market capitalization. If the market capitalization of the new Mobile Devices entity is equal to or less than $6.0 billion, the Post-Separation Equity Award, together with the Inducement Awards, will represent 3% of the new Mobile Devices entity's total equity immediately following the separation. If the market capitalization is greater than $6.0 billion, the Post-Separation Equity Award, together with the Inducement Awards, will be reduced on a linear basis, calculated as the quotient obtained by dividing $6.0 billion by the market capitalization and finding the product of that ratio times 3%. 90% of the award will be stock options and 10% will be restricted stock and each will vest, subject to continued employment, in three installments, each vesting date to be the later of (a) the date on which the average closing price of new MDb common stock over a fifteen day trading period is 10% greater than the average closing price of new MDb common stock over the fifteen day trading period immediately following the date that new MDb becomes a separate, publicly traded company, and (b) the first, second and third anniversary of the grant date, as applicable.

In the event the Mobile Devices business does not become a separate, publicly traded company on or prior to June 30, 2011 (a "Separation Event") (as extended from October 31, 2010 by the Second Amendment to Dr. Jha's employment agreement) or if the Mobile Devices business is disposed of in a manner where it is not at least 50% owned by Motorola on or prior to June 30, 2011 (a "Disposition Event"), Dr. Jha will be entitled to a cash payment equal to $38 million (the "Contingent Payment") (increased from $30 million by the Second Amendment to Dr. Jha's employment agreement) and will not be entitled to the Post-Separation Equity Award. Moreover, if a Separation Event does not occur or if a Disposition Event does occur by June 30, 2011 and Dr. Jha is terminated or resigns, the Contingent Payment is in addition to other entitlements discussed below because such a termination would be deemed "without cause" or for "good reason" under the amended employment agreement. Further, if any successor to the Mobile Devices business does not assume the employment agreement, that also constitutes "good reason" for Dr. Jha to terminate and receive the other entitlements discussed below. If the Separation Event does not occur, Dr. Jha's employment with Motorola will automatically terminate "without cause" on August 31, 2011.

In the event of Dr. Jha's termination of employment "without cause" or by Dr. Jha for "good reason", Dr. Jha is entitled to: (1) accrued and unpaid obligations (including base salary, vacation pay and undistributed bonuses); (2) severance equal to two times (prior to a change of control) or three times (on or after a change of control) the sum of Dr. Jha's base salary and target annual bonus; (3) a pro-rata annual bonus based on actual performance during the year in which termination has occurred; (4) two years (prior to a change of control) or three years (following a change of control), of medical insurance continuation; (5) prior to a change of control, accelerated vesting of the make-whole award RSUs and options, inducement award RSUs and options and two years continued vesting of all other equity awards; and, following a change of control, accelerated vesting of all equity awards; and (6) in the event that the Mobile Devices business does not become a separate, publicly traded company and Dr. Jha's employment is terminated on or prior to June 30, 2011, the Contingent Payment, to the extent not previously paid. In the event the Company terminates Dr. Jha's employment "for cause" or Dr. Jha terminates employment "without good reason", he is entitled only to accrued and unpaid base salary and vacation pay. In the event of a termination of employment due to death or disability, Dr. Jha is entitled to accrued and unpaid obligations (including base salary, vacation pay and undistributed bonuses) and vesting of all then unvested equity awards that are outstanding as of the date of termination.

"Good reason" for Dr. Jha to terminate his employment and receive the above generally includes: (1) a Separation Event has not occurred on or prior to June 30, 2011 or a Disposition Event has occurred by June 30, 2011; (2) a reduction in salary, bonus targets or benefits; (3) a failure to continue on the Board of Directors or negative change in reporting structure; (4) a relocation of employment beyond 50 miles of Libertyville, Illinois; (5) the failure of the successor to the Mobile Devices business to assume the employment agreement; or (6) any other breach of the agreement.

Dr. Jha is eligible to receive a long-term incentive award commensurate with his position in May 2010 when annual equity awards are made.

During his employment term, Dr. Jha is eligible to participate in the health and welfare, perquisite, fringe benefits and other arrangements generally available to other senior executives. Dr. Jha is entitled to the use of the Company's aircraft for business and personal travel pursuant to the Company's security policy. Dr. Jha is entitled to relocation expenses, including temporary housing, until the Separation Event or June 30, 2011, whichever is earlier. Dr. Jha is not covered by the Senior Officer Change in Control Severance Plan and did not participate in LRIP in 2008 or 2009. Dr. Jha is entitled to a gross-up for excise taxes on excess parachute payments, subject to a 10% "cut-back" (i.e., change of control payments will be reduced below the 280G safe harbor if the total payments are less than 10% in excess of the 280G safe harbor).

Dr. Jha's employment agreement contains customary restrictive covenants, including perpetual confidentiality obligations and employee non-solicitation and business non-compete provisions relating to the Company and the new Mobile Devices entity that apply during the employment period and the two-year period following termination of employment.

Employment Offer Agreement with and Termination of Paul J. Liska

Effective March 1, 2008, Paul J. Liska became Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company. On February 15, 2008, the Company and Mr. Liska entered into an employment offer agreement providing Mr. Liska with a base salary of $750,000 and a cash sign-on bonus of $400,000. Pursuant to his employment offer agreement, Mr. Liska's target award under MIP, the annual cash incentive plan, was 95% of his base salary and the target award under the Long-Range Incentive Plan was 150% of his base salary as of March 1, 2008. Pursuant to the employment offer agreement, the Company also granted Mr. Liska 583,000 stock options to acquire the Company's Common Stock, 131,000 restricted stock units which were to vest on the third anniversary of the date of grant, and another 131,000 restricted stock units which were to vest equally thirty months and sixty months from the date of grant. Pursuant to the employment offer agreement, the Company also granted Mr. Liska market-based stock options to acquire 728,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock with an exercise price based on the closing price for a share of the Company's Common Stock on February 29, 2008. These market-based options were to vest as follows: (1) 242,666 option shares were to vest only if and to the extent the closing price for a share of the Company's Common Stock meets or exceeds $16.00 for 10 trading days out of any 30 consecutive trading days from March 1, 2008 until March 1, 2011; (2) an additional 242,666 option shares were to vest only if and to the extent the closing price for a share of the Company's Common Stock meets or exceeds $20.00 for 10 trading days out of any 30 consecutive trading days from March 1, 2008 until March 1, 2013; and (3) an additional 242,668 option shares were to vest only if and to the extent the closing price for a share of the Company's Common Stock meets or exceeds $23.00 for 10 trading days out of any 30 consecutive trading days from March 1, 2008 until March 1, 2015.

64 PROXY STATEMENT

On February 19, 2009, Mr. Liska was involuntarily terminated for cause. Pursuant to his employment offer agreement, Mr. Liska is not entitled to any severance allowance and is required to repay the $400,000 cash sign-on bonus. All vested or unvested options and unvested RSUs are forfeited as of February 19, 2009. As of the date of his termination, no equity awards had vested. Further, the Compensation and Leadership Committee determined on February 24, 2009 that Mr. Liska would not receive a 2008 MIP award. He is not eligible for any incentive award under the 2008-2010 cycle of the Long-Range Incentive Plan (the "LRIP") per the terms of the LRIP.

For purposes of entitlement to severance payments described in Mr. Liska's employment offer agreement, "Cause" means (1) willful and continued failure to substantially perform duties, other than any such failure resulting from incapacity due to physical or mental illness, which failure has continued for a period of at least 30 days; or (2) willful engagement in (A) in any malfeasance, dishonesty or fraud that is intended to or does result in personal enrichment or a material detrimental effect on the Company's reputation or business or (B) gross misconduct; or (3) indictment for, or plea of guilty or nolo contendere to (A) a felony in the United States or (B) a felony outside the United States, which, regardless of where such felony occurs, the independent directors of the Board reasonably believe, has had or will have, a detrimental effect on the Company's reputation or business or Mr. Liska's reputation; or (4) breach of one or more restrictive covenants in any written agreement between Mr. Liska and Motorola. For purposes of the sign-on bonus, annual bonus, and sign-on equity incentives, "Cause" is as defined in the 2006 Omnibus Incentive Plan.

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND CHANGE IN CONTROL ARRANGEMENTS

Change in Control Arrangements

The Company has Change in Control Severance Plans (the "Plans") for its elected officers. The Plan applicable to the Named Executive Officers, other than Mr. Brown and Dr. Jha, is the Motorola, Inc. Senior Officer Change in Control Severance Plan (the "Senior Officer Plan"). The Senior Officer Plan provides for the payment of benefits in the event that: (1) an executive officer terminates his or her employment for "Good Reason" (as defined) within two years of a "Change in Control" (as defined), or (2) the executive officer's employment is involuntarily terminated for any reason other than termination for "Cause" (as defined), Disability, death or normal retirement within two years of a change in control of the Company. In addition to unpaid salary for accrued vacation days and accrued salary through the termination date, the amount of the benefits payable to an executive officer entitled thereto would be equal to the sum of:

- (1) three times the greater of the executive officer's highest annual base salary in effect during the three years immediately preceding the Change in Control and the annual base salary in effect on the termination date; plus
- (2) three times the highest annual bonus received by the executive officer during the immediately preceding five fiscal years ending on or before the termination date; plus
- (3) a pro rata target bonus for the performance period (year, quarter or month) in which the termination occurs.

The executive officer would also receive continued medical and insurance benefits for 3 years, and 3 years of age and service credit for retiree medical eligibility. In the event the executive officer is subject to the excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code, the Company will make a tax reimbursement payment to the executive officer to offset the impact of such excise tax. The Senior Officer Plan's term is for 3 years, subject to automatic one-year extensions unless the Company gives 90 days prior notice that it does not wish to extend. In addition, if a Change in Control occurs during the term, the Plans continue for an additional two years. These Plans replaced individual agreements that the Company began providing in 1988. In addition to plans covering all of the Company's officers, there are change in control protections for the general employee population in the Motorola, Inc. Involuntary Severance Plan. A previous stand-alone change in control severance plan for the general employee population was terminated in 2008.

PROXY STATEMENT 65

In addition, except as otherwise determined by the Compensation and Leadership Committee at the time of the grant of an award, under the 2006 Omnibus Incentive Plan, upon a change in control of the Company: all equity-based awards granted to an executive officer become fully vested and exercisable; all performance goals are deemed achieved at target levels and all other terms and conditions met; all performance stock would be delivered as promptly as practicable; all performance units, restricted stock units and other units would be paid out as promptly as practicable; all annual management incentive awards would be paid out at target levels (or earned levels, if greater) and all other terms and conditions deemed met; and all other stock or cash awards would be delivered and paid. Such treatment (referred to herein as "Accelerated Treatment") does not apply if and to the extent that such awards are assumed by the successor corporation (or parent thereof) or are replaced with awards that preserve the existing value of such awards at the time of the change in control and provide for subsequent payout in accordance with the same vesting schedule applicable to the original awards. With respect to any awards that are so assumed or replaced, such assumed or replaced awards shall provide for the Accelerated Treatment with respect to any executive officer that is involuntarily terminated (for a reason other than "Cause") (as defined) or quits for "Good Reason" (as defined) within 24 months of the change in control.

Executive Severance Plan

The Company adopted an Executive Severance Plan ("ESP") for all elected officers and appointed vice presidents, effective October 1, 2008. The ESP is applicable to Named Executive Officers in the Summary Compensation Table. The ESP provides for the payment of benefits in the event that an executive officer's employment is terminated by Motorola other than: (a) for total and permanent disability, (b) for Cause (as defined therein), (c) due to death, (d) if the executive officer is offered employment at a substantially similar direct compensation level with another company in connection with a sale, lease, outsourcing arrangement or other asset transfer or transfer of any portion of a facility or all or any portion of a discrete organizational unit or business segment of Motorola or remains employed by an affiliate or subsidiary that is sold or spun off, (e) if the termination of employment is followed by immediate or continued employment by Motorola or an affiliate or subsidiary, or (f) if the executive terminates voluntarily for any reason. In addition to accrued salary through the separation date, the amount of the benefits payable to an executive officer who signs a prescribed separation agreement and general release of claims against Motorola would be equal to the sum of:

- (1) 12 months of base salary; and
- (2) Pro rata alternate annual bonus or pro rata alternate sales incentive, whichever is applicable, for the performance period (year, month or quarter, as applicable) in which separation occurs.

In addition, the executive officer would receive (a) 12 months of continued medical plan coverage at the active employee premium rate, offset against the COBRA amount, (b) up to 12 months outplacement services, and (c) financial planning services. Any severance pay and benefits paid under the ESP are to be offset against any severance pay and benefits payable under the Senior Officer Change in Control Plan and/or other individual severance arrangements. If an executive officer receives an alternate annual bonus or alternate sales incentive under the ESP, the executive officer is not to receive an annual bonus or sales incentive under any applicable plan for the same performance period. All equity grants and other benefits are to be administered in accord with their prescribed terms. The Compensation and Leadership Committee of the Motorola Board of Directors, or in some circumstances its delegate, may, in its sole discretion, reduce, eliminate or otherwise adjust the amount of an executive officer's severance pay and benefits, including any bonus or incentive.

Termination and Change in Control Table for 2009

The tables below outline the potential payments to our Co-Chief Executive Officers and other Named Executive Officers upon the occurrence of certain termination triggering events. For the purposes of the table, below are the standard definitions for the various types of termination, although exact definitions may vary by agreement and by person.

"Voluntary termination" means a termination initiated by the officer.

"Voluntary termination for Good Reason" occurs when, other than in connection with a Change in Control, employment is terminated by an officer for Good Reason.

"Good Reason" means (1) an officer is assigned duties materially inconsistent with his position, duties, responsibilities and status, or his duties are materially diminished, during the 90-day period immediately preceding a Change in Control, (2) his position, authority, duties or responsibilities are materially diminished from those in effect during the 90-day period immediately preceding a Change in Control, (3) his annual base salary or total annual compensation opportunity are materially reduced, (4) the Company requires regular performance of duties beyond a 50-mile radius from the officer's current location, (5) the Company fails to obtain a satisfactory agreement from any successor to assume and perform the relevant plan, or (6) any other material breach of the relevant plan. In the case of Dr. Jha, "Good Reason" also means (1) a failure to continue on the Board of Directors or a negative change in reporting structure; (2) a Separation Event has not occurred on or prior to June 30, 2011 or a Disposition Event has occurred by June 30, 2011; or (3) the failure of the successor to the Mobile Devices business to assume his employment agreement. In the case of Mr. Brown, "Good Reason" also means (1) a failure to continue on the Board of Directors or a negative change in reporting structure; (2) Mr. Brown is not the sole Chief Executive Officer of Motorola on and after January 1, 2011; or (3) the failure of the successor to the Broadband Mobility Solutions business to assume his employment agreement.

"Voluntary termination Retirement" means, apart from any pension plan or MIP, for purposes of the 2006 Omnibus Incentive Plan and the 2006 and 2009 Long-Range Incentive Plans, retirement after reaching age 55 with at least 20 years of service, or age 60 with at least 10 years of service, or age 65; for purposes of the Motorola Incentive Plans, retirement after reaching age 55 with 3 years of service; and for purposes of the Motorola Elected Officer Supplementary Retirement Plan, retirement after reaching age 60 (early retirement age for an unreduced benefit) or age 57 for a reduced benefit retirement, if applicable.

"Involuntary Termination Total and Permanent Disability" means termination of employment following entitlement to long-term disability benefits under the Motorola Disability Income Plan, as amended and any successor plan, or a determination of a permanent and total disability under a state workers compensation statute.

"Involuntary Termination For Cause" means termination of employment following any misconduct identified as a ground for termination in the Motorola Code of Business Conduct, or the human resources policies, or other written policies or procedures, including among other things, conviction for any criminal violation involving dishonesty, fraud or breach of trust or willful engagement in gross misconduct in the performance of the officer's duties that materially injures the Company.

"Involuntary Termination Not for Cause" means termination of employment for reasons other than "For Cause", Change in Control as defined below, death, Retirement or Total and Permanent Disability as defined above.

"Involuntary Termination for Change in Control" occurs when, at any time (1) following a Change in Control and, assuming equity awards are not suitably replaced by a successor, prior to the second anniversary of a Change in Control or (2) during the 12 months prior to a Change in Control but after such time as negotiations or discussions that ultimately lead to a Change in Control have commenced, employment is terminated (a) involuntarily for any reason other than Cause, death, Disability or retirement under a mandatory retirement policy of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or (b) by the officer after the occurrence of an event giving rise to Good Reason. For purposes of this definition, "Cause" means (1) conviction of any criminal violation involving dishonesty, fraud or breach of trust or (2) willful engagement in gross misconduct in the performance of the officer's duties that materially injures the Company, and "Disability" means a condition such that the officer by reason of physical or mental disability becomes unable to perform his normal duties for more than 180 days in the aggregate (excluding infrequent or temporary absence due to ordinary transitory illness) during any 12 month period.

PROXY STATEMENT 67

"Change in Control" (as used in the prior definition of "Involuntary Termination for a Change in Control") shall be deemed to have occurred if (1) any "person" or "group" (as such terms are used in Section 13(d) and 14(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act")) is or becomes the "beneficial owner" (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of securities of the Company representing 20% or more of the combined voting power of the Company's then outstanding securities (other than the Company or any employee benefit plan of the Company, and no Change in Control shall be deemed to have occurred as a result of the "beneficial ownership," or changes therein, of the Company's securities by either of the foregoing), (2) there shall be consummated (a) any consolidation or merger of the Company in which the Company is not the surviving or continuing corporation or pursuant to which shares of Common Stock would be converted into or exchanged for cash, securities or other property, other than a merger of the Company in which the holders of Common Stock immediately prior to the merger have, directly or indirectly, at least a 65% ownership interest in the outstanding Common Stock of the surviving corporation immediately after the merger, or (b) any sale, lease, exchange or other transfer (in one transaction or a series of related transactions) of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company other than any such transaction with entities in which the holder of the Company's Common Stock, directly or indirectly, have at least 65% ownership interest, (3) the shareholders of the Company approve any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of the Company, or (4) as the result of, or in connection with, any cash tender offer, exchange offer, merger or other business combination, sale of assets, proxy or consent solicitation (other than by the Board), contested election or substantial stock accumulation (a "Control Transaction"), the members of the Board immediately prior to first public announcement relating to such Control Transaction shall thereafter cease to constitute a majority of the Board.

As required, the amounts included in the following tables reflect theoretical potential payouts based on the assumption that the applicable triggering event occurred on December 31, 2009. For each officer, the columns included reflect the triggering events that were theoretically possible on December 31, 2009.

- (1) For purposes of this analysis, we assumed the Named Executive Officers' compensation is as follows: Mr. Brown's base salary is equal to $900,000, his short-term incentive target opportunity under MIP is equal to 220% of base salary, and his long-term incentive target opportunity under the 2008-2010 Long-Range Incentive Plan ("LRIP") cycle is equal to 350% of cycle salary and under 2009-2011 LRIP is equal to 350% of cycle salary. Dr. Jha's base salary is equal to $900,000, and his short-term incentive target opportunity under MIP is equal to 200% of base salary. Per his employment agreement, Dr. Jha is not eligible to participate in the 2008-2010 or 2009-2011 LRIP cycle. Mr. Fitzpatrick's base salary is equal to $450,000, his short-term incentive target opportunity under MIP is equal to 75% of base salary, and his long-term incentive target opportunity under the 2008-2010 LRIP cycle is equal to 107.5% of cycle salary and under the 2009-2011 LRIP cycle is equal to 87.5% of cycle salary. Mr. Liska's base salary was equal to $750,000, his short-term incentive target opportunity under MIP was equal to 95% of base salary, and his long-term incentive target opportunity under the 2008-2010 LRIP cycle was equal to 180% of cycle salary. Mr. Liska was not eligible to participate in 2009-2011 LRIP cycle. Mr. Delaney's base salary is equal to $575,000, his short-term incentive target opportunity under MIP is equal to 95% of base salary, and his long-term incentive target opportunity under the 2008-2010 LRIP cycle is equal to 170% of cycle salary and under the 2009-2011 LRIP cycle is equal to 185% of cycle salary. Mr. Moloney's base salary was equal to $600,000, his short-term incentive target opportunity under MIP was equal to 95% of base salary, and his long-term incentive target opportunity under the 2008-2010 LRIP cycle was equal to 180% of cycle salary and under the 2009-2011 LRIP cycle was equal to 185% of cycle salary. Mr. Lawson's base salary is equal to $540,000, his short-term incentive target opportunity under MIP is equal to 95% of base salary, and his long-term incentive target opportunity under the 2008-2010 LRIP cycle is equal to 180% of cycle salary and under the 2009-2011 LRIP cycle is equal to 185% of cycle salary.

- (2) Under Involuntary Termination Not for Cause, severance is generally calculated as 12 months of base salary pursuant to the Executive Severance Plan. For Mr. Brown and Dr. Jha, severance is calculated 2x base salary plus 2x target MIP award, as further discussed in "Employment Agreement with Gregory Q. Brown" and "Employment Agreement with Sanjay K. Jha", respectively. Under Involuntary

Termination Change in Control, severance is calculated as 3x base salary + 3x highest bonus during the five full years preceding the termination date pursuant to the Senior Officer Change in Control Severance Plan and pursuant to Mr. Brown and Dr. Jha's respective employment agreements is calculated as 3x base salary + 3x target bonus in the year of termination. Actual severance payments may vary. See "Executive Severance Plan" for further details.

(3)

Assumes the effective date of termination is December 31, 2009 and that the payment under the short-term incentive plan is equal to the full target award; the pro rata payment under 2008-2010 LRIP cycle is equal to two-thirds of the target award and under 2009-2011 LRIP cycle is equal to one-third of the target award if the Named Executive Officer meets the rule of retirement described below or as otherwise provided in a Separation Agreement, if applicable. If the Named Executive Officer does not meet the rule of retirement under the 2009 Motorola Incentive Plan (age 55 + 3 years service) or under the Long-Range Incentive Plans (either age 55 + 20 years service, age 60 + 10 years service or age 65) on the effective date of termination, zeroes are entered under Voluntary Termination Retirement. If a Named

Table of Contents

PROXY STATEMENT 71

Executive Officer has not met the applicable rule of retirement, they are not automatically entitled to a pro rata payment under the Company's long-term incentive plans in the event of an Involuntary Termination Not for Cause unless the LRIP cycle is in its final year at the time of termination. Therefore, Messrs. Brown, Delaney, Fitzpatrick, Liska and Moloney reflect no pro-rata LRIP payment for the 2008-2010 cycle and 2009-2011 cycle in the event of an Involuntary Termination Not for Cause.

- (4) On April 21, 2008, the Compensation and Leadership Committee of the Board of Directors of Motorola, Inc. approved the cancellation of the 2007-2009 performance cycle under the Company's Long-Range Incentive Plan of 2006 without the payment of awards for such performance cycle.
- (5) Assumes the effective date of termination is December 31, 2009 and the price per share of the Company's Common Stock on the date of termination is $7.76 per share, the closing price on December 31, 2009. If the Named Executive Officer does not meet the rule of retirement, if applicable, under the equity plans (either age 55 + 20 years service, age 60 + 10 years service or age 65) on the effective date of termination, zeroes are entered under Voluntary Termination Retirement. For Involuntary Termination Not For Cause, the vesting for unvested RSUs granted on or after May 3, 2006 to August 1, 2009 is pro-rata accelerated for full years of service from the grant date to the termination date. For RSUs granted on or after August 1, 2009, the vesting for unvested RSUs is pro-rata accelerated for full months of service from the grant date to the termination date. For Mr. Brown and Dr. Jha, under Voluntary Termination Good Reason and Involuntary Termination Not For Cause, the unvested equity granted under each of their employment agreements accelerate with all other equity continuing to vest for a period of two years following terminations. The value of dividend equivalent shares on awards granted prior to May 1, 2006 until dividends were suspended on February 3, 2009 are not included.
- (6) Payments associated with Benefits and Perquisites are limited to the items listed. No other benefits or perquisite continuation occurs under the termination scenarios listed that are not otherwise available to all regular U.S. employees.
- (7) Health and Welfare Benefits Continuation is calculated as 12 months (except Mr. Brown and Dr. Jha are calculated as 24 months per their respective employment agreements) as provided in the Executive Severance Plan under Involuntary Termination Not for Cause and as 36 months under Involuntary Termination Change in Control and as provided for in a Separation Agreement under Separation Agreement, if applicable.
- (8) If the "parachute payment" (severance + value of accelerated equity) is greater than three times the average W-2 reported compensation for the preceding five years, then an "excise tax" is imposed on the portion of the parachute payment that exceeds the average W-2 reported compensation for the preceding years. Per Motorola's Change In Control Severance Plan, an additional "gross up payment" equal to the value of the excise tax imposed will be paid. These estimates do not take into account mitigation tax payments made in consideration of non-competition agreements or as reasonable compensation. The determination to whether and when a "gross up payment" is required, the amount of the "gross up payment" and the assumptions to be utilized in arriving at such determination, will be made by the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, currently KPMG LLP.
- (9) See "Nonqualified Deferred Compensation in 2009" for a discussion of nonqualified deferred compensation. There would be no further enhancement or acceleration upon a termination or change in control.
- (10) Our Senior Officer Change in Control Severance Plan uses a "double trigger". In other words, in order for severance benefits to be "triggered", (1) a change in control must occur and (2) an executive must be involuntarily terminated for a reason other than "cause" or must leave for "good reason" within 24 months of the change in control.
- (11) Dr. Jha is not eligible to participate in LRIP for the 2008-2010 and 2009-2011 cycles pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement.
- (12)

Edgar Filing: MOTOROLA INC - Form DEF 14A

Under his employment agreement in effect at December 31, 2009, Dr. Jha was only entitled to the $30 million if: (1) the separation of the Mobile Devices business does not occur on or prior to October 31, 2010, (2) the Company disposes of the Mobile Devices business resulting in Motorola owning less than 50% of the business on or prior to October 31, 2010, (3) terminates Dr. Jha without cause as defined in his employment agreement, or (4) Dr. Jha terminates for good reason as defined in his employment agreement. On February 11, 2010, the Second Amendment to Dr. Jha's employment agreement increased the contingent payment to $38 million and extended the date for the completion of the separation or disposition from October 31, 2010 to June 30, 2011. See "Employment Agreement with Sanjay K. Jha" for further details.

This Elected Officer SRP Plan amount reflects the accrued benefit value at December 31, 2009 for retirement eligible participants. For a retirement eligible participant, in the event of death, the participant's surviving spouse would receive half of the retirement benefit, as of the date immediately prior to the participant's death, in a lifetime annuity payable monthly. Mr. Lawson and Mr. Delaney are the only Named Executive Officers who participate in the Elected Officer SRP Plan and only Mr. Lawson is vested and retirement eligible. In the event of a change in control or disability, a participant of any age at termination is entitled to an unreduced benefit upon retirement or after age 55.

The following "Report of Audit and Legal Committee" and related disclosure shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating this Proxy Statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act") or under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates this information by reference, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under such Acts.

AUDIT AND LEGAL COMMITTEE MATTERS

Report of Audit and Legal Committee

Dr. J. White, the Chair, Mr. Meister, Mr. Meredith and Mr. Vinciguerra, all non-employee directors, were the members of the Audit and Legal Committee at the end of 2009. The Committee operates pursuant to a written charter that was amended and restated by the Board as of January 26, 2010. A copy of the Committee's current charter is available at www.motorola.com/investor.

On February 11, 2010, the Board determined that each member of the Committee was independent within the meaning of relevant NYSE listing standards, SEC rules and the Motorola, Inc. Director Independence Guidelines. The Board also determined that (1) each member of the Committee is an "audit committee financial expert" as defined by SEC rules, whose expertise has been attained through relevant experience as discussed in "Who Are the Nominees?", and (2) each member of the Committee is "financially literate."

The responsibilities of the Committee include assisting the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities as they relate to the Company's accounting policies, internal controls, financial reporting practices and legal and regulatory compliance. The Committee also appoints and retains the independent registered public accounting firm.

The Committee fulfills its responsibilities through periodic meetings with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, internal auditors and management. During 2009, the Committee met nine times. The Committee schedules its meetings with a view toward ensuring that it devotes appropriate attention to all of its tasks. During certain of these meetings, the Committee meets privately with the independent registered public accounting firm, the chief financial officer, the director of internal audit, the chief legal counsel and, from time-to-time, other members of management. Outside of formal meetings, Committee members had telephone calls to discuss important matters with management and the independent registered public accounting firm. The Committee also obtains a review, of the nature described in Statement on Auditing Standards (SAS) No. 100, from the independent registered public accounting firm containing the results of their review of the interim financial statements.

Throughout the year, the Committee monitors matters related to the independence of KPMG LLP ("KPMG"), the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. As part of its monitoring activities, the Committee reviews the relationships between the independent registered public accounting firm and the Company. After reviewing the relationships and discussing them with management, the Committee discussed KPMG's overall relationship with the Company, as well as their objectivity and independence. Based on its review, the Committee is satisfied with the auditors' independence.

KPMG also has confirmed to the Committee in writing, as required by applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (the "PCAOB") regarding the independent accountant's communications with the Audit Committee concerning independence, that, in its professional judgment, it is independent of the Company under all relevant professional and regulatory standards.

The Committee also discussed with management, the internal auditors and the independent registered public accounting firm, the quality and adequacy of the Company's internal controls and the internal audit function's management, organization, responsibilities, budget and staffing. The Committee reviewed with both the independent registered public accounting firm and the internal auditors their audit plans, audit scope and identification of audit risks.

The Committee discussed and reviewed with the independent registered public accounting firm all matters required by the standards of the PCAOB, including those described in SAS No. 61, "Communication With Audit Committees," as amended. With and without management present, the Committee discussed and reviewed the results of the independent registered public accounting firm's examination of the consolidated financial statements. The Committee also discussed the results of the internal audit examinations.

The Committee reviewed the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company as of and for the year ended December 31, 2009, with management and the independent registered public accounting firm. Management has the responsibility for the preparation and integrity of the Company's consolidated financial statements and the independent registered public accounting firm has the responsibility for the examination of those statements. Based on the above-mentioned review and discussions with management and the independent registered public accounting firm, the Committee recommended to the Board that the Company's audited consolidated financial statements be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Committee also reviewed management's report on its assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2009 and the report of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2009. Management is responsible for maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting and for its assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting. The Company's independent registered public accounting firm has the responsibility for auditing the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting and expressing an opinion thereon based on their audit. Based on the above-mentioned review and discussions with management and the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, the Committee recommended to the Board that management's report on its assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2009 and the report of our independent registered public accounting firm be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

As specified in the Audit and Legal Committee Charter, it is not the duty of the Committee to plan or conduct audits or to determine that the Company's consolidated financial statements are complete and accurate and in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. That is the responsibility of management and the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. In giving its recommendation to the Board of Directors, the Committee has relied on: (1) management's representation that such consolidated financial statements have been prepared with integrity and objectivity and in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, and (2) the reports of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm with respect to such consolidated financial statements.

Respectfully submitted,

John A. White, Chair
Keith A. Meister
Thomas J. Meredith

74 PROXY STATEMENT

Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm Fees

KPMG LLP ("KPMG") served as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2009 and December 31, 2008 and is serving in such capacity for the current fiscal year. The Audit and Legal Committee appoints and engages the independent registered public accounting firm annually. The decision of the Committee is based on auditor qualifications and performance on audit engagements.

Representatives of KPMG are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting and will have the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and to respond to appropriate questions from stockholders.

Total Fees Billed by KPMG

The aggregate fees billed by KPMG for professional services to the Company were $20.0 million in 2009 and $20.3 million in 2008.

Audit Fees

The aggregate fees billed by KPMG for professional services rendered in connection with the audit of the Company's annual financial statements, the audit of internal control over financial reporting, the review of the Company's quarterly financial statements, and services that are normally provided in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements were $18.3 million in 2009 and $19.3 million in 2008. In 2009 and 2008, $6.1 million and $4.8 million of the audit fees, respectively, were related to separate audits of businesses performed in connection with the proposed separation of the Company.

Audit-Related Fees

The aggregate fees billed by KPMG for assurance and related services reasonably related to the performance of the audit of the Company's financial statements, but not included under Audit Fees, were $1.3 million in 2009 and $0.3 million in 2008. These fees are primarily related to audits and due diligence in connection with acquisitions and dispositions by the Company and miscellaneous assurance services.

Tax Fees

The aggregate fees billed by KPMG for tax services were $0.4 million in 2009 and $0.7 million in 2008. The 2009 fees are primarily related to assistance with international transfer pricing and international tax audit services.

All Other Fees

The aggregate fees for all other services rendered by KPMG were $0 in both 2009 and 2008.

The following table further summarizes fees billed to the Company by KPMG during 2009 and 2008.

(In millions)	2009	2008
Audit Fees	$18.3	$19.3
Audit-Related Fees	$1.3	$0.3
Tax Fees
International Tax Services	$0.4	$0.5
U.S. Tax Services	$0.0	$0.2
	$0.4	$0.7
All Other Fees	$0.0	$0.0
Total	$20.0	$20.3

Audit and Legal Committee Pre-Approval Policies

In addition to retaining KPMG to audit the Company's consolidated financial statements and internal control over financial reporting for 2009, KPMG and other accounting firms were retained to provide auditing and advisory services in 2009. The Audit and Legal Committee (the "Audit Committee") has historically engaged KPMG to provide divestiture and acquisition-related due diligence and audit services, audit-related assurance services, and certain tax services. The Audit Committee has further determined that the Company will obtain non-audit services from KPMG only when the services offered by KPMG are competitive with other service providers and do not impair the independence of KPMG.

The Audit Committee Auditor Fee Policy requires the pre-approval of all professional services provided to the Company by KPMG. Below is a summary of the policy and procedures.

The Audit Committee pre-approves the annual audit plan and the annual audit fee. The Audit Committee policy includes an approved list of non-audit services that KPMG can provide, including audit-related services, tax services, and other services. The Audit Committee pre-approves the annual non-audit related services and budget. The Audit Committee allows the Company's Chief Accounting Officer to authorize payment for any audit and non-audit service in the approved budget. The Committee also provides the Company's Chief Accounting Officer with the authority to pre-approve fees less than $100,000 that were not in the annual budget, but that are in the list of services approved by the Committee. This authority excludes approval over the annual integrated audit, internal control over financial reporting services, and tax services. The Audit Committee Chairman has the authority to pre-approve fees on the list of approved services, outside of the Chief Accounting Officer's allowable authorization, in advance of the Audit Committee meeting. The Chief Accounting Officer is responsible to report any approval decisions to the Committee at its next scheduled meeting. The Committee reviews, and if necessary, approves updated audit and non-audit services and fees in comparison to the previous approved budget at each regular Committee meeting.

In 2009, management did not approve any services that were not on the list of services pre-approved by the Committee.

COMMUNICATIONS

How Can I Recommend a Director Candidate to the Governance and Nominating Committee?

The Governance and Nominating Committee will consider a candidate for director proposed by a stockholder. A candidate must be highly qualified and be both willing and expressly interested in serving on the Board. A stockholder wishing to propose a candidate for the Committee's consideration should forward the candidate's name and information about the candidate's qualifications in writing to the Governance and Nominating Committee, c/o Secretary, Motorola, Inc., 1303 E. Algonquin Road, Schaumburg, Illinois 60196.

The Governance and Nominating Committee will consider nominees recommended by Motorola stockholders provided that the recommendation contains sufficient information for the Governance and Nominating Committee to assess the suitability of the candidate, including the candidate's qualifications. Candidates recommended by stockholders that comply with these procedures will receive the same consideration that candidates recommended by the Committee and management receive.

What is the Deadline and How Do I Submit Nominations to the Board?

A stockholder wishing to nominate a candidate for election to the Board at the 2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders is required to give written notice addressed to the Secretary, Motorola, Inc., 1303 E. Algonquin Road, Schaumburg, Illinois 60196 of his or her intention to make such a nomination. The notice of nomination must be received by the Company's Secretary at the address above no later than 5:00 pm Central Time on January 26, 2011.

The notice of nomination is required to contain certain information about both the nominee and the stockholder making the nomination as set forth in the Company's Bylaws. In addition, it must include information regarding the recommended candidate relevant to a determination of whether the recommended candidate would be barred from being considered independent under New York Stock Exchange Rule 303A.02(b), or, alternatively, a statement that the recommended candidate would not be so barred. A nomination that does not comply with the above requirements will not be considered.

What is the Deadline and How Do I Submit Proposals For the 2011 Annual Meeting?

Any stockholder who intends to present a proposal at the Company's 2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders must send the proposal to: Secretary, Motorola, Inc., 1303 East Algonquin Road, Schaumburg, Illinois 60196.

If the stockholder intends to present the proposal at the Company's 2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and have it included in the Company's proxy materials for that meeting, the proposal must be received by the Company no later than November 12, 2010, and must comply with the requirements of Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Company is not obligated to include any shareholder proposal in its proxy materials for the 2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders if the proposal is received after 5:00 pm Central Time on November 12, 2010.

If a stockholder wishes to present a proposal at the 2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders but not have it included in the Company's proxy materials for that meeting, the proposal: (1) must be received by the Company no later than January 26, 2011, (2) must present a proper matter for shareholder action under Delaware General Corporation Law, (3) must present a proper matter for consideration at such meeting under the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, (4) must be submitted in a manner that is consistent with the submission requirements provided in the Company's Bylaws, and (5) must relate to subject matter which could not be excluded from a proxy statement under any rule promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

How Can I Communicate with the Board?

All communications to the Board of Directors, Chairman of the Board, the non-management directors or any individual director, must be in writing and addressed to them c/o Secretary, Motorola, Inc., 1303 East Algonquin Road, Schaumburg, IL 60196 or by email to boardofdirectors@motorola.com.

76 PROXY STATEMENT

OTHER MATTERS

The Board knows of no other business to be transacted at the 2010 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, but if any other matters do come before the meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the accompanying proxy to vote or act with respect to them in accordance with their best judgment.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Each director and certain officers of the Company are required to report to the Securities and Exchange Commission, by a specified date, his or her transactions related to Motorola Common Stock. Based solely on a review of the copies of reports furnished to the Company or written representations that no other reports were required, the Company believes that, during the 2009 fiscal year, all filing requirements applicable to its officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners were complied with on a timely basis.

Manner and Cost of Proxy Solicitation

The Company pays the cost of soliciting proxies. In addition to mailing proxies, officers, directors and regular employees of the Company, acting on its behalf, may solicit proxies by telephone, personal interview or other electronic means. You may also be solicited by means of press releases issued by the Company and advertisements in periodicals. Also, the Company has retained D.F. King & Co., Inc. ("D.F. King") to aid in soliciting proxies for a fee estimated not to exceed $21,500 plus expenses. The Company will, at its expense, request banks, brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward proxy soliciting material to the beneficial owners of shares held of record by such persons.

"Householding" of Proxy Materials

In December of 2000, the Securities and Exchange Commission adopted new rules that permit companies and intermediaries (e.g., brokers) to satisfy the delivery requirements for proxy statements with respect to two or more security holders sharing the same address by delivering a single proxy statement addressed to those security holders. This process, which is commonly referred to as "householding," potentially provides extra convenience for security holders and cost savings for companies.

As in the past few years, a number of brokers with accountholders who are Motorola stockholders will be "householding" our proxy materials. As indicated in the notice previously provided by these brokers to Motorola stockholders, a single proxy statement will be delivered to multiple stockholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from an affected stockholder. Once you have received notice from your broker that they will be "householding" communications to your address, "householding" will continue until you are notified otherwise or until you revoke your consent. If, at any time, you no longer wish to participate in "householding" and would prefer to receive a separate proxy statement, please notify your broker or call 1-800-579-1639, email: sendmaterials@proxymote.com, or write us at Secretary, Motorola, Inc., 1303 E. Algonquin Road, Schaumburg, IL 60196.

Stockholders who currently receive multiple copies of the proxy statement at their address and would like to request "householding" of their communications should contact their broker.

By order of the Board of Directors,

A. Peter Lawson
Secretary
