SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information more fully described elsewhere in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus. This summary does not contain all of the information you should consider before investing in the notes. You should read this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus, any free writing prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference herein and therein carefully, especially the risks of investing in the notes discussed in "Risk Factors" below and in the incorporated documents. References herein to a fiscal year mean the fiscal year ended December 31. Throughout this prospectus supplement, except as otherwise indicated, references to "EQT Corporation" or "EQT" refer to EQT Corporation, a Pennsylvania corporation, and not its consolidated subsidiaries, and references to "we," "us," "our," and the "Company" refer collectively to EQT Corporation and its consolidated subsidiaries. References to "Appalachian Basin" refer to the area of the United States composed of those portions of West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Maryland, Kentucky and Virginia that lie in the Appalachian Mountains; "BBtu" refer to billion British thermal units; "Bcfe" refer to billion cubic feet of natural gas equivalents, with one barrel of natural gas liquids (NGLs) and crude oil being equivalent to 6,000 cubic feet of natural gas; "Mcfe" refer to thousand cubic feet of natural gas equivalents, with one barrel of NGLs and crude oil being equivalent to 6,000 cubic feet of natural gas; and "Tcfe" refer to trillion cubic feet of natural gas equivalents, with one barrel of NGLs and crude oil being equivalent to 6,000 cubic feet of natural gas.

Our Company

The Company conducts its business through three business segments: EQT Production, EQT Gathering and EQT Transmission. EQT Production is the largest natural gas producer in the Appalachian Basin, based on average daily sales volumes, with 13.5 Tcfe of proved natural gas, NGLs and crude oil reserves across approximately 3.6 million gross acres, including approximately 790,000 gross acres in the Marcellus play, as of December 31, 2016. EQT Gathering and EQT Transmission provide gathering, transmission and storage services for the Company's produced gas, as well as for independent third parties across the Appalachian Basin, through EQT's ownership and control of EQT Midstream Partners, LP (EQM) (NYSE: EQM), a publicly traded limited partnership formed by EQT to own, operate, acquire and develop midstream assets in the Appalachian Basin.

In 2015, EQT formed EQT GP Holdings, LP (EQGP) (NYSE: EQGP), a Delaware limited partnership, to own EQT's partnership interests, including the incentive distribution rights (IDRs), in EQM. As of June 30, 2017, EQT owned the entire non-economic general partner interest and 239,715,000 common units, which represented a 90.1% limited partner interest, in EQGP. As of June 30, 2017, EQGP's only cash-generating assets were the following EQM partnership interests: 21,811,643 EQM common units, representing a 26.6% limited partner interest in EQM; 1,443,015 EQM general partner units, representing a 1.8% general partner interest in EQM; and all of EQM's IDRs, which entitle EQGP to receive 48.0% of all incremental cash distributed in a quarter after $0.5250 has been distributed in respect of each common unit and general partner unit of EQM for that quarter. EQT is the ultimate parent company of EQGP and EQM.

Due to EQT's ownership and control of EQGP and EQM, the results of EQGP and EQM are both consolidated in EQT's financial statements. EQT records the noncontrolling interests of the public limited partners of EQGP and EQM in its financial statements.

As of June 30, 2017, EQT was the largest natural gas producer in the Appalachian Basin and the fourth largest producer in the United States based on average daily sales volumes. Significant events in 2016 and the first half of 2017 for the Company include:

Announcement of the acquisition of Rice Energy Inc. (Rice) (NYSE: RICE) (see "Recent Developments Rice Merger").

Table of Contents

EQT achieved sales volume of 388.0 Bcfe for the first half of 2017, representing a 7% increase over the first half of 2016. Average realized price increased 34% to $3.17 per Mcfe in the first half of 2017 from $2.37 per Mcfe in the first half of 2016.

EQT achieved record annual production sales volumes in 2016, including a 26% increase in total sales volumes and a 31% increase in Marcellus sales volumes. However, the average realized price decreased 20% to $2.47 per Mcfe in 2016 from $3.09 per Mcfe in 2015.

EQT increased its Marcellus acreage position by acquiring approximately 145,500 net Marcellus acres in 2016 and 123,000 net Marcellus acres in the first half of 2017, located primarily in northern West Virginia and southwestern Pennsylvania.

EQM began offering service on the Ohio Valley Connector (OVC) on October 1, 2016. This 37-mile pipeline extends EQM's transmission and storage system from northern West Virginia to Clarington, Ohio, at which point it interconnects with the Rockies Express Pipeline. The OVC is certificated to provide approximately 850 BBtu per day of transmission capacity with an aggregate compression of approximately 38,000 horsepower. EQT has entered into a 20-year precedent agreement with EQM for a total of 650 BBtu per day of firm transmission capacity on the OVC.

EQT completed two underwritten public common stock offerings, receiving total net proceeds of approximately $1.2 billion for 19,550,000 shares.

EQM issued 2,949,309 common units through its "At the Market" common unit offering program at an average price per unit of $74.42. EQM received net proceeds of approximately $217.1 million.

EQM issued $500 million of 4.125% Senior Notes due 2026 for net proceeds of approximately $491.4 million.

Effective October 1, 2016, EQT sold to EQM (i) 100% of the outstanding limited liability company interests of Allegheny Valley Connector, LLC and Rager Mountain Storage Company LLC and (ii) certain gathering assets located in southwestern Pennsylvania and northern West Virginia, for $275 million.

On December 28, 2016, EQT sold a gathering system that primarily gathered gas for third-parties for $75.0 million, resulting in an $8.0 million gain.

These covenants are subject to important exceptions and qualifications, which are described in the "Description of Notes" section of this prospectus supplement.
Use of Proceeds	We expect to use the net proceeds from the offering of the notes, together with cash on hand and borrowings under EQT's revolving credit facility, to fund the cash consideration payable by us for the Rice Merger, to pay expenses related to the Rice Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Rice Merger Agreement (including the Rice Refinancings) and for general corporate purposes (which may include redeeming or repaying at maturity all or a portion of EQT's senior notes and medium term notes due in 2018).
Governing Law	The notes and the Indentures will be governed by the laws of the State of New York.
Trustee, Registrar and Paying Agent	The Bank of New York Mellon.

See "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations."
Risk Factors	See "Risk Factors" beginning on page S-14 of this prospectus supplement and other information included or incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, including the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 19 of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, as updated by Part II, Item 1A, "Risk Factors" in our subsequently filed Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, for a discussion of the factors you should carefully consider before deciding to invest in the notes.
Conflicts of Interest	Affiliates of certain underwriters will receive more than 5% of the net proceeds of this offering in connection with the consummation of this offering. See "Use of Proceeds" in this prospectus supplement. In such event, this offering will be made in compliance with the requirements of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") Rule 5121. Because the notes will be rated investment grade, pursuant to FINRA Rule 5121, the appointment of a qualified independent underwriter is not necessary. RISK FACTORS

Any investment in the notes involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider the risks described below and all of the information contained in this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus, any free writing prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference herein and therein before deciding whether to purchase the notes. In addition, you should carefully consider, among other things, the matters discussed under "Risk Factors" in EQT's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, and in other documents that EQT subsequently files with the SEC, all of which are incorporated by reference to this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus. The risks and uncertainties described below are not the only risks and uncertainties we face. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also impair our business operations. If any of the following risks actually occur, our business, financial condition and results of operations would suffer. The risks discussed below also include forward-looking statements and our actual results may differ substantially from those discussed in these forward-looking statements. See "Disclosure Regarding Forward-Looking Statements."

Risks Related to This Offering

The notes are structurally subordinated to the liabilities of our subsidiaries and effectively subordinated to any existing and future secured debt to the extent of the assets securing any such secured debt. We may not have sufficient funds to fulfill our obligations under the notes.

The notes are obligations exclusively of EQT. EQT is a holding company and, accordingly, substantially all of our operations are conducted through EQT's subsidiaries. As a result, EQT's debt is "structurally subordinated" to all existing and future debt, trade creditors, and other liabilities of EQT's subsidiaries and "effectively subordinated" to any existing and future secured debt to the extent of the assets securing any such secured debt. EQT's rights, and hence the rights of its creditors, to participate in any distribution of assets of any subsidiary upon its liquidation or reorganization or otherwise would be subject to the prior claims of that subsidiary's creditors, except to the extent that EQT's claims as a creditor of such subsidiary may be recognized. As a result of the foregoing and due to other factors, EQT may not have sufficient funds to fulfill its obligations under the notes.

The Indentures do not limit the amount of debt that we may incur.

The Indentures governing the notes will not restrict EQT's or its subsidiaries' ability to incur indebtedness, including a certain amount of secured indebtedness or an unlimited amount of secured indebtedness to the extent the notes are secured equally and ratably with such indebtedness, to pay dividends or make distributions on, or redeem or repurchase our equity securities, or to engage in highly leveraged transactions that would increase the level of our indebtedness.

EQT depends upon its subsidiaries to service its debt.

EQT's cash flow and its ability to service its debt, including the notes, is dependent upon the earnings of its subsidiaries. EQT's subsidiaries are separate and distinct legal entities. They have no obligation to pay any amounts due under the notes or to provide EQT with funds for its payment obligations. Payment to EQT by its subsidiaries will also be contingent upon its subsidiaries' earnings and other business considerations.

Our substantial indebtedness could adversely affect our financial condition.

We currently have, and after the completion of this offering, we will continue to have, a significant amount of indebtedness. This significant amount of indebtedness could limit our ability to obtain additional financing for working capital, capital expenditures, stock repurchases, acquisitions, debt service requirements or other purposes. It may also increase our vulnerability to adverse economic, market and industry conditions, limit our flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes in our business operations or to our industry overall, and place us at a disadvantage in relation to our competitors that have lower debt levels. Any or all of the above events and/or factors could have an adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

EQT may issue additional notes.

EQT may from time to time without notice to, or the consent of, the holders of any series of notes, create and issue additional notes of such series, which notes will be equal in rank to the notes of that series so that the new notes may be consolidated and form a single series with the existing notes of such series and have the same terms as to status, redemption or otherwise as such notes (except for the issue date and, under certain circumstances, the issue price, the initial interest payment date and the date from which interest thereon will begin to accrue).

Redemption may adversely affect your return on the notes.

The notes are redeemable at EQT's option, and therefore EQT may choose to redeem the notes at times when prevailing interest rates are relatively low. As a result, you may not be able to reinvest the proceeds you receive from the redemption in a comparable security at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate on your notes being redeemed.

There is no public market for the notes.

We can give no assurances concerning the liquidity of any market that may develop for the notes offered hereby, the ability of any investor to sell the notes, or the prices at which investors would be able to sell them. If a market for the notes does not develop, investors may be unable to resell the notes for an extended period of time, if at all. If a market for the notes does develop, it may not continue or it may not be sufficiently liquid to allow holders to resell any of the notes. Consequently, investors may not be able to liquidate their investment readily, and lenders may not readily accept the notes as collateral for loans.

The amount of interest payable on the Floating Rate Notes is set only once per Floating Rate Note Interest Period based on the three-month U.S. dollar LIBOR on the applicable LIBOR Determination Date, which rate may fluctuate substantially.

In the past, the level of the three-month U.S. dollar LIBOR has experienced significant fluctuations. You should note that historical levels, fluctuations and trends of the three-month U.S. dollar LIBOR are not necessarily indicative of future levels. Any historical upward or downward trend in the three-month U.S. dollar LIBOR is not an indication that the three-month U.S. dollar LIBOR is more or less likely to increase or decrease at any time, and you should not take the historical levels of the three-month U.S. dollar LIBOR as an indication of its future performance. You should further note that although the actual three-month U.S. dollar LIBOR on an interest payment date or at other times during a Floating Rate Note Interest Period (as defined herein) may be higher than the three-month U.S. dollar LIBOR on the applicable LIBOR Determination Date (as defined herein), you will not benefit from the three-month U.S. dollar LIBOR at any time other than on the LIBOR Determination Date for such period. As a result, changes in the three-month U.S. dollar LIBOR may not result in a comparable change in the market value of the Floating Rate Notes.

Uncertainty relating to the LIBOR calculation process and potential phasing out of LIBOR after 2021 may adversely affect the value of the Floating Rate Notes.

Regulators and law enforcement agencies in the United Kingdom and elsewhere are conducting civil and criminal investigations into whether the banks that contribute to the British Bankers'

Table of Contents

Association (the BBA) in connection with the calculation of daily LIBOR may have been under-reporting or otherwise manipulating or attempting to manipulate LIBOR. A number of BBA member banks have entered into settlements with their regulators and law enforcement agencies with respect to this alleged manipulation of LIBOR.

Actions by the BBA, regulators or law enforcement agencies may result in changes to the manner in which LIBOR is determined or the establishment of alternative reference rates. For example, on July 27, 2017, the U.K. Financial Conduct Authority announced that it intends to stop persuading or compelling banks to submit LIBOR rates after 2021. At this time, it is not possible to predict the effect of any such changes, any establishment of alternative reference rates or any other reforms to LIBOR that may be enacted in the United Kingdom or elsewhere. Uncertainty as to the nature of such potential changes, alternative reference rates or other reforms may adversely affect the trading market for LIBOR-based securities, including the Floating Rate Notes.

Risks Related to the Rice Merger

The transactions contemplated by the Rice Merger Agreement are subject to conditions, including certain conditions that may not be satisfied, or completed on a timely basis, if at all. Failure to complete the transactions contemplated by the Rice Merger Agreement, including the Rice Merger, could have material and adverse effects on us.

Completion of the Rice Merger is subject to a number of conditions, including the approval by EQT's shareholders of issuance of EQT's common stock that forms a portion of the Merger Consideration and approval by stockholders of Rice of a proposal to adopt the Rice Merger Agreement, which make the completion and timing of the completion of the transactions uncertain. Also, either EQT or Rice may terminate the Rice Merger Agreement if the Rice Merger has not been consummated by February 19, 2018 or, at either party's discretion if the only conditions to closing that have not been satisfied or waived by that date are those related to the termination or expiration of any waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act or the issuance of an order, decree, ruling, injunction or other action that is in effect and is restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the Rice Merger May 19, 2018, except that this right to terminate the Rice Merger Agreement will not be available to any party whose material breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement of such party under the Rice Merger Agreement resulted in the failure of the transactions to be consummated on or before that date.

If the transactions contemplated by the Rice Merger Agreement are not completed, our ongoing business may be adversely affected and, without realizing any of the benefits of having completed the transactions, we will be subject to a number of risks, including the following:

we will be required to pay our costs relating to the transactions, such as legal, accounting, financial advisory and printing fees, whether or not the transactions are completed;

time and resources committed by our management to matters relating to the transactions could otherwise have been devoted to pursuing other beneficial opportunities;

the market price of EQT's common stock could decline to the extent that the current market price reflects a market assumption that the transactions will be completed;

if the Rice Merger Agreement is terminated and EQT's board of directors seeks another acquisition, EQT's shareholders cannot be certain that we will be able to find a party willing to enter into a transaction as attractive to us as the acquisition of Rice.

Table of Contents

If EQT does not complete the Rice Merger on or prior to May 19, 2018, or if EQT notifies the Trustee that EQT will not pursue the consummation of the Rice Merger, EQT will be required to redeem the Floating Rate Notes, the 2020 notes and the 2027 notes (but not the 2022 notes) then outstanding and may not have or be able to obtain all the funds necessary to redeem such notes. In addition, if EQT is required to redeem such notes, you may not obtain your expected return on the redeemed notes.

EQT may not be able to consummate the Rice Merger within the timeframe specified in the section entitled "Description of Notes Special Mandatory Redemption." EQT's ability to consummate the Rice Merger is subject to various closing conditions, many of which are beyond our control, and we may not be able to consummate the Rice Merger.

If (x) the consummation of the Rice Merger does not occur on or before May 19, 2018 or (y) EQT notifies the Trustee that EQT will not pursue the consummation of the Rice Merger, EQT will be required to redeem the Floating Rate Notes, the 2020 notes and the 2027 notes (but not the 2022 notes) then outstanding at a redemption price equal to 101% of the principal amount of the notes to be redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding the Special Mandatory Redemption Date. However, there is no escrow account or security interest for the benefit of the noteholders and it is possible that EQT will not have sufficient financial resources available to satisfy its obligations to redeem the notes required to be redeemed in connection with the Special Mandatory Redemption (as defined herein). In addition, even if EQT is able to redeem such notes pursuant to the provisions relating to the Special Mandatory Redemption, you may not obtain your expected return on the notes to be redeemed in connection therewith and may not be able to reinvest the proceeds from the Special Mandatory Redemption in an investment that results in a comparable return. Your decision to invest in such notes is made at the time of the offering of such notes. You will have no rights under the provisions relating to the Special Mandatory Redemption as long as the Rice Merger is consummated on or prior to May 19, 2018, nor will you have any right to require EQT to repurchase such notes if, between the closing of the notes offering and the closing of the Rice Merger, we experience any changes in our business or financial condition, or if the terms of the Rice Merger or the financing thereof change. The 2022 notes will not be subject to the Special Mandatory Redemption provision.

The Rice Merger is subject to the receipt of approvals, consents or clearances from regulatory authorities that may impose conditions that could have an adverse effect on us or, if not obtained, could prevent completion of the transactions.

Completion of the Rice Merger is conditioned upon the receipt of certain governmental approvals. Although each party has agreed to use their respective reasonable best efforts to obtain the requisite governmental approvals, there can be no assurance that these approvals will be obtained and that the other conditions to completing the Rice Merger will be satisfied. In addition, the governmental authorities from which the regulatory approvals are required may impose conditions on the completion of the Rice Merger or require changes to the terms of the Rice Merger or other agreements to be entered into in connection with the Rice Merger Agreement. Such conditions or changes and the process of obtaining regulatory approvals could have the effect of delaying or impeding consummation of the transactions or of imposing additional costs or limitations on us or Rice following completion of the Rice Merger, any of which might have an adverse effect on us or Rice following completion of the Rice Merger.

We and Rice will be subject to business uncertainties while the Rice Merger is pending, which could adversely affect our business.

In connection with the pendency of the transactions, it is possible that certain persons with whom we and Rice have a business relationship may delay or defer certain business decisions or might decide to seek to terminate, change or renegotiate their relationships with us or Rice, as the case may be, as a result of the transactions, which could negatively affect our or Rice's revenues, earnings and cash flows, as well as the market price of our respective common stock, regardless of whether the Rice Merger is completed.

Under the terms of the Rice Merger Agreement, each of we and Rice are subject to certain restrictions on the conduct of our business prior to the effective time of the Rice Merger, which may adversely affect our and Rice's ability to execute certain of our and Rice's business strategies, including the ability in certain cases to enter into contracts, acquire or dispose of assets, incur indebtedness or incur capital expenditures, as applicable. Such limitations could negatively affect our businesses and operations prior to the completion of the transactions.

In connection with the Rice Merger, we will incur or assume significant additional indebtedness, which could adversely affect us, including by decreasing our business flexibility and increasing our interest expense.

We anticipate a substantial increase in our consolidated indebtedness as a result of the Rice Merger in comparison to our indebtedness on a recent historical basis. This increased indebtedness could have the effect, among other things, of reducing our flexibility to respond to changing business and economic conditions and increasing our interest expense. In addition, the amount of cash required to pay interest on our indebtedness following completion of the Rice Merger and thus the demands on our cash resources, will be greater than the amount of cash required to service our indebtedness prior to the transaction. The increased levels of indebtedness following completion of the Rice Merger could therefore reduce funds available for working capital, capital expenditures, acquisitions and other general corporate purposes and may create competitive disadvantages for us relative to other companies with lower debt levels.

In connection with the debt financing, it is anticipated that EQT will seek ratings of its indebtedness from one or more nationally recognized credit rating agencies. EQT's credit ratings reflect each rating organization's opinion of EQT's financial strength, operating performance and ability to meet its debt obligations. EQT's credit ratings affect the cost and availability of future borrowings and, accordingly, our cost of capital. There can be no assurance that EQT will achieve a particular rating or maintain a particular rating in the future.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information in this prospectus supplement is presented for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of what our actual financial position or results of operations would have been had the pro forma events been completed on the dates indicated. Further, our actual results and financial position after the pro forma events may differ materially and adversely from the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data that is included in this prospectus supplement. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information has been prepared with the assumption that we will be identified as the acquirer under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and reflects adjustments based upon preliminary estimates of the fair value of assets to be acquired and liabilities to be assumed.

We are expected to incur substantial expenses related to the completion of the transactions.

The combined company is expected to incur substantial expenses in connection with the completion of the Rice Merger and the transactions contemplated by the Rice Merger Agreement. While we have assumed that a certain level of expenses would be incurred, there are many factors beyond our and Rice's control that could affect the total amount or the timing of the expenses.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We estimate that the net proceeds from this offering, after deducting underwriters' discounts and estimated offering expenses of approximately $25.7 million, will be approximately $2,974.3 million. We intend to issue the notes in this offering in lieu of borrowing under the Bridge Facility.

As of June 30, 2017, borrowings outstanding under the senior secured credit facilities of Rice and Rice Midstream Holdings were $0 and $112.5 million, respectively. UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Introduction

The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements (the pro forma financial statements) have been prepared to reflect the effects of the Rice Merger on the financial statements of EQT. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet (the pro forma balance sheet) is presented as if the Rice Merger had occurred on June 30, 2017. The unaudited pro forma combined statements of operations (the pro forma statements of operations) for the year ended December 31, 2016, and the six months ended June 30, 2017, are presented as if the Rice Merger had occurred on January 1, 2016. The historical consolidated financial information has been adjusted to reflect factually supportable items that are directly attributable to the Rice Merger and, with respect to the statements of operations only, are expected to have a continuing impact on the combined results.

The following unaudited pro forma financial statements, derived from the historical consolidated financial statements of EQT and Rice, have been adjusted to reflect the following:

EQT's merger with Rice under the acquisition method of accounting; assumed conversion of common units in Rice Energy Operating LLC into the right to receive the consideration received by holders of Rice's common stock in the Rice Merger; assumed redemption of the Series B preferred interest in Rice Midstream Holdings by EQT for $430 million and the related elimination of preferred dividends and accretion of redeemable noncontrolling interests;

adjustments to Rice's historical consolidated financial statements to reflect the acquisition of Vantage Energy LLC and Vantage Energy II, LLC (collectively, Vantage) as though that acquisition occurred on January 1, 2016;

elimination of historical transactions between Rice and EQT that would be treated as intercompany transactions after the Rice Merger; issuance of $3.0 billion in new EQT notes (which EQT priced on September 27, 2017 and expects to close on October 4, 2017), with maturities of three, five and ten years (the EQT notes), to fund a portion of the cash merger consideration and the planned extinguishment of Rice's senior notes (the Rice notes), Rice's revolving credit facility (the Rice credit facility) and Rice Midstream Holdings LLC's revolving credit facility (the Rice Midstream Holdings credit facility, and together with the Rice credit facility, the Rice credit facilities) as the interest rate and terms on the Rice notes and Rice credit facilities are significantly less favorable than what EQT obtained with this issuance;

planned upsize of (which EQT completed on July 31, 2017), and borrowing under, EQT's revolving credit facility; adjustment of depreciation, depletion and amortization related to the step up of property, plant and equipment to estimated fair value and to adjust the depreciation expense on certain Rice midstream assets to EQT's depreciation policies;

amortization of the intangible asset identified as part of the assets acquired; and estimated tax impact of pro forma adjustments.

Edgar Filing: EQT Corp - Form 424B5

The pro forma financial statements have been prepared using the acquisition method of accounting using the accounting guidance in Accounting Standards Codification 805, Business Combinations (ASC 805), with EQT treated as the acquirer. The acquisition method of accounting is dependent upon certain valuations and other studies that have yet to commence or progress to a stage where there is sufficient information for a definitive measure. Accordingly, the pro forma adjustments are preliminary, have been made solely for the purpose of providing pro forma financial statements, and are subject to revision based on a final determination of fair value as of the date of acquisition. Differences between these preliminary estimates and the final acquisition accounting may have a material impact on the accompanying pro forma financial statements and the combined company's future results of operations and financial position.

The pro forma financial statements are provided for informational purposes only and do not purport to represent what the actual consolidated results of operations or the consolidated financial position of EQT would have been had the Rice Merger occurred on the dates assumed, nor are they necessarily indicative of future consolidated results of operations or consolidated financial position. The pro forma financial statements should be read in conjunction with:

EQT CORPORATION
NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Basis of Presentation

The pro forma financial statements have been prepared to reflect the effects of the Rice Merger on the financial statements of EQT. The pro forma balance sheet is presented as if the Rice Merger had occurred on June 30, 2017. The pro forma statements of operations for the year ended December 31, 2016, and the six months ended June 30, 2017, are presented as if the Rice Merger had occurred on January 1, 2016. The historical consolidated financial information has been adjusted to reflect factually supportable items that are directly attributable to the Rice Merger and, with respect to the statements of operations only, are expected to have a continuing impact on the combined results.

The pro forma financial statements have been prepared using the acquisition method of accounting using the accounting guidance in ASC 805, with EQT treated as the acquirer. The acquisition method of accounting is dependent upon certain valuations and other studies that have yet to commence or progress to a stage where there is sufficient information for a definitive measure. Accordingly, the pro forma adjustments are preliminary, have been made solely for the purpose of providing pro forma financial statements, and are subject to revision based on a final determination of fair value as of the date of acquisition. Differences between these preliminary estimates and the final acquisition accounting may have a material impact on the accompanying pro forma financial statements and the combined company's future results of operations and financial position.

The pro forma financial statements are provided for informational purposes only and do not purport to represent what the actual consolidated results of operations or the consolidated financial position of EQT would have been had the Rice Merger occurred on the dates assumed, nor are they necessarily indicative of future consolidated results of operations or consolidated financial position.

2. Pro Forma Adjustments and Assumptions

The adjustments are based on currently available information and certain assumptions that EQT believes are reasonable. The actual effects of these transactions will differ from the pro forma adjustments. A general description of these transactions and adjustments are provided as follows:

(a) These adjustments reflect the estimated value of net consideration to be paid by EQT in the Rice Merger and the adjustment of the historical book values of Rice assets and liabilities as of June 30, 2017 to their estimated fair values. The following table represents the preliminary purchase price allocation to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed from Rice. This preliminary purchase price allocation has been used to prepare pro forma adjustments in the pro forma balance sheet and the pro forma statements of operations. The final purchase price allocation will be determined when EQT has completed the detailed valuations and necessary calculations subsequent to closing the Rice Merger. The final purchase price allocation will differ from these estimates and could differ materially from the preliminary allocation used in the pro forma adjustments. EQT expects to finalize its allocation of the Rice Merger consideration as soon as practicable after completion of the Rice Merger.

The preliminary purchase price allocation is subject to change as a result of several factors, including but not limited to:

changes in the estimated fair value of the shares of EQT common stock issued as consideration to the Rice stockholders, based on EQT's share price at the effective time of the Rice Merger;

finalization of assumed and retired Rice indebtedness; changes in the estimated fair value of the Rice assets acquired and liabilities assumed as of the date of the Rice Merger, which could result from changes in future commodity prices,

reserve estimates, inclusion of drilling synergies, other changes in cost assumptions, interest rates and other facts and circumstances existing at the closing date of the Rice Merger compared to the date of this prospectus supplement;

the tax basis of Rice's assets and liabilities as of the effective time of the Rice Merger; changes in the fair value of the noncontrolling interest attributable to the public unit holders of Rice Midstream Partners LP, based on Rice Midstream Partners LP's share price at the effective time of the Rice Merger; and the risk factors described in "Risk Factors."

	Preliminary Purchase Price Allocation (in thousands) Consideration:
Fair value of EQT common stock to be issued	$ 5,988,000
Cash consideration	1,751,000
Total consideration	7,739,000
Fair value of liabilities assumed:
Current liabilities	448,611
Interest bearing debt	1,695,500
Leasehold payables	31,817
Deferred income taxes	1,447,610
Other long term liabilities	114,795
Amount attributable to liabilities assumed	3,738,333
Fair value of assets acquired:
Cash	161,540
Current assets	361,390
Natural gas and oil properties	7,938,260
Other property, plant, and equipment	1,931,885
Intangible assets	1,115,001
Other long term assets	80,360
Mezzanine equity	(125,000)
Noncontrolling interests	(1,612,949)
Amount attributable to assets acquired	9,850,487
Goodwill as of June 30, 2017	$ 1,626,846

As part of the preliminary price allocation, EQT identified an intangible asset for customer contracts and the related customer relationships in Rice's midstream business. The fair value of the identified intangible asset was determined using the income approach which requires a forecast of the expected future cash flows generated by these customer relationships. Goodwill is recognized to offset net deferred tax liabilities arising from differences between the purchase price allocated to Rice's assets and liabilities based on fair value and the tax basis of these assets and liabilities. The Rice Merger and the subsequent merger of the surviving corporation of the Rice Merger with and into an indirect wholly owned limited liability company subsidiary of EQT (pursuant to which the limited liability company subsidiary will survive as an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of EQT), taken together, are intended to be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code); therefore, Rice's tax basis in its assets and liabilities will carry over to EQT and its subsidiaries and EQT must recognize a deferred tax liability for the net increase in the book value. The goodwill is also attributable to EQT's qualitative assumptions of long-term value that the Rice Merger creates for EQT shareholders, including additional capital efficiencies from longer laterals and lower development costs on the expanded and concentrated acreage position created by the Rice Merger, and substantial operating and administrative synergies. Differences between the preliminary purchase price allocation and the final purchase price allocation may change the amount of intangible asset and goodwill, if any, actually recognized at the effective time of the Rice Merger.

Pursuant to the Rice Merger Agreement, EQT will pay $5.30 in cash and issue 0.37 of a share of EQT common stock for each share of Rice common stock outstanding at the effective time of the Rice Merger, which would result in the issuance by EQT of approximately 92,198,000 shares of EQT common stock valued at $5,988 million (based on the closing price as of September 26, 2017 of $64.95) and payment of $1,321 million in cash. This includes the conversion of common units in Rice Energy Operating LLC into the right to receive the merger consideration received by holders of Rice common stock in the Rice Merger. In addition, Rice will exercise its call right with respect to the Series B preferred equity interest in Rice Midstream Holdings, and EQT will pay approximately $430 million in cash at closing to redeem this interest.

From June 16, 2017, the last trading date prior to the transaction's initial announcement, to September 26, 2017, the preliminary value of EQT's merger consideration to be transferred had increased by approximately $569.8 million, as a result of the increase in the share price for EQT's common stock from $58.77 to $64.95. The final value of total merger consideration paid by EQT will be determined based on the actual number of EQT shares issued and the market price of EQT's common stock at the effective time of the Rice Merger. A ten percent increase or decrease in the closing price of EQT common stock, as compared to the September 26, 2017 closing price of $64.95, would increase or decrease the total consideration by approximately $598.8 million, assuming all other factors are held constant.

The pro forma fair value of natural gas and oil properties to be acquired includes the following (in thousands):

Proved properties	$ 4,324,140
Unproved properties	3,614,120
Pro forma fair value of natural gas and oil properties acquired	$ 7,938,260

NYMEX strip pricing as of June 30, 2017 was utilized in determining the pro forma fair value of proved producing reserves at a discount rate of 8.0%, after adjustment for expenses and basis differential. An increase or decrease in commodity price as of the closing date will result in a corresponding increase or decrease in the fair value of proved producing properties.

(b) The following pro forma adjustments eliminate historical transactions between Rice and EQT that would be treated as intercompany transactions after the Rice Merger:

1. Elimination of $9.7 million of receivables and corresponding payables, consisting of $6.7 million for gathering transactions, $2.5 million for gas sales transactions, and $0.5 million for transmission transactions in the pro forma balance sheet as of June 30, 2017.
2. Elimination of $19.9 million in revenue and corresponding expenses related to the elimination of $17.1 million of gathering transactions and $2.8 million of transmission transactions in the pro forma statement of operations for the period ended June 30, 2017.
3. Elimination of $41.5 million in revenue and corresponding expenses related to the elimination of $38.1 million of gathering transactions and $3.4 million of transmission transactions in the pro forma statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2016.

(c) Certain adjustments that are directly related to the Rice Merger were made to debt and debt related accounts. These adjustments include the planned extinguishment of the Rice notes and the Rice credit facilities at or near closing. The issuance of $3.0 billion of EQT notes and the upside of EQT's revolving credit facility were to fund the cash portion of the merger consideration and to support ongoing operations with better interest rates and terms available to EQT as a result of the Company's investment grade credit rating. The adjustments are as follows:

1. A $1,464.5 million increase to cash reflecting the issuance of $3.0 billion of EQT notes, net of $25.7 million of issuance costs and discounts, repayment of the Rice notes, including call premium, of $1,377.0 million, $14.2 million of accrued interest on the Rice notes, repayment of $112.5 million of outstanding amounts on the Rice Midstream Holdings credit facility and $6.1 million of estimated debt issuance costs for fees related to increasing EQT's revolving credit facility to support the Rice Merger.
2. A $6.1 million increase to deferred financing costs of estimated debt issuance costs for fees related to increasing EQT's revolving credit facility to support the Rice Merger.
3. A $1,484.8 million increase to long term debt reflecting the anticipated issuance of $3.0 billion of EQT notes, net of $25.7 million of issuance costs offset by the repayment of the Rice notes recorded at fair value of $1,377.0 million and the repayment of $112.5 million of outstanding amounts on the Rice Midstream Holdings credit facility.
4. A $0.9 million decrease in interest expense for the period ended June 30, 2017 consisting of the elimination of $49.9 million of Rice historical interest expense and an increase to interest expense of $49.0 million relating to the issuance of the EQT notes at a weighted average interest rate of 3.14% per annum and amortization of associated deferred financing costs and discounts.
5. A $4.0 million pro forma adjustment was made to eliminate the amortization of deferred financing costs related to the Rice notes and the Rice credit facilities for the period ended June 30, 2017.
6. A $31.9 million decrease in interest expense for the year ended December 31, 2016 consisting of the elimination of $129.9 million of Rice pro forma interest expense, including $34.3 million of pro forma Vantage interest expense, and an increase to interest expense of $98.0 million relating to the issuance of the EQT notes at a weighted average interest rate of 3.14% per annum and amortization of associated deferred financing costs and discounts.
7. A $6.1 million pro forma adjustment was made to eliminate the amortization of deferred financing costs related to the Rice notes and the Rice credit facilities for the year ended December 31, 2016.

A one percent change in the assumed interest rate of the EQT notes would increase or decrease the interest expense by $15.0 million and $30.0 million for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and for the year ended December 31, 2016, respectively.

(d) To accrue for estimated remaining transaction costs of $82.4 million related to the Rice Merger, including underwriting, banking, legal and accounting fees that are not capitalized as part of the Rice Merger. The estimated remaining costs are not reflected in the historical June 30, 2017 balance sheets of EQT and Rice, but are reflected in the pro forma balance sheet as an increase to liabilities as they will be expensed by EQT and Rice as incurred. Transaction expenses recognized in the six months ended June 30, 2017 and their corresponding tax effect have been eliminated in the pro forma statements of operations due to their nonrecurring nature.

(e) Pro forma adjustment to show the impact of the elimination of the Rice equity on the pro forma balance sheet and the elimination of the noncontrolling interest in Rice Energy

Operating LLC on the pro forma statement of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and the year ended December 31, 2016.

(f) Pro forma adjustment of historical depreciation, depletion and amortization expense (DD&A) related to the step up of property, plant and equipment to estimated fair value. In addition, this adjustment includes a pro forma adjustment for DD&A to adjust the depreciation on certain Rice midstream assets to EQT's policy to depreciate gathering pipelines over a 50 year useful life and to depreciate compression and measurement assets over a 25 year useful life.

(g) As part of the preliminary price allocation, EQT identified intangible assets related to Rice's midstream business. This pro forma adjustment reflects the amortization of the fair value of the intangible assets acquired using a 30 year estimated life and a straight line method of amortization.

(h) Pro forma adjustment for elimination of preferred dividends and accretion of redeemable noncontrolling interests related to EQT's redemption of the Series B preferred interest in Rice Midstream Holdings for $430 million. A pro forma adjustment of $15.4 million for the six months ended June 30, 2017 was also made to eliminate the loss on embedded derivatives as it relates to the option on the Series B preferred interest which will be redeemed at the Rice Merger as reflected in pro forma adjustment (a).

(i) The pro forma income tax adjustments included in the pro forma statement of operations for the periods ended June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016 reflect the income tax effects of the pro forma adjustments presented. The tax rate applied to the pro forma adjustments was the statutory federal and apportioned statutory state tax rate, net of the federal benefit of state taxes, applied to pre-tax income, excluding income allocated to noncontrolling interests as taxes attributable to noncontrolling interests and not borne by EQT. No adjustment has been included in the pro forma statement of operations for potential adjustments to EQT's valuation allowance on deferred tax assets due to the nonrecurring nature of any such adjustment.

(j) The following reclassifications were made as a result of the transaction to conform to EQT's presentation:

1. Reclassification of $45.7 million of long term derivative assets, $24.6 million of long term derivative liabilities, to current and an increase of $168.6 million to current derivative assets and liabilities to conform to EQT's presentation of derivatives.
2. Reclassification of $5.3 million of Rice's gas collateral account to other assets.
3. Reclassification of $104.1 million of Rice's royalties payable to accounts payable.
4. Reclassification of $176.6 million of Rice's accrued capital expenditures to accounts payable.
5. Reclassification of $19.5 million of Rice's current leasehold payable to other current liabilities.
6. Reclassification of $0.3 million of Rice's accrued interest to other current liabilities.
7. Reclassification of $12.3 million of Rice's long-term leasehold payable to other long term liabilities.
8. Reclassification on the June 30, 2017 pro forma statement of operations of $68.4 million of Rice's gathering, compression and water services to pipeline and net market services.
9. Reclassification on the June 30, 2017 pro forma statement of operations of $18.0 million of Rice's other revenue to pipeline and net marketing services.

The pro forma financial statements do not reflect any compensation related adjustments as certain personnel matters are evolving and any recurring impact from compensation adjustments would not be factually supportable. In addition, the combined pro forma financial statements do not reflect the realization of any expected cost savings or other synergies from the Rice Merger as a result of restructuring activities and other cost savings initiatives. Although EQT believes cost savings and other synergies will be realized following the business combination, there can be no assurance that cost savings or any other synergies will be achieved in full or at all. In addition, the pro forma financial statements do not reflect the planned restructuring charges associated with these cost savings, which are expected to be expensed in EQT's statement of operations.

DESCRIPTION OF NOTES

The following description is only a summary of certain provisions of the Indentures and the notes, copies of which are available upon request to us at the address set forth under "Where You Can Find More Information." In this Description of Notes section, the term "EQT" refers only to EQT Corporation and not to any of its subsidiaries or affiliates. You can find the definitions of capitalized terms used in this description under the subheading "Certain Definitions." Certain defined terms used in this description but not defined below under "Certain Definitions" have the meanings assigned to them in the applicable Indenture. We urge you to read the Indentures and the notes because they, and not this description, define your rights as holders of the notes.

General

EQT will issue (i) the Floating Rate Notes as a series of debt securities under a base indenture, dated as of March 18, 2008 as supplemented by a second supplemental indenture dated as of June 30, 2008 (together, the base indenture), between EQT, as successor, and The Bank of New York Mellon, as trustee (the Trustee), as supplemented by a fifth supplemental indenture (together with the base indenture, the Floating Rate Notes Indenture) to be entered into between EQT and the Trustee with respect to the Floating Rate Notes, (ii) the 2020 notes as a series of debt securities under the base indenture as supplemented by a sixth supplemental indenture (together with the base indenture, the 2020 Notes Indenture) to be entered into between EQT and the Trustee with respect to the 2020 notes, (iii) the 2022 notes as a series of debt securities under the base indenture as supplemented by a seventh supplemental indenture (together with the base indenture, the 2022 Notes Indenture) to be entered into between EQT and the Trustee with respect to the 2022 notes and (iv) the 2027 notes as a series of debt securities under the base indenture as supplemented by an eighth supplemental indenture (together with the base indenture, the 2027 Notes Indenture) to be entered into between EQT and the Trustee with respect to the 2027 notes. The term "Indenture" or "Indentures" in this description of notes refers to the Floating Rate Notes Indenture, the 2020 Notes Indenture, the 2022 Notes Indenture or the 2027 Notes Indenture, or all of them, as the context may require.

The notes will be senior, unsecured obligations of EQT and will rank equally with all of EQT's other existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness. The notes will be represented by Global Securities, which will be deposited with, or on behalf of, The Depository Trust Company (DTC), New York, New York, and registered in the name of DTC's nominee. Each note represented by a Global Security is referred to herein as a "Book-Entry Note."

The Indentures do not limit the amount of notes or other debt securities of EQT that may be issued under the Indentures. EQT may at any time and from time to time, without notice to or consent of the holders, issue additional debt securities of any series. Any such additional notes will have the same ranking, interest rate, maturity date and other terms as the notes of such series offered hereby. Any such additional notes, together with the notes of such series offered hereby, will constitute a single series of notes of such series under the applicable Indenture; provided, that any such additional notes that are not fungible with the notes of such series for U.S. Federal income tax purposes will have a separate CUSIP, ISIN and/or other identifying number, if applicable, than the notes of such series. References herein to the notes of any series shall include (unless the context otherwise requires) any additional notes of such series issued as described in this paragraph.

Unless otherwise provided and except with respect to Book-Entry Notes, principal of and premium, if any, and interest, if any, on the notes will be payable, and the transfer of notes will be registrable, at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee, except that, at the option of EQT, interest may be paid by mailing a check to the holder of the notes entitled thereto or, in accordance with arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee, at the option of the holder of the notes by wire transfer to an account designated by such holder.

Table of Contents

For a description of payments of principal of, and premium, if any, and interest on, and transfer of, Book-Entry Notes and exchanges of Global Securities representing Book-Entry Notes, see "Book-Entry, Delivery and Form."

The notes will be issued only in fully registered form without coupons only in denominations of $2,000 and in integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof.

Fixed Rate Notes

The stated maturity of principal for the 2020 notes will be October 1, 2020. The 2020 notes will bear interest (computed on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) from October 4, 2017 at the rate of 2.500% per annum, payable semi-annually in arrears. Interest on the 2020 notes will be payable on April 1 and October 1 of each year, commencing on April 1, 2018, to the holders of record of the 2020 notes at the close of business on the March 15 or September 15 (whether or not a Business Day), as the case may be, preceding the relevant interest payment date. Interest payable on each interest payment date will include interest accrued from October 4, 2017 or from the most recent interest payment date to which interest has been paid or duly provided for. If any payment date is not a Business Day, then payment will be made on the next succeeding Business Day, but without any additional interest or other amount.

The stated maturity of principal for the 2022 notes will be October 1, 2022. The 2022 notes will bear interest (computed on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) from October 4, 2017 at the rate of 3.000% per annum, payable semi-annually in arrears. Interest on the 2022 notes will be payable on April 1 and October 1 of each year, commencing on April 1, 2018, to the holders of record of the 2022 notes at the close of business on the March 15 or September 15 (whether or not a Business Day), as the case may be, preceding the relevant interest payment date. Interest payable on each interest payment date will include interest accrued from October 4, 2017 or from the most recent interest payment date to which interest has been paid or duly provided for. If any payment date is not a Business Day, then payment will be made on the next succeeding Business Day, but without any additional interest or other amount.

The stated maturity of principal for the 2027 notes will be October 1, 2027. The 2027 notes will bear interest (computed on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) from October 4, 2017 at the rate of 3.900% per annum, payable semi-annually in arrears. Interest on the 2027 notes will be payable on April 1 and October 1 of each year, commencing on April 1, 2018, to the holders of record of the 2027 notes at the close of business on the March 15 or September 15 (whether or not a Business Day), as the case may be, preceding the relevant interest payment date. Interest payable on each interest payment date will include interest accrued from October 4, 2017 or from the most recent interest payment date to which interest has been paid or duly provided for. If any payment date is not a Business Day, then payment will be made on the next succeeding Business Day, but without any additional interest or other amount.

Floating Rate Notes

The stated maturity of principal for the Floating Rate Notes will be October 1, 2020. The Floating Rate Notes will bear interest at a floating rate of interest, reset quarterly, from the date of original issuance or from the most recent Floating Rate Note Interest Payment Date (as defined below) to which interest has been paid or provided for.

The per annum interest rate on the Floating Rate Notes for the period from the issue date to but not including the first Floating Rate Note Interest Payment Date (as defined below) will be equal to LIBOR on October 2, 2017, plus 77 basis points (such rate, the "Initial Floating Rate Note Interest Rate"). Following the initial Floating Rate Note Interest Period, the per annum interest rate on the Floating Rate Notes for each subsequent Floating Rate Note Interest Period will be equal to LIBOR as determined on the related LIBOR Determination Date, plus 77 basis points. The interest rate applicable to any day in a given Floating Rate Note Interest Period will be either the Initial Floating Rate Note Interest Rate or the interest rate as reset on the immediately preceding Floating Rate Note Interest Payment Date.

Interest is payable on the Floating Rate Notes quarterly in arrears on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 of each year (each, a "Floating Rate Note Interest Payment Date"). The initial Floating Rate Note Interest Payment Date will be January 2, 2018 (the next succeeding business day after January 1, 2018). The amount of interest for each day that the Floating Rate Notes are outstanding (the "Daily Interest Amount") will be calculated by dividing the interest rate in effect for such day by 360 and multiplying the result by the principal amount of the Floating Rate Notes outstanding on such day. The amount of interest to be paid on the Floating Rate Notes for each Floating Rate Note Interest Period will be calculated by adding such Daily Interest Amounts for each day in such Floating Rate Note Interest Period.

If any Floating Rate Note Interest Payment Date, other than the maturity date of the Floating Rate Notes, falls on a day that is not a Business Day, the Floating Rate Note Interest Payment Date will be postponed to the next day that is a Business Day. If the maturity date of the Floating Rate Notes falls on a day that is not a Business Day, the payment of interest and principal will be made on the next succeeding Business Day, and no interest on such payment will accrue for the period from and after the maturity date. If any such Floating Rate Note Interest Payment Date (other than the maturity date) is postponed as described above, the amount of interest for the relevant Floating Rate Note Interest Period will be adjusted accordingly.

The interest payable on the Floating Rate Notes on any Floating Rate Note Interest Payment Date will be paid to the person in whose name the Floating Rate Notes are registered at the close of business on December 15, March 15, June 15 and September 15 (whether or not a Business Day), as the case may be, immediately preceding the applicable Floating Rate Note Interest Payment Date; however, interest payable at maturity will be paid to the person to whom principal is payable.

All percentages resulting from any of the above calculations will be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred thousandth of a percentage point, with five one-millionths of a percentage point being rounded upwards (e.g., 9.876545% (or .09876545) being rounded to 9.87655% (or .0987655)) and all dollar amounts used in or resulting from such calculations will be rounded to the nearest cent (with one-half cent being rounded upwards).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the interest rate on a series of Floating Rate Notes will in no event be higher than the maximum rate permitted by New York law as the same may be modified by United States law of general application. In addition, the interest rate on the Floating Rate Notes will in no event be lower than zero.

The Trustee initially will act as the calculation agent in respect of the Floating Rate Notes. EQT may change the calculation agent without prior notice to or consent of the holders of the Floating Rate Notes. Any agreement between EQT and any calculation agent may provide that no amendment to the provisions of the Floating Rate Notes or the Floating Rate Notes Indenture relating to the duties or obligations of such calculation agent may become effective as against such calculation agent without the prior written consent of such calculation agent. The calculation agent will, upon the written request of any holder of Floating Rate Notes, provide the interest rate then in effect with respect to the Floating Rate Notes. All calculations made by the calculation agent in the absence of manifest error will be conclusive for all purposes and binding on EQT and the holders of the Floating Rate Notes.

Set forth below is a summary of certain of the defined terms used for purposes of determining the interest rate payable on the Floating Rate Notes.

"Designated LIBOR Page" shall be Bloomberg L.P. page "BBAM" or such other page as may replace Bloomberg L.P. page "BBAM" on that service or any successor service for the purpose of displaying London interbank offered rates for U.S. dollar deposits of major banks.

"Floating Rate Note Interest Period" means the period from, and including, a Floating Rate Note Interest Payment Date to, but excluding, the next succeeding Floating Rate Note Interest Payment Date, except for the initial Floating Rate Note Interest Period, which will be the period from, and including, the original issue date of the Floating Rate Notes to, but excluding, the Floating Rate Note Interest Payment Date occurring on January 2, 2018 (the next succeeding business day after January 1, 2018).

"LIBOR" means, with respect to a Floating Rate Note Interest Period, the rate (expressed as a percentage per annum) for deposits in U.S. dollars for a three-month period beginning on the second London Banking Day after the applicable LIBOR Determination Date that appears on the Designated LIBOR Page as of 11:00 a.m., London time, on such LIBOR Determination Date. If the Designated LIBOR Page does not include such a rate or is unavailable on a LIBOR Determination Date, the calculation agent will request the principal London office of each of four major banks in the London interbank market, as selected by EQT, to provide such bank's offered quotation (expressed as a percentage per annum), as of approximately 11:00 a.m., London time, on such LIBOR Determination Date, to prime banks in the London interbank market for deposits in a Representative Amount of U.S. dollars for a three-month period beginning on the second London Banking Day after such LIBOR Determination Date. If at least two such offered quotations are so provided, the LIBOR rate for the Floating Rate Note Interest Period will be the arithmetic mean of such quotations. If fewer than two such quotations are so provided, the calculation agent will request each of three major banks in New York City, as selected by EQT, to provide such bank's rate (expressed as a percentage per annum), as of approximately 11:00 a.m., New York City time, on such LIBOR Determination Date, for loans in a Representative Amount in U.S. dollars to leading European banks for a three-month period beginning on the second London Banking Day after such LIBOR Determination Date. If at least two such rates are so provided, the LIBOR rate for the Floating Rate Note Interest Period will be the arithmetic mean of such rates. If fewer than two such rates are so provided, then the LIBOR rate for the Floating Rate Note Interest Period will be the rate in effect with respect to the immediately preceding Floating Rate Note Interest Period.

"LIBOR Determination Date" means, with respect to a Floating Rate Note Interest Period, the London Banking Day that is two London Banking Days prior to the first day of such Floating Rate Note Interest Period.

"London Banking Day" is any day on which dealings in U.S. dollars are transacted or, with respect to any future date, are expected to be transacted in the London interbank market.

"Representative Amount" means a principal amount of not less than $1,000,000 for a single transaction in the relevant market at the relevant time.

Optional Redemption

Fixed Rate Notes

We may redeem the Fixed Rate Notes of any series at our option, at any time and from time to time, in whole or in part, at a redemption price equal to the greater of:

100% of the principal amount of the notes of such series to be redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the date of redemption; and the sum of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal and interest on the notes of such series to be redeemed (assuming that such notes matured on their applicable

Table of Contents

Par Call Date) exclusive of interest accrued to, but excluding, the date of redemption, discounted to the date of redemption on a semiannual basis (assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30 day months) at the applicable Treasury Rate plus 15 basis points in the case of the 2020 notes, 20 basis points in the case of the 2022 notes and 25 basis points in the case of the 2027 notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest on the principal amount being redeemed to, but excluding, the date of redemption.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Fixed Rate Notes of any series are redeemed on or after the Par Call Date with respect to such series of notes, the redemption price will be 100% of the principal amount of the notes of such series to be redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to, but excluding, the redemption date.

For purposes of determining the optional redemption price, the following definitions are applicable:

"Treasury Rate" means, with respect to any redemption date for the Fixed Rate Notes of any series, the rate per year equal to the semi-annual equivalent yield to maturity of the Comparable Treasury Issue, calculated using a price for the Comparable Treasury Issue (expressed as a percentage of its principal amount) equal to the Comparable Treasury Price for that redemption date.

The Treasury Rate will be calculated on the third Business Day preceding the redemption date.

"Comparable Treasury Issue" means the U.S. Treasury security selected by an Independent Investment Banker as having a maturity comparable to the remaining term ("remaining life") of the Fixed Rate Notes of the applicable series that would be utilized, at the time of selection and in accordance with customary financial practice, in pricing new issues of corporate debt securities of comparable maturity to the remaining terms of the notes of such series.

"Comparable Treasury Price" means, with respect to any redemption date:

the average of four Reference Treasury Dealer Quotations for such redemption date, after excluding the highest and lowest Reference Treasury Dealer Quotations, or if the Independent Investment Banker is unable to obtain at least four such Reference Treasury Dealer Quotations, the average of all Reference Treasury Dealer Quotations obtained by the Independent Investment Banker.

"Independent Investment Banker" means one of Citigroup Global Markets Inc., Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and Wells Fargo Securities, LLC, as specified by EQT, or if these firms are unwilling or unable to select the applicable Comparable Treasury Issue, an independent investment banking institution of national standing appointed by EQT.

"Par Call Date" means (i) with respect to the 2020 notes, September 1, 2020 (one month prior to the stated maturity date of the 2020 notes), (ii) with respect to the 2022 notes, September 1, 2022 (one month prior to the stated maturity date of the 2022 notes) and (iii) with respect to the 2027 notes, July 1, 2027 (three months prior to the stated maturity date of the 2027 notes).

"Reference Treasury Dealer" means Citigroup Global Markets Inc., Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and Wells Fargo Securities, LLC (and their respective successors), provided however, that if any of the foregoing shall cease to be a primary U.S. government securities dealer (a "Primary Treasury Dealer"), EQT will substitute therefor another Primary Treasury Dealer.

"Reference Treasury Dealer Quotations" means, with respect to each Reference Treasury Dealer and any redemption date for the Fixed Rate Notes of any series, an average, as determined by the Independent Investment Banker, of the bid and asked prices for the Comparable Treasury Issue for the notes of such series (expressed in each case as a percentage of its principal amount) quoted in writing to the Independent Investment Banker at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the third business day preceding such redemption date. Notice of any redemption will be mailed, or delivered electronically if such notes are held by any depositary (including, without limitation, DTC (as defined below)) in accordance with such depositary's customary procedures, at least 15 days but not more than 60 days before the redemption date to each registered holder of notes to be redeemed.

Floating Rate Notes

EQT may redeem all (but not some) of the outstanding Floating Rate Notes at its option on October 5, 2018 (the date that is the first business day after the date that is one year following the issue date of the Floating Rate Notes) or at any time thereafter at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Floating Rate Notes to be redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to, but excluding, the redemption date.

General

Unless EQT defaults in payment of the redemption price, on and after the redemption date, interest will cease to accrue on the notes or portions of the notes called for redemption. If fewer than all of the Fixed Rate Notes of any series are to be redeemed, the Trustee will select, not more than 60 days prior to the redemption date, the particular notes of such series or portions thereof for redemption from the outstanding notes of such series not previously called by such method as the Trustee deems fair and appropriate.

Except as set forth above, the notes will not be redeemable by EQT prior to maturity and will not be entitled to the benefit of any sinking fund.

Special Mandatory Redemption

If (x) the consummation of the Rice Merger (as defined below) does not occur on or before May 19, 2018 (the Outside Date) or (y) EQT notifies the Trustee that EQT will not pursue the consummation of the Rice Merger (the earlier of the date of delivery of such notice described in clause (y) and the Outside Date, the Special Mandatory Redemption Trigger Date), EQT will be required to redeem the Floating Rate Notes, the 2020 notes and the 2027 notes (but not the 2022 notes) then outstanding (such redemption, the Special Mandatory Redemption) at a redemption price equal to 101% of the principal amount of the notes to be redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the Special Mandatory Redemption Date (as defined below) (the Special Mandatory Redemption Price).

In the event that EQT becomes obligated to redeem the notes of any series pursuant to the Special Mandatory Redemption, EQT will promptly, and in any event not more than ten Business Days after the Special Mandatory Redemption Trigger Date, deliver notice to the Trustee of the Special Mandatory Redemption and the date upon which such notes will be redeemed (the Special Mandatory Redemption Date, which date shall be no later than the third Business Day following the date of such notice) together with a notice of Special Mandatory Redemption for the Trustee to deliver to each registered holder of notes to be redeemed. The Trustee will then promptly mail, or deliver electronically if such notes are held by any depositary (including, without limitation, DTC) in accordance with such depositary's customary procedures, such notice of Special Mandatory Redemption to each registered holder of notes to be redeemed at its registered address. Unless EQT defaults in payment of the Special Mandatory Redemption Price, on and after such Special Mandatory Redemption Date, interest will cease to accrue on the notes to be redeemed.

Table of Contents

For purposes of the Special Mandatory Redemption provisions of the Floating Rate Notes, the 2020 notes and the 2027 notes (but not the 2022 notes), the following definitions are applicable:

"Rice" means Rice Energy Inc., a Delaware corporation, and its successors.

"Rice Merger" means the acquisition of Rice by EQT pursuant to the Rice Merger Agreement (as defined below).

"Rice Merger Agreement" means that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of June 19, 2017, by and among EQT, Rice and Eagle Merger Sub I, Inc., a Delaware corporation, as amended, supplemented, restated or otherwise modified from time to time.

The 2022 notes will not be subject to the Special Mandatory Redemption provision.

Certain Covenants

Each Indenture will contain certain covenants, including, among others, those described below. Except as set forth below, EQT will not be restricted by the Indentures from incurring any type of indebtedness or other obligation, from paying dividends or making distributions on its capital stock or purchasing or redeeming its capital stock. In addition, apart from the provisions relating to the Special Mandatory Redemption, the Indentures will not contain any provisions that would require EQT to repurchase or redeem or otherwise modify the terms of any of the notes upon a change in control or other events involving EQT which may adversely affect the creditworthiness of the notes. The Indentures will not restrict the ability of EQT or its subsidiaries to transfer assets to and among EQT's subsidiaries.

Restriction on Liens

Each Indenture will provide that EQT shall not, and shall not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, issue, assume or guarantee any Debt secured by a mortgage, pledge, security interest or lien (any mortgage, pledge, security interest or lien being hereinafter referred to as a "lien" or "liens") upon any Principal Property of EQT or of any Restricted Subsidiary or upon any shares of stock or Debt issued by any Restricted Subsidiary, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, without in any such case effectively providing that the notes together with, if EQT shall so determine, any other indebtedness of or guaranty by EQT or such Restricted Subsidiary then existing or thereafter created which is not subordinated to the notes, shall be secured equally and ratably with (or, at the option of EQT, prior to) such secured Debt so long as such Debt shall be so secured; provided, however, that nothing in the foregoing shall prevent, restrict or apply to (and there shall be excluded from secured Debt in any computation under this covenant) Debt secured by:

liens on property of, or shares of stock or Debt issued by, any Subsidiary existing at the time such Subsidiary becomes a Restricted Subsidiary; provided, that such lien shall not have been incurred in connection with the transfer by EQT or a Restricted Subsidiary of a Principal Property to such Subsidiary unless EQT, within 180 days of the effective date of such transfer, applies or causes a Restricted Subsidiary to apply an amount equal to the fair value, as determined by the Board of Directors, of such Principal Property at the time of such transfer, to the prepayment or retirement of the notes or other Debt of EQT (other than Debt subordinated to the notes), or Debt of any Restricted Subsidiary (other than Debt owed to EQT or any Restricted Subsidiary), having a stated maturity (x) more than 12 months from the date of such application or (y) which is extendable at the option of the obligor thereon to a date more than 12 months from the date of such application;

liens on any property, shares of stock or Debt existing at the time of acquisition thereof by EQT or a Restricted Subsidiary (including acquisition through merger or consolidation) or liens to secure the payment of all or any part of the purchase price or construction cost thereof or securing any Debt incurred prior to, at the time of, or within 180 days after, the acquisition of such property, shares of stock or Debt or the completion of any such construction, whichever is later, for the purpose of financing all or any part of the purchase price or construction cost thereof;

liens on any property to secure all or any part of the cost of development, construction, alteration, repair or improvement of all or any portion of such property, or to secure Debt incurred prior to, at the time of, or within 180 days after, the completion of such development, construction, alteration, repair or improvement, whichever is later, for the purpose of financing all or any part of such cost;

liens which secure Debt owed by a Restricted Subsidiary to EQT or to another Restricted Subsidiary or by EQT to a Restricted Subsidiary so long as the Debt is held by EQT or a Restricted Subsidiary; liens securing Debt of a corporation or other Person which becomes a successor of EQT in accordance with the terms of the applicable Indenture other than Debt incurred by such corporation or other Person in connection with a consolidation, merger or sale of assets in accordance with the terms of the applicable Indenture;

liens on property of EQT or a Restricted Subsidiary in favor of the United States or any state thereof, or any department, agency or instrumentality or political subdivision of the United States or any state thereof, or in favor of any other country or any political subdivision thereof, to secure partial, progress, advance or other payments pursuant to any contract or statute or to secure any indebtedness incurred or guaranteed for the purpose of financing all or any part of the purchase price or the cost of construction, alteration, repair or improvement of the property subject to such liens (including but not limited to liens incurred in connection with pollution control, industrial revenue or similar financing), or in favor of any trustee or mortgagee for the benefit of holders of indebtedness of any such entity incurred for any such purpose;

liens securing Debt which is payable, both with respect to principal and interest, solely out of the proceeds of oil, gas, coal or other minerals to be produced from the property subject thereto and to be sold or delivered by EQT or a Subsidiary, including any interest of the character commonly referred to as a "production payment";

liens created or assumed by a Subsidiary on oil, gas, coal or other mineral property, owned or leased by a Subsidiary, to secure Debt of such Subsidiary for the purpose of developing such property, including any interest of the character commonly referred to as a "production payment"; provided, however, that neither EQT nor any Subsidiary shall assume or guarantee such Debt or otherwise be liable in respect thereof; or any extension, renewal or replacement (or successive extensions, renewals or replacements), in whole or in part, of any lien referred to in the foregoing bullets or of any Debt secured thereby; provided, that such extension, renewal or replacement lien shall be limited to all or any part of the same property that secured the lien extended, renewed or replaced (plus any improvements and construction on such property), or to other property of EQT or its Restricted Subsidiaries not subject to the limitations in the covenant described above under the caption " Restrictions on Liens", and shall secure no larger amount of Debt than that which had been so secured at the time of such extension, renewal or replacement (plus any premium or fee payable in connection therewith) and, in the case of the fourth bullet above, that the Debt being secured thereby is being secured for the same type of Person as the Debt being replaced.

Each Indenture will also provide that EQT and any one or more Restricted Subsidiaries may issue, assume or guarantee debt secured by a lien without equally and ratably securing the notes if at the time of such issuance, assumption or guarantee (the Incurrence Time) the aggregate amount of such

Debt plus all other Debt of EQT and its Restricted Subsidiaries secured by liens (other than Debt permitted to be secured under the preceding bullets) which would otherwise be subject to the foregoing restrictions after giving effect to the retirement of any Debt which is concurrently being retired, plus the aggregate Attributable Debt (determined as of the Incurrence Time) of Sale and Leaseback Transactions (other than Sale and Leaseback Transactions permitted by the first two bullets below) entered into after the closing date of this offering and in existence at the Incurrence Time (less the aggregate amount of proceeds of such Sale and Leaseback Transactions which shall have been applied in accordance with the third bullet below), does not exceed 15% of Consolidated Net Tangible Assets.

Restriction on Sale and Leaseback Transactions

Each Indenture will further provide that EQT shall not, and shall not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, enter into any arrangement after the closing of this offering with any bank, insurance company or other lender or investor (other than EQT or another Restricted Subsidiary) providing for the leasing as lessee by EQT or a Restricted Subsidiary of any Principal Property (except a lease for a term not to exceed three years by the end of which term it is intended that the use of such Principal Property by the lessee will be discontinued and a lease which secures or relates to industrial revenue or pollution control bonds or similar financing), which was or is owned by EQT or a Restricted Subsidiary and which has been or is to be sold or transferred by EQT or a Restricted Subsidiary to such Person more than 180 days after the completion of construction and commencement of full operation of such property by EQT or such Restricted Subsidiary, to such lender or investor or to any Person to whom funds have been or are to be advanced by such lender or investor on the security of such Principal Property (herein referred to as a Sale and Leaseback Transaction), unless:

EQT or such Restricted Subsidiary would, at the time of entering into such arrangement, be entitled pursuant to the nine bullets set forth under "Restrictions on Liens" above, without equally and ratably securing the notes, to issue, assume or guarantee Debt secured by a lien on such Principal Property in the amount of the Attributable Debt arising from such Sale and Leaseback Transaction;

the Attributable Debt of EQT and its Restricted Subsidiaries in respect of such Sale and Leaseback Transaction and all other Sale and Leaseback Transactions entered into after the closing date of this offering (other than such Sale and Leaseback Transactions as are permitted as described in the bullet above or the bullet below), plus the aggregate principal amount of Debt secured by liens on Principal Properties then outstanding (not including any such Debt secured by liens described in the nine bullets set forth under "Restrictions on Liens" above) which do not equally and ratably secure the notes, would not exceed 15% of Consolidated Net Tangible Assets; or

EQT, within 180 days after any such sale or transfer, applies or causes a Restricted Subsidiary to apply an amount equal to the greater of the net proceeds of such sale or transfer or the fair value, as determined by the Board of Directors, of the Principal Property so sold and leased back at the time of entering into such Sale and Leaseback Transaction to either (or a combination of) (A) the prepayment or retirement of the notes or other Debt of EQT (other than Debt subordinated to the notes), or Debt of any Restricted Subsidiary (other than Debt owed to EQT or any Restricted Subsidiary), or (B) the purchase, construction or development of other property used or useful in the business of EQT.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, where EQT or any Restricted Subsidiary is the lessee in any Sale and Leaseback Transaction, Attributable Debt shall not include any Debt resulting from the guarantee by EQT or any other Restricted Subsidiary of the lessee's obligation thereunder.

Merger, Consolidation and Sale of Assets

EQT will not consolidate with any other entity or accept a merger of any other entity into EQT or permit EQT to be merged into any other entity, or sell other than for cash or lease its assets substantially as an entirety to another entity, or purchase the assets of another entity substantially as an entirety, unless:

either EQT shall be the continuing entity, or the successor, transferee or lessee entity (if other than EQT) shall expressly assume prior to or simultaneously with such consolidation, merger, sale or lease, all obligations under the applicable Indenture or under the notes to be performed or observed by EQT; and immediately after such consolidation, merger, sale, lease or purchase EQT or the successor, transferee or lessee entity (if other than EQT) would not be in default in the performance of any covenant or condition of the applicable Indenture.

In addition, EQT will not consolidate or merge with or into any other entity, or sell other than for cash or lease its assets substantially as an entirety to another entity, or purchase the assets of another entity substantially as an entirety, if, as a result of any such consolidation, merger, sale, lease or purchase, properties or assets of EQT would become subject to a lien which would not be permitted by the applicable Indenture, unless EQT or such successor Person, as the case may be, takes such steps as are necessary to effectively secure the notes equally and ratably with (or prior to) all indebtedness secured thereby.

General Limitations on Payment of Dividends and Making Distributions

Pennsylvania law prohibits the payment of dividends or the repurchase of EQT shares if EQT is insolvent or if EQT would become insolvent after the dividend or repurchase.

Certain Definitions

Certain terms used in this description are defined in the Indentures as follows:

"Attributable Debt" in respect of a Sale and Leaseback Transaction means, as of any particular time, the present value (discounted at the rate of interest implicit in the terms of the lease involved in such Sale and Leaseback Transaction, as determined in good faith by EQT) of the obligation of the lessee thereunder for net rental payments (excluding, however, any amounts required to be paid by such lessee, whether or not designated as rent or additional rent, on account of maintenance and repairs, services, insurance, taxes, assessments, water rates or similar charges and any amounts required to be paid by such lessee thereunder contingent upon monetary inflation or the amount of sales, maintenance and repairs, insurance, taxes, assessments, water rates or similar charges) during the remaining term of such lease (including any period for which such lease has been extended or may, at the option of the lessor, be extended).

"Consolidated Net Tangible Assets" means the aggregate amount of assets of EQT and its consolidated Subsidiaries (less applicable reserves) after deducting therefrom (a) all goodwill, trade names, trademarks, patents, unamortized debt discount and expense and other like intangibles and (b) all current liabilities except for current maturities of long-term debt, current maturities of capitalized lease obligations, indebtedness for borrowed money having a maturity of less than 12 months from the date of the most recent audited consolidated balance sheet of EQT, but which by its terms is renewable or extendable beyond 12 months from such date at the option of the borrower and deferred income taxes which are classified as current liabilities, all as of the end of the most recently completed quarterly accounting period of EQT for which financial information is available prior to the time as of which "Consolidated Net Tangible Assets" is being determined.

"Debt" means indebtedness for borrowed money.

"Moody's" means Moody's Investors Service, Inc., a subsidiary of Moody's Corporation, and its successors.

"Person" means, except as provided in the applicable Indenture, any individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, unincorporated organization or government or any agency or political subdivision thereof.

"Principal Property" means any manufacturing plant or production, transportation or marketing facility or other similar facility located within the United States (other than its territories and possessions) and owned by, or leased to, EQT or any Restricted Subsidiary, the book value of the real property, plant and equipment of which (as shown, without deduction of any depreciation reserves, on the books of the owner or owners) is not less than 1.5% of Consolidated Net Tangible Assets as of the date on which such facility is acquired or a leasehold interest therein is acquired.

"Rating Agencies" means (1) each of Moody's and S&P; and (2) if any of Moody's or S&P ceases to rate the notes of any series or fails to make a rating of the notes of any series publicly available, and Substitute Rating Agency for Moody's or S&P, or both of them, as the case may be.

"Restricted Subsidiary" means any Subsidiary substantially all the property of which is located, or substantially all the business of which is carried on, within the United States (other than its territories and possessions) which shall at the time, directly or indirectly, through one or more Subsidiaries or in combination with one or more other Subsidiaries or EQT, own or be a lessee of a Principal Property.

"S&P" means Standard & Poor's Ratings Services, a division of McGraw Hill Financial, Inc., and its successors.

"Subsidiary" means, with respect to EQT, a corporation of which more than 50% of the total voting power of the capital stock entitled (without regard to the occurrence of any contingency) to vote in the election of its directors is owned, directly or indirectly, by EQT or by one or more other Subsidiaries or by EQT and one or more other Subsidiaries.

"Substitute Rating Agency" means, in EQT's discretion at any time and from time to time, Fitch, Inc. or any other "nationally recognized statistical rating organization" within the meaning of Section 3(a)(62) of the Exchange Act selected by EQT (as certified to the Trustee by a certificate of a responsible officer of EQT) as a replacement agency for Moody's or S&P, or either of them, as the case may be.

Events of Default

An Event of Default with respect to the notes of any series shall be any one of the following events with respect to such series:

the failure of EQT to pay any installment of interest on such notes when and as the same shall become payable, which failure shall have continued unremedied for a period of 30 days;

the failure of EQT to pay the principal of (and premium, if any, on) such notes, when and as the same shall become payable, whether at maturity or by call for redemption;

the failure of EQT to perform any covenants or agreements contained in the applicable Indenture (other than a covenant or agreement which has been expressly included in the applicable Indenture solely for the benefit of debt securities of EQT other than the notes of such series offered pursuant to this prospectus), which failure shall not have been remedied, or without provision deemed to be adequate for the remedying thereof having been made, for a period of 90 days after written notice shall have been given to EQT by the Trustee or shall have been given to EQT and the Trustee by the holders of 25% or more in aggregate principal amount of the notes of such series then outstanding;

default under any mortgage, indenture or instrument under which there may be issued or by which there may be secured or evidenced any indebtedness for money borrowed by EQT or any Subsidiary in an aggregate principal amount in excess of $200 million whether such indebtedness exists at the time of closing of this offering or shall thereafter be created, which default shall constitute a failure to pay any portion of the principal of such indebtedness when due and payable after the expiration of any applicable grace period with respect thereto or shall have resulted in such indebtedness becoming or being declared due and payable prior to the date on which it would otherwise have become due and payable, without such indebtedness having been discharged, or such acceleration having been rescinded or annulled, which continues for a period of 30 days after written notice shall have been given to EQT by the Trustee or shall have been given to EQT and the Trustee by holders of 25% or more in aggregate principal amount of the notes of such series then outstanding; and certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization of EQT.

Each Indenture provides that, if any Event of Default with respect to the notes of the applicable series occurs and is continuing, either the Trustee or the holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the notes of such series then outstanding may declare the principal of and all accrued but unpaid interest on all notes of such series then outstanding to be due and payable immediately, but under certain conditions such declaration may be rescinded and annulled and past defaults (except, unless theretofore cured, a default in payment of principal of or premium, if any, or interest, if any, on the notes and certain other specified defaults) may be waived by the holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the notes of such series then outstanding on behalf of the holders of all the notes of such series.

Within 90 days after the occurrence thereof, and if known to the Trustee, the Trustee shall give to the holders of the notes of the applicable series notice of each default or event of default with respect to the notes of such series known to the Trustee, unless such default shall have been cured or waived before the giving of such notice, provided, however, that such notice shall not be given until at least 30 days after the occurrence of any default in the performance of a covenant in the applicable Indenture other than for the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the notes of such series. Except in the case of a default in payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the notes of any series when and as the same shall become payable, the Trustee shall be protected in withholding such notice, if and for so long as the Trustee in good faith determines that the withholding of such notice is in the interests of the holders of the notes of such series. For purposes of the provision described in this paragraph, the term default with respect to any notes means any event which is, or after notice or lapse of time or both, would become an "Event of Default" specified in the applicable Indenture with respect to the notes of such series.

The Trustee is required, during a default, to act with the standard of care provided in the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended (the Trust Indenture Act). Each Indenture provides that the holders of a majority in principal amount of the notes of the applicable series may direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee with respect to the notes of such series. However, each Indenture contains a provision entitling the Trustee to be indemnified to its satisfaction by holders of the notes of the applicable series before proceeding to exercise any right or power vested in it under the applicable Indenture at the request or direction of the holders of the notes of such series. The terms of the indemnification required by the Trustee will depend on the nature of the right or power requested or directed to be exercised by the holders and the circumstances that exist at that time. Generally, the Trustee would expect to be fully protected for all actions.

Modification and Waiver

Modifications and amendments may be made by EQT and the Trustee to the applicable Indenture, without the consent of any holder of the notes of any series, to, among other things:

permit or facilitate the defeasance and discharge of any series of notes provided that any such action shall not adversely affect the interests of the holders of such notes or any other series of securities issued under the applicable Indenture.

Each Indenture contains provisions permitting EQT and the Trustee, with the consent of the holders of a majority in aggregate in principal amount of the notes of the applicable series to execute supplemental indentures adding any provisions to or changing or eliminating any of the provisions of the applicable Indenture or modifying the rights of the holders of the notes of such series, except that no such supplemental indenture may, without the consent of the holder of each note of such series affected thereby:

change the stated maturity date of the principal of, or any installment of interest on, the notes of such series, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the interest thereon or any premium payable upon redemption of the notes of such series, or change the currency in which the principal of and premium, if any, or interest on the notes of such series is denominated or payable;

reduce the percentage in principal amount of the outstanding notes of such series, the consent of whose holders is required for any supplemental indenture, or the consent of whose holders is required for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of the applicable Indenture or certain defaults thereunder and their consequences provided for therein; or

The holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding notes of any series may, on behalf of all the holders of all notes of such series:

waive compliance by EQT with certain restrictive provisions of the applicable Indenture, as detailed in the applicable Indenture; or waive any past default or event of default under the applicable Indenture and its consequences, except a default or event of default in the payment of any amount due with respect to any note of such series, or in respect of any provision which under the applicable Indenture cannot be modified or amended without the consent of the holder of each outstanding note of such series affected.

Satisfaction and Discharge

The applicable Indenture will cease to be of further effect with respect to the applicable series of notes if:

all notes of such series (other than (A) notes that have been destroyed, lost or stolen and that have been replaced or paid as provided in the applicable Indenture and (B) notes for whose payment money has previously been deposited in trust or segregated and held in trust by EQT and thereafter repaid to EQT or discharged from such trust, as provided in the applicable Indenture) have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation; or all notes of such series not previously delivered to the Trustee for cancellation, (A) have become due and payable, (B) will become due and payable at their stated maturity date within one year, or (C) are to be called for redemption within one year under arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee, and EQT, in the case of (A), (B) and (C) above, has deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee or paying agent an amount sufficient to pay and discharge the entire indebtedness on the notes of such series for principal and premium, if any, and interest to the date of such deposit (in the case of notes of such series that have become due and payable) or to the stated maturity date or redemption date, as the case may be; provided, however, in the event a bankruptcy petition is filed with respect to EQT within 91 days after the deposit and the Trustee is required to return the moneys then on deposit with the Trustee to EQT, the obligations of EQT under the applicable Indenture with respect to such notes shall not be deemed terminated or discharged.

Such trust may only be established if:

EQT has paid or caused to be paid all other sums payable by EQT under the applicable Indenture; and EQT has delivered to the Trustee an officer's certificate and an opinion of counsel each stating that all conditions precedent provided for in the applicable Indenture relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the applicable Indenture with respect to such series have been complied with.

Defeasance

Each Indenture provides that the terms of the notes of the applicable series may provide EQT with the option to discharge its indebtedness represented by the notes of such series or to cease to be obligated to comply with certain covenants under the applicable Indenture. EQT, in order to exercise such option, will be required to deposit with the Trustee money and/or U.S. government obligations which, through the payment of interest and principal in respect thereof in accordance with their terms, will provide money in an amount sufficient to pay and discharge each installment of principal of and premium, if any, and interest on, the outstanding notes of such series on the dates such installments of interest or principal and premium are due in accordance with the terms of the applicable Indenture and such notes, provided, however, in the case of the notes of any series being discharged, in the event a bankruptcy petition is filed with respect to EQT within 91 days after the deposit and the Trustee is required to return the moneys then on deposit with the Trustee to EQT, the obligations of EQT under the applicable Indenture with respect to such notes shall not be deemed discharged.

Such trust may only be established if:

no default or event that with notice or lapse of time or both would become an event of default with respect to the notes of such series shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit (other than a default resulting from the borrowing of funds and the grant of any related liens to be applied to such deposit);

EQT shall have delivered to the Trustee:

an opinion of counsel to the effect that holders of the notes of such series will not recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of EQT's exercise of this defeasance option and will be subject to federal income tax on the same amounts and in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such action had not been exercised; and in the case of the notes of such series being discharged, accompanied by a ruling to that effect received from or published by the Internal Revenue Service.

Trustee

The Trustee may resign or be removed with respect to the notes of any series and a successor trustee may be appointed to act with respect to such notes.

Governing Law

Each Indenture and the notes shall be deemed to be contracts made under the law of the State of New York, and for all purposes shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of said State.

Book-Entry, Delivery and Form

The notes of each series will be represented by one or more permanent global notes in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons. Upon issuance, the notes of each series will be deposited with The Bank of New York Mellon, as trustee, as custodian for The Depository Trust Company in New York, New York (which we refer to as DTC), and registered in the name of DTC or its nominee.

Ownership of beneficial interests in a global note will be limited to persons who have accounts with DTC, which we refer to as "participants," or persons who hold interests through participants. Ownership of beneficial interests in a global note will be shown on, and the transfer of that ownership will be effected only through, records maintained by DTC or its nominee (with respect to interests of participants) and the records of participants (with respect to interests of persons other than participants).

So long as DTC, or its nominee, is the registered owner or holder of any of the notes of any series, DTC or that nominee as the case may be, will be considered the sole owner or holder of the notes of such series represented by the global note for all purposes under the applicable Indenture and the notes. No beneficial owner of an interest in a global note will be able to transfer such interest except in accordance with DTC's applicable procedures, in addition to those provided for under the applicable Indenture.

Payments of the principal of, and interest on, a global note will be made to DTC or its nominee, as the case may be, as the registered owner thereof. None of the trustees, any paying agent, or EQT will have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to or payments made on account of beneficial ownership interests in a global note or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such beneficial ownership interests.

We expect that DTC or its nominee, upon receipt of any payment of principal or interest in respect of a global note, will credit participants' accounts with payments in amounts proportionate to their respective beneficial interests in the principal amount of such global note as shown on the records of DTC or its nominee. We also expect that payments by participants to owners of beneficial interests in such global note held through such participants will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is now the case with securities held for the accounts of customers registered in the names of nominees for such customers. Such payments will be the responsibility of such participants.

Transfers between participants in DTC will be effected in the ordinary way in accordance with DTC rules and procedures and will be settled in same-day funds.

We expect that DTC will take any action permitted to be taken by a holder of notes of any series only at the direction of one or more participants to whose account the DTC interests in a global note is credited and only in respect of such portion of the aggregate principal amount of notes of such series as to which such participant or participants has or have given such direction. However, if there is an event of default under the notes of such series, DTC will exchange the applicable global note for certificated notes, which it will distribute to its participants.

A global note is exchangeable for definitive notes in registered certificated form if:

DTC (i) notifies EQT that it is unwilling or unable to continue as depositary for the global notes of such series, or (ii) has ceased to be a clearing agency registered under the Exchange Act, and in each case a successor depositary is not appointed by EQT within 90 days of such notice;

at EQT's option, EQT notifies the trustees in writing that it has elected to cause the issuance of the certificated securities; or there has occurred and is continuing a default or event of default with respect to the notes of such series.

In addition, beneficial interests in a global note may be exchanged for certificated securities upon prior written notice given to the trustee by or on behalf of DTC in accordance with the applicable Indenture.

In all cases, certificated securities delivered in exchange for any beneficial interests in global notes will be registered in the names, and issued in any approved denominations, requested by or on behalf of the depositary (in accordance with its customary procedures). Certificated securities may be presented for registration, transfer and exchange at The Bank of New York Mellon, New York, New York, or the office or agency designated for such purpose.

We understand that:

DTC is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a "banking organization" within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the U.S. Federal Reserve System, a "clearing corporation" within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code and a "clearing agency" registered under the Exchange Act;

DTC holds securities that its participants deposit with DTC and facilitates the settlement among participants of securities transactions, such as transfers and pledges, in deposited securities through electronic computerized book-entry changes in participants' accounts, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of securities certificates;

DTC's participants include securities brokers and dealers (including the underwriters), banks, trust companies, clearing corporations and certain other organizations, some of which, and/or their representatives, own DTC;

access to the DTC system is also available to others such as securities brokers, dealers, banks, trust companies and others that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a direct participant, either directly or indirectly; and the rules applicable to DTC and its participants are on file with the SEC.

Transfers between participants in DTC will be effected in accordance with DTC's procedures, and will be settled in same-day funds. Transfers between participants in Euroclear and Clearstream will be effected in accordance with their respective rules and operating procedures. Subject to compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the notes described herein, cross-market transfers between the participants in DTC, on the one hand, and Euroclear and Clearstream participants, on the other hand, will be effected through DTC in accordance with DTC's rules on behalf of Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, by its respective depository; however, such cross-market transactions will require delivery of instructions to Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, by the counterparty in such system in accordance with the rules and procedures and within the established deadlines (Brussels time) of such system. Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, will, if the transaction meets its settlement requirements, deliver instructions to its respective depository to take action to effect final settlement on its behalf by delivering or receiving interests in the relevant global note in DTC, and making or receiving payment in accordance with normal procedures for same-day funds settlement applicable to DTC. Euroclear participants and Clearstream participants may not deliver instructions directly to the depositories for Euroclear or Clearstream.

Same Day Settlement and Payment

We will make payments in respect of the notes of each series (including principal, interest and premium, if any) at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee except that, at the option of EQT, we will make payments of interest by check mailed to the registered address of the holder of the notes entitled thereto or, in accordance with arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee, at the option of the holder of the notes by wire transfer to an account designated by such holder. The notes represented by the global notes are expected to trade in DTC's Same Day Funds Settlement System, and any permitted secondary market trading activity in the notes will, therefore, be required by DTC to be settled in immediately available funds. We expect that secondary trading in any certificated securities will also be settled in immediately available funds.

Euroclear and Clearstream

We have obtained the information in this section concerning Clearstream and Euroclear, and the book-entry system and procedures from sources that we believe to be reliable, but we take no responsibility for the accuracy of this information.

We understand that Clearstream is a limited liability company organized under Luxembourg law as a professional depository. Clearstream holds securities for its participants and facilitates the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between Clearstream participants through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of Clearstream participants, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of certificates. Clearstream provides to Clearstream participants, among other things, services for safekeeping, administration, clearance and settlement of internationally traded securities and securities lending and borrowing. Clearstream interfaces with domestic markets in several countries. Clearstream is registered as a bank in Luxembourg, and as such is subject to regulation by the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier. Clearstream participants are recognized financial institutions around the world, including underwriters, securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations and certain other organizations and may include the underwriters. Indirect access to Clearstream is available to other institutions that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Clearstream participant.

We understand that Euroclear was created in 1968 to hold securities for participants of Euroclear and to clear and settle transactions between Euroclear participants through simultaneous electronic book-entry delivery against payment, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of certificates and any risk from lack of simultaneous transfers of securities and cash. Euroclear provides various other services, including securities lending and borrowing and interfaces with domestic markets in several countries. Euroclear is operated by Euroclear Bank SA/NV (the Euroclear Operator) under contract with Euroclear Clearance Systems S.C., a Belgian cooperative corporation (the Cooperative). All operations are conducted by the Euroclear Operator, and all Euroclear securities clearance accounts and Euroclear cash accounts are accounts with the Euroclear Operator, not the Cooperative. The Cooperative establishes policy for Euroclear on behalf of Euroclear participants. Euroclear participants include banks, securities brokers and dealers and other professional financial intermediaries and may include the underwriters. Indirect access to Euroclear is also available to other firms that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Euroclear Participant, either directly or indirectly.

We understand that the Euroclear Operator is regulated and examined by the Belgian Banking and Finance Commission to carry out banking activities on a global basis. Securities clearance accounts and cash accounts with the Euroclear Operator are governed by the Terms and Conditions Governing Use of Euroclear and the related Operating Procedures of the Euroclear System, and applicable Belgian law. These Terms and Conditions govern transfers of securities and cash within Euroclear, withdrawals of securities and cash from Euroclear, and receipts of payments with respect to securities in Euroclear. All securities in Euroclear are held on a fungible basis without attribution of specific certificates to specific securities clearance accounts. The Euroclear Operator acts under the Terms and Conditions only on behalf of Euroclear participants, and has no record of or relationship with persons holding through Euroclear participants.

We have provided the descriptions of the operations and procedures of Clearstream and Euroclear in this prospectus supplement solely as a matter of convenience, and we make no representation or warranty of any kind with respect to these operations and procedures. These operations and procedures are solely within the control of those organizations and are subject to change by them from time to time. None of us, the underwriters, the Trustee or the paying agent takes any responsibility for these operations or procedures, and you are urged to contact Clearstream and Euroclear or their participants directly to discuss these matters.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following is a general discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax considerations applicable to U.S. holders and non-U.S. holders (each as defined below) with respect to the ownership and disposition of notes acquired in this offering, but it does not purport to be a complete analysis of all the potential tax considerations. This discussion is limited to the U.S. federal income tax consequences relevant to holders that acquire notes in the initial offering at their original "issue price" (i.e., the first price at which a substantial amount of notes of the applicable series is sold (excluding sales to bond houses, brokers or similar persons or organizations acting in the capacity of underwriters, placement agents or wholesalers) for cash) and hold them as "capital assets" within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). This discussion does not address tax consequences relevant to subsequent purchasers of the notes. This discussion is based on current provisions of the Code, the Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial decisions and administrative rulings and published positions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (the IRS), each as in effect as of the date hereof and all of which are subject to change or differing interpretations, possibly with retroactive effect, and any such change or interpretation could affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions set forth herein.

This discussion is for general information only and does not purport to address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to particular holders in light of their particular circumstances and does not apply to holders subject to special rules under the U.S. federal income tax laws (including, for example, banks or other financial institutions, dealers in securities or currencies, traders in securities that elect to apply a mark-to-market method of accounting, insurance companies, tax-exempt entities, grantor trusts, entities or arrangements treated as partnerships or other flow-through entities for U.S. federal income tax purposes (and investors therein), subchapter S corporations, retirement plans, individual retirement accounts or other tax-deferred accounts, real estate investment trusts, regulated investment companies, holders liable for the alternative minimum tax, certain former citizens or former long-term residents of the United States, U.S. holders having a "functional currency" other than the U.S. dollar, holders who hold notes as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale, conversion transaction or other integrated transaction, "controlled foreign corporations," and "passive foreign investment companies"). This discussion also does not address any considerations under U.S. federal tax laws other than those pertaining to the income tax, nor does it address any considerations under any state, local or non-U.S. tax laws. In addition, this discussion does not address the tax consequences of the ownership and disposition of the notes arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010 nor, except as described below, any considerations with respect to any withholding required pursuant to the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act of 2010 (including the Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder and intergovernmental agreements entered in connection therewith) (collectively, "FATCA").

If an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds notes, the tax treatment of a person treated as a partner in such partnership generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Any person that for U.S. federal income tax purposes is treated as a partner in a partnership holding notes should consult his, her or its tax advisor regarding the tax consequences of the ownership and disposition of notes.

Possible Application of Rules Governing Contingent Payment Debt Instruments

The terms of the notes provide for payments in excess of stated interest or principal, or prior to their scheduled payment dates, under certain circumstances (including, for example, in the event of a Special Mandatory Redemption as described under "Description of Notes - Special Mandatory Redemption"). The possibility of such payments may implicate special rules under Treasury regulations governing "contingent payment debt instruments." According to those Treasury regulations, the possibility that payments of excess or accelerated amounts will be made will not affect the amount of income a holder recognizes in advance of the payment of such excess or accelerated amounts if there is only a remote chance as of the date the notes are issued that such payments will be made. We intend to take the position that the likelihood that such payments will be made is remote within the meaning of the applicable Treasury regulations. Our position that these contingencies are remote is binding on a holder unless such holder discloses its contrary position to the IRS in the manner required by applicable Treasury regulations. Our position that the notes are not contingent payment debt instruments is not binding on the IRS, and there can be no assurance that the IRS will not challenge our position or that any such challenge would not be sustained by a court. If the IRS were to challenge this position successfully, a holder might be required to, among other things, accrue interest income based on a projected payment schedule and comparable yield, which may be in excess of stated interest, and treat as ordinary income rather than capital gain any income realized on the taxable disposition of a note. Prospective holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences if the notes were treated as contingent payment debt instruments. The remainder of this discussion assumes that the notes will not be considered contingent payment debt instruments.

U.S. Holders

For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner of a note that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation (or any other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized under the laws of the United States, any state thereof, or the District of Columbia;

an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source; or a trust (a) if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the trust's administration and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (b) that has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Payments of Interest

It is anticipated, and this discussion assumes, that the issue price of the notes will be equal to the stated principal amount or, if the issue price is less than the stated principal amount, the difference will be a de minimis amount (as set forth in the applicable Treasury regulations). Interest on a note generally will be taxable to a U.S. holder as ordinary interest income at the time it is received or accrued, in accordance with the U.S. holder's regular method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Sale, Exchange, Redemption or Other Taxable Disposition of the Notes

A U.S. holder generally will recognize gain or loss upon the sale, exchange, redemption or other taxable disposition of a note equal to the difference, if any, between (a) the sum of the cash and the fair market value of any property received on such disposition (other than amounts attributable to accrued but unpaid interest, which amounts will be treated as interest income as described above under " Payments of Interest") and (b) such U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the note. A U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in a note generally will be equal to the amount that such U.S. holder paid for the note. Any gain or loss recognized on a sale, exchange, redemption or other taxable disposition of a note generally will be capital gain or loss, and generally will be long-term capital gain or loss, if, at the time of such disposition, the U.S. holder will have held the note for a period of more than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Information reporting generally will apply to payments of interest on the notes and to the proceeds of a sale or other taxable disposition of a note paid to a U.S. holder unless the U.S. holder is an exempt recipient. U.S. federal backup withholding (currently, at a rate of 28%) generally will apply to such payments if the U.S. holder fails to provide the applicable withholding agent with a properly completed and executed IRS Form W-9 providing such U.S. holder's correct taxpayer identification number and certifying that such U.S. holder is not subject to backup withholding, or to otherwise establish an exemption.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or a credit against a U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, if any, provided that the required information is furnished timely to the IRS.

Non-U.S. Holders

For purposes of this discussion, the term "non-U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner of a note that is neither a U.S. holder nor a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Payments of Interest

Subject to the discussion below under " Information Reporting and Backup Withholding," payments of interest on the notes to a non-U.S. holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax under the "portfolio interest exemption," provided that:

such interest is not effectively connected with the non-U.S. holder's conduct of a trade or business within the United States;

the non-U.S. holder does not actually or constructively own 10% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of EQT stock entitled to vote;

the non-U.S. holder is not a "controlled foreign corporation" with respect to which EQT is a "related person" within the meaning of the Code; and either (a) the beneficial owner of the notes provides the applicable withholding agent with a properly completed and executed IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-BEN-E, as applicable, certifying, under penalties of perjury, that it is not a "United States person" (as defined in the Code) and providing its name and address or (b) a financial institution that holds the notes on behalf of the beneficial owner certifies to the applicable withholding agent, under penalties of perjury, that it has received such properly completed and executed IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable, from the beneficial owner (or that it has received from another financial institution a similar statement that it, or another financial institution acting on behalf of the beneficial owner, has received the IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E, as applicable, from the beneficial owner) and provides the applicable withholding agent with a copy thereof.

Table of Contents

If a non-U.S. holder cannot satisfy the requirements of the "portfolio interest exemption" described above, payments of interest made to the non-U.S. holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax at a rate of 30%, or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty, unless such interest is effectively connected with such non-U.S. holder's conduct of a trade or business within the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, is attributable to a permanent establishment of the non-U.S. holder in the United States) and such non-U.S. holder provides the applicable withholding agent with a properly completed and executed IRS Form W-8ECI. In order to claim an exemption from or reduction of withholding under an applicable income tax treaty, a non-U.S. holder generally must furnish to the applicable withholding agent a properly executed IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable. Non-U.S. holders eligible for an exemption from or reduced rate of U.S. federal withholding tax under an applicable income tax treaty may obtain a refund of any excess amounts withheld by timely filing an appropriate claim with the IRS. Non-U.S. holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding their entitlement to benefits under an applicable income tax treaty and the requirements for claiming any such benefits.

Interest paid to a non-U.S. holder that is effectively connected with such non-U.S. holder's conduct of a trade or business within the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, is attributable to a permanent establishment of the non-U.S. holder in the United States) generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis and at the regular graduated U.S. federal income tax rates in the same manner as if such non-U.S. holder were a U.S. person. A non-U.S. holder that is a corporation may be subject to an additional "branch profits tax" at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty) of its "effectively connected earnings and profits" for the taxable year, subject to certain adjustments.

Sale, Exchange, Redemption or Other Taxable Disposition of the Notes

Subject to the discussion below under " Information Reporting and Backup Withholding," except with respect to accrued and unpaid interest (which will generally be treated as described above under " Payments of Interest"), a non-U.S. holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax or withholding tax on any gain realized upon the sale, exchange, redemption or other taxable disposition of a note unless:

such gain is effectively connected with the non-U.S. holder's conduct of a trade or business within the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, is attributable to a permanent establishment of the non-U.S. holder in the United States); or the non-U.S. holder is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the disposition and certain other conditions are met.

Gain described in the first bullet point above generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis at the regular graduated U.S. federal income tax rates in the same manner as if such non-U.S. holder were a U.S. person. A non-U.S. holder that is a corporation also may be subject to an additional "branch profits tax" at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty) of its "effectively connected earnings and profits" for the taxable year, subject to certain adjustments.

A non-U.S. holder described in the second bullet point above generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain at a 30% rate (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty), but such gain may be offset by U.S. source capital losses, if any, of the non-U.S. holder.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Generally, payors must report annually to the IRS and to each non-U.S. holder the amount of interest paid to such non-U.S. holder and the amount of tax, if any, withheld with respect to such payments. These reporting requirements apply regardless of whether withholding was required. This information may also be made available to the tax authorities in the country in which a non-U.S. holder resides or is established pursuant to the provisions of a specific treaty or agreement with those tax authorities.

U.S. backup withholding tax (currently, at a rate of 28%) is imposed on certain payments to persons that fail to furnish the information required under the U.S. backup withholding rules. Interest paid to a non-U.S. holder generally will be exempt from backup withholding if the non-U.S. holder provides the applicable withholding agent with a properly executed IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable (or other applicable IRS Form W-8), or otherwise establishes an exemption.

Under Treasury regulations, the payment of proceeds from the disposition of a note by a non-U.S. holder effected at a U.S. office of a broker generally will be subject to information reporting and backup withholding, unless the non-U.S. holder provides a properly executed IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable (or other applicable IRS Form W-8), certifying such non-U.S. holder's non-U.S. status or by otherwise establishing an exemption. The payment of proceeds from the disposition of notes by a non-U.S. holder effected at a non-U.S. office of a U.S. broker or a non-U.S. broker with certain specified U.S. connections generally will be subject to information reporting (but not backup withholding) unless such non-U.S. holder provides a properly executed IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable (or other applicable IRS Form W-8), certifying such non-U.S. holder's non-U.S. status or by otherwise establishing an exemption. Backup withholding will apply if the disposition is subject to information reporting and the broker has actual knowledge that the non-U.S. holder is a U.S. person.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or a credit against a non-U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, if any, provided that the required information is furnished timely to the IRS. Non-U.S. holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the application of these rules to their particular circumstances.

Under certain circumstances, FATCA imposes a withholding tax of 30% on payments of interest on, and, after December 31, 2018, the gross proceeds from a disposition of, the notes made to certain foreign entities (whether such foreign entities are beneficial owners or intermediaries) unless various information reporting and due diligence requirements are satisfied. Prospective investors that are, or intend to hold the notes through, foreign entities should consult their own tax advisors regarding the possibility of withholding under FATCA.

The underwriting agreement provides that the obligations of the underwriters to purchase the notes included in this offering are subject to approval of legal matters by counsel and to other conditions. The underwriters are obligated to purchase all the notes if they purchase any of the notes.

The notes sold by the underwriters to the public will initially be offered at the applicable public offering price set forth on the cover of this prospectus supplement. Any notes sold by the underwriters to securities dealers may be sold at a discount from the public offering price of up to 0.250% of the principal amount of the notes for the Floating Rate Notes, up to 0.250% of the principal amount of the notes for the 2020 notes, up to 0.350% of the principal amount of the notes for the 2022 notes and up to 0.400% of the principal amount of the notes for the 2027 notes. Any such securities dealers may resell any notes purchased from the underwriters to certain other brokers or dealers at a discount from the public offering price of up to 0.150% of the principal amount of the notes for the Floating Rate Notes, up to 0.150% of the principal amount of the notes for the 2020 notes, up to 0.200% of the principal amount of the notes for the 2022 notes and up to 0.250% of the principal amount of the notes for the 2027 notes. If all the notes are not sold at the initial public offering prices, the underwriters may change the public offering price and the other selling terms of the notes. The underwriters further reserve the right to withdraw or cancel offers to the public in whole or in part.

The following table shows the underwriting discounts and commissions that we are to pay to the underwriters in connection with this offering (expressed as a percentage of the principal amount of the notes).

	Paid by EQT
Per Floating Rate Note	0.400%
Per 2020 note	0.400%
Per 2022 note	0.600%
Per 2027 note	0.650%

We estimate that our total expenses for this offering, excluding underwriting discounts and commissions, will be $6.1 million.

We have agreed to indemnify the underwriters against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or to contribute to payments the underwriters may be required to make because of any of those liabilities.

The notes are a new issue of securities with no established trading markets. We do not intend to apply for listing of the notes on a national securities exchange or on any automated dealer quotation system. Certain of the underwriters have advised us that they presently intend to make markets in the notes as permitted by applicable law. However, the underwriters are not obligated to make markets in the notes and may cease their market-making activities at any time at their discretion without notice. In addition, the liquidity of the trading markets in the notes, and the market prices quoted for the notes, may be adversely affected by changes in the overall market for securities and by changes in our financial performance or our prospects and/or companies in our industry generally. As a result, no assurance can be given (i) that active trading markets will develop or be maintained for the notes, (ii) as to the liquidity of any markets that do develop or (iii) as to your ability to sell any notes you may own or the price at which you may be able to sell your notes.

In connection with the offering, the underwriters may purchase and sell notes in the open market. Purchases and sales in the open market may include short sales, purchases to cover short positions and stabilizing purchases.

Short sales involve secondary market sales by the underwriters of a greater number of notes than they are required to purchase in the offering.

Covering transactions involve purchases of notes in the open market after the distribution has been completed in order to cover short positions.

Stabilizing transactions involve bids to purchase notes so long as the stabilizing bids do not exceed a specified maximum.

Purchases to cover short positions and stabilizing purchases, as well as other purchases by the underwriters for their own accounts, may have the effect of preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of the notes. They may also cause the price of the notes to be higher than the price that would otherwise exist in the open market in the absence of these transactions. The underwriters may conduct these transactions in the over-the-counter market or otherwise. If the underwriters commence any of these transactions, they may discontinue them at any time without notice.

We expect that the notes will be delivered against payment therefor on or about October 4, 2017, which will be the fifth business day following the date of pricing of the notes (this settlement cycle being referred to as "T+5"). Under Rule 15c6-1 of the Exchange Act, trades in the secondary market generally are required to settle in two business days, unless the parties to any such trade expressly agree otherwise. Accordingly, purchasers who wish to trade notes on the date of pricing or the next two business days will be required to specify an alternate settlement cycle at the time of any such trade to prevent a failed settlement. Purchasers of the notes who wish to trade notes on the date of pricing or the next two business days should consult their own advisors.

The underwriters are full service financial institutions engaged in various activities, which may include securities trading, commercial and investment banking, financial advisory, investment management, principal investment, hedging, financing and brokerage activities. The underwriters and their respective affiliates have in the past performed commercial banking, investment banking, corporate trust and advisory services for us from time to time for which they have received customary fees and reimbursement of expenses and may, from time to time, engage in transactions with and perform services for us in the ordinary course of their business for which they may receive customary fees and reimbursement of expenses. Some of the underwriters or their affiliates are lenders, and in some cases agents or managers for the lenders, under our revolving credit facilities. In addition, some of the underwriters or their affiliates have committed as lenders under the Bridge Facility and Citigroup Global Markets Inc. has served as EQT's financial advisor in connection with the Rice Merger.

In the ordinary course of their various business activities, the underwriters and their respective affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (which may include bank loans and/or credit default swaps) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of ours or our affiliates. If any of these underwriters or their affiliates has a lending relationship with us, certain of these underwriters or affiliates routinely hedge and certain other of these underwriters or their affiliates may hedge their credit exposure to us consistent with their customary risk management policies. A typical such hedging strategy would include these underwriters or their affiliates hedging such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in our securities, including potentially the notes offered hereby. Any such credit default swaps or short positions could adversely affect future trading prices of the notes. The underwriters and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.

Conflicts of Interest

Affiliates of certain underwriters are lenders under the Rice and Rice Midstream Holdings senior secured credit facilities and hold a portion of Rice's outstanding senior notes, for which these affiliates have been paid customary fees. In connection with the Rice Refinancings, a portion of the outstanding borrowings under the Rice and Rice Midstream Holdings senior secured credit facilities and Rice's outstanding senior notes will be repaid with the net proceeds of the sale of the notes. Because more than 5% of the net proceeds of the offering will be paid to affiliates of certain underwriters, this offering is being made in compliance with FINRA Rule 5121, as administered by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. Since the notes are rated investment grade, pursuant to FINRA Rule 5121, the appointment of a qualified independent underwriter is not necessary in connection with this offering. The underwriters whose affiliates will receive more than 5% of the net proceeds of the offering will not make sales to discretionary accounts without the prior written consent of the customer.

Selling Restrictions

The purchaser should refer to any applicable provisions of the securities legislation of the purchaser's province or territory for particulars of these rights or consult with a legal advisor.

provided that no such offer of notes referred to in (i) to (iii) above shall require us or any underwriter to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 16 of the Prospectus Directive.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression "offer of notes to the public" in relation to any notes in any Relevant Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe for the notes, as the same may be varied in that Relevant Member State by any measure implementing the Prospectus Directive in that Relevant Member State and the expression "Prospectus Directive" means Directive 2003/71/EC (as amended, including by Directive 2010/73/EU), and includes any relevant implementing measure in the Relevant Member State.

DISCLOSURE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Some of the information included in this prospectus, any prospectus supplement, any accompanying free writing prospectus and the documents we incorporate by reference may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Exchange Act and Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act). Forward-looking statements may give our current expectations of plans, strategies, objectives and growth, contain projections of results of operations or of financial condition, or forecast future events. Statements that do not relate strictly to historical or current facts are forward-looking and usually identified by the use of words such as "anticipate," "estimate," "could," "would," "will," "may," "forecast," "approximate," "expect," "project," "intend," "plan," "believe" and other words of similar meaning in connection with any discussion of future operating or financial matters. The forward-looking statements included in this prospectus involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from projected results. Accordingly, you should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements as a prediction of actual results. We have based these forward-looking statements on current expectations and assumptions about future events. While we consider these expectations and assumptions to be reasonable, they are inherently subject to significant business, economic, competitive, regulatory and other risks and uncertainties, many of which are difficult to predict and beyond our control. The risks and uncertainties that may affect the operations, performance and results of our business and forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, those set forth in the "Risk Factors" section of this prospectus and in the documents that we have incorporated by reference herein.

Any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date on which such statement is made and we do not intend to correct or update any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

In reviewing any agreements incorporated by reference in or filed with the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part, please remember that such agreements are included to provide information regarding the terms of such agreements and are not intended to provide any other factual or disclosure information about us. The agreements may contain representations and warranties by us, which should not in all instances be treated as categorical statements of fact, but rather as a way of allocating the risk to one of the parties to such agreements should those statements prove to be inaccurate. The representations and warranties were made only as of the date of the relevant agreement or such other date or dates as may be specified in such agreement and are subject to more recent developments. Accordingly, these representations and warranties alone may not describe the actual state of affairs of us or our affiliates as of the date they were made or at any other time.

funding working capital, capital expenditures or acquisitions.

The actual application of proceeds from the sale of any particular offering of securities using this prospectus will be described in the applicable prospectus supplement relating to such offering. DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

Set forth below is a summary description of all the material terms of our capital stock. For more information, please see our Restated Articles of Incorporation (our Articles), which are incorporated by reference into the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part as Exhibit 4.1.

Description of Common Stock

Our authorized common stock consists of 320,000,000 shares. As of September 30, 2016, 173,227,762 shares of our common stock were issued and outstanding and we had 2,401 shareholders of record of our common stock.

Each share of our common stock is entitled to one vote on all matters requiring a vote of shareholders and, subject to the rights of the holders of any outstanding shares of preferred stock, each shareholder is entitled to receive any dividends, in cash, securities or property, as our board of directors may declare. Shareholders do not have cumulative voting rights in elections of directors. A director nominee is elected to the board of directors at a meeting of shareholders if the votes cast "for" such nominee exceed the votes cast "against" such nominee (excluding abstentions), unless the number of nominees exceeds the number of directors to be elected, in which case the nominees receiving the highest number of votes up to the number of directors to be elected are elected. Pennsylvania law prohibits the payment of dividends or the repurchase of our shares if we are insolvent or if we would become insolvent after the dividend or repurchase. In the event of our liquidation, dissolution or winding up, either voluntarily or involuntarily, subject to the rights of the holders of any outstanding shares of preferred stock, holders of common stock are entitled to share pro-rata in all of our remaining assets available for distribution. The common stock that may be issued under this prospectus will, when issued, be fully paid and nonassessable and will not have, or be subject to, any preemptive or similar rights.

Description of Preferred Stock

We currently have authorized 3,000,000 shares of undesignated preferred stock; there are no preferred shares issued and outstanding as of the date of this prospectus. Under Pennsylvania law and our Articles, our board of directors is authorized to issue shares of preferred stock from time to time in one or more series without shareholder approval. Subject to limitations prescribed by Pennsylvania law, our Articles and our Amended and Restated Bylaws (our Bylaws), our board of directors can determine the number of shares constituting each series of preferred stock and the designation, preferences, qualifications, limitations, restrictions, and special or relative rights or privileges of that series.

Holders of preferred stock have no voting rights for the election of directors and have no other voting rights except as our board of directors may determine pursuant to its authority under our Articles with respect to any particular series of preferred stock and except as provided by law.

If we offer a specific series of preferred stock under this prospectus, we will describe the terms of the preferred stock in the prospectus supplement for such offering. This description will include:

the distinctive serial designation of such series;

the annual dividend rate for such series, if any, and the date or dates from which dividends shall commence to accrue;

the redemption price or prices, if any, for shares of such series and the terms and conditions on which such shares may be redeemed;

the provisions for a sinking, purchase or similar fund, if any, for the redemption or purchase of shares of such series;

the preferential amount or amounts payable upon shares of such series in the event of our voluntary or involuntary liquidation;

the voting rights, if any, of such series;

the terms and conditions, if any, upon which shares of such series may be converted and the class or classes or series of our securities into which such shares may be converted;

the relative seniority, parity or junior rank of such series with respect to other series of preferred stock then or thereafter to be issued;

a discussion of any material and/or special U.S. federal income tax considerations applicable to the preferred stock; and any other specific terms, preferences, rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions of such series.

While the terms we have summarized above may generally apply to any shares of preferred stock that we may offer, our board of directors will include the specific terms of each series of preferred stock in a statement with respect to preferred stock that will be filed with the Pennsylvania Department of State, and we will describe the particular terms of any series of preferred stock that we may offer in more detail in the applicable prospectus supplement.

The preferred stock that may be offered by this prospectus will, when issued, be fully paid and nonassessable and will not have, or be subject to, any preemptive or similar rights.

Anti-Takeover Effect of Our Governing Documents and Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law

Our Articles and Bylaws contain a number of provisions relating to corporate governance and to the rights of shareholders. Certain of these provisions may have a potential "anti-takeover" effect by delaying, deferring or preventing a change of control of us. In addition, certain provisions of Pennsylvania law may have a similar effect.

Required Vote for Authorization of Certain Actions. Our Articles require the vote of the holders of not less than 80% of the combined voting power of the then outstanding shares of capital stock of all classes and series entitled to vote generally in the annual election of directors, voting together as a single class, for approval of certain business combinations, including certain mergers, asset sales, security issuances, recapitalizations, reorganizations, reclassification of securities, liquidation or dissolution, or any agreement, plan, contract or other arrangement providing for such a transaction, involving us or our subsidiaries and certain acquiring persons (namely a person, entity or specified group which beneficially owns more than 10% of the then outstanding shares of our capital stock entitled to vote generally in an annual election of directors), unless such business combination has been approved by two-thirds of the continuing directors, or the aggregate amount of cash, together with the "fair market value" of other consideration, exceeds the "highest equivalent price" threshold and other procedural requirements specified in our Articles are met.

Required Vote for Amendment of Articles and Bylaws. Except as may be specifically provided to the contrary in any provision in our Articles with respect to amendment or repeal of such provision, our Articles cannot be amended and no provision may be repealed by our shareholders without a vote of the holders of not less than 80% of the voting power of the then outstanding shares of our capital stock entitled to vote in an annual election of directors, voting together as a single class, unless such amendment has been approved by two-thirds of the whole board of directors, in which event (unless otherwise expressly provided in our Articles) our Articles may be amended and any provision repealed by such shareholder approval as may be specified by law. Our board of directors may make, amend and repeal our Bylaws with respect to those matters which are not, by statute, reserved exclusively to our shareholders, subject to the power of our shareholders to change such action. No bylaw may be made, amended or repealed by our shareholders unless such action is approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 80% of the voting power of the then outstanding shares of our capital stock entitled to vote in an annual election of directors, voting together as a single class, unless such amendment has been approved by two-thirds of the whole board of directors, in which event (unless otherwise expressly provided in our Articles or Bylaws) our Bylaws may be amended and any provision may be repealed by such shareholder approval as may be specified by law.

Preferred Stock. The purpose of authorizing our board of directors to issue preferred stock and determine its rights and preferences is to eliminate delays associated with a shareholder vote on specific issuances. The issuance of preferred stock, while providing desirable flexibility in connection with possible acquisitions and other corporate purposes, could have the effect of making it more difficult for a third party to acquire, or of discouraging a third party from attempting to acquire, a majority of our outstanding voting stock. The existence of the authorized but undesignated preferred stock may have a depressive effect on the market price of our common stock.

Anti-Takeover Law Provisions under the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law. We are subject to certain provisions of Chapter 25 of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended (the PBCL), which may have the effect of discouraging or rendering more difficult a hostile takeover attempt against us, including Section 2524, Section 2538, Subchapter 25E and Subchapter 25F of the PBCL.

Under Section 2524 of the PBCL, shareholders cannot act by partial written consent except as permitted under our Articles.

Section 2538 of the PBCL requires enhanced shareholder approval for certain transactions between us and an "interested shareholder" (defined as a shareholder who is a party to the transaction or is treated differently from other shareholders). Section 2538 applies if an interested shareholder (together with his, her or its affiliates) is to (i) be a party to a merger or consolidation, a share exchange or certain sales of assets involving us or one of our subsidiaries; (ii) receive a disproportionate amount of any securities of any corporation which survives or results from a division; (iii) be treated differently from others holding shares of the same class in a voluntary dissolution of such corporation; or (iv) have his or her percentage of voting or economic share interest in such corporation materially increased relative to substantially all other shareholders in a reclassification. Under these circumstances, the proposed transaction must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of shares representing at least a majority of the votes that all disinterested shareholders are entitled to cast with respect to such transaction. However, this special voting requirement will not apply where the proposed transaction has been approved in a prescribed manner by our board of directors or if certain other conditions, including the amount of consideration to be paid to certain shareholders, are satisfied or the transaction involves certain subsidiaries. This voting requirement is in addition to any other voting requirement under the PBCL, our Articles or our Bylaws.

Under Subchapter 25E of the PBCL, if any person or group acting in concert acquires voting power over shares representing 20% or more of the votes which all of our shareholders would be entitled to cast in an election of directors, any other shareholder may demand that such person or group purchase such shareholder's shares at a price determined in an appraisal proceeding.

Under Subchapter 25F of the PBCL, we may not engage in a merger, consolidation, share exchange, division, asset sale, disposition (in one transaction or a series of transactions) or a variety of other "business combination" transactions with a person which becomes the "beneficial owner" of shares representing 20% or more of the voting power in an election of our directors unless: (1) the business combination or the acquisition of the 20% interest is approved by our board of directors prior to the date the 20% interest is acquired; (2) the person beneficially owns at least 80% of our outstanding shares and the business combination (a) is approved by a majority vote of the disinterested shareholders and (b) satisfies certain minimum price and other conditions prescribed in Subchapter 25F; (3) the business combination is approved by a majority vote of the disinterested shareholders at a meeting called no earlier than five years after the date the 20% interest is acquired; or (4) the business combination (a) is approved by shareholder vote at a meeting called no earlier than five years after the date the 20% interest is acquired and (b) satisfies certain minimum price and other conditions prescribed in Subchapter 25F.

We have elected to opt out of Subchapter 25G of the PBCL (which would have required a shareholder vote to accord voting rights to control shares acquired by a 20% shareholder in a control-share acquisition) and Subchapter 25H (which would have required a person or group to disgorge to us any profits received from a sale of our equity securities under certain circumstances).

Advance Notice Requirements. Our Bylaws require our shareholders to provide advance notice if they wish to submit a proposal or nominate candidates for director at our annual meeting of shareholders. These procedures provide that notice of shareholder proposals and shareholder nominations for the election of directors at our annual meeting must be in writing and received by our secretary at our principal executive offices at least 90, but not more than 120, days prior to the anniversary of the date of the prior year's annual meeting of shareholders. In the case of a shareholder nomination, the notice submitted to the secretary must set forth information about the nominee and be accompanied by an original irrevocable conditional resignation in the event that such director, in an uncontested election, receives more votes "against" than "for" the director's election.

Special Meetings of Shareholders. Our Bylaws provide that a special meeting of shareholders may be called by the board of directors or by our chief executive officer. Shareholders do not have a right to call a special meeting under the current Bylaws or under the PBCL.

Special Treatment for Specified Groups of Nonconsenting Shareholders. Additionally, the PBCL permits an amendment of a corporation's articles of incorporation or other corporate action, if approved by shareholders generally, to provide mandatory special treatment for specified groups of nonconsenting shareholders of the same class by providing, for example, that shares of common stock held only by designated shareholders of record, and no other shares of common stock, shall be cashed out at a price determined by the corporation, subject to applicable dissenters' rights.

Exercise of Director Powers Generally. The PBCL also provides that the directors of a corporation are not required to regard the interests of the shareholders as being dominant or controlling in making decisions concerning takeovers or any other matters. The directors may consider, to the extent they deem appropriate, among other things, (1) the effects of any proposed action upon any or all groups affected by the action, including, among others, shareholders, employees, creditors, customers and suppliers, (2) the short-term and long-term interests of the corporation, (3) the resources, intent and conduct of any person or group seeking to acquire control of the corporation and (4) all other pertinent factors. The PBCL expressly provides that directors do not violate their fiduciary duties solely by relying on "poison pills" or the anti-takeover provisions of the PBCL. We do not currently have a "poison pill."

We, and/or selling securityholders, if applicable, may enter into derivative transactions with third parties, or sell securities not covered by this prospectus to third parties in privately negotiated transactions. If the applicable prospectus supplement indicates, in connection with those derivatives, the third parties may sell securities covered by this prospectus and the applicable prospectus supplement, including short sale transactions. If so, the third party may use securities pledged by us or borrowed from us or others to settle those sales or to close out any related open borrowings of common shares, and may use securities received from us in settlement of those derivatives to close out any related open borrowings of common shares. The third party in such sale transactions will be an underwriter that will be identified in the applicable prospectus supplement or a post-effective amendment to this registration statement.

If indicated in an applicable prospectus supplement, we, and/or selling securityholders, if applicable, may sell the securities through agents from time to time. The delayed delivery contracts will be subject only to those conditions set forth in the applicable prospectus supplement, and the applicable prospectus supplement will set forth any commissions we pay for solicitation of these delayed delivery contracts.

Offered securities may also be offered and sold, if so indicated in the applicable prospectus supplement, in connection with a remarketing upon their purchase, in accordance with a redemption or repayment pursuant to their terms, or otherwise, by one or more remarketing firms, acting as principals for their own accounts or as agents for us. Any remarketing firm will be identified and the terms of its agreements, if any, with us and its compensation will be described in the applicable prospectus supplement.
