Standard & Poor's Lowers Ratings of IDACORP and IPC

On January 31, 2008, Standard & Poor's Ratings Services ("Standard & Poor's") announced that it has lowered the corporate credit ratings and long-term ratings of IDACORP, Inc. ("IDACORP") and Idaho Power Company ("IPC"). The companies' outlook was changed from Negative to Stable and the companies' commercial paper rating was affirmed at A-2. These downgrades are expected to increase the cost of new debt issuances and outstanding variable rate debt issuances within the downgraded ratings categories.

Standard & Poor's stated that its decision reflects a gradual deterioration of cash flow coverage, as well as a proposed general rate case settlement filed with the Idaho Public Utilities Commission on January 23, 2008 which, according to Standard & Poor's, does not sufficiently address long-term ratemaking issues tied to rising costs and load growth pressures. Standard & Poor's stated that the proposed settlement fails to settle some important, policy-related issues, such as the use of a forecasted test year or the appropriate level of the load growth adjustment credit.

The following outlines the former and current Standard & Poor's ratings of IPC's and IDACORP's securities:
