REVIEW REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

(A free translation of the original report issued in Portuguese)

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders

Telecomunicações de São Paulo S.A. - TELESP

São Paulo □ SP

We have reviewed the Quarterly Information (ITR) (Parent Company and Consolidated) of Telecomunicações de São Paulo S.A □ TELESP and its subsidiaries for the quarter ended March 31, 2008, which comprised the balance sheet, the statement of income, the report on the Company's performance and explanatory notes, prepared under Management's responsibility.

Our review was conducted in accordance with specific standards established by the Brazilian Institute of Independent Public Accountants - IBRACON, in conjunction with the Federal Accounting Council, mainly comprising: (a) inquiries of and discussions with the officials responsible for the Company and subsidiaries' accounting, financial and operational areas, as to the main criteria adopted in preparing the quarterly information; and (b) review of information and subsequent events that had or might have had relevant effects on the Company financial position and operations.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the above mentioned Quarterly Information (Parent Company and Consolidated), for it to be in conformity with the accounting practices adopted in Brazil, applied consistently with the standards established by the Brazilian Securities Commission (Comissão de Valores Mobiliários □ CVM), specifically applicable to the preparation of Quarterly Information, including the Public Announcement to the Market on January 14, 2008.

As mentioned in Note 3, on December 28, 2007, Law No. 11,638 was enacted effective from January 1, 2008. This Law amended, revoked and introduced new aspects to Law No. 6,404/76 (Brazil's Corporation Law), and will bring changes to the accounting practices adopted in Brazil. Although this Law has become effective, its main changes are subject to specific regulation on the part of competent authorities before they can be fully adopted by the legal entities. Accordingly, during this transition phase, CVM, through a Public Announcement to the Market on January 14, 2008, permitted legal entities not to adopt the provisions of Law No. 11,638 in the preparation of their Quarterly Information (ITR). Thus, the accounting information included in the ITR for the quarter ended March 31, 2008 was prepared in accordance with specific CVM instructions and does not reflect the changes in accounting practices introduced by Law No. 11,638/07.

33. Financial Instruments (Continued)

The principal market risk factors that affect the Company's business are detailed below:

a) Exchange rate risk

As of March 31 2008, 17.92% (28.90% on December 31, 2007) of the debt was denominated in foreign currency (U.S. dollar and yen); 99.30% (100.09% on December 31, 2007) of this debt was covered by asset positions on currency hedge transactions (swaps for CDI). As of March 31, 2008, transactions with derivatives generated a consolidated positive result of R$34,233. As of March 31, 2008, the Company recorded a liability of R$80,657 to reflect the net position of derivatives as of date.

The book and market values of the Company's exposure to the exchange rate risk as of March 31, 2008 and December 31, 2007 are as follows:

b) Interest rate risk

To prevent against the exchange risk and variable interest rates on these foreign currency debts (Libor), the Company has hedge transactions in order to peg these debts to local currency, at floating rates indexed to the CDI (Inter-bank Deposit Certificate), in a way that the Company's financial result is affected by the CDI variation. The balance of loans and financing also includes debentures issued in 2004 with interest based on the variation of the CDI of R$1,512,342 (R$1,512,357 as of December 31, 2007), as described in Note 15.

b) Interest rate risk (Continued)

The Company invests its excess cash with a view to reducing its exposure to local interest rate fluctuations (CDI) in the total amount of R$897,103 (R$384,648 as of December 31, 2007), mainly in short-term instruments, based on the CDI variation, which also reduces such risk. The book values of these instruments approximate market values, since they may be redeemed in the short term.

As of March 31, 2008, the Company had swap transactions - CDI at fixed rate, to partially hedge against fluctuations in internal interest rates. Hedge operations amounts contracted total R$50,000 generated a net consolidated positive result of R$2 on the quarter and this temporary earnings is recorded in income. The Company also contracted swap transactions - CDI + 0.35% of CDI percentage swap with amount of principal of R$1,500,000 with identical flows of those of debentures issued by the Company and maturity in 2010, which generated net positive result of R$21.

c) Debt acceleration risk

As of March 31, 2008, the Company's loan and financing agreements contain restrictive clauses (covenants), typically applicable to such agreements, relating to cash generation, debt ratios and other restrictions. The Company has fully complied with these restrictive clauses, and such covenants do not restrict its ability to conduct its ordinary course of business.

d) Credit risk

As of March 31, 2008, the Company's customer portfolio had no subscribers whose receivables were individually higher than 1% of the total accounts receivable from services.

The Company is also subject to credit risk related to temporary cash investments and receivables from swap transactions. The Company reduces this exposure by dispersing it among reputable financial institutions.

MANAGEMENT COMMENTS ON CONSOLIDATED PERFORMANCE

March 31, 2008

(In millions of reais, unless otherwise stated)

(A free translation of the original issued in Portuguese)

1. Accumulated net operating revenues to March 2008 amount to R$3,843.7 million, an increase of R$137.1 million, or 3.7%, over the R$3,706.6 million reported in the same prior year period. This increase was mainly due to the expansion of Speedy services, to the increase in revenues from national long-distance services, to the pay-TV services launched in 2007, in addition to the performance of other revenues, including IT workstation services and digital network services. These effects were partly offset by the decrease in revenues from local and international long-distance services and in subscription fees, the latter resulting from the decrease in the average plant in operation and from the increase in alternative fixed-telephony plans with lower subscription fees.

2. The cost of services provided increased by R$152.2 or 7.7%, mainly as a result of interconnection expenses, of increased mobile traffic using the "15" code (Carrier Selection Code), of customer services, advertising and TV content, in addition to the rental of last mile traffic and backbone equipment from other carriers, of infrastructure (ruracel and EILD) and of poles and pipes. These effects were partly offset by the decrease in expenses on supplies, as a result of the decrease in telephone card expenses after the change in the inductive cards mix, with increased sales of 40-unit inductive cards over 20-unit cards, as well as the decrease in the production plant's supplies as a result of the lower volume of construction/maintenance services performed on the cabling system and the rearrangement of poles.

3. The negative financial result improved by R$24.2 million, or 28.2%, mainly justified by the elimination of CPMF expenses after its extinguishment in January 2008, by the positive result from hedge (swap) and CDB operations. These effects were partly offset by the payment of interest amounts to BNDES.

4. Operating income decreased 6.3% as compared to the same prior year period. This is partly due to the increase in operating expenses, especially those relating to fixed-mobile interconnection services carried out with other carriers, rental of infrastructure, last mile and backbone from other carriers, offset by the increase in revenues, mainly from packet data switching services and from Speedy and TV services.
