Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On December 17, 2009, Gold Resource Corporation (the "Company") entered into a subscription agreement with Hochschild Mining Holdings Limited, a private limited company organized under the laws of England and Wales ("Hochschild"), to sell 1,954,795 shares of its common stock at a price of $8.185 per share, or a total of $15,999,997.10 ("Subscription Agreement"). The Subscription Agreement was executed in connection with the exercise by Hochschild of a right of first refusal to provide additional equity funding to the Company previously granted to Hochschild in a Strategic Alliance Agreement dated December 5, 2008 between the parties ("Strategic Alliance Agreement"). A copy of the Strategic Alliance Agreement was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission under cover of Form 8-K on December 11, 2008.

The Company intends to use a portion of the proceeds received from the financing to continue development of the mill and mine at its El Aguila Project in Mexico. However, the Company agreed to reserve $8,000,000 of the proceeds solely for construction of a decline ramp, drifts and crosscuts, and associated surface facilities to support underground development and mining at the La Arista vein. As set forth in more detail in the Subscription Agreement, the Company and Hochschild have agreed to place the $8,000,000 of proceeds reserved for underground mining expenses into a restricted bank account in the name of the Company, for which joint signatures of the Company and Hochschild would be required. The Company will be required to document any expenditures from the restricted account that have been or will be used for development of an underground mine, as defined above.

Under the terms of the Subscription Agreement, an additional $1,500,000 of the proceeds will be placed in a restricted account reserved exclusively for exploration expenses that was created during the financing transaction between the Company and Hochschild in July 2009. The funds are intended to replenish funds expended from the exploration expenses account. Similar to the underground mining account, the exploration expense account is in the name of the Company and requires joint signatures of the Company and Hochschild to withdraw the funds.

The sale of common stock was made in a transaction that was not registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, (the "Securities Act"). See Item 3.02 below for additional information about the securities sold pursuant to the Subscription Agreement. A copy of the Subscription Agreement is attached to this report as Exhibit 10.1.

Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities

As stated above, on December 17, 2009, the Company agreed to sell 1,954,795 shares of its common stock to Hochschild in a transaction that was not registered under the Securities Act. Each share of common stock was sold for a price of $8.185, for gross proceeds to the Company of $15,999,997.10. No underwriter or placement agent was involved in the sale of common stock to Hochschild.

The sale of common stock in the private placement was made outside the United States in reliance on the provisions of Regulation S of the Securities Act. In connection with the sale:

- (i) The offer was not made to a person in the United States and at the time the buy order was originated, the Company believed that the buyer was outside the United States;
- (ii) No directed selling efforts were made in the United States; and
- (iii) (a) Offering restrictions were implemented; and

(b)(1) The offer and sale of the securities were not made to a U.S. person or for the account or benefit of a U.S. person; (2) the purchaser of the securities certified that it was not a U.S. person and was not acquiring the securities for the account or benefit of a U.S. person or was a U.S. person who purchased securities in a transaction that did not that did not require registration under the Securities Act; (3) the purchaser of the securities agreed to resell such securities only in accordance with the provision of Regulation S, pursuant to registration under the Securities Act or pursuant to an available exemption from registration and further agreed not to engage in hedging transactions with regard to said securities unless in compliance with the Securities Act; (4) the Company caused or will cause a legend to be placed on the certificates representing the shares noting the restrictions on transfer in accordance with Regulation S; and (5) the Company is required by contract to refuse to register any transfer of the securities not made in accordance with the provisions of Regulation S, pursuant to registration under the Securities Act or pursuant through an available exemption.
