Non-Employee Director Compensation

On August 1, 2006, the Compensation Committee of the Bruker BioSciences Corporation (the Company) Board of Directors modified the existing compensation plan for non-employee directors. Each non-employee director's annual retainer has been increased from $16,000 to $26,000. In addition, each non-employee director will receive a payment of $1,500 per Board meeting attended in-person or telephonically. Each non-employee director will continue to be granted options to purchase shares of the Company's common stock or shares of restricted common stock in an amount to be determined annually by the Compensation Committee.

The Audit Committee Chairman's additional annual cash retainer has been increased from $18,000 to $28,000 for his services as Chairman of the Audit Committee. The additional annual cash retainer for the other members of the Audit Committee has been increased from $12,000 to $18,000. The Compensation Committee Chairman's additional annual cash retainer has been increased from $6,000 to $13,000 for his services as Chairman of the Compensation Committee. The additional annual cash retainer for the other members of the Compensation Committee has been increased from $4,000 to $8,000. Committee members will not receive any payment for attending committee meetings.

The increased annual cash retainers were effective August 1, 2006. Employee directors will continue to receive compensation only as employees of the Company. Directors will continue to be reimbursed for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in attending meetings of the Board of Directors and committee meetings.
