Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On August 16, 2006, PRB Energy, Inc. ( PRB ) announced that Daniel D. Reichel was named PRB s Vice President of Finance and Treasurer. Mr. Reichel joined PRB in June 2006 with the expectation that he would permanently fill the finance position that PRB s Chairman and CEO Robert W. Wright held on an interim basis.

Mr. Reichel was previously with Denver-based Bridge Petroleum, a private international oil and gas exploration company, where he was CFO. In that position, he was responsible for all treasury and financial reporting, coordination of financing proposals with investment firms and the management of joint operating agreements with project partners. Previously, he had also directed the accounting and SEC financial reporting functions for Black Hills Exploration and Production, Inc., a subsidiary of a publicly held company that operates in the Rocky Mountain region. From 2001 to 2004, Mr. Reichel was an independent consultant and project leader for accounting and software outsourcing firms in the petroleum industry. Mr. Reichel started his career in public accounting and over the next three decades held senior level accounting and finance positions for various public and private oil and gas companies in Denver.

Mr. Reichel is a Colorado-licensed, certified public accountant and holds a B.S. in Business Administration/Accounting from the University of Nebraska. He is a member of the American Institute of CPAs, the Colorado Society of CPAs and also serves on the local Board of Directors of COPAS-Colorado, a non-profit national organization, known domestically and internationally for its leadership in petroleum accounting.
