Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Amendment to Credit Agreement

On October 18, 2010, Supreme Industries, Inc. (the Registrant) entered into an Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the Credit Agreement) by and among the Registrant and certain of its affiliated entities (collectively with the Registrant, the Loan Parties), and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., (the Lender), with an effective date of September 30, 2010.

As a condition to Lender entering into the Credit Agreement, the Loan Parties were required to complete a restructuring transaction pursuant to which Supreme Indiana Operations, Inc., a Delaware corporation, merged upstream and into its parent, Supreme Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Registrant, with the surviving entity being Supreme Indiana Operations, Inc.

Under the terms of the Credit Agreement, Lender agrees to provide to the Loan Parties a revolving credit of up to $30,000,000, which represents a $5,000,000 increase from the $25,000,000 revolving credit provided for in the superseded Credit Agreement. The term of this revolving credit is for a period ending on December 31, 2011. In order to qualify for the full revolving credit amount, the Loan Parties must meet certain borrowing base requirements keyed to eligible amounts of accounts receivable and inventories.

During the term of this revolving credit, the Loan Parties are required to comply with two financial covenants, being a minimum required EBITDA (Earnings Before Interest Taxes Depreciation and Amortization) and a minimum tangible net worth. In the event that either of these financial covenants is not met, or any other requirements of the Credit Agreement are not met, Lender may accelerate the maturity of the then existing revolving credit balance as a result of the occurrence of such Event of Default.

As collateral for the repayment of the revolving credit amount: (a) the Loan Parties have signed and delivered to Lender Pledge and Security Agreements granting to Lender security interests in the personal property owned by them; and (b) affiliates of Registrant, which are not Loan Parties, but which are guarantors of the line of credit, have signed and delivered to Lender Pledge and Security Agreements granting to Lender a security interest in the personal property owned by them.
