NOTE 1 BASIS OF PRESENTATION

As used in this report, the term "Company," except as otherwise indicated by the context, means Lincoln Electric Holdings, Inc. and its wholly-owned and majority-owned subsidiaries for which it has a controlling interest. The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("GAAP") for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, these unaudited consolidated financial statements do not include all of the information and notes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. However, in the opinion of management, these unaudited consolidated financial statements contain all the adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary to present fairly the financial position, results of operations and cash flows for the interim periods. Operating results for the three months ended March 31, 2011 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the year ending December 31, 2011.

The accompanying Consolidated Balance Sheet at December 31, 2010 has been derived from the audited financial statements at that date, but does not include all of the information and notes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010.

Certain reclassifications have been made to the prior year financial statements to conform to current year classifications.

Venezuela Foreign Currency

Effective January 1, 2010, the financial statements of the Company's Venezuelan operation have been remeasured into the Company's reporting currency (U.S. dollar). A currency control board exists in Venezuela that is responsible for foreign exchange procedures, including approval of requests for exchanges of the Venezuelan currency (the "bolivar") for U.S. dollars at the official (government established) exchange rates. An unregulated parallel market that existed for exchanging bolivars for U.S. dollars through securities transactions was terminated by the Venezuelan government on May 17, 2010 and subsequently established as a regulated market on June 9, 2010.

The official exchange rate in Venezuela had been fixed at 2.15 bolivars to 1 U.S. dollar for several years. On January 8, 2010, the Venezuelan government announced the devaluation of its currency relative to the U.S. dollar. The official exchange rate for imported goods classified as essential changed from 2.15 to 2.60 (the "Essential Rate"), while the official exchange rate for other non-essential goods moved to an exchange rate of 4.30 (the "Non-Essential Rate"). In remeasuring the financial statements the Non-Essential Rate is used as this is the rate expected to be applicable to dividend repatriations.

Edgar Filing: LINCOLN ELECTRIC HOLDINGS INC - Form 10-Q

In December 2010, the Venezuelan government announced the elimination of the Essential Rate effective as of January 1, 2011. The impact of the elimination of the Essential Rate did not have a significant impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Venezuela Highly Inflationary Economy

Venezuela is a highly inflationary economy under GAAP. As a result, the financial statements of the Company's Venezuelan operation are reported under highly inflationary accounting rules as of January 1, 2010. Under highly inflationary accounting, the financial statements of the Company's Venezuelan operation have been remeasured into the Company's reporting currency and exchange gains and losses from the remeasurement of monetary assets and liabilities are reflected in current earnings.

Future impacts to earnings of applying highly inflationary accounting for Venezuela on the Company's consolidated financial statements will be dependent upon movements in the applicable exchange rates between the bolivar and the U.S. dollar and the amount of monetary assets and liabilities included in the Company's Venezuelan operation's balance sheet. The net bolivar-denominated monetary liability position was $2,004 at March 31, 2011 and $4,715 at December 31, 2010.

The devaluation of the bolivar and the change to the U.S. dollar as the functional currency for the three months ended March 31, 2010 resulted in a foreign currency transaction gain of $2,632 in Selling, general & administrative expenses and higher Cost of goods sold of $2,621 due to the liquidation of inventory valued at the historical exchange rate.

NOTE 2 NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

New Accounting Standards Adopted:

In December 2010, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ( FASB ) issued Accounting Standards Update ( ASU ) No. 2010-29, Business Combinations (Topic 805) Disclosure of Supplementary Pro Forma Information for Business Combinations a consensus of the FASB Emerging Issues Task Force. The objective of ASU No. 2010-29 is to address diversity in practice about the interpretation of the pro forma revenue and earnings disclosure requirements for business combinations. This standard is effective prospectively for business combinations for which the acquisition date is on or after the beginning of the first annual reporting period beginning on or after December 15, 2010. ASU 2010-29 was adopted by the Company on January 1, 2011 and did not have an impact on the Company's financial statements.

In October 2009, the FASB issued ASU No. 2009-13, Revenue Recognition (Topic 605) Multiple-Deliverable Revenue Arrangements a consensus of the FASB Emerging Issues Task Force. This update provides amendments to the criteria in Accounting Standards Codification ( ASC ) Subtopic 605-25. ASU No. 2009-13 provides principles for allocating consideration among multiple-elements and accounting for separate deliverables under an arrangement. ASC 605-25, as amended, introduces an estimated selling price method for valuing the elements of a bundled arrangement if vendor-specific objective evidence or third-party evidence of selling price is not available and significantly expands related disclosure requirements. This standard is effective on a prospective basis for revenue arrangements entered into or materially modified in fiscal years beginning on or after June 15, 2010. Alternatively, adoption may be on a retrospective basis. ASU 2009-13 was adopted by the Company on January 1, 2011 and did not have a significant impact on the Company's financial statements.

NOTE 3 ACQUISITIONS

On March 11, 2011, the Company completed the acquisition of OOO Severstal-metiz: welding consumables ( Severstal ) for approximately $16,555 in cash and assumed debt. The preliminary fair value of the assets acquired were $8,182, resulting in goodwill of $8,373. Severstal is a leading manufacturer of welding consumables in Russia and was a subsidiary of OAO Severstal, one of the world's leading vertically integrated steel and mining companies. This acquisition expanded the Company's capacity and distribution channels in Russia and the Commonwealth of Independent States ( CIS ). Sales for Severstal during 2010 were approximately $40,000.

On January 31, 2011, the Company acquired substantially all of the assets of SSCO Manufacturing, Inc. (d/b/a Arc Products) ( Arc Products ) for approximately $3,280 in cash and a contingent consideration liability fair valued at $3,806. The contingent consideration is based upon estimated sales for the five-year period ending December 31, 2015 and will be paid in 2016 based on actual sales during the five-year period. The preliminary fair value of the assets acquired were $3,613, resulting in goodwill of $3,473. Arc Products was a privately-held manufacturer of orbital welding systems and welding automation components based in Southern California. Orbital welding systems are designed to automatically weld pipe and tube in difficult to access locations and for mission-critical applications requiring high weld integrity and sophisticated quality monitoring capabilities. The acquisition will complement the Company's ability to serve global customers in the nuclear, power generation and process industries worldwide. Sales for Arc Products during 2010 were not significant.

Pro forma information related to these acquisitions has not been presented because the impact on the Company's Consolidated Statements of Income is not material.

On October 29, 2010, the Company acquired all of the outstanding stock of Mezghosmetiz-Mtsensk OAO (MGM), a privately-held welding wire manufacturer based in the Orel region of Russia, for approximately $28,500 in cash and assumed debt. This acquisition represented the Company's first manufacturing operation in Russia as well as established distribution channels to serve the growing Russian and CIS welding markets. Annual sales at the date of acquisition were approximately $30,000.

NOTE 4 SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Company's primary business is the design and manufacture of arc welding and cutting products, manufacturing a broad line of arc welding equipment, consumable welding products and other welding and cutting products. The Company also has a leading global position in the brazing and soldering alloys market. The Company has aligned its business units into five operating segments to enhance the utilization of the Company's worldwide resources and global sourcing initiatives. The operating segments consist of North America Welding, Europe Welding, Asia Pacific Welding, South America Welding and The Harris Products Group. The North America Welding segment includes welding operations in the United States, Canada and Mexico. The Europe Welding segment includes welding operations in Europe, Russia and Africa. The other two welding segments include welding operations in Asia Pacific and South America, respectively. The fifth segment, The Harris Products Group, includes the Company's global cutting, soldering and brazing businesses as well as the retail business in the United States.

Segment performance is measured and resources are allocated based on a number of factors, the primary profit measure being earnings before interest and income taxes (EBIT), as adjusted. Segment EBIT is adjusted for special items as determined by management such as the impact of rationalization activities, certain asset impairment charges and gains or losses on disposals of assets.

During 2009, the Company initiated rationalization actions including the consolidation of certain manufacturing operations in the Europe Welding, Asia Pacific Welding and The Harris Products Group segments. At March 31, 2011, a liability relating to these actions of $1,316 was recognized in Other current liabilities. The Company does not expect any further material costs associated with these actions in 2011 as they were substantially completed in 2010 and are expected to be substantially paid by the end of 2011.

The following table summarizes the activity related to the rationalization liabilities by segment:

NOTE 10 INVENTORY VALUATION

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost or market. Fixed manufacturing overhead costs are allocated to inventory based on normal production capacity and abnormal manufacturing costs are recognized as period costs. For most domestic inventories, cost is determined principally by the last-in, first-out ( LIFO ) method, and for non-U.S. inventories, cost is determined by the first-in, first-out ( FIFO ) method. The valuation of LIFO inventories is made at the end of each year based on inventory levels and costs at that time. Accordingly, interim LIFO calculations are based on management's estimates of expected year-end inventory levels and costs. Actual year-end costs and inventory levels may differ from interim LIFO inventory valuations. The excess of current cost over LIFO cost was $73,478 and $70,906 at March 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010, respectively.

NOTE 11 ACCRUED EMPLOYEE COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

Other current liabilities at March 31, 2011 and 2010 include accruals for year-end bonuses and related payroll taxes of $26,665 and $16,765, respectively, related to the Company's employees worldwide. The payment of bonuses is discretionary and subject to approval by the Board of Directors. A majority of annual bonuses are paid in December resulting in an increasing bonus accrual during the Company's fiscal year. The increase in the accrual from March 31, 2010 to March 31, 2011 is due to the increase in profitability of the Company.

NOTE 12 CONTINGENCIES

The Company, like other manufacturers, is subject from time to time to a variety of civil and administrative proceedings arising in the ordinary course of business. Such claims and litigation include, without limitation, product liability claims and health, safety and environmental claims, some of which relate to cases alleging asbestos and manganese induced illnesses. The claimants in the asbestos and manganese cases seek compensatory and punitive damages, in most cases for unspecified amounts. The Company believes it has meritorious defenses to these claims and intends to contest such suits vigorously.

The Company's accrual for contingent liabilities, primarily for product liability claims, was $5,780 as of March 31, 2011 and $5,711 as of December 31, 2010. The accrual is included in Other current liabilities. The Company also recognized an asset for recoveries from insurance carriers related to the insured claims outstanding of $1,591 as of March 31, 2011 and $1,616 as of December 31, 2010. The asset is included in Other current assets.

Edgar Filing: LINCOLN ELECTRIC HOLDINGS INC - Form 10-Q

Based on the Company's historical experience in litigating product liability claims, including a significant number of dismissals, summary judgments and defense verdicts in many cases and immaterial settlement amounts, as well as the Company's current assessment of the underlying merits of the claims and applicable insurance, the Company believes resolution of these claims and proceedings, individually or in the aggregate (exclusive of defense costs), will not have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

NOTE 13 PRODUCT WARRANTY COSTS

The Company accrues for product warranty claims based on historical experience and the expected material and labor costs to provide warranty service. Warranty services are provided for periods up to three years from the date of sale. The accrual for product warranty claims is included in Other current liabilities.

The changes in the carrying amount of product warranty accruals for the three months ended March 31, 2011 and 2010 are as follows:

	Three Months Ended March 31,

Warranty expense was 0.4 % and 0.3% of sales for the three months ended March 31, 2011 and 2010, respectively.

As of March 31, 2011, the Company was in compliance with its debt covenants. The Company's $80,000 Series C Note (the "Note") is due in March 2012. The Company has a line of credit totaling $150,000 through the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement ("Credit Agreement") which was entered into on November 18, 2009, of which $145,903 was available on March 31, 2011. The Credit Agreement has a three-year term and may be increased, subject to certain conditions, by an additional amount up to $75,000 at any time not later than 180 days prior to the last day of the term.

The Company historically utilized interest rate swaps to manage interest rate risks. The Company terminated its remaining interest rate swaps in 2009 and had no interest rate swaps outstanding as of March 31, 2011. The termination of interest rate swaps in 2009 resulted in a realized gain of $5,079. This gain was deferred and is being amortized over the remaining life of the Note. The amortization of this gain reduced interest expense by $410 in the three months ended March 31, 2011 and 2010, respectively, and is expected to reduce annual interest expense by $1,661 during 2011. At March 31, 2011, $1,579 remains to be amortized and is recognized in Long-term debt, current portion. The weighted average effective interest rate on the Note, net of the impact of swaps, was 4.1 % for the three months ended March 31, 2011.

NOTE 15 RETIREMENT AND POSTRETIREMENT BENEFIT PLANS

The components of total pension cost were as follows:

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2011	2010
Service cost	$ 4,335	$ 4,044
Interest cost	10,957	10,895
Expected return on plan assets	(14,355)	(12,281)
Amortization of prior service cost	(15)	(11)
Amortization of net loss	5,472	5,322
Defined benefit plans	6,394	7,969
Multi-employer plans	235	278
Defined contribution plans	2,053	1,814
Total pension cost	$ 8,682	$ 10,061

The Company voluntarily contributed $7,000 to its defined benefit plans in the United States during the three months ended March 31, 2011 and expects to contribute a total of $30,000 to its defined benefit plans in the United States during 2011.

The expected return on plan assets increased in 2011 due to higher investment balances in plan assets at December 31, 2010 than at December 31, 2009.

NOTE 16 INCOME TAXES

The Company recognized $13,595 of tax expense on pre-tax income of $60,537, resulting in an effective income tax rate of 22.5% for the three months ended March 31, 2011. The effective income tax rate is lower than the Company's statutory rate primarily because of income earned in lower tax rate jurisdictions, the utilization of foreign tax loss carryforwards for which valuation allowances had been previously recognized and a tax benefit of $4,844 for tax audit settlements.

The effective income tax rate of 31.6% for the three months ended March 31, 2010 was lower than the Company's statutory rate primarily due to income earned in lower tax rate jurisdictions and the utilization of foreign tax loss carryforwards for which valuation allowances had been previously recognized.

The anticipated effective income tax rate for 2011 depends on the amount of earnings in various tax jurisdictions and the level of related tax deductions achieved during the year.

As of March 31, 2011, the Company had $33,405 of unrecognized tax benefits. If recognized, approximately $19,959 would be recognized as a component of income tax expense.

Dollars in thousands, except per share amounts

The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. and various state, local and foreign jurisdictions. With few exceptions, the Company is no longer subject to U.S. federal, state and local or non-U.S. income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2005. The Company is currently subject to an IRS audit for the tax years 2007 – 2008, various U.S. state audits, a Canadian tax audit for 2005 – 2007, a French tax audit for 2008 – 2009, a Russian tax audit for 2009 and an Indonesian tax audit for 2003 – 2007. The Company does not expect the results of these examinations to have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Unrecognized tax benefits are reviewed on an ongoing basis and are adjusted for changing facts and circumstances, including progress of tax audits and closing of statutes of limitations. Based on information currently available, management believes that additional audit activity could be completed and/or statutes of limitations may close relating to existing unrecognized tax benefits. It is reasonably possible there could be a reduction of $10,705 in prior years' unrecognized tax benefits by the end of the first quarter 2012.

NOTE 17 DERIVATIVES

The Company uses derivatives to manage exposures to currency exchange rates, interest rates and commodity prices arising in the normal course of business. Derivative contracts to hedge currency and commodity exposures are generally written on a short-term basis but may cover exposures for up to two years while interest rate contracts may cover longer periods consistent with the terms of the underlying debt. The Company does not enter into derivatives for trading or speculative purposes.

All derivatives are recognized at fair value on the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets. The accounting for gains and losses resulting from changes in fair value depends on the use of the derivative and whether it is designated and qualifies for hedge accounting. The Company formally documents the relationship of the hedge with the hedged item as well as the risk-management strategy for all designated hedges. Both at inception and on an ongoing basis, the hedging instrument is assessed as to its effectiveness, when applicable. If and when a derivative is determined not to be highly effective as a hedge, the underlying hedged transaction is no longer likely to occur, or the derivative is terminated, hedge accounting is discontinued. The cash flows from settled derivative contracts are recognized in operating activities in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. Hedge ineffectiveness was immaterial in the three months ended March 31, 2011 and 2010.

The Company is subject to the credit risk of the counterparties to derivative instruments. Counterparties include a number of major banks and financial institutions. The Company manages individual counterparty exposure by monitoring the credit rating of the counterparty and the size of financial commitments and exposures between the Company and the counterparty. None of the concentrations of risk with any individual counterparty was considered significant at March 31, 2011. The Company does not expect any counterparties to fail to meet their obligations.

Cash Flow Hedges

Certain foreign currency forward contracts were qualified and designated as cash flow hedges. The dollar equivalent gross notional amount of these short-term contracts was $44,329 and $33,221 at March 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010, respectively. The effective portions of the fair value gains or losses on these cash flow hedges are recognized in Accumulated other comprehensive income ( AOCI ) and subsequently reclassified to Cost of goods sold or Sales for hedges of purchases and sales, respectively, as the underlying hedged transactions affect earnings.

Fair Value Hedges

The Company had no fair value hedges outstanding at March 31, 2011 or December 31, 2010.

Derivatives Not Designated as Hedging Instruments

The Company has certain foreign exchange forward contracts that are not designated as hedges. These derivatives are held as economic hedges of certain balance sheet exposures. The dollar equivalent gross notional amount of these contracts was $184,409 and $173,116 at March 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010, respectively. The fair value gains or losses from these contracts are recognized in Selling, general and administrative expenses, offsetting the losses or gains on the exposures being hedged.

The notional amount of short-term silver contracts was 380,000 troy ounces at December 31, 2010. Realized and unrealized gains and losses on these contracts were recognized in earnings.

The effects of designated cash flow hedges on AOCI and the Company's Consolidated Statements of Income consisted of the following:

Total gain (loss) recognized in AOCI, net of tax	March 31, 2011	December 31, 2010
Foreign exchange contracts	$ (580)	$ (352)

Foreign exchange contracts	Sales	$	51	$	11
	Cost of goods sold		(573)		(75)

The Company expects a loss of $580 related to existing contracts to be reclassified from AOCI, net of tax, to earnings over the next 12 months as the hedged transactions are realized.

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (exit price). The following hierarchy is used to classify the inputs used to measure fair value:

Level 1	Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
Level 2	Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for similar assets or liabilities, or unadjusted quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, or inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability.
Level 3	Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

The following table provides a summary of assets and liabilities as of March 31, 2011 measured at fair value on a recurring basis:

Description	Balance as of March 31, 2011	Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets or Liabilities (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)

In connection with the Arc Products acquisition the Company recorded a contingent consideration fair valued at $3,806 at January 31, 2011 and $3,892 at March 31, 2011, reflecting $86 of non-cash accretion. The contingent consideration is based upon estimated sales for the five-year period ending December 31, 2015 and will be paid in 2016 based on actual sales during the five-year period. The fair value of the contingent consideration is considered a Level 3 valuation and is estimated using a probability weighted discounted cash flow analysis.

The fair value of Cash and cash equivalents, Accounts receivable, Amounts due banks and Trade accounts payable approximated book value due to the short-term nature of these instruments at both March 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010. The fair value of long-term debt at March 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010, including the current portion, was approximately $86,682 and $88,120, respectively, which was determined using available market information and methodologies requiring judgment. The carrying value of this debt at such dates was $85,188 and $86,422, respectively. Since considerable judgment is required in interpreting market information, the fair value of the debt is not necessarily the amount that could be realized in a current market exchange.

Consolidated		16.7%	1.8%	6.5%	2.3%	27.2%

Net sales volumes for the first quarter 2011 increased for all operating segments as a result of improved demand levels reflective of expanding industrial economies and modest market share gains. Product pricing increased in all segments from prior year levels due to the realization of price increases implemented in response to increases in raw material costs. Product pricing in the South America Welding segment reflects a higher inflationary environment, particularly in Venezuela. Product pricing increased in The Harris Products Group segment primarily as a result of the pass-through effect of higher commodity costs, particularly silver and copper, over the prior year period.

With respect to changes in Net sales due to foreign exchange, the North America Welding segment increased principally due to a stronger Canadian dollar. The Europe Welding segment increased principally due to a stronger euro and pound sterling. The Asia Pacific Welding segment increased principally due to a stronger Australian dollar and Chinese renminbi. The South America Welding segment and The Harris Products Group segment increased principally due to a stronger Brazilian real.

Gross Profit: Gross profit increased 30.9% to $161,438 for the first quarter 2011 compared with $123,333 in the first quarter 2010. As a percentage of Net sales, Gross profit increased to 26.9% in the first quarter 2011 from 26.2% in the first quarter 2010. In the prior year period, the South America Welding segment recorded $2,621 of charges resulting from the change in functional currency and related devaluation of the Venezuelan currency. Excluding this charge, Gross profit would have increased slightly where volume leverage was essentially offset by rising material costs. Foreign currency exchange rates had a $2,037 favorable translation impact in the first quarter 2011.

Selling, General & Administrative ( SG&A ) Expenses: SG&A expenses were higher than prior year by $13,844, or 15.8%, in the first quarter 2011 compared with the first quarter 2010. As a percentage of Net sales, SG&A expenses were 17.0% in 2011 and 18.6% in 2010. The increase in SG&A expenses was predominantly due to higher bonus expense of $7,672, increased selling, administrative and research and development expense of $2,939, an unfavorable impact of foreign currency translation of $1,873 and higher foreign currency transaction losses of $4,224, partially offset by a decrease in legal expenses of $2,290. In the prior year period, the South America Welding segment recorded a gain of $2,632 due to the change in the functional currency and related devaluation of the Venezuelan currency.

Rationalization and Asset Impairment Charges: In the first quarter 2011, the Company recognized $357 ($281 after-tax) in charges primarily related to rationalization actions initiated in 2009.

Interest Income: Interest income decreased to $608 in the first quarter 2011 from $635 in the first quarter 2010. The decrease was due to lower average Cash and cash equivalents balances in 2011 when compared with 2010.

Table of Contents

Equity Earnings in Affiliates: Equity earnings in affiliates were $830 in the first quarter 2011 compared with earnings of $430 in the first quarter 2010. The increase was due to an increase in earnings of $217 in Turkey and an increase of $183 in Chile.

Interest Expense: Interest expense increased to $1,658 in the first quarter 2011 from $1,514 in the first quarter 2010 as a result of higher interest rates partially offset by lower levels of debt in the current period.

Income Taxes: The Company recognized $13,595 of tax expense on pre-tax income of $60,537, resulting in an effective income tax rate of 22.5% for the three months ended March 31, 2011. The effective income tax rate is lower than the Company's statutory rate primarily because of income earned in lower tax rate jurisdictions, the utilization of foreign tax loss carryforwards for which valuation allowances had been previously recognized and a tax benefit of $4,844 for tax audit settlements.

The effective income tax rate of 31.6% for the three months ended March 31, 2010 was lower than the Company's statutory rate primarily due to income earned in lower tax rate jurisdictions and the utilization of foreign tax loss carryforwards for which valuation allowances had been previously recognized.

Net Income: Net income for the first quarter 2011 was $46,910 compared with Net income of $23,728 in the first quarter 2010. Diluted earnings per share for the first quarter 2011 was $1.11 compared with $0.55 in the first quarter 2010. Foreign currency exchange rate movements had a favorable translation effect of $126 on Net income for the first quarter 2011.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's cash flow from operations can be cyclical. Operational cash flow is a key driver of liquidity, providing cash and access to capital markets. In assessing liquidity, the Company reviews working capital measurements to define areas for improvement. Management anticipates the Company will be able to satisfy cash requirements for its ongoing businesses for the foreseeable future primarily with cash generated by operations, existing cash balances and, if necessary, borrowings under its existing credit facilities.

The Company continues to expand globally and periodically looks at transactions that would involve significant investments. The Company can fund its global expansion plans with operational cash flow, but a significant acquisition may require access to capital markets, in particular, the long-term debt market, as well as the syndicated bank loan market. The Company's financing strategy is to fund itself at the lowest after-tax cost of funding. Where possible, the Company utilizes operational cash flows and raises capital in the most efficient market, usually the United States, and then lends funds to the specific subsidiary that requires funding. If additional acquisitions providing appropriate financial benefits become available, additional expenditures may be made.

Table of Contents

The following table reflects changes in key cash flow measures:

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2011	2010	Change

Cash dividends paid to shareholders	(12,987)	(11,885)	(1,102)
Decrease in Cash and cash equivalents	(24,778)	(11,528)

Cash and cash equivalents decreased 6.8% or $24,778 during the three months ended March 31, 2011 to $341,415 from $366,193 as of December 31, 2010. This compares to a decrease of 3.0% or $11,528 to $376,608 during the three months ended March 31, 2010.

Cash provided by operating activities increased by $1,142 for the three months ended March 31, 2011 compared with the three months ended March 31, 2010. This increase was predominantly related to an increase in Net income offset by increases in net operating working capital required to support higher sales levels. Net operating working capital is defined as the sum of Accounts receivable and Total inventory less Trade accounts payable. Net operating working capital to sales, defined as net operating working capital divided by annualized rolling three months of Net sales, increased to 22.1% at March 31, 2011 compared with 20.7% at December 31, 2010 and decreased from 23.8% at March 31, 2010. Days sales in inventory increased to 105.2 days at March 31, 2011 from 89.8 days at December 31, 2010 and decreased from 106.1 days at March 31, 2010. Accounts receivable days increased to 60.6 days at March 31, 2011 from 55.4 days at December 31, 2010 and decreased from 62.6 days at March 31, 2010. Average days in accounts payable increased to 49.7 days at March 31, 2011 from 35.2 days at December 31, 2010 and 40.2 days at March 31, 2010.

Cash used by investing activities for the three months ended March 31, 2011 compared with the three months ended March 31, 2010 increased by $23,513. This reflects an increase in capital expenditures of $5,732 to $15,503 from $9,771 in the three months ended March 31, 2010, and an increase in cash used in the acquisition of businesses of $17,881. The Company anticipates capital expenditures in 2011 to approximate $60,000. Anticipated capital expenditures reflect investments for capital maintenance to improve operational effectiveness and the Company's continuing international expansion. Management critically evaluates all proposed capital expenditures and requires each project to increase efficiency, reduce costs, promote business growth, or to improve the overall safety and environmental conditions of the Company's facilities.

Cash used by financing activities decreased by $4,848 to $11,632 in the three months ended March 31, 2011 compared with the comparable period of 2010. The decrease was predominantly due to higher proceeds from the exercise of stock options of $2,668, a decrease in purchases of common shares for treasury of $1,964 and decreased net payments of short-term borrowings of $1,184 compared with the prior year comparable period.

Edgar Filing: LINCOLN ELECTRIC HOLDINGS INC - Form 10-Q

The Company's debt levels decreased from $97,705 at December 31, 2010 to $97,191 at March 31, 2011. Debt to total invested capital decreased to 7.4% at March 31, 2011 from 7.8% at December 31, 2010. Included in the Company's debt levels is a Senior Unsecured Note with a balance of $80,000, which is due March 2012. The Company expects to repay this note with cash generated by operations, existing cash balances or through borrowings under its existing credit facilities.

In April 2011, the Company paid a cash dividend of $0.31 per share, or $13,019, to shareholders of record on March 31, 2011.

Table of Contents

Venezuela Foreign Currency

Effective January 1, 2010, the financial statements of the Company's Venezuelan operation have been remeasured into the Company's reporting currency (U.S. dollar). A currency control board exists in Venezuela that is responsible for foreign exchange procedures, including approval of requests for exchanges of the Venezuelan currency (the bolivar) for U.S. dollars at the official (government established) exchange rates. An unregulated parallel market that existed for exchanging bolivars for U.S. dollars through securities transactions was terminated by the Venezuelan government on May 17, 2010 and subsequently established as a regulated market on June 9, 2010.

The official exchange rate in Venezuela had been fixed at 2.15 bolivars to 1 U.S. dollar for several years. On January 8, 2010, the Venezuelan government announced the devaluation of its currency relative to the U.S. dollar. The official exchange rate for imported goods classified as essential changed from 2.15 to 2.60 (the Essential Rate), while the official exchange rate for other non-essential goods moved to an exchange rate of 4.30 (the Non-Essential Rate). In remeasuring the financial statements the Non-Essential Rate is used as this is the rate expected to be applicable to dividend repatriations.

In December 2010, the Venezuelan government announced the elimination of the Essential Rate effective as of January 1, 2011. The impact of the elimination of the Essential Rate did not have a significant impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Venezuela Highly Inflationary Economy

Venezuela is a highly inflationary economy under GAAP. As a result, the financial statements of the Company's Venezuelan operation are reported under highly inflationary accounting rules as of January 1, 2010. Under highly inflationary accounting, the financial statements of the Company's Venezuelan operation have been remeasured into the Company's reporting currency and exchange gains and losses from the remeasurement of monetary assets and liabilities are reflected in current earnings.

Future impacts to earnings of applying highly inflationary accounting for Venezuela on the Company's consolidated financial statements will be dependent upon movements in the applicable exchange rates between the bolivar and the U.S. dollar and the amount of monetary assets and liabilities included in the Company's Venezuelan operation's balance sheet. The net bolivar-denominated monetary liability position was $2,004 at March 31, 2011 and $4,715 at December 31, 2010.

The devaluation of the bolivar and the change to the U.S. dollar as the functional currency for the three months ended March 31, 2010 resulted in a foreign currency transaction gain of $2,632 in Selling, general & administrative expenses and higher Cost of goods sold of $2,621 due to the liquidation of inventory valued at the historical exchange rate.

New Accounting Pronouncements

Refer to Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements for a discussion of accounting standards recently adopted or required to be adopted in the future.

Acquisitions

On March 11, 2011, the Company completed the acquisition of OOO Severstal-metiz: welding consumables ( Severstal ) for approximately $16,555 in cash and assumed debt. The preliminary fair value of the assets acquired were $8,182, resulting in goodwill of $8,373. Severstal is a leading manufacturer of welding consumables in Russia and was a subsidiary of OAO Severstal, one of the world's leading vertically integrated steel and mining companies. This acquisition expanded the Company's capacity and distribution channels in Russia and the Commonwealth of Independent States ( CIS ). Sales for Severstal during 2010 were approximately $40,000.

On January 31, 2011, the Company acquired substantially all of the assets of SSCO Manufacturing, Inc. (d/b/a Arc Products) ( Arc Products ) for approximately $3,280 in cash and a contingent consideration liability fair valued at $3,806. The contingent consideration is based upon estimated sales for the five-year period ending December 31, 2015 and will be paid in 2016 based on actual sales during the five-year period. The preliminary fair value of the assets acquired were $3,613, resulting in goodwill of $3,473. Arc Products was a privately-held manufacturer of orbital welding systems and welding automation components based in Southern California. Orbital welding systems are designed to automatically weld pipe and tube in difficult to access locations and for mission-critical applications requiring high weld integrity and sophisticated quality monitoring capabilities. The acquisition will complement the Company's ability to serve global customers in the nuclear, power generation and process industries worldwide. Sales for Arc Products during 2010 were not significant.

Table of Contents

Pro forma information related to these acquisitions has not been presented because the impact on the Company's Consolidated Statements of Income is not material.

On October 29, 2010, the Company acquired all of the outstanding stock of Mezghosmetiz-Mtsensk OAO ( MGM ), a privately-held welding wire manufacturer based in the Orel region of Russia, for approximately $28,500 in cash and assumed debt. This acquisition represented the Company's first manufacturing operation in Russia as well as established distribution channels to serve the growing Russian and CIS welding markets. Annual sales at the date of acquisition were approximately $30,000.

Rationalization and Asset Impairments

During 2009, the Company initiated rationalization actions including the consolidation of certain manufacturing operations in the Europe Welding, Asia Pacific Welding and The Harris Products Group segments. The Company recognized a net charge of $357 for the three months ended March 31, 2011 related to these activities for employee severance, asset impairments, loss on disposal of equipment and other related charges. At March 31, 2011, a liability relating to these actions of $1,316 was recognized in Other current liabilities. The Company does not expect any further material costs associated with these actions in 2011 as they were substantially completed in 2010 and are expected to be substantially paid by the end of 2011.

Debt

As of March 31, 2011, the Company was in compliance with its debt covenants. The Company's $80,000 Series C Note (the Note ) is due in March 2012. The Company has a line of credit totaling $150,000 through the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement ( Credit Agreement ) which was entered into on November 18, 2009, of which $145,903 was available on March 31, 2011. The Credit Agreement has a three-year term and may be increased, subject to certain conditions, by an additional amount up to $75,000 at any time not later than 180 days prior to the last day of the term.

The Company historically utilized interest rate swaps to manage interest rate risks. The Company terminated its remaining interest rate swaps in 2009 and had no interest rate swaps outstanding as of March 31, 2011. The termination of interest rate swaps in 2009 resulted in a realized gain of $5,079. This gain was deferred and is being amortized over the remaining life of the Note. The amortization of this gain reduced Interest expense by $410 in the three months ended March 31, 2011 and 2010, respectively, and is expected to reduce annual interest expense by $1,661 during 2011. At March 31, 2011, $1,579 remains to be amortized and is recognized in Long-term debt, current portion. The weighted average effective interest rate on the Note, net of the impact of swaps, was 4.1 % for the three months ended March 31, 2011.

On September 7, 2007, the Court stayed the litigation, referencing pending reexaminations before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.
