CAUTIONARY NOTE CONCERNING FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements contained in the Presentation include "forward looking statements" . Forward-looking statements include information concerning Hertz's and Hertz Holdings' liquidity and their possible or assumed future results of operations, including descriptions of their business strategies. These statements often include words such as "believe," "expect," "project," "anticipate," "intend," "plan," "estimate," "seek," "would," "should," "could," "forecasts" or similar expressions. These statements are based on certain assumptions that Hertz Holdings has made in light of its experience in the industry as well as its perceptions of historical trends, current conditions, expected future developments and other factors Hertz Holdings believes are appropriate in these circumstances. Hertz Holdings believes these judgments are reasonable, but you should understand that these statements are not guarantees of performance or results, and Hertz Holdings' actual results could differ materially from those expressed in the forward looking statements due to a variety of important factors, both positive and negative. Many factors, including, without limitation, those risks and uncertainties discussed in "Item 1A Risk Factors" in each of Hertz Holdings' Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011 and Hertz Holdings' Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2012 could affect Hertz Holdings' actual financial results and could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward looking statements.

Some important factors that could affect Hertz Holdings' actual results include, among others, the following: Hertz's ability to integrate the car rental operations of Dollar Thrifty Automotive Group, Inc. ("Dollar Thrifty") and realize operational efficiencies from the acquisition of Dollar Thrifty; the operational and profitability impact of the Advantage divestiture and the divestiture of any airport locations that Hertz agreed to undertake in order to secure regulatory approval for the acquisition of Dollar Thrifty; levels of travel demand, particularly with respect to airline passenger traffic in the United States and in global markets; significant changes in the competitive environment, including as a result of industry consolidation, and the effect of competition in Hertz's markets, including on Hertz's pricing policies or use of incentives; occurrences that disrupt rental activity during Hertz's peak periods; Hertz's ability to achieve cost savings and efficiencies and realize opportunities to increase productivity and profitability; an increase in Hertz's fleet costs as a result of an increase in the cost of new vehicles and/or a decrease in the price at which it disposes of used vehicles either in the used vehicle market or under repurchase or guaranteed depreciation programs; Hertz's ability to accurately estimate future levels of rental activity and adjust the size and mix of its fleet accordingly; Hertz's ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and the availability to it of additional or continued sources of financing for its revenue earning equipment and to refinance its existing indebtedness; safety recalls by the manufacturers of Hertz's vehicles and equipment; a major disruption in Hertz's communication or centralized information networks; financial instability of the manufacturers of Hertz's vehicles and equipment; any impact on Hertz from the actions of its licensees, franchisees, dealers and independent contractors; Hertz's ability to maintain profitability during adverse economic cycles and unfavorable external events (including war, terrorist acts, natural disasters and epidemic disease); shortages of fuel and increases or volatility in fuel costs; Hertz's ability to successfully integrate acquisitions and complete dispositions; Hertz's ability to maintain favorable brand recognition; costs and risks associated with litigation; risks related to Hertz's indebtedness, including its substantial amount of debt, its ability to incur substantially more debt and increases in interest rates or in its borrowing margins; Hertz's ability to meet the financial and other covenants contained in its Senior Credit Facilities, its outstanding unsecured Senior Notes and certain asset backed and asset based arrangements; changes in accounting principles, or their application or interpretation, and Hertz's ability to make accurate estimates and the assumptions underlying the estimates, which could have an effect on earnings; changes in the existing or the adoption of new laws, regulations, policies or other activities of governments, agencies and similar organizations where such actions may affect Hertz's operations, the cost thereof or applicable tax rates; changes to Hertz's senior management team; the effect of tangible and intangible asset impairment charges; the impact of Hertz's derivative instruments, which can be affected by fluctuations in interest rates and commodity prices and Hertz's exposure to fluctuations in foreign exchange rates.

In light of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, the forward-looking statements contained in the Presentation might not prove to be accurate and you should not place undue reliance upon them. All forward-looking statements attributable to Hertz or Hertz Holdings are expressly qualified in their entirety by the foregoing cautionary statements. All such statements speak only as of the date made, and neither Hertz Holdings nor Hertz undertakes any obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
