Vale informs about the extension of railway concessions

Rio de Janeiro, July 2nd, 2018 - Vale S.A. (Vale) informs that it is participating in the process of early extension of its railway concessions which expire in 2027.

The approval for the early extension of the concessions will be submitted to the Board of Directors after the analysis of the compensations required by the Federal Government to be formalized after the stage of public hearings.

Vale will keep the market informed if there is any new relevant information related to such process.

This press release may include statements that present Vale's expectations about future events or results. All statements, when based upon expectations about the future, involve various risks and uncertainties. Vale cannot guarantee that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors related to the following: (a) the countries where we operate, especially Brazil and Canada; (b) the global economy; (c) the capital markets; (d) the mining and metals prices and their dependence on global industrial production, which is cyclical by nature; and (e) global competition in the markets in which Vale operates. To obtain further information on factors that may lead to results different from those forecast by Vale, please consult the reports Vale files with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários (CVM), and the French Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF), and in particular the factors discussed under "Forward-Looking Statements" and "Risk Factors" in Vale's annual report on Form 20-F.
