SECTION 3 SECURITIES AND TRADING MARKETS

Item 3.01.

Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On August 29, 2006, we received a notice from the American Stock Exchange informing us that we do not meet the exchange's continued listing standards. In the opinion of Amex, we are not in compliance with requirements of Sections 1003(a)(ii) and 1003(a)(iii) of the Amex Company Guide. Pursuant to these sections, Amex will typically commence a delisting process for a company that has (a) stockholders' equity of less than $4 million if the company has sustained losses from continuing operations or net losses in three of its four most recent fiscal years or (b) stockholders' equity of less than $6 million if the company has sustained losses from continuing operations or net losses in its five most recent fiscal years.

To maintain our listing on Amex, we must submit a plan by September 27, 2006 advising Amex of action we have taken, or will take, that would bring us into compliance with the continued listing standards within a maximum of 18 months following our receipt of the notice. The plan would be required to include specific milestones, quarterly financial projections, and details related to any strategic initiatives we plan to complete. If the plan is accepted, we may be able to continue our listing on Amex during the plan period of up to 18 months.

We have not yet decided whether we will submit such a plan to Amex. If we do not submit a plan, or if we submit a plan that is not accepted by Amex, we could be subject to delisting proceedings. If our common stock is delisted from Amex, we would expect it to be quoted on the Nasdaq OTC Bulletin Board, subject to application for such quotation being made by a market maker that elects to make a market in our common stock, or on the Pink Sheets.

Attached as an exhibit to this report is a copy of our press release, dated September 1, 2006, announcing the receipt of this notice from Amex.
