Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

As set forth in its Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 6, 2008, on February 5, 2008, Interpharm Holdings, Inc. (“Holdings”) and Interpharm, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into a Forbearance Agreement (the “Forbearance Agreement”) with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association (“Wells Fargo”) which, provided Holdings and the Company with additional credit and provided for a forbearance by Wells Fargo from exercising its remedies based on previous defaults with respect to Holdings’ and the Company’s credit agreement with Wells Fargo (the “Wells Fargo Credit Agreement”).

On March 25, 2008, Holdings and the Company entered into an Amended and Restated Forbearance Agreement with Wells Fargo (the “Amended Forbearance Agreement”). Pursuant to the Amended Forbearance Agreement, in exchange for a $250,000 payment and other consideration, Wells Fargo agreed to provide the Company with additional borrowing availability through: (i) increasing the cap on the Company’s revolving credit line by approximately $2.3 million; (ii) increasing the percentage of inventory which is eligible as collateral for borrowing; and (iii) adding eligible receivables against which to borrow.

In addition to the foregoing, the Amended Forbearance Agreement provides that it will be an event of default if the Company has not received a letter of intent for a purchase of substantially all of its assets for an amount in excess of the amounts owing to Wells Fargo or a proposal to refinance the amounts owing to Wells Fargo by March 31, 2008. The Company has already received a refinancing proposal.

The foregoing description of the Amended Forbearance Agreement is qualified, in its entirety, by the text of the agreement itself, which is annexed hereto as Exhibit 10.1.
