This information may involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the Company's actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by any forward-looking statements. #### ITEM 4.01 CHANGES IN REGISTRANT'S CERTIFYING ACCOUNTANT.

(a) On April 29, 2005, Marine Jet Technology Corp. (the "Company") ended the engagement of De Joya & Company as its independent certified public accountants. The decision was approved by the Board of Directors of the Company.

The report of De Joya & Company on the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion. However, the report was modified due to an uncertainty about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. During the Company's fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 and the subsequent interim period preceding the termination, there were no disagreements with De Joya & Company on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of De Joya & Company would have caused De Joya & Company to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its report on the financial statements for such years or subsequent interim periods.

The Company requested that De Joya & Company furnish it with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") stating whether or not it agrees with the Company's statements in this Item 4.01(a). A copy of the letter furnished by De Joya & Company in response to that request, dated April 29, 2005, is filed as Exhibit 16.1 to this Form 8-K.

(b) On April 29, 2005, Weinberg & Company, P.A. ("Weinberg") was engaged as the Company's new independent certified accountants. During the two most recent fiscal years and the interim period preceding the engagement of Weinberg, the Company has not consulted with Weinberg regarding either: (i) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's
