Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On January 8, 2017, BioCryst Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (“BioCryst”) announced that Health Canada has approved RAPIVAB® (peramivir injection), an intravenous (I.V.) treatment for acute, uncomplicated influenza. The approval triggered a $2.0 million milestone payment to BioCryst pursuant to the License Agreement, dated as of June 16, 2015, by and between BioCryst and Seqiris UK Limited.

On January 8, 2017, the Company issued a news release announcing the events described in this Item 7.01. A copy of the news release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

The information furnished in this Item 7.01 is not deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, is not subject to the liabilities of that section and is not deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements, including statements regarding future results, performance or achievements. These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause BioCryst’s actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from any future results, performances or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. These statements reflect our current views with respect to future events and are based on assumptions and subject to risks and uncertainties. Given these uncertainties, you should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Some of the factors that could affect the forward-looking statements contained herein include: that Health Canada may not provide regulatory approval for any use of RAPIVAB for certain patient populations or that the approval may be limited. Please refer to the documents BioCryst files periodically with the Securities and Exchange Commission, specifically BioCryst’s most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, and Current Reports on Form 8-K, all of which identify important factors that could cause the actual results to differ materially from those contained in BioCryst’s projections and forward-looking statements.
