Such proceedings have been initiated on July 9, 2004 with the filing of the notification of concentration, pursuant to which the Commission adopted, on August 12, a decision to initiate investigation proceedings. Accordingly, the Commission is analysing the necessary conditions in order to eliminate the competition law concerns that it had identified in such decision, following the proposals presented by EDP and ENI on Wednesday, November 17, 2004, which were preceded by high level meetings conducted during the previous days.

According to the Regulation, it is necessary for the Commission to consult with the Advisory Committee on concentration between undertakings, which is composed by the Competition Authorities of all Member States. The Commission's Directorate-General for Competition will present a draft decision that, upon consultation with other Commission services, namely the Legal Service, shall be submitted for appraisal and approval by the EU Commissioners. The final decision by the Commission on the above-mentioned transaction, which is expected to happen by mid-December, will only be taken at that stage. Therefore any news concerning the sense of such decision published before its approval can only be considered as speculative.

Since yesterday, EDP has been confronted with news in the media regarding the existence of a negative opinion from the European Commission (Commission) on the proposal presented to the Commission by EDP and ENI last Wednesday. During part of yesterday and all of today, EDP has tried, unsuccessfully, to obtain confirmation from the Commission Services of the existence of such an opinion. During today, EDP maintained contacts at the highest levels with the Commission's Directorate-General for Competition, seeking to identify divergences still existing in relation to an acceptable solution, in order to evaluate if they could be overcome.

Around 6:00 p.m., in contact with a high responsible of the Commission, EDP was informed of the existence of a project for a negative resolution that would be circulated by the Member States. Nevertheless, the Commission will still be available to review existing divergences with EDP and ENI during next week.

EDP could not assume as official an information that, although widely disclosed, had not been formally communicated to it by the competent authorities. This new information now allows EDP, with the authorisation from the Commission, to update the market and the public on this subject, with the following remarks:

EDP Energias de Portugal, S.A. Sociedade Aberta Sede: Praça Marquês de Pombal, 12 1250-162 Lisboa Portugal

Capital Social: 3,000,000,000 Matrícula: 1805 da C.R.C. Lisboa Pessoa Colectiva 500 697 256

EDP, in proper time, will disclose its final proposal and the Commission's requirements, in case of divergence;

Under no circumstances will EDP accept requirements that might jeopardise the value of its electricity business, which was the main target of the Commission remedies demanded to EDP last Tuesday, and that could not be fully accepted. However, EDP continues to be available to accept transitory measures;

During next week, EDP will make efforts to elaborate a last joint revision on the open issues, as now agreed with the Commission.

We regret that the formalities of this process did not allow us to inform the market with the required readiness, but EDP must submit to these formalities.
