Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

In order to qualify the compensation payable to our executive officers for exclusion from the deduction limit in Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, on February 24, 2006, the Management Development and Compensation Committee (the Committee) of our Board of Directors adopted a performance measure for 2006, and established the maximum annual variable cash incentive awards payable to our executive officers for 2006, under the 2004 Genworth Financial, Inc. Omnibus Incentive Plan (the Plan). For purposes of Section 162(m), the performance measure for 2006 is positive annual net earnings as determined under U.S. GAAP (Net Earnings). This measure is used to establish a bonus pool from which 2006 variable cash incentive awards to our chief executive officer and each of our other executive officers may be paid. Our chief executive officer is eligible for a cash incentive award under the Plan for 2006 not to exceed one-half of one percent (0.5%) of 2006 Net Earnings, and each of our other executive officers is eligible for a cash incentive award under the Plan for 2006 not to exceed three-tenths of one percent (0.3%) of 2006 Net Earnings. Notwithstanding the above maximum award limits, no individual may receive an amount in excess of the Plan limit of $5,000,000.

The actual annual awards payable to our chief executive officer and each of our executive officers for 2006 will depend on various company-specific and individual-specific performance measures, as approved by the Committee. These company-specific performance measures include, but are not limited to, Net Earnings and Net Operating Earnings (defined as Net Earnings excluding after-tax net realized investment gains and losses, changes in accounting principles and non-recurring, infrequent or unusual items), Net Operating Earnings per share and per diluted share, and Net Operating Earnings divided by average stockholders equity, excluding accumulated other comprehensive income (Operating Return On Equity). The Committee has absolute discretion to determine the amounts, if any, to be awarded to our executive officers for 2006, subject to the maximum award limits described above.
