PROPOSAL 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Board of Directors

The Company's third amended and restated certificate of incorporation divides the Company's board of directors into three classes, with each class being elected to a staggered three-year term.

The board of directors has nominated DuBose Ausley and John S. Moody as Class II Directors to be voted upon at the 2006 Annual Meeting, to serve terms ending at the 2009 Annual Meeting. James D. Edwards, Gary E. Holdren and John McCartney are Class III Directors serving terms ending at the 2007 Annual Meeting. George E. Massaro is a Class I Director serving a term ending at the 2008 Annual Meeting. The board of directors has determined that Messrs. Ausley, Edwards, McCartney and Moody are independent as defined in the applicable listing standards of The NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc. (NASDAQ).

This Proxy Statement relates only to the solicitation of proxies from the stockholders with respect to the election of two Class II Directors to be elected by them and the other matters described herein. The board of directors knows of no reason that either Mr. Ausley or Mr. Moody might be unavailable to serve as the Class II Directors, and each has expressed an intention to serve, if elected. If either Mr. Ausley or Mr. Moody is unable to serve, the shares represented by all valid proxies will be voted for the election of such substitute nominee as the board of directors may recommend. There are no arrangements or understandings between any of the persons nominated to be a Class II Director and any other person pursuant to which any of such nominees was selected.

The election of a director requires the affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares of common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote; provided that a quorum of at least one-third of the outstanding shares of common stock is represented at the meeting. Shares of common stock held by stockholders electing to abstain from voting and broker non-votes will be counted toward the presence of a quorum but will not be considered present and voting. Therefore, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no impact on the election of directors. Properly executed proxies submitted pursuant to this solicitation will be voted for the election of Mr. Ausley and Mr. Moody as Class II Directors, unless specified otherwise.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF MR. AUSLEY AND MR. MOODY AS CLASS II DIRECTORS.

Board Meetings and Committees

The board of directors conducts its business through meetings of the full board, actions taken by written consent in lieu of meetings and by the actions of its committees. During 2005, the board of directors held six board meetings and five meetings each of its Audit Committee and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, as well as seven meetings of its Compensation Committee. The board of directors took action by written consent six times. Its Compensation Committee also took action by written consent six times.

During 2005, all of the board members attended the board meetings and committee meetings on which they served, except as follows: for health reasons, Ms. Bricker missed one board meeting. Mr. Massaro missed one board meeting because of a conflict with a Huron client engagement. Mr. Ausley missed telephonic meetings of the board, the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee, and Mr. McCartney missed a meeting of the Audit Committee. All directors attended at least 89% of the meetings of the board and committees on which they served. Although the Company does not have a formal policy regarding director attendance at our Annual Meeting of Stockholders, we encourage directors to attend. All directors, except for Ms. Bricker (who was not able to attend for health reasons), attended the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

The board of directors created the position of lead director, which rotates among the independent directors on a quarterly basis. The lead director's duties are to chair the executive sessions of the board and to approve the agenda for each board meeting. During 2005, Ms. Bricker and Messrs. Ausley, Edwards and McCartney all served as lead director.

The board of directors operates in part through its three committees: Audit, Compensation and Nominating and Corporate Governance.

All current Audit Committee members are independent, as defined in the applicable listing standards of NASDAQ. The board of directors has determined that each Audit Committee member has sufficient knowledge in financial and auditing matters to serve on the Audit Committee. The board of directors has also designated each of Messrs. McCartney and Edwards as an audit committee financial expert as defined by the applicable securities regulations and each is an independent director. The Report of the Audit Committee for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 appears below under the caption "AUDIT MATTERS" Report of the Audit Committee.

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee reviews and administers all compensation arrangements for executive officers and establishes and reviews general policies relating to the compensation and benefits of our officers and employees. Compensation of Directors

Effective July 1, 2005, the board of directors increased the annual cash compensation for our independent directors from $20,000 to $40,000 per year. Based solely upon our review of forms filed by directors, officers and certain beneficial owners of our common stock (the Section 16(a) Reporting Persons) pursuant to Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the 1934 Act), we have identified a late filing by Wayne E. Employment and Severance Agreements

The Company currently has employment agreements with each of its Named Executive Officers.

Holdren senior management agreement

Huron Consulting Services LLC has entered into a senior management agreement with Mr. Holdren. The agreement, which was effective as of May 13, 2002, had an initial term of three years and automatically renews for additional one-year periods on an annual basis unless, at least 60 days prior to the expiration of the then-current term, we or Mr. Holdren provide notice that the agreement shall not renew. The agreement provides that Mr. Holdren will report to our board of directors. Under the terms of the agreement, in 2005, Mr. Holdren's minimum annual base salary was $800,000 and his annual performance bonus target was $850,000. His compensation is subject to annual review. Mr. Holdren received a minimum payment in an amount of $112,500 with respect to his annual bonus for the twelve months ended May 13, 2005. The additional amount of the annual bonus to be received by Mr. Holdren will be based on the achievement of performance goals set by our Compensation Committee. Mr. Holdren is also eligible for additional bonuses in the event that our annual earnings exceed targets set by the Compensation Committee, in amounts that the Compensation Committee determines to be appropriate.

Mr. Holdren's agreement provides that, if his employment is terminated by us without cause, if he resigns for good reason (as such terms are defined in the agreement) or if he is terminated in connection with a non-renewal of the agreement prior to the fifth anniversary of its execution, Mr. Holdren will be entitled to severance pay of $1,500,000, payable over the twelve-month period following termination, along with continuation of medical and dental benefits during such twelve-month period. All other Company-provided perquisites and benefits will be subject to the treatment provided under the terms of the applicable plans or programs. Mr. Holdren or his estate is entitled to six months' base salary over the six-month period following his death or disability, along with continuation of medical benefits. In order to receive any of these severance payments, Mr. Holdren must execute a general release in favor of us. Mr. Holdren is also entitled to coverage under our directors' and officers' insurance policy for six years following his termination, subject to specified exceptions and limitations. Mr. Holdren has agreed to certain restrictive covenants that will survive for a period of one to three years following the termination of his employment pursuant to which he will not solicit our clients or interfere with our relationships with our employees or customers.

Mr. Holdren's agreement provided for the purchase by him of 391,305 shares of our common stock on December 10, 2002, pursuant to a separate restricted shares award agreement under our 2002 Equity Incentive Plan, the vesting of which accelerated on October 12, 2004. In addition, Mr. Holdren has the ability to exercise certain piggyback registration rights with respect to these shares. Pursuant to these piggyback registration rights, if we propose any underwritten public offering of our equity securities pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "1933 Act") (other than a registration statement relating to our employee benefit plans, exchange offers by us or a merger or acquisition of a business or assets by us), Mr. Holdren is entitled to include his shares of common stock in that registration, subject to cutback provisions in the event that, in connection with an underwritten offering, the managing underwriter advises us and Mr. Holdren that the inclusion of all the securities sought to be included in the registration by us, Mr. Holdren, any persons who have sought to have shares registered thereunder pursuant to demand registration rights and any other proposed sellers would adversely affect the marketability of the securities sought to be sold pursuant thereto. Pursuant to the agreement, we are obligated to pay all expenses incidental to our performance of, or compliance with, our obligations in connection with the piggyback registration rights.

In September 2004, we adopted an amendment to Mr. Holdren's senior management agreement that provides Mr. Holdren with certain change of control benefits. Pursuant to the amendment, if Mr. Holdren's employment is terminated within 24 months following a change of control, either by us without cause or by Mr. Holdren with good reason, which includes not being the chief executive officer of the successor entity, all of his unvested equity awards will immediately become vested and exercisable, and he will be entitled to severance pay of three times the total of his then-current base salary and target annual bonus. In the event of such termination, he will also be entitled to a pro-rata bonus for the year during which his termination occurs, 36 months of benefit continuation, and, if necessary, an excise tax gross-up payment.

Massaro senior management agreement

Huron Consulting Services LLC also entered into a senior management agreement with Mr. Massaro. Mr. Massaro's agreement, which was effective August 12, 2002, had an initial three-year term and automatically renews for additional one-year periods on an annual basis unless, at least 60 days prior to the expiration of the then-current term, we or Mr. Massaro provide notice that the agreement shall not renew. Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Massaro received a minimum annual base salary, which generally could not be reduced once increased, and was eligible to participate in our annual performance bonus plan. His compensation is subject to annual review. For 2005, Mr. Massaro's annual base salary was set at $600,000, and his annual bonus target was set at $300,000. Mr. Massaro received a guaranteed minimum bonus payment of $37,500 with respect to his annual bonus for the twelve months ended August 12, 2005. Additional bonus amounts for calendar 2005 may be paid to Mr. Massaro based on the achievement of performance goals set by the Compensation Committee. Mr. Massaro is also eligible for additional bonuses in the event that our annual earnings exceed targets set by our Compensation Committee or the Chief Executive Officer, in amounts that the Compensation Committee determines to be appropriate.

Mr. Massaro was also granted options to acquire 21,740 shares of our common stock under our 2002 Equity Incentive Plan at the time his employment commenced. In accordance with the original terms of the grants under our 2002 Equity Incentive Plan, options granted under that plan vested fully on October 12, 2004.

Mr. Massaro's agreement provides that, if his employment is terminated by us without cause or if he resigns for good reason (as such terms are defined in the agreement), he will be entitled to severance pay equal to six months' base salary and medical benefits, which amount is subject to offset for remuneration earned by Mr. Massaro during the six-month period following such termination. In order to receive such severance payments, Mr. Massaro must execute a general release in favor of us. Mr. Massaro or his estate is entitled to severance pay of three months' base salary payable over the three-month period following his death or disability, along with continuation of medical benefits. Mr. Massaro has also agreed to certain restrictive covenants that will survive for one year following the termination of his employment pursuant to which, among other things, he will not solicit our clients or interfere with our relationships with our employees or customers.

In September 2004, we adopted an amendment to Mr. Massaro's senior management agreement that provides Mr. Massaro with certain change in control benefits. Pursuant to the amendment, if Mr. Massaro's employment is terminated within 24 months following a change of control, either by us without cause or by Mr. Massaro for good reason (as provided in the agreement), all of his unvested equity awards that were granted prior to such change of control will immediately become vested and exercisable, and he will be entitled to severance pay of two times the total of his then-current base salary and target annual bonus. In the event of such termination, he will also be entitled to a pro-rata bonus for the year during which his termination occurs and 24 months of medical benefit continuation. In certain situations, Mr. Massaro may be entitled to an excise tax gross-up payment, or his severance benefits may be reduced to limit his excise tax burden.

During 2006, Mr. Massaro intends to reduce his workload to a part-time, or approximately one-third basis and dedicate his efforts to strategic initiatives for us, including major client assignments. We have adopted a second amendment to Mr. Massaro's senior management agreement. This second amendment to his agreement has an effective date of December 31, 2005 and allows for Mr. Massaro to work 60 hours per month on average during a calendar year. Under the second amendment, Mr. Massaro ceased to be an executive officer, retaining the title of Vice Chairman, and receives a minimum annual base salary of $200,000. Mr. Massaro will also be eligible for a discretionary incentive. All stock options held as of the effective date of the second amendment will continue to vest, and the term of the awards will not change as long as Mr. Massaro remains employed by us or a member of the board. Unvested restricted stock from the October 12, 2004 grant was cancelled as of March 1, 2006, and restricted stock granted March 17, 2005 will continue to vest as long as Mr. Massaro remains employed by us or a board member. Mr. Massaro is not eligible for future equity grants unless he is working on a full-time basis as defined by the Company.

Broadhurst senior management agreement

Huron Consulting Services LLC has also entered into a senior management agreement with Mr. Broadhurst. Mr. Broadhurst's agreement, which was effective May 15, 2002, had an initial three-year term and automatically renews for additional one-year periods on an annual basis unless, at least 60 days prior to the expiration of the then-current term, we or Mr. Broadhurst provide notice that the agreement shall not renew. Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Broadhurst receives an annual base salary of no less than $485,000 and an annual target bonus for the initial term of $260,000, and he has received a guaranteed minimum bonus payment of $65,000 with respect to such bonus for the twelve months ended May 15, 2005. The remaining amount of the annual bonus to be received by Mr. Broadhurst will be based on the achievement of performance goals set by the Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Broadhurst is also eligible for additional bonuses in the event that our annual earnings exceed targets set by our Compensation Committee or the Chief Executive Officer, in amounts that the Compensation Committee determines to be appropriate.

Mr. Broadhurst was also granted options to acquire 32,609 shares of our common stock under our 2002 Equity Incentive Plan at the time his employment commenced. In accordance with the original terms of the grant, these options vested fully on October 12, 2004.

Mr. Broadhurst's agreement provides that, if his employment is terminated by us without cause or if he resigns for good reason (as such terms are defined in the agreement), he will be entitled to severance pay equal to six months' base salary and medical benefits, which amount is subject to offset for remuneration earned by Mr. Broadhurst during the six-month period following such a termination. In order to receive such severance payments, Mr. Broadhurst must execute a general release in favor of us. Mr. Broadhurst or his estate is entitled to severance pay of three months base salary payable over the three-month period following his death or disability, along with continuation of medical benefits. Mr. Broadhurst has also agreed to certain restrictive covenants that will survive for one year following the termination of his employment pursuant to which, among other things, he will not solicit our clients or interfere with our relationships with our employees or customers.

In September 2004, we adopted an amendment to Mr. Broadhurst's senior management agreement that provides Mr. Broadhurst with certain change in control benefits. Pursuant to the amendment, if Mr. Broadhurst's employment is terminated within 24 months following a change of control, either by us without cause or by Mr. Broadhurst for good reason (as provided in the agreement), all of his unvested equity awards that were granted prior to such change of control will immediately become vested and exercisable, and he will be entitled to severance pay equal to the total of one year of his then-current base salary and his then-current target annual bonus. In the event of such a termination, he will also be entitled to a pro-rata bonus for the year during which his termination occurs and 12 months of medical benefit continuation. In certain situations, these benefits may be reduced to limit Mr. Broadhurst's excise tax burden.

Burge senior management agreement

Huron Consulting Services LLC has also entered into a senior management agreement with Mr. Burge. Mr. Burge's agreement, which was effective November 25, 2002, had an initial one-year term and automatically renews for additional one-year periods on an annual basis unless, at least 60 days prior to the expiration of the then-current term, we or Mr. Burge provide notice that the agreement will not renew. Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Burge receives an annual base salary of no less than $225,000 and is eligible to participate in our annual performance bonus plan. Mr. Burge is also eligible for additional bonuses in the event that our annual earnings exceed targets set by our Compensation Committee or the Chief Executive Officer, in amounts that the Compensation Committee determines to be appropriate.

Mr. Burge was also granted options to acquire 26,087 shares of our common stock under our 2002 Equity Incentive Plan at the time his employment commenced. In accordance with the original terms of the grants under our 2002 Equity Incentive Plan, options granted under that plan vested fully on October 12, 2004.

Mr. Burge's agreement provides that, if his employment is terminated by us without cause or if he resigns for good reason (as such terms are defined in the agreement), he will be entitled to severance pay equal to six months' base salary, which amount is subject to offset for remuneration earned by Mr. Burge during the six-month period following such a termination, earned but unpaid annual bonus for the calendar

Mr. Burge has also agreed to certain restrictive covenants that will survive for one year following termination of his employment pursuant to which, among other things, he will not interfere with our relationships with our employees or customers.

In September 2004, we adopted an amendment to Mr. Burge's senior management agreement that provides Mr. Burge with certain change in control benefits. Pursuant to the amendment, if Mr. Burge's employment is terminated within 24 months following a change of control, either by us without cause or by Mr. Burge for good reason (as provided in the agreement), all of his unvested equity awards that were granted prior to such change of control will immediately become vested and exercisable, and he will be entitled to severance pay equal to the total of one year of his then-current base salary and his then-current target annual bonus. In the event of such a termination, he will also be entitled to a pro-rata bonus for the year during which his termination occurs and 12 months of medical benefit continuation. In certain situations, these benefits may be reduced to limit Mr. Burge's excise tax burden.

Ms. Sawall was also granted options to acquire 16,305 shares of our common stock under our 2002 Equity Incentive Plan at the time her employment commenced. In accordance with the original terms of the grants under our 2002 Equity Incentive Plan, options granted under that plan vested fully on October 12, 2004.

Ms. Sawall's agreement provides that, if her employment is terminated by us without cause or if she resigns for good reason (as such terms are defined in the agreement), she will be entitled to severance pay equal to six months' base salary and medical benefits, which amount is subject to offset for remuneration earned by Ms. Sawall during the six-month period following such a termination. In order to receive such severance payments, Ms. Sawall must execute a general release in favor of us. Ms. Sawall or her estate is entitled to severance pay of three months' base salary payable over the three-month period following her death or disability, along with continuation of medical benefits. Ms. Sawall has also agreed to certain restrictive covenants that will survive for one year following termination of her employment pursuant to which, among other things, she will not interfere with our relationships with our employees or customers.

In September 2004, we adopted an amendment to Ms. Sawall's senior management agreement that provides Ms. Sawall with certain change in control benefits. Pursuant to the amendment, if Ms. Sawall's employment is terminated within 24 months following a change of control, either by us without cause or by Ms. Sawall for good reason (as provided in the agreement), all of her unvested equity awards that were granted prior to such change of control will immediately become vested and exercisable, and she will be entitled to severance pay equal to the total of one year of her then-current base salary and her then-current target annual bonus. In the event of such a termination, she will also be entitled to a pro-rata bonus for the year during which her termination occurs and 12 months of medical benefit continuation. In certain situations, these benefits may be reduced to limit Ms. Sawall's excise tax burden.

Report of the Compensation Committee on Executive Compensation

This report is not deemed to be soliciting material or to be filed with the SEC or subject to the SEC's proxy rules or to the liabilities of Section 18 of the 1934 Act and the report shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference into any prior or subsequent filing by the Company under the 1933 Act or the 1934 Act.

Compensation Philosophy and Policy Overview

The Compensation Committee believes that the compensation paid to its executive officers and practice leaders must attract and retain talented executives and motivate them to deliver superior performance and results consistent with the Company's business objectives and the creation of stockholder value. Total compensation is designed to align the interests of executives and shareholders. Compensation must be competitive, as well as based on individual contribution, teamwork, and delivery of financial results.

The components of executive compensation are: base salary, annual cash incentive, and equity compensation, consisting primarily of restricted stock. The committee annually reviews and approves Huron's practices regarding executive compensation for base salary levels, incentive compensation and equity awards for all executive officers and practice leaders. The committee periodically will retain a third party compensation expert to review the total compensation and elements of compensation against a group of comparator companies.

Base Salary

Base salaries for the Chief Executive Officer, Vice Chairman, and Vice President of Operations are recommended by management to the committee and reviewed and approved by the committee based on the committee's evaluation of each individual's responsibilities, level of experience, performance, and competitive compensation data for comparable companies. Base salaries for other executives and the practice leaders are recommended by the Chief Executive Officer to the committee and reviewed and approved taking into account an assessment of each individual's responsibilities and performance. All of our executive officers and the majority of practice leaders have employment agreements that set minimum base salaries and contemplate an annual review and potential compensation increases. These agreements also provide for severance and restricted equity acceleration in the event of a qualified change of control accompanied by termination of employment as a result of the change of control.

Annual Incentives

Annual incentives are designed to link a significant portion of each executive's compensation to the Company's performance and to recognize individual contribution to the success of the Company in achieving its performance goals. Each executive has a target bonus with specific goals and performance objectives. The majority of executive incentives are based on the Company achieving financial performance targets. In 2005, the Compensation Committee evaluated the Chief Executive Officer, Vice Chairman, and Vice President of Operations' achievement against their goals for fiscal 2005. The committee reviewed the performance and annual incentives of other executive officers and practice leaders against objectives set by the Chief Executive Officer, taking into account his recommendations and assessment of each executive's success in achieving these goals, as well as the overall performance of each executive.

Long-Term Equity Incentives

The committee believes that equity compensation is an important vehicle to attract, motivate and retain executives. Equity compensation aligns executive interests with those of stockholders and encourages executives to act to maximize long-term stockholder value. Under our 2004 Omnibus Stock Plan, restricted stock, stock options and other forms of equity compensation may be granted to executive officers and other key employees who are expected to contribute to the Company's ability to execute against long-term goals and objectives. The committee considers existing unvested equity holdings, individual performance, and anticipated future contributions to the business in determining new grants. Since the 2004 Omnibus Stock Plan was approved, the majority of grants have been restricted stock grants to executives, practice leaders and other managing directors.

Deductibility of Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally limits the deductibility for federal income tax purposes of compensation in excess of $1 million to the chief executive officer or any of the next four most highly paid executives of a publicly held corporation. Compensation exceeding $1 million may be deducted for federal income tax purposes if compensation is paid pursuant to a performance-based, nondiscretionary plan that is approved by stockholders. Treasury regulations provide transitional rules under Section 162(m) for compensation programs sponsored by a corporation that previously was not publicly held that becomes publicly held for these purposes. The Compensation Committee will exercise its discretion in determining whether to conform compensation plans payable to these executive officers to the deductibility requirements of Section 162(m).

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

Mr. Holdren's total compensation was consistent with the compensation philosophy and objectives described above. Mr. Holdren's employment agreement, which is described in detail in the section entitled "Executive Compensation," established his base salary and target bonus for fiscal 2005. The Compensation Committee considered the following factors when reviewing the financial performance portion of Mr. Holdren's bonus: achievement of target growth in revenues and EBITDA and earnings per share performance. The Compensation Committee did not attach any specific weighting to these factors. In assessing Mr. Holdren's performance against other factors, the committee considered achievement of headcount growth plans, improved employee retention, successful completion of the Company's first acquisition and other factors. The Compensation Committee did not attach any specific weighting to these factors. Based on achievement of performance goals set at the beginning of fiscal 2005, Mr. Holdren's 2005 annual incentive of $925,000 was approved by the board of directors. In addition, the Compensation Committee awarded Mr. Holdren 75,000 shares of restricted common stock that will be granted on July 1, 2006.

PROPOSAL 2

APPROVAL OF AMENDMENT TO THE COMPANY'S

2004 OMNIBUS STOCK PLAN

In 2004, we adopted the 2004 Omnibus Stock Plan (the Omnibus Plan), which replaced the prior equity-based compensation plans. The Omnibus Plan was approved by stockholders on October 12, 2004 and authorized for issuance up to 2,141,000 shares for stock-based incentive compensation to eligible employees, executive officers, independent contractors and outside directors. As of December 31, 2005, we had issued or reserved for issuance a total of 1,543,253 shares of common stock under the Omnibus Plan. We currently expect to grant 512,500 shares of restricted common stock to our executive officers and managing directors in July of this year. This would leave us with approximately 85,000 shares of common stock remaining available for grant. As a result, the board of directors has adopted an amendment to the Omnibus Plan (the First Amendment) to increase the number of shares available under the Omnibus Plan by 2,100,000 shares (to a total of approximately 2,697,747 available for issuance or 15.6% of our currently outstanding shares of common stock), subject to stockholder approval of the First Amendment. In addition, we will make annual grants to our independent directors and at-hire grants to new managing directors throughout the year. Based on our current plans and growth expectations, we believe that the shares requested in this proposal will be sufficient for the Company's needs for three years.

We use equity compensation for our executives, practice leaders, and managing directors as a core component of our overall compensation philosophy. The ability to offer equity as a component of compensation helps us attract talent that is critical for our continued growth and helps to focus new managing directors on the performance and financial goals the Company has committed to achieve. Ongoing long-term incentive compensation aligns the interests of our most senior and critical employees with our stockholders' interests and provides additional incentive compensation to the employees who we must retain to continue to build and grow the Company. Recognizing the importance of retaining our valued employees at all levels, we have also implemented a new feature in our annual incentive program for employees below the managing director level who normally do not receive equity compensation. To encourage broad ownership of Huron stock and to offer an opportunity for all of our employees to have a stake in the Company's growth, employees may use a portion of their bonus to purchase our common stock. Huron partially matches employee purchases with common stock, subject to a minimum holding requirement, as well as a time-based vesting schedule. We believe that encouraging ownership among all of our employees builds the teamwork that is a fundamental value of the Company and will enhance retention of our employees.

For the reasons discussed above, we believe that it is in the best interests of the Company, its stockholders and its employees to increase the number of shares of common stock available for issuance under the Omnibus Plan. Accordingly, the board of directors has adopted the First Amendment to the Omnibus Plan, subject to stockholder approval. The summary of the Omnibus Plan set forth below is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Omnibus Plan as it is proposed to be amended. A copy of the Omnibus Plan is filed as an exhibit to our registration statement on Form S-8 filed with the SEC with respect to the Omnibus Plan (File Number 333-119697), and a copy of the First Amendment is included as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement.

If the First Amendment is not approved by stockholders, the Omnibus Plan will continue in existence in its current state, and the board of directors will consider other alternatives so that it will continue to be able to attract and retain employees.

The approval of the amendment to the Omnibus Plan requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the total shares of common stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, provided that a quorum of at least one-third of the outstanding shares is represented at the meeting. Abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against ratification. Broker non-votes will not be considered shares entitled to vote with respect to approval of the amendment and will not be counted as votes for or against the proposal. Proxies submitted pursuant to this solicitation will be voted for the approval of the amendment of the Omnibus Plan, unless specified otherwise.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE FIRST AMENDMENT TO THE OMNIBUS PLAN.

Description of the Omnibus Plan

There are several types of awards that may be granted under the Omnibus Plan: stock options (including both incentive stock options, or ISOs, within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code and nonqualified options, which are options that do not qualify as ISOs), stock appreciation rights, restricted stock, phantom stock, stock bonus awards, and other equity-based awards valued in whole or in part by reference to, or otherwise based on, our common stock. A total of 1,543,253 shares of common stock currently are reserved for issuance under the Omnibus Plan, subject to equitable adjustment upon certain corporate transactions or events. If this proposal is approved by stockholders, the aggregate number of shares available under the Omnibus Plan would increase to 2,697,747. Shares subject to an award that remain unissued upon the cancellation or termination of the award will again become available for award under the Omnibus Plan, as shall any shares subject to an award that are retained by us as payment of the exercise price or tax withholding obligations and previously owned shares surrendered to us as payment of the exercise price of an option to satisfy tax withholding obligations. In addition, to the extent an award is paid or settled in cash, the number of shares previously subject to the award shall again be available for grant pursuant to the Omnibus Plan.

The Omnibus Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee. Our executive officers, employees, outside directors and third-party consultants, numbering approximately 780 in total, are eligible to receive awards under the Omnibus Plan at the discretion of the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee has the responsibility for interpreting the plan and determining all of the terms and conditions of awards made under the plan, including when they will become exercisable or otherwise vest. The Compensation Committee has the authority to accelerate the exercisability and/or vesting of any outstanding award at such times and under such circumstances as it deems appropriate. The Omnibus Plan may be amended by our board of directors, subject to stockholder approval, where necessary to satisfy legal or regulatory requirements. The Omnibus Plan will terminate not later than the tenth anniversary of its adoption. Awards granted before the termination of the Omnibus Plan may extend beyond that date in accordance with their terms.

The Omnibus Plan is intended to permit the grant of performance-based compensation within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, which generally limits the deduction that we may take for compensation of our five most senior executive officers. Under Section 162(m), certain compensation, including compensation based on the attainment of performance goals, will not be subject to this limitation if certain requirements are met. The vesting of awards that are intended to qualify as performance based compensation will be based upon business criteria as established by the Compensation Committee from time to time.

Other than with respect to shares of restricted common stock and options that we have granted to date (representing 1,543,253 shares of our common stock), with respect to the shares of restricted common stock we intend to grant in July 2006 (described below under "2006 Plan Benefits") and with respect to our contractual obligations to issue a total of 8,696 options per year to certain third-party consultants, inasmuch as awards under the Omnibus Plan will be granted at the discretion of our Compensation Committee, it is not possible at this time to determine either the persons who will receive awards under the Omnibus Plan or the amount of any such awards. For awards that were made in 2005 to directors and named executive officers, you should read the discussions under "Proposal 1 Election of Directors; Compensation of Directors, and Executive Compensation Summary Compensation Table and Option Grants in Last Fiscal Year" above.

Policy on Audit Committee Pre-Approval of Audit and Non-Audit Services of Independent Auditor

The Audit Committee is responsible for appointing, setting compensation and overseeing the work of the independent auditor. The Audit Committee has established a policy regarding pre-approval of all audit and non-audit services provided by the independent auditor.

The Audit Committee, on a periodic basis, determines certain services that have the general pre-approval of the committee. The Audit Committee must separately pre-approve any services not receiving such general pre-approval. Requests for such approval must be submitted by both the auditor and the Chief Financial Officer and must include a joint statement as to whether, in their view, the request is consistent with the SEC's rules on auditor independence. No services are undertaken that are not pre-approved. The Audit Committee will establish pre-approved fee levels for all services to be provided by the auditor. On a periodic basis, the Chief Financial Officer and the auditor report to the Audit Committee regarding the actual spending for such projects and services compared to the approved amounts.
