EXHIBIT A

StoneMor Partners L.P. (the Company) did not file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008 within the prescribed period because the Company needed additional time to complete the audit of its financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008.

EXHIBIT B

Total Revenues of $145.3 million for the year ended December 31, 2007 are expected to increase to $180.5 million for the year ended December 31, 2008^(a). Operating Profit of $12.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2007 is expected to increase to $15.5 million for the year ended December 31, 2008^(a). The Company expects a net profit of approximately $2.3 million for the year ended December 31, 2008^(a) compared to a net profit of $2.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2007. Net Cash provided by Operating Activities of $19.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2007 is expected to be approximately $21.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2008^(a).

^(a) These preliminary estimated results are subject to change in connection with the completion of the financial statements.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements contained in this press release, including, but not limited to, information regarding the status and progress of the company's operating activities, the plans and objectives of the company's management, assumptions regarding the company's future performance and plans, and any financial guidance provided, as well as certain information in other filings with the SEC and elsewhere, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A(i) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E(i) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The words believe, may, will, estimate, continues, anticipate, intend, project, expect, predict, and similar expressions identify these forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are made subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those stated, including, but not limited to, the following: uncertainties associated with future revenue and revenue growth; the impact of the company's significant leverage on its operating plans; the ability of the company to service its debt; the company's ability to repay or refinance its Series A notes due on September 20, 2009; the decline in the fair value of certain equity and debt securities held in the company's trusts; the company's ability to attract, train and retain an adequate number of sales people; uncertainties associated with the volume and timing of pre-need sales of cemetery services and products; the effect of the current economic downturn; variances in death rates; variances in the use of cremation; changes in political or regulatory environments, including potential changes in tax accounting and trusting policies; the company's ability to successfully implement a strategic plan relating to producing operating improvement, strong cash flows and further deleveraging; uncertainties associated with the integration or the anticipated benefits of our recent acquisitions; and various other uncertainties associated with the deathcare industry and the company's operations in particular.

When considering forward-looking statements, you should keep in mind the risk factors and other cautionary statements set forth in our Annual Report on Form 10-K and our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC. We assume no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements made herein or any other forward-looking statements made by us, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.
