Item 8.01. Other Events.

On May 10, 2010, Lockheed Martin Corporation issued a press release announcing early results of its offer to exchange any and all of its outstanding 7.65% Debentures due 2016, 7.75% Debentures due 2026, 8.50% Debentures due 2029 and 7.20% Debentures due 2036 (collectively, the old notes ) for a new series of 5.72% notes due 2040 (the new notes ) and, in the case of the 7.20% Debentures due 2036, an additional cash payment (the exchange offer ). Lockheed Martin Corporation also announced that the amount of outstanding old notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn as of 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on May 7, 2010 (the early participation date ) exceeded the minimum condition of the exchange offer. Lockheed Martin further announced that holders of old notes that tender their old notes after the early participation date and prior to the expiration of the exchange offer will also receive the same total exchange consideration (including the early participation payment) for the series of old notes tendered as will be received by holders of old notes that tendered the same series of old notes by the early participation date. A copy of the press release is filed as exhibit 99 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

The new notes have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or any state securities laws. Therefore, the new notes may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and any applicable state securities laws.
