The par value and other terms of our common stock were not affected by the reverse stock split. Our post-reverse split common shares has a new CUSIP number, 00847G 705, and will trade on the NASDAQ Capital Market with a "D" added, under the symbol "AGEND" for the 20 business days beginning October 3, 2011 to designate that it is trading on a post-reverse split basis. Agenus Announces Reverse Stock Split

Lexington, MA September 30, 2011 Agenus Inc. (Nasdaq: AGEN), a developer of therapeutic vaccines for cancer and infectious diseases, today announced that its board of directors has approved a 1-for 6 share consolidation, or reverse stock split, that will become effective on October 3, 2011.

The primary objectives for implementing the reverse stock split are to enable the company to comply with NASDAQ's minimum bid price requirement of $1.00 per share, to reduce the number of shares outstanding to be more commensurate with the company's size and market capitalization and to reduce transaction costs for investors. The company's common shares will begin trading on a split-adjusted basis on The NASDAQ Capital Market at the opening of trading on Monday, October 3, 2011.

At the effective time of the reverse stock split, every 6 of Agenus' pre-split common shares, par value $0.01 per share, will automatically be consolidated into 1 post-split common share, par value $0.01 per share. Following the reverse split, the company will have approximately 21,337,000 common shares outstanding, excluding outstanding and unexercised share options and warrants and subject to adjustment for fractional shares. The reverse stock split will not affect any shareholder's ownership percentage of Agenus' common shares, except to the limited extent that the reverse split would result in any shareholder owning a fractional share.

Effective October 3, 2011, NASDAQ will append a fifth character "D" to the company's ticker symbol to indicate the implementation of the reverse split, which "D" will remain appended to the company's symbol for 20 business days. The company's ticker symbol will thereafter revert to AGEN. In addition, the common shares will also trade under a new CUSIP number effective October 3, 2011.

Additional information can be found in the company's definitive proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on May 3, 2011.
