Dear Stockholder:

On September 11, 2011, NetLogic Microsystems, Inc. (NetLogic) entered into an agreement and plan of merger (the Merger Agreement) with Broadcom Corporation (Broadcom) and I&N Acquisition Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Broadcom (Merger Sub). The Merger Agreement provides for Broadcom to acquire NetLogic through the merger of Merger Sub with and into NetLogic. If the merger is completed, you will be entitled to receive $50.00 in cash, without interest and subject to any applicable withholding taxes, in exchange for each share of NetLogic common stock you own at the effective time of the merger. Completion of the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain closing conditions as set forth in the Merger Agreement, including the adoption of the Merger Agreement by our stockholders.

You are cordially invited to attend the special meeting of NetLogic stockholders to be held on Tuesday, November 22, 2011 at 8:00 a.m. Pacific Time at the Santa Clara Convention Center, 5001 Great America Parkway, Santa Clara, California 95054. At the special meeting, we will ask you to consider and vote on the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement. You will also be asked to consider and vote on a proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, and a proposal to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, certain compensation arrangements for NetLogic's named executive officers in connection with the merger.

After careful consideration, our board of directors has unanimously determined that the merger and the Merger Agreement are fair to, advisable and in the best interests of, our stockholders and approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the merger. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR each of the proposals to be considered and voted on at the special meeting.

The accompanying proxy statement provides information about the proposed merger and the special meeting. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached as Annex A to the proxy statement. We encourage you to read the entire proxy statement carefully and in its entirety.

Your vote is very important. The merger cannot be completed unless the Merger Agreement is adopted by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. The failure of any stockholder to vote on the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the Merger Agreement.

Even if you plan to attend the special meeting, we encourage you to vote and submit your proxy by dating, signing and returning the enclosed proxy card or vote by Internet or telephone as instructed in the enclosed materials. If your shares are held in street name by a bank, broker or other agent, your bank, broker or other agent will be unable to vote your shares without instructions from you. You should instruct your bank, broker or other agent to vote your shares by following the instructions they provide to you.

On behalf of our board of directors, we thank you for your support and appreciate your consideration of this matter. We look forward to seeing you at the special meeting.

Sincerely,

Ronald S. Jankov

President and Chief Executive Officer

Edgar Filing: NETLOGIC MICROSYSTEMS INC - Form DEFM14A

NetLogic stockholders who do not vote in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement will have the right to seek appraisal of the fair value of their shares if the Merger is completed, but only if they perfect their appraisal rights by complying with all required procedures under Delaware law, including submitting a written demand for appraisal rights to NetLogic before the vote is taken on the Merger Agreement, as explained in the accompanying proxy statement.

Your vote is very important. The Merger cannot be completed unless the Merger Agreement is adopted by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. Even if you plan to attend the Special Meeting, we hope that you will promptly vote and

SUMMARY TERM SHEET

This summary highlights selected information contained in this proxy statement and may not contain all of the information that is important to you. Accordingly, we encourage you to read carefully this entire proxy statement, its annexes and the documents referred to in this proxy statement.

The Special Meeting. Our board of directors is providing this proxy statement and the accompanying form of proxy card to holders of common stock of NetLogic Microsystems, Inc., or NetLogic, in connection with the solicitation of proxies for use at the special meeting of stockholders, which we refer to as the Special Meeting, to be held at the Santa Clara Convention Center located at 5001 Great America Parkway, Santa Clara, California 95054, on Tuesday, November 22, 2011, at 8:00 a.m. Pacific Time. See Special Meeting of NetLogic Stockholders beginning on page 14. This proxy statement and the accompanying form of proxy card are being mailed to stockholders on or about October 24, 2011.

Record Date and Quorum. You are entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the Special Meeting if you owned shares of NetLogic common stock at the close of business on October 19, 2011, which we have set as the record date for the Special Meeting and which we refer to as the record date. As of the close of business on October 19, 2011, there were 69,596,864 shares of NetLogic common stock outstanding. Each stockholder of record is entitled to one vote for each share of NetLogic common stock held as of the close of business on October 19, 2011. The holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of NetLogic common stock on the record date, present in person or by proxy at the Special Meeting, will constitute a quorum for purposes of the Special Meeting.

Proposals. You are being asked to consider and vote on three proposals:

A proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of September 11, 2011, by and among NetLogic, Broadcom Corporation, or Broadcom, and I&N Acquisition Corp., or Merger Sub, a wholly owned subsidiary of Broadcom. We refer to this agreement as the Merger Agreement. See The Merger beginning on page 19, The Merger Agreement beginning on page 53 and Annex A.

A proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to approve the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement. See Special Meeting of NetLogic Stockholders Adjournment beginning on page 17.

A proposal to approve the compensation that may be paid or become payable to NetLogic's named executive officers in connection with the Merger, including the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable. This compensation and the related agreements and understandings are described in the section entitled The Merger Interests of NetLogic's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger Quantification of Golden Parachute Payments and Benefits to Our Named Executive Officers beginning on page 44. You are being asked to vote on this proposal on an advisory (non-binding) basis. See The Merger Interests of NetLogic's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger Advisory Vote on Golden Parachute Compensation beginning on page 46.

Required Vote. Under Delaware law, the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of NetLogic common stock entitled to vote is necessary to adopt the Merger Agreement. Adjournment of the Special Meeting, if necessary for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, may be approved by a majority of the shares of NetLogic common stock present in person or by proxy at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote, whether or not a quorum is present. The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of NetLogic common stock present in person or by proxy at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote, assuming a quorum is present, will constitute approval of the non-binding proposal regarding certain Merger-related executive compensation arrangements.

THE TRANSACTION PARTICIPANTS (Page 18)

NetLogic Microsystems, Inc. NetLogic is a leading fabless semiconductor company that designs, develops and sells proprietary high-performance processors and high speed integrated circuits that are used to enhance the performance, functionality and energy efficiency of advanced mobile wireless infrastructure, data center, enterprise, metro Ethernet, edge and core infrastructure networks.

Broadcom Corporation. Broadcom is a global leader and innovator in semiconductor solutions for wired and wireless communications. Broadcom® products seamlessly deliver voice, video, data and multimedia connectivity in the home, office and mobile environment. Broadcom provides the industry's broadest portfolio of state-of-the-art system-on-a-chip and embedded software solutions.

I&N Acquisition Corp. Merger Sub is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Broadcom and has not engaged in any business or activities other than entering into the Merger Agreement and consummating the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

THE MERGER AND THE MERGER AGREEMENT (Page 19)

The Merger. We are asking our stockholders to consider and vote on the adoption of the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into NetLogic, with NetLogic continuing as the surviving corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Broadcom. We refer to this as the Merger. See The Merger Agreement The Merger beginning on page 53.

Merger Consideration. If the Merger is completed, you will receive $50.00 in cash, without interest and subject to any applicable withholding taxes, in exchange for each share of NetLogic common stock that you own. We refer to this $50.00 cash amount as the Merger Consideration. After the Merger is completed, you will have the right to receive the Merger Consideration, but you will no longer be or have any rights as a NetLogic stockholder or as a stockholder of the surviving corporation. See The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration beginning on page 54.

Treatment of Stock Options. At the effective time of the Merger, all in-the-money stock options (whether or not vested) to acquire NetLogic common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger that are held by NetLogic employees, subject to limited exceptions, will be assumed by Broadcom and converted into and become stock options to purchase shares of Broadcom common stock according to formulas set forth in the Merger Agreement. All other in-the-money stock options will be cashed out based on the excess of $50.00 over the exercise price per share of the option, less any required withholdings. See The Merger Agreement Treatment of Stock Options, Restricted Stock Units and Other Equity Awards Stock Options beginning on page 54.

Treatment of Restricted Stock Units. At the effective time of the Merger, all unvested restricted stock units, or RSUs, outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger that are held by NetLogic employees, subject to limited exceptions, will be converted into and become RSUs for Broadcom common stock. Subject to certain exceptions, all other unvested RSUs will be cashed out at the rate of $50.00 per unvested share. See The Merger Agreement Treatment of Stock Options, Restricted Stock Units and Other Equity Awards Restricted Stock Units beginning on page 55.

Treatment of Purchase Rights under ESPP. Before the closing date of the Merger, we will determine the date on which the then-current offering period, if any, under our 2004 Employee Stock Purchase Plan, which we refer to as the ESPP, will terminate. Accumulated payroll deductions on that date will be used to purchase the applicable number of shares of NetLogic common stock.

Edgar Filing: NETLOGIC MICROSYSTEMS INC - Form DEFM14A

We will terminate our ESPP no later than immediately prior to the closing date of the Merger. See The Merger Agreement Employee Matters beginning on page 69.

Table of Contents

Our Position as to Fairness of the Merger; Board Recommendation. Our board of directors unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the Merger are fair to, advisable and in the best interests of our stockholders. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that our stockholders vote:

FOR the adoption of the Merger Agreement;

FOR the adjournment of the Special Meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies; and

FOR the approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the compensation that may be paid or become payable to NetLogic's named executive officers in connection with the Merger, including the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable.

See The Merger NetLogic's Board of Directors Reasons for Approval of the Merger beginning on page 28 and The Merger Recommendation of NetLogic's Board of Directors beginning on page 31.

Opinion of NetLogic's Financial Advisor. We retained Qatalyst Partners LP, which we refer to as Qatalyst Partners or Qatalyst, to act as our financial advisor in connection with the Merger. We selected Qatalyst Partners to act as our financial advisor based on Qatalyst Partners' qualifications, expertise, reputation and knowledge of our business and affairs and the industry in which we operate. On September 11, 2011, Qatalyst Partners rendered to our board of directors its written opinion that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the considerations, limitations and other matters set forth therein, the consideration to be received by the holders of NetLogic common stock (other than Broadcom or any affiliate of Broadcom) pursuant to the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. The full text of the written opinion of Qatalyst Partners is attached to this proxy statement as Annex B and is incorporated into this proxy statement by reference. The opinion sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications of the review undertaken by Qatalyst Partners in rendering its opinion. You should read the opinion carefully in its entirety. Qatalyst Partners' opinion was provided to our board of directors and addressed only, as of the date of the opinion, the fairness from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by the holders of NetLogic common stock (other than Broadcom or any affiliate of Broadcom) in the Merger. It does not address any other aspect of the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation as to how any of our stockholders should vote with respect to the Merger or any matter. For a further discussion of Qatalyst Partners' opinion, see The Merger Opinion of NetLogic's Financial Advisor beginning on page 31.

Interests of Our Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger. In considering the recommendation of our board of directors in favor of the Merger, our stockholders should be aware that our executive officers and directors may have interests in the Merger that are different from or in addition to the interests of our stockholders in general. The members of our board of directors were aware of such interests when deciding to approve and recommend the Merger Agreement and the Merger. Such interests relate to, or arise from, among other things, (1) the conversion at the effective time of the Merger of stock options and RSUs held by our executive officers into stock options and RSUs to acquire Broadcom common stock, (2) the conversion of stock options and RSUs held by our non-employee directors into the right to receive cash at the effective time of the Merger, (3) the employment offer letters between Broadcom and three of our executive officers and the proposed grant of new equity awards by Broadcom to two of our executive officers in connection with the Merger, (4) the entitlement of our executive officers to certain severance or change-in-control benefits (including vesting acceleration under some circumstances) in connection with the Merger pursuant to certain agreements with us or Broadcom and (5) the fact that, with respect to pre-Merger acts and omissions, Broadcom will cause the surviving corporation to continue to provide indemnification and directors' and officers' insurance coverage to our current and former officers and directors after the Merger. In addition, as of the close of business on October 19, 2011, the record date for the Special Meeting, our executive officers and directors and their respective affiliates owned, in the aggregate, 4,260,658 shares of our common stock, or approximately 6.1% of the outstanding shares of our common stock. See The Merger Interests of NetLogic's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger beginning on page 38 and Special Meeting of NetLogic Stockholders Stock Ownership and Interests of Certain Persons beginning on page 16.

Restrictions on Solicitation. The Merger Agreement contains restrictions on our ability to solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations with third parties regarding specified transactions involving our company or our subsidiaries. Notwithstanding these restrictions, under certain limited circumstances, our board of directors may respond to an unsolicited written bona fide takeover proposal or terminate the Merger Agreement and enter into an acquisition agreement with respect to a superior offer to acquire us. See The Merger Agreement Covenants No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals beginning on page 61 and The Merger Agreement Change of Board Recommendation beginning on page 63.

Conditions to the Merger. Completion of the Merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions, including:

the adoption of the Merger Agreement by our stockholders;

the expiration or termination of any waiting period applicable to the Merger required under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, or the HSR Act, and the receipt of the affirmative approval or clearance of governmental entities required under the competition laws of China and Taiwan;

no material adverse effect on NetLogic shall have occurred after the date of the Merger Agreement that is continuing;

all of our representations and warranties being true and correct (disregarding all materiality or material adverse effect qualifications), in each case as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the closing date of the Merger (except that the accuracy of representations and warranties that by their terms address matters only as of a specified time will be determined as of that time) except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, has not nor would it reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect as defined in the Merger Agreement; provided that the representations and warranties with respect to our capital structure must be true and correct as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the closing date of the Merger other than such inaccuracies that would not increase the specified consideration paid by Broadcom in connection with the Merger by more than a de minimis amount;

we shall not have materially breached or failed to perform or comply in any material respects with any of our agreements, obligations or covenants under the Merger Agreement;

the absence of any temporary restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction, or other judgment issued by a court of competent jurisdiction or other law or legal requirement that has the effect of making the Merger illegal or otherwise prohibiting or preventing the consummation of the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; and the absence of any pending or threatened suit, action or proceeding asserted by a governmental entity with respect to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including actions that prohibit the consummation of the Merger or limit Broadcom's ownership or operation of us following the consummation of the Merger.

See The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Closing of the Merger beginning on page 65.

Termination of the Merger Agreement. We and Broadcom may agree to terminate the Merger Agreement at any time without completing the Merger, whether before or after the adoption of the Merger Agreement by our stockholders. Under certain circumstances, prior to the closing of the Merger, either we or Broadcom may terminate the Merger Agreement without the consent of the other party. See The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 67.

Termination Fee. Under certain circumstances in connection with the termination of the Merger Agreement, we will be required to pay Broadcom a termination fee of $127 million. See The Merger Agreement Termination Fee and Expenses beginning on page 68.

Regulatory Approvals Required. In addition to the required stockholder approval discussed above, the Merger is subject to review under the HSR Act. Pre-merger filings and governmental clearances are also required in certain foreign jurisdictions, including China and Taiwan. See The Merger Governmental and Regulatory Clearances beginning on page 51 and The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Closing of the Merger beginning on page 65.

Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger. The receipt of cash pursuant to the Merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, a holder of our common stock generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference, if any, between (1) the amount of cash received by the holder in the Merger and (2) the holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of our common stock converted into cash in the Merger. If you are a U.S. holder, you will generally be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain recognized in the Merger. If you are a non-U.S. holder, you will generally not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain recognized in the Merger unless you have certain connections to the United States. However, the tax consequences of the Merger to you will depend upon your own particular circumstances. You should consult your tax advisor in order to understand fully how the Merger will affect you, including the applicability of U.S. federal, state, local, non-U.S. and other tax laws. See The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 49.

Anticipated Closing of the Merger. The Merger will be completed after all of the conditions to completion of the Merger are satisfied or waived, including the adoption of the Merger Agreement by our stockholders, subject to Broadcom's right to defer the closing under limited circumstances. We currently expect the Merger to be completed in the first half of 2012, although we cannot assure completion by any particular date, if at all. See The Merger Effective Time; Closing beginning on page 53.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS (Page 71)

Holders of our common stock who do not vote in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement will have the right to seek appraisal of the fair value of their shares as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery if the Merger is completed, but only if they submit a written demand for appraisal to NetLogic before the vote is taken on the Merger Agreement and they comply with all applicable requirements of Delaware law, which are summarized in this proxy statement. This appraisal amount could be more than, the same as or less than the amount a stockholder would be entitled to receive under the terms of the Merger Agreement. Any holder of our common stock intending to exercise their appraisal rights must, among other things, submit a written demand for appraisal to us prior to the vote on the adoption of the Merger Agreement and must not vote or otherwise submit a proxy in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement. See Appraisal Rights beginning on page 71 and Annex C Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

MARKET PRICES AND DIVIDEND DATA (Page 77)

Our common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol NETL. On September 9, 2011, the last trading day before the date on which the proposed transaction with Broadcom was publicly announced, the closing price of our common stock was $31.91 per share. The Merger Consideration of $50.00 per share provides a premium of 57% over the market price per share at market close on September 9, 2011. We did not declare or pay any cash dividends on our common stock during the three most recent fiscal years. See Market Prices and Dividend Information beginning on page 77.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SPECIAL MEETING

The following Q&A is intended to address some commonly asked questions regarding the Special Meeting and the Merger. These questions and answers may not address all questions that may be important to you as a NetLogic stockholder. We urge you to read carefully the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this proxy statement, the annexes to this proxy statement and the documents we refer to in this proxy statement.

Except as otherwise specifically noted in this proxy statement, NetLogic, we, our, us and similar words in this proxy statement refer to NetLogic Microsystems, Inc. (with its subsidiaries). In addition, throughout this proxy statement, we refer to I&N Acquisition Corp. as Merger Sub and to Broadcom Corporation as Broadcom.

The Special Meeting

Q: What am I being asked to vote on?

A: NetLogic has entered into a definitive agreement with Broadcom and Merger Sub pursuant to which Broadcom proposes to acquire us through the merger of Merger Sub with and into NetLogic. If the Merger is consummated, we will be the surviving corporation and will continue as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Broadcom. In connection with the proposed Merger, you are being asked to consider and vote on:

1. A proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement. See The Merger beginning on page 19, The Merger Agreement beginning on page 53 and Annex A.
2. A proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting to a later date, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement if there are insufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement. See Special Meeting of NetLogic Stockholders Adjournment beginning on page 17.
3. A non-binding proposal to approve the compensation that may be paid or become payable to NetLogic's named executive officers in connection with the Merger, including the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable. See The Merger Interests of NetLogic's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger Advisory Vote on Golden Parachute Compensation beginning on page 46.

Q: When and where is the Special Meeting?

A: The Special Meeting will be held at 8:00 a.m. Pacific Time, on November 22, 2011, at the Santa Clara Convention Center located at 5001 Great America Parkway, Santa Clara, California 95054. See Special Meeting of NetLogic Stockholders beginning on page 14.

Q: May I attend the Special Meeting?

A: All stockholders as of the close of business on October 19, 2011, the record date for the Special Meeting, may attend the Special Meeting. If you own your shares directly and are listed as a stockholder of record on October 19, 2011, you will be admitted to the meeting with proof of identification. If you are a beneficial owner and your shares are held in street name (in the name of your bank, broker or other nominee), you must bring to the meeting either a copy of the voting instruction card provided by your bank, broker or other nominee or an account statement or other letter from the bank, broker or other nominee indicating you were the beneficial owner of the shares on October 19, 2011. If you are a beneficial owner of shares held in street name and wish to vote at the meeting, however, you will also need to obtain a valid legal proxy from your bank, broker or other nominee giving you the right to vote your shares at the meeting.

Q: How does NetLogic's board of directors recommend that I vote?

A: Our board of directors unanimously recommends that our stockholders vote FOR the adoption of the Merger Agreement, FOR the adjournment of the Special Meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies and FOR the approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the compensation that may be paid or become payable to NetLogic's named executive officers in connection with the Merger, including the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable.

The Proposed Merger

Q: What will I receive in the Merger?

A: Following the completion of the Merger, you will receive $50.00 in cash, without interest and subject to any applicable withholding taxes, in exchange for each share of our common stock that you own (except to the extent you properly exercise appraisal rights under the Delaware General Corporation Law, or DGCL). We refer to this $50.00 cash amount as the Merger Consideration. For example, if you own 100 shares of our common stock, you will receive $5,000.00 in cash in exchange for your shares of common stock, less any applicable withholding taxes. You will not own any shares in the surviving corporation. See The Merger Agreement beginning on page 53.

Q: When should I send in my stock certificates?

A: Once the Merger is completed, if you are a stockholder of record, you will be sent a letter of transmittal and other documents to complete and return to a paying agent designated by Broadcom. In order to receive the Merger Consideration as soon as reasonably practicable following the completion of the Merger, you must send the paying agent your validly completed letter of transmittal and other required documents together with your stock certificates as instructed in the separate mailing. You should NOT send your stock certificates now.

Q: When can I expect to receive the Merger Consideration for my shares?

A: Once the Merger is completed, you will be sent a letter of transmittal and other documents to be completed and delivered to the paying agent in order to receive the Merger Consideration. Once you have submitted your properly completed letter of transmittal, stock certificates and other required documents to the paying agent, the paying agent will send you the Merger Consideration.

Q: I do not know where my stock certificate is. How will I get my cash?

A: The materials the paying agent will send you after completion of the Merger will include the procedures that you must follow if you cannot locate your stock certificate. This will include an affidavit that you will need to sign attesting to the loss of your certificate. Broadcom may also require that you provide a bond in order to cover any potential claim that may be made against the surviving corporation with respect to such certificate.

Q: What will happen to NetLogic's stock options and restricted stock unit (RSU) awards?

A: At the effective time of the Merger:

Edgar Filing: NETLOGIC MICROSYSTEMS INC - Form DEFM14A

all in-the-money stock options to acquire NetLogic common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger held by NetLogic employees, subject to limited exceptions, will be converted into and become stock options to purchase shares of Broadcom common stock according to formulas set forth in the Merger Agreement;

all other in-the-money stock options will be cashed out based on the excess of $50.00 over the exercise price per share of the option;

Table of Contents

all unvested RSUs outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger held by NetLogic employees, subject to limited exceptions, will be converted into and become RSUs for Broadcom common stock; and all other unvested RSUs will be cashed out at the rate of $50.00 per unvested share.

Q: What will happen to purchase rights under the NetLogic 2004 Employee Stock Purchase Plan?

A: We will terminate our ESPP no later than immediately prior to the closing date of the Merger. Before the closing date of the Merger, we will determine the date on which the then-current offering period, if any, will terminate. Accumulated payroll deductions on that date will be used to purchase the applicable number of shares of NetLogic common stock.

Q: How does the Merger Consideration compare to the market price of NetLogic common stock?

A: The Merger Consideration of $50.00 per share of NetLogic common stock represents a 57% premium over the closing price of our shares on the NASDAQ Global Select Market on September 9, 2011, the last trading day before the date the proposed transaction with Broadcom was publicly announced, which was $31.91; a 69% premium over our average closing share price for the 20-trading-day period ended September 9, 2011, which was $29.62; and a 16% premium over the highest closing price of our common stock during the 52-week period ended September 9, 2011, which was $43.28 on May 2, 2011. The closing sale price of our common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market on October 19, 2011 was $48.61. You are encouraged to obtain current market quotations for NetLogic common stock in connection with voting your shares.

Q: Are stockholders entitled to seek appraisal rights if they do not vote in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement?

A: Stockholders are entitled to appraisal rights under Delaware law by following the procedures and satisfying the requirements specified in Section 262 of the DGCL. A copy of Section 262 of the DGCL is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement. See Appraisal Rights beginning on page 71.

Q: Will the Merger be taxable to me?

A: The receipt of cash pursuant to the Merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, a holder of our common stock generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference, if any, between (1) the amount of cash received by the holder in the Merger and (2) the holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of our common stock converted into cash in the Merger. If you are a U.S. holder, you will generally be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain recognized in the Merger. If you are a non-U.S. holder, you will generally not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain recognized in the Merger unless you have certain connections to the United States, but the Merger may be a taxable transaction to you under non-U.S. federal income tax laws, and you are encouraged to seek tax advice regarding such matters. As individual circumstances may differ, we recommend that you consult your own tax advisor to determine the particular tax effects to you, including the applicability of U.S. federal, state, local, non-U.S. and other tax laws. See The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 49.

Q: When do you expect the Merger to be completed?

A:

Edgar Filing: NETLOGIC MICROSYSTEMS INC - Form DEFM14A

We expect the Merger to be completed in the first half of 2012. However, the Merger is subject to various closing conditions, including, without limitation, approval by our stockholders and regulatory approvals, and it is possible that the failure to timely meet these closing conditions or other factors outside of our control could require us to complete the Merger at a later time or not at all.

Voting and Proxy Procedures

Q: Who can vote at the Special Meeting?

A: All stockholders of record at the close of business on October 19, 2011, the record date for the Special Meeting, will be entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. If on that date, your shares were registered directly in your name with our transfer agent, Wells Fargo Shareowner Services, then you are a stockholder of record. As a stockholder of record, you may vote in person at the Special Meeting or vote by proxy. If on that date, your shares were held in an account at a brokerage firm, bank, dealer or similar organization, then you are the beneficial owner of shares held in street name and these proxy materials are being forwarded to you by that organization. The organization holding your account is considered the stockholder of record for purposes of voting at the Special Meeting. As a beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your bank, broker or other agent on how to vote the shares in your account. You are also invited to attend the Special Meeting. However, since you are not the stockholder of record, you may not vote your shares in person at the Special Meeting unless you request and obtain a valid proxy from your bank, broker or other agent. See Special Meeting of NetLogic Stockholders beginning on page 14.

Q: How are votes counted?

A: Votes will be counted by the inspector of election appointed for the Special Meeting, who will separately count For and Against votes, abstentions and broker non-votes. A broker non-vote occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not receive instructions with respect to the Merger proposal from the beneficial owner. Because under Delaware law, the adoption of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of our outstanding shares of common stock, broker non-votes and abstentions will have the same effect as a vote Against the adoption of the Merger Agreement. Broker non-votes and abstentions are counted as present for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present. With respect to the adjournment proposal and the non-binding proposal to approve certain Merger-related executive compensation, an abstention will have the same effect as a vote Against the proposal and a broker non-vote will have no effect on the outcome.

Q: How many votes are required to adopt the Merger Agreement?

A: Under Delaware law, the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of our outstanding shares of common stock as of the close of business on October 19, 2011, the record date for the Special Meeting, is required to adopt the Merger Agreement. As of the close of business on the record date, there were 69,596,864 shares of our common stock outstanding. This means that under Delaware law, 34,798,433 shares or more must vote FOR the adoption of the Merger Agreement. See Special Meeting of NetLogic Stockholders beginning on page 14.

Q: How many votes are required to approve any adjournment of the Special Meeting?

A: Adjournment of the Special Meeting, if necessary for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, may be approved by a majority of the shares of NetLogic common stock present in person or by proxy at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote, whether or not a quorum is present. See Special Meeting of NetLogic Stockholders beginning on page 14.

Q: What constitutes approval on an advisory basis of the compensation for named executive officers related to the Merger that is described in the proxy statement?

A: The affirmative vote of at least a majority of shares of NetLogic common stock represented in person or by proxy at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote on the matter would constitute approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the compensation that may be paid or become payable to NetLogic s named

executive officers in connection with the Merger, including the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, as described in the section entitled "The Merger: Interests of NetLogic's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger: Quantification of Golden Parachute Payments and Benefits to Our Named Executive Officers." See "Special Meeting of NetLogic Stockholders" beginning on page 14 and "The Merger: Interests of NetLogic's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger: Advisory Vote on Golden Parachute Compensation" beginning on page 46.

Q: What will happen if our stockholders do not approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation payable to NetLogic's named executive officers in connection with the Merger?

A: The vote on executive compensation that may be paid or become payable to our named executive officers in connection with the Merger is a vote separate and apart from the vote to adopt the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, you may vote to approve the executive compensation and vote not to adopt the Merger Agreement and vice versa. Because this vote is advisory in nature only, it will not be binding on either NetLogic or Broadcom. Accordingly, because NetLogic is contractually obligated to pay, or Broadcom will be obligated to pay, this compensation if the Merger Agreement is adopted and the Merger is completed, the compensation will be payable, subject only to the conditions applicable thereto, regardless of the outcome of the advisory vote.

Q: How many votes do I have?

A: You have one vote for each share of our common stock you own as of the close of business on October 19, 2011, the record date for the Special Meeting.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Your broker will vote your shares only if you provide instructions to your broker on how to vote. You should instruct your broker to vote your shares by following the directions provided to you by your broker. See "Special Meeting of NetLogic Stockholders" beginning on page 14.

Q: What if I fail to instruct my broker?

A: Without instructions, your broker will not vote any of your shares held in street name. Broker non-votes will be counted for the purpose of determining the presence or absence of a quorum, but will not be deemed votes cast and will have exactly the same effect as a vote "Against" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement. Broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting, if necessary, and will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal to approve certain executive compensation arrangements related to the Merger.

Q: Will my shares held in street name or another form of record ownership be combined for voting purposes with shares I hold of record?

A: No. Because any shares you may hold in street name will be deemed to be held by a different stockholder than any shares you hold of record, any shares so held will not be combined for voting purposes with shares you hold of record. Similarly, if you own shares in various registered forms, such as jointly with your spouse, as trustee of a trust or as custodian for a minor, you will receive, and will need to sign and return, a separate proxy card, or separately vote via the Internet or by telephone, for those shares because they are held in a different form of record ownership. Shares held by a corporation or business entity must be voted by an authorized officer of the entity. Shares held in an IRA must be voted under the rules governing the account.

Q: What happens if I do not vote?

A: Because the vote required to approve the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement is based on the total number of shares of our common stock outstanding on the record date, and not just the shares that are voted, if you do not vote, it will have the same effect as a vote Against the adoption of the Merger Agreement. If the Merger is completed, whether or not you vote for the adoption of the Merger Agreement, you will be paid the Merger Consideration for your shares of our common stock upon completion of the Merger, unless you properly exercise your appraisal rights. See Special Meeting of NetLogic Stockholders beginning on page 14, Appraisal Rights beginning on page 71 and Annex C Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

Q: How do I vote if I am a stockholder of record?

A: You may vote:

by completing, signing and dating each proxy card you receive and returning it in the enclosed postage-paid envelope;

by using the Internet voting instructions printed on your proxy card;

by using the telephone voting instructions printed on your proxy card; or in person by appearing at the Special Meeting.

If you are voting via the Internet or by telephone, your voting instructions must be received by 12:00 p.m. Central Time on the date prior to the date of the Special Meeting.

Voting via the Internet, by telephone or by mailing in your proxy card will not prevent you from voting in person at the Special Meeting. You are encouraged to submit a proxy by mail, via the Internet or by telephone even if you plan to attend the Special Meeting in person to ensure that your shares of our common stock are present in person or represented at the Special Meeting.

If you return your signed proxy card, but do not mark the box showing how you wish to vote, your shares will be voted FOR the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, FOR the adoption of the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies and FOR the advisory vote on executive compensation related to the Merger. With respect to any other matter that properly comes before the Special Meeting, shares represented by all proxies received by NetLogic will be voted with respect thereto in accordance with the best judgment of the persons named as attorneys in the proxies.

Q: May I change my vote after I have mailed in my proxy card?

A: Yes. You may change your vote at any time before we vote your proxy at the Special Meeting. If you are a stockholder of record, you can do so in one of three ways:

by sending a written notice of revocation prior to the Special Meeting to our Secretary at NetLogic Microsystems, Inc., 3975 Freedom Circle, Santa Clara, California 95054;

by submitting another proxy executed at a later date; or by attending the Special Meeting and voting in person.

To change your vote using the first two methods described above, we must receive your revocation or later-dated proxy before the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement is voted on at the Special Meeting. You should send any written notice or request for a new proxy card to our Secretary at the above address. Voting by mailing in your proxy card, or voting via the Internet or by telephone will not prevent you from voting in person at the Special Meeting. You are encouraged to submit a proxy by mail, via the Internet or by telephone, even if you plan to attend the Special Meeting in person. If your shares are held in the name of a bank, broker or other agent, you must follow instructions received from such bank, broker or other agent with this proxy statement in order to revoke your vote or to vote at the Special Meeting. See Special Meeting of NetLogic Stockholders beginning on page 14.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: We encourage you to read this proxy statement carefully, including each of the annexes, and consider how the Merger might affect you. We encourage you to respond by voting your shares through one of the following means: indicating your vote on your proxy card and signing and mailing your proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope or voting via the Internet or by telephone as soon as possible as instructed in these materials or, to the extent you are not a holder of record, by your bank, broker or other agent, so that your shares may be represented at the Special Meeting. Holders of record may also vote in person by attending the Special Meeting and submitting their votes in person. The meeting will take place at 8:00 a.m. Pacific Time, on November 22, 2011, at the Santa Clara Convention Center located at 5001 Great America Parkway, Santa Clara, California 95054. See Special Meeting of NetLogic Stockholders beginning on page 14.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares of common stock before the Special Meeting?

A: The record date for stockholders entitled to vote at the Special Meeting is earlier than the date of the Special Meeting. If you transfer your shares of our common stock after the record date but before the Special Meeting, you will, unless special arrangements are made, retain your right to vote at the Special Meeting but will transfer the right to receive the Merger Consideration to the person to whom you transfer your shares.

Q: Who can answer further questions?

A: If you would like additional copies of this proxy statement or a new proxy card or if you have questions about the Merger, you should contact our Secretary at NetLogic Microsystems, Inc., 3975 Freedom Circle, Santa Clara, California 95054. You may also contact our proxy solicitor, MacKenzie Partners, Inc., at 800-322-2885 (toll-free) or 212-929-5500 (call collect) or via e-mail at proxy@mackenziepartners.com.

The forward-looking statements are subject to various risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements. Generally, these forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as anticipate, believe, estimate, expect, forecast, intend, plan, project, should and similar expressions. Factors that may affect forward-looking statements include, among other things:

the risk that various conditions to the closing of the Merger may not be satisfied or waived, including that a governmental entity may prohibit, delay or refuse to grant approval for the consummation of the Merger, the risk that our stockholders fail to adopt the Merger Agreement, the risk that the Merger is not completed for any other reason, the risk that required governmental and regulatory approvals or clearances may delay the Merger or result in the imposition of conditions that could cause Broadcom to abandon the Merger, the outcome of any legal proceedings challenging the Merger, the risk that the Merger Agreement may be terminated in circumstances that require us to pay Broadcom a termination fee of $127 million in connection therewith, the risk that, if the Merger Agreement is terminated, the public announcement of such termination may have an adverse effect on the trading price of our common stock and our operating results, particularly in light of the costs incurred in connection with the transaction, the risk that our relationships with our customers, suppliers or other business partners will be harmed by the announcement of the Merger or disruptions caused by the Merger, whether completed or not, the diversion of management time on issues related to the Merger, risks regarding a loss of or a substantial decrease in purchases by our major customers, risks regarding employee retention, the amount of the costs, fees, expenses and charges related to the Merger, and other risks detailed in our current and periodic filings with the SEC, including our most recent filings on Form 10-K and Form 10-Q, which discuss other important risk factors concerning our operations.

We caution you that reliance on any forward-looking statement involves risks and uncertainties, and that although we believe that the assumptions on which our forward-looking statements are based are reasonable, any of those assumptions could prove to be inaccurate, and as a result, the forward-looking statements based on those assumptions could be incorrect. SPECIAL MEETING OF NETLOGIC STOCKHOLDERS

General; Date, Time and Place

This proxy statement is being furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies on behalf of NetLogic's board of directors for use at a Special Meeting of the NetLogic stockholders to be held at 8:00 a.m. Pacific Time, on November 22, 2011, or at any adjournments or postponements thereof. The Special Meeting will be held at the Santa Clara Convention Center located at 5001 Great America Parkway, Santa Clara, California 95054. If you need directions to the location of the Special Meeting in order to attend the meeting and vote in person, please contact NetLogic's Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary, Roland Cortes, at (408) 454-3000.

Purpose of Meeting

The purpose of the Special Meeting is for our stockholders to consider and vote on a proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A. In the event there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to approve the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, stockholders will also be asked to vote upon a proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies.

In addition, our stockholders will be asked to consider and vote, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, on a proposal to approve the compensation that may be paid or become payable to NetLogic's named executive officers in connection with the Merger, including the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable.

On September 11, 2011, our board of directors unanimously determined that the Merger and the Merger Agreement are fair to and advisable and in the best interests of our stockholders and approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Merger.

Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the adoption of the Merger Agreement, FOR the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to approve the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement and FOR the non-binding proposal regarding certain Merger-related executive compensation arrangements.

We do not expect a vote to be taken on any other matters at the Special Meeting. If any other matters are properly presented at the Special Meeting for consideration, however, the holders of the proxies, if properly authorized, will have discretion to vote on these matters in accordance with their best judgment.

Record Date; Voting Information

The record date for the Special Meeting is October 19, 2011. If you were a stockholder of record of our common stock at the close of business on the record date, you are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Special Meeting and any adjournments thereof. At the close of business on the record date, 69,596,864 shares of our common stock were outstanding and entitled to vote. Each stockholder of record is entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to the stockholders for each share of our common stock held as of the record date.

Appointment of Proxy Holders

Our board of directors asks you to appoint Ronald Jankov, our President and Chief Executive Officer, and Roland Cortes, our Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary, as your proxy holders to vote your shares at the Special Meeting. You make this appointment by completing the enclosed proxy card using one of the voting methods described below. An automated system administered by our transfer agent, Wells Fargo Shareowner Services, tabulates stockholder votes submitted by proxy, and Wells Fargo Shareowner Services will also tabulate votes cast in person at the Special Meeting.

Table of Contents

If appointed by you, your proxy holders will vote your shares as you direct on the matters described in this proxy statement. In the absence of your direction, they will vote your shares as recommended by our board of directors.

Unless you otherwise indicate on the proxy card, you also authorize your proxy holders to vote your shares on any matters not known by our board of directors at the time this proxy statement was printed and which, under our bylaws, may be properly presented for consideration at the Special Meeting.

Voting Procedures

You may vote your shares at the Special Meeting either in person or as described below. If you hold shares through a bank, broker or other agent (typically referred to as being held in street name), you will receive instructions from your bank, broker or other agent that must be followed in order for your bank, broker or other agent to vote your shares per your instructions. Many banks and brokerage firms have a process for their beneficial holders to provide instructions via the Internet or by telephone.

If your shares are registered in your own name, you may vote your shares as described below.

Voting by Mail. You may vote by proxy by dating, signing and returning your proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. Giving a proxy will not affect your right to vote your shares if you attend the Special Meeting and want to vote in person.

Voting over the Internet. You may submit proxies over the Internet by following the instructions on the proxy card. Giving a proxy will not affect your right to vote your shares if you attend the Special Meeting and want to vote in person.

Voting by Telephone. Stockholders who live in the United States or Canada may submit proxies over the telephone by following the instructions on the proxy card. Giving a proxy will not affect your right to vote your shares if you attend the Special Meeting and want to vote in person.

Voting at the Special Meeting. You may vote at the Special Meeting, if you decide to attend in person. However, our board of directors recommends that you vote via the Internet, by telephone or by mail as it is not practical for most stockholders to attend the Special Meeting. Voting via the Internet, by telephone or by mail will not limit your right to vote at the Special Meeting, if you decide to attend in person. If you hold shares through a bank, broker or other agent, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the bank, broker or other agent to be able to vote at the Special Meeting.

If you submit your proxy, but do not indicate your voting preference, the proxy holders will vote your shares FOR the adoption of the Merger Agreement, FOR the approval of the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to approve the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement and FOR the non-binding proposal regarding certain Merger-related executive compensation arrangements.

If you hold your shares in street name, you should have received a proxy card and voting instructions with these proxy materials from your bank, broker or other agent rather than from NetLogic. Simply complete and return the proxy card to your bank, broker or other agent to ensure that your vote is counted. Alternatively, if offered by your bank, broker or other agent, you may vote via the Internet or by telephone as instructed by your bank, broker or other agent. To vote in person at the Special Meeting, you must obtain a valid proxy from your bank, broker or other agent. Follow the instructions from your bank, broker or other agent included with these proxy materials, or contact your bank, broker or other agent to request a proxy card.

Quorum

Shares entitled to vote at the Special Meeting may take action on a matter at the Special Meeting (other than the proposal to adjourn the meeting to a later date) only if a quorum of those shares exists with respect to that matter. The holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock on the record date, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum for purposes of the Special Meeting. A quorum is necessary to hold the Special Meeting. In the event that a quorum is not present at the Special Meeting, it is expected that the meeting will be adjourned or postponed to solicit additional proxies. Any shares of our common stock held in treasury by NetLogic or held by any of our subsidiaries are not considered to be outstanding for purposes of determining a quorum. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted as shares present and entitled to vote for the purposes of determining a quorum. Broker non-votes result when brokers are precluded from exercising their voting discretion with respect to the approval of non-routine matters such as the adoption of the Merger Agreement, and, thus, absent specific instructions from the beneficial owner of those shares, brokers are not empowered to vote the shares with respect to the approval of those matters.

Required Votes

You may vote FOR or AGAINST, or you may ABSTAIN from voting on, the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement. Consummation of the Merger requires the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding NetLogic shares entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. BECAUSE ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT REQUIRES THE APPROVAL OF HOLDERS REPRESENTING A MAJORITY OF THE OUTSTANDING SHARES OF OUR COMMON STOCK, FAILURE TO VOTE YOUR SHARES (INCLUDING IF YOU HOLD YOUR SHARES THROUGH A BANK, BROKER OR OTHER AGENT) WILL HAVE THE SAME EFFECT AS A VOTE AGAINST THE ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT.

The adoption of the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting to a later time, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares of NetLogic common stock represented in person or by proxy at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote on the matter, even if a quorum is not present at the Special Meeting. Therefore, if you abstain, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the adoption of the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting. Broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal. No proxy voted against adoption of the Merger Agreement will be voted in favor of any adjournment of the Special Meeting.

The compensation that may be paid or become payable to NetLogic's named executive officers in connection with the Merger, including the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, as described in the section entitled The Merger Interests of NetLogic's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger Quantification of Golden Parachute Payments and Benefits to Our Named Executive Officers on page 44 of this proxy statement, will be approved on a non-binding (advisory) basis if the holders of at least a majority of the shares of NetLogic common stock represented in person or by proxy at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote on the matter vote FOR the proposal. Therefore, if you abstain, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the approval of the compensation that may be paid or become payable to NetLogic's named executive officers in connection with the Merger, including the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable. Broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal.

Under Delaware law, holders of shares of our common stock are entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the Merger. In order to exercise appraisal rights, you must comply with all applicable requirements of Delaware law, including submitting a written demand for appraisal rights to us before the vote is taken on the Merger Agreement. See Appraisal Rights beginning on page 71 and Annex C for information on the requirements of Delaware law regarding appraisal rights.

Stock Ownership and Interests of Certain Persons

As of the close of business on October 19, 2011, the record date for the Special Meeting, our directors and executive officers and their respective affiliates owned, in the aggregate, 4,260,658 shares of our common stock, or collectively approximately 6.1% of the outstanding shares of our common stock. Adjournment

In addition to the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement and the non-binding proposal regarding certain Merger-related executive compensation arrangements, stockholders are also being asked to approve a proposal that will give us authority to adjourn the Special Meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to approve the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement. You should note that if this proposal is approved, the Special Meeting could be successively adjourned to any date. In addition, even if this proposal is not approved, the board of directors could postpone the meeting before it commences, whether for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies or for other reasons. If the Special Meeting is adjourned for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, stockholders who have already submitted their proxies will be able to revoke them at any time prior to their use. If you return a proxy and do not indicate how you wish to vote on any proposal, or if you indicate that you wish to vote in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement but do not indicate a choice on the proposal to authorize adjournments, your shares will be voted in favor of the proposal to authorize adjournments; however, if you indicate that you wish to vote against the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, your shares will only be voted in favor of the proposal to authorize adjournments if you indicate that you wish to vote in favor of that proposal.

Our board of directors recommends a vote FOR this proposal.

THE MERGER

We urge you to read this proxy statement, the Merger Agreement and the other documents referred to herein carefully for a complete understanding of the Merger.*

Background of the Merger

We commenced a commercial relationship with Broadcom in 2004 when we began working together to ensure that our mutual customers could efficiently use our NL5512GLQ knowledge-based processor and Broadcom's BCM 5660x GbE multilayer switch together. We expanded the relationship in 2007 with a similar collaboration with respect to the next generation of each of those respective products, our NL 5661x knowledge-based processor and Broadcom's 100-Gbps Ethernet multilayer switch. Apart from discussions and negotiations concerning the Merger, we have continued to work with Broadcom on several additional technical and co-marketing arrangements involving some of our knowledge-based processors, multi-core processors and Broadcom's switching products and network processors.

Our first indication that Broadcom had interest in NetLogic beyond a commercial relationship occurred at a January 5, 2011 dinner meeting attended by Mr. Jankov and Broadcom's Senior Vice President & General Manager, Network Switching Business, Infrastructure Networking Group, Martin Lund, which had been scheduled to discuss our commercial relationship. During the meeting, Mr. Lund asked Mr. Jankov whether he would be willing to meet Broadcom's Chief Executive Officer, Scott McGregor, to discuss a more significant business partnership. Mr. Jankov agreed to meet with Mr. McGregor, and on January 8, 2011 Mr. McGregor sent an email to Mr. Jankov proposing a dinner meeting.

On January 19, 2011, Mr. Jankov met Mr. McGregor and Rajiv Ramaswami, Broadcom's Executive Vice President and General Manager, Network Infrastructure Group, for dinner. At that meeting, Mr. McGregor proposed that NetLogic consider a possible all cash acquisition of NetLogic by Broadcom (but made no mention of price). Mr. McGregor suggested that, if discussions proceeded, Broadcom would be prepared to move quickly and further suggested that the parties initiate the process with an executive level due diligence meeting on January 26, 2011.

The next day, Art Chong, Broadcom's Executive Vice President and General Counsel, sent a proposed non-disclosure agreement by email to Roland Cortes, our Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary. Over the next several days, Mr. Chong and Mr. Cortes negotiated a non-disclosure agreement, but the parties did not execute the agreement at that time.

On January 24 and 25, 2011, Mr. Jankov described his recent communications with Broadcom to the Chairman of our board of directors, Len Perham, and Steve Domenik, the Chairman of the compensation committee, in separate conversations. On January 25, 2011, Mr. Jankov also discussed his communications with Broadcom in meetings with Mr. Domenik and Alan Kalin of Bingham McCutchen LLP, or Bingham, outside legal counsel to NetLogic, and with Mr. Cortes and Mr. Kalin.

On January 25, 2011, Mr. Ramaswami sent an email to Mr. Jankov suggesting February 3 or February 5, 2011 as possible dates for a diligence meeting.

On January 25, 2011, Mr. Jankov called Mr. Ramaswami and told him that after considering Broadcom's suggestion, he had concluded that it was not the right time for NetLogic to engage in acquisition discussions. They agreed to remain in contact and perhaps to consider addressing the subject again in three to six months.

Mr. McGregor contacted Mr. Jankov on March 31, 2011 and April 5, 2011 (once by telephone and once by email) to share information and perceptions about the effects of the earthquake and tsunami in Japan on semiconductor companies and economic conditions in the industry generally. In addition, Mr. Jankov and other NetLogic personnel communicated with Broadcom personnel regarding customer opportunities of mutual interest during March and April 2011.

Mr. McGregor emailed Mr. Jankov on May 3, 2011 to suggest that Broadcom was waiting to hear further from NetLogic.

Mr. Jankov called Mr. Ramaswami on May 4, 2011 to suggest proceeding with the previously requested diligence meeting. Mr. Ramaswami said he would ask Mr. McGregor and Henry Samueli, Broadcom's Chief Technical Officer and a member of its board of directors, about their availability for the meeting. On May 5, 2011, he called Mr. Jankov to confirm May 13, 2011 for the diligence meeting, and on May 6, 2011 sent an email to Mr. Jankov proposing a topical agenda for the meeting.

Messrs. Chong and Cortes then corresponded by email and finalized a non-disclosure agreement, which the parties executed on May 10, 2011.

On May 5, 2011, our Executive Vice President and General Manager, Behrooz Abdi, contacted the Chief Executive Officer of Company A by email to determine whether Company A might have interest in exploring a strategic opportunity with us. He received an affirmative reply.

We provided a general diligence presentation to Broadcom at a meeting on May 13, 2011. Mr. Jankov, Michael Tate, our Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Cortes, and Chris O'Reilly, our Vice President of Marketing, attended the meeting. For Broadcom, Messrs. Chong, Samueli, McGregor, Ramaswami, and Lund, Eric Brandt, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Gary Ignatin, Vice President, Corporate Development, John Lenell, Senior Director Networking & Storage Strategy, Network Infrastructure Group, and Chuck Tato, Director, Processor Strategy of Business Development, ESP Broadcom Processor Group attended the meeting. Subsequent to the meeting, we provided additional diligence materials to Broadcom.

Mr. McGregor called Mr. Jankov on May 20, 2011 and said that Broadcom would be interested in a merger acquisition of NetLogic at a price in the mid-to-high $40s.

On May 20, 2011, Mr. Jankov called a special meeting of our board of directors to be held May 23, 2011.

Between May 17, 2011 and May 19, 2011, Mr. Abdi exchanged emails with senior executives at Company A to confirm Company A's interest in learning about the strategic transaction opportunity and scheduled a meeting at NetLogic. On May 20, 2011, Mr. Abdi and Mr. Jankov met with several senior executives of Company A and gave a general business diligence presentation about our company and its products. In a follow-up telephone call on May 21, 2011, one of the Company A executives who attended the May 20 meeting told Mr. Abdi that Company A was interested in holding another meeting to further discuss a strategic transaction opportunity.

Mr. Jankov called Mr. McGregor on May 22, 2011 to inform him that NetLogic's board of directors would meet on May 23 to discuss Broadcom's May 20, 2011 proposal. Mr. Jankov also told Mr. McGregor that he believed the NetLogic board of directors would be interested in discussing a transaction only at a price having the first number of 5, not 4.

Our board of directors held a special meeting on May 23, 2011. All directors attended in person or by telephone conference call. Messrs. Jankov, Tate, Cortes, Niall Bartlett, our Vice President of Corporate Development, and Kelvin Khoo, our Sr. Director of Corporate Development attended the meeting in person, as did a representative of Bingham. At the meeting, Mr. Jankov reviewed the chronology of events with respect to a potential strategic transaction for the company and described his communications with Broadcom, including the informal acquisition proposal expressed by Mr. McGregor on May 20, 2011. Mr. Jankov also described the recent communications with Company A regarding a potential strategic transaction. He identified factors supporting a strategic transaction at this time, as well as factors favoring NetLogic's continuation as a standalone communications integrated circuit solutions provider. Mr. Tate gave a financial presentation which set forth management's assessment of reasonably expectable projections of revenues, operating margins, cash flows, and non-GAAP net income for the balance of 2011 and through 2015. Mr. Tate also presented historical stock price information, comparisons of revenue and price/earning ratio multiples applicable to us and our closest competitors, and to other publicly traded semiconductor companies. In addition, our board of directors, all the members of which have had broad and lengthy careers as executives and investors in the semiconductor industry, together with management, identified other companies that might be considered potential acquirers, in addition to Broadcom and Company A. They narrowed the list to a small number by focusing on companies that both had the financial resources to compete with a Broadcom offer and did not pose such a significant competitive risk that sharing sensitive competitive information with them would be, in the board's view, inadvisable. The Bingham representative summarized the directors' legal duties and responsibilities in considering an unsolicited proposal for a potential acquisition of NetLogic. After management's presentations and the directors' discussion of them, our board of directors expressed a consensus view that an acquisition at an appropriate price could be in the interests of NetLogic's stockholders and that management should take additional steps to determine whether an acquisition at such a price might be achievable. All directors stated that management should not pursue any proposal below $50 per share. Management and the board of directors agreed that the company should engage a financial advisor to help evaluate an appropriate acquisition price and identify other suitable acquirers. Several directors recommended Qatalyst Partners LP based on personal experiences and that firm's recent engagements as advisors for the sale of semiconductor and other technology companies in transactions of comparable size.

After the board of directors meeting, Mr. Tate contacted Qatalyst Partners and scheduled a meeting for May 24, 2011.

On May 23, 2011, we entered into a nondisclosure agreement with Company A and scheduled a diligence review meeting to be held in Santa Clara, California on May 26, 2011.

Mr. Jankov called Mr. McGregor on May 24, 2011 to tell him that our board of directors had met on May 23, and we would be conducting a thorough process to evaluate the Broadcom proposal and other options. He said he would respond to Mr. McGregor's proposal on May 25, 2011.

On May 24, 2011, representatives of Qatalyst met with Messrs. Jankov, Tate, Abdi, Cortes, Khoo, Bartlett, and Domenik, and a representative of Bingham to discuss relevant considerations with respect to an acquisition of NetLogic. Management and the Qatalyst representatives discussed the required attributes of potential acquirers, as well as risks associated with disclosing a potential strategic transaction for NetLogic, and developed a list of three companies to be contacted, including Company A, Company B and Company C, each of which also had been among those our board of directors had discussed at its May 23 meeting. Qatalyst was asked to contact Company B and Company C.

On May 24, 2011, Messrs. Tate and Cortes began negotiating the terms of a proposed engagement letter with Qatalyst.

On May 24 and May 26, 2011, Mr. Tate and Mr. Ignatin exchanged emails regarding due diligence requests by Broadcom.

On May 25, 2011, Mr. Jankov called Mr. McGregor and told him the NetLogic board of directors would proceed to formally evaluate the Broadcom proposal and other options. Mr. Jankov also indicated that our board of directors had an unfavorable reaction to Mr. McGregor's suggested price range.

On May 26, 2011, Messrs. Abdi, Tate, Khoo and Bartlett met with several executives from Company A and presented diligence information about NetLogic.

On May 31, 2011, Mr. Jankov advised Mr. McGregor by telephone that we had engaged Qatalyst to represent us in connection with any potential acquisition.

On June 1, 2011, Mr. Abdi called an executive at Company A and inquired about Company A's reaction to the presentation on May 26, 2011. The Company A executive replied that Company A continued to be interested in a potential strategic transaction but would be unable to react quickly and would require a number of months in order to fully evaluate the transaction.

Mr. Jankov and Mr. McGregor met in New York City on June 1, 2011 while attending a semiconductor investment conference. Mr. McGregor explained the rationale underlying his proposed price range and expressed Broadcom's unwillingness to participate in an auction process. Mr. Jankov replied that our board of directors would be meeting on June 3, 2011, that in his view the company was not for sale and we were not interested in an auction process, but if we decided to engage further with Broadcom on exploring its offer, we would need to have discussions with other potential buyers to gauge valuation. Mr. Jankov and Mr. McGregor agreed to have their next discussion regarding price after our board of directors had considered the matter on June 3, 2011.

A special meeting of our board of directors was held June 3, 2011 to consider the general topic of an acquisition of NetLogic and the desired response, if any, by NetLogic to the Broadcom May 20, 2011 proposal in particular. All directors, including Mr. Jankov, attended the meeting in person, along with Messrs. Tate, Cortes, Abdi, O'Reilly, Bartlett and Khoo, representatives of Bingham and representatives of Qatalyst. Representatives of Qatalyst discussed with the board of directors an overview of financial market conditions applicable to publicly traded companies in NetLogic's industry segment and certain financial information regarding NetLogic. The Qatalyst representatives also discussed whether there were other potential acquirers besides Broadcom at this time. A Qatalyst representative reported that, based on the board's May 23 discussion and the discussion among representatives of management, Qatalyst and Bingham on May 24, Qatalyst had contacted Company B and Company C, and both had said they were not interested in strategic transaction discussions with NetLogic at this time. Messrs. Jankov and Abdi reported that Company A had expressed interest in a strategic transaction discussion but would not do anything further for at least several months. Representatives of Qatalyst, Bingham and management also had a discussion with the board of directors regarding the structural and timing considerations relevant to an acquisition of NetLogic, as well as material non-price terms and issues to consider. Representatives of Qatalyst also discussed financial information about Broadcom and its ability to complete an all cash transaction. After considering the information presented at the meeting, the board of directors expressed a consensus view with management that it would be appropriate to engage in further discussions with Broadcom, if it indicated its willingness to pay an appropriate price. The board of directors authorized Mr. Jankov to advise Broadcom's Chief Executive Officer of his view that the NetLogic board of directors would react favorably to a price per share in the high $50s and that our board of directors would insist that the negotiations proceed quickly. The Bingham representatives gave a presentation regarding preliminary matters of confidentiality and process, the directors' fiduciary duties, the board of directors' ability to rely on competent advisors and management's reports, director liability, applicable standards on judicial review of the board of directors' actions in Delaware courts, deal protection measures, management retention and potential conflicts of interest, and the board of directors' general duty of disclosure to stockholders. The board of directors considered and approved the proposed engagement letter with Qatalyst.

On June 6, 2011, we and Qatalyst executed the Qatalyst engagement letter.

On June 7, 2011, Mr. Jankov called Mr. McGregor and indicated that NetLogic's board of directors could form a consensus to support a transaction if the per share price was in the high $50s. Mr. McGregor expressed disappointment and said he would call Mr. Jankov later.

Mr. McGregor called Mr. Jankov later in the day and said a price in the mid-to-high $40s remained the best price that Broadcom could offer and that the parties seemed very far apart. He remarked that stock market conditions were unfavorable and added that if NetLogic's board of directors would not accept a price in the mid-to-high $40s, the parties should formally disengage. Mr. Jankov said he could provide additional information about NetLogic's business that he believed would support a price in the high $50s and suggested that they both consider their positions for 24 hours. They spoke again by telephone the following day, and as neither party was willing to change its position on price, they agreed to formally terminate the strategic discussions between the two companies.

On June 8, 2011, Mr. McGregor sent a letter to Mr. Jankov formally terminating the parties' discussions. On June 9, 2011, Mr. Cortes sent a letter to Mr. Chong requesting that Broadcom return or destroy all confidential evaluation material of NetLogic provided to Broadcom, as required under the parties' non-disclosure agreement. On July 8, 2011, Broadcom sent a letter to NetLogic certifying the return or destruction of such materials.

Late in the afternoon of June 8, 2011, Mr. Jankov contacted the other board of directors members by email to request a telephonic board of directors meeting the following morning. The board of directors meeting was held by telephone conference call on June 9, 2011. All directors other than Mr. Domenik participated in the call. Messrs. Tate and Cortes and a representative of Bingham also joined the call. Mr. Jankov summarized his conversations with Mr. McGregor on June 7, 2011 and June 8, 2011. Mr. Jankov described the tone of the conversations and Broadcom's letter terminating discussions as cordial. The board of directors expressed a consensus view that in light of Broadcom's statements and letter, all discussions with Broadcom concerning a strategic transaction would be considered terminated.

On August 3, 2011, Mr. McGregor left a voicemail message for Mr. Jankov asking him to return his call. On August 4, 2011, Mr. McGregor and Mr. Jankov spoke by telephone. Mr. McGregor asked whether current stock market conditions made it easier for NetLogic to agree to a deal. Mr. Jankov replied that he did not think NetLogic's board of directors would react to current stock market conditions and that the first number in the price would have to be 5. Mr. McGregor asked whether NetLogic's board of directors remained committed to a mid-to-high $50s price range. Mr. Jankov said there might be flexibility regarding the second price digit. Mr. McGregor asked Mr. Jankov to consider restarting discussions.

Mr. Jankov spoke to Mr. Domenik on August 6, 2011 and updated him on the conversation with Mr. McGregor. Mr. Domenik said it was his view that the board of directors had authorized management, subject to board of directors approval, to negotiate when the discussion involved a price of at least $50 per share.

Mr. Jankov called Mr. McGregor on August 6, 2011 and left him a message that he now believed there could be a transaction at a price in the low $50s. Mr. McGregor returned Mr. Jankov's call and said that if the range could be expanded to $49 to $51, he thought Broadcom would be interested in proceeding with discussions. He requested an email from NetLogic authorizing Broadcom to retrieve materials provided previously.

On August 8, 2011, Mr. Jankov sent an email to the other NetLogic board of directors members advising them about his recent conversations with Mr. McGregor.

On August 9, 2011, Mr. Chong called Mr. Cortes to propose an exclusivity agreement between Broadcom and NetLogic and to discuss the scope of the May 10, 2011 nondisclosure agreement and initiation of a formal due diligence process.

On August 9, 2011, Messrs. Jankov, Tate and Cortes, representatives of Qatalyst and a representative of Bingham held a telephone conference call to discuss possible re-engagement with Broadcom concerning acquisition discussions.

On August 9, 2011, a representative of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, or Skadden, legal counsel to Broadcom, sent a form of exclusivity agreement to a representative of Bingham by email.

Messrs. McGregor and Jankov had another telephone conversation on August 10, 2011. Mr. McGregor said he wanted to enter into an exclusivity agreement and involve more personnel in order to commence a full due diligence review of NetLogic. Mr. Jankov expressed reluctance to take any new proposal to NetLogic's board of directors and fully engage in acquisition discussions if any proposal was not firm and was subject to stock market conditions. Mr. McGregor replied that stock market prices and the price of NetLogic stock by themselves would not adversely affect Broadcom's perception of value or willingness to make the acquisition. Mr. Jankov suggested that Broadcom send a written proposal, approved by its board of directors.

Representatives of Skadden and Bingham communicated regarding the proposed form of exclusivity agreement on August 10 and 11, 2011. The Bingham representative explained his understanding that NetLogic was waiting for a written indication of interest for an all cash deal in the price range of $49 to $51 per share before NetLogic would consider entering into an exclusivity agreement or any other discussions would begin.

On August 11, 2011, Mr. McGregor called Mr. Jankov to say that Broadcom's board of directors had authorized him to acquire NetLogic at a price ranging from $49 to $51 per share, all cash. Later that day, he sent a letter with a non-binding indication of interest containing this proposal to Mr. Jankov. The letter stated that Broadcom wanted NetLogic to agree to negotiate exclusively with NetLogic for 30 days from the commencement of due diligence. The letter also stated that Broadcom intended to secure additional financing to fund working capital needs in connection with the transaction, but that its proposal was not subject to a financing contingency as it had cash on hand or readily available to finance the transaction, and stated further that Broadcom would seek to retain key members of NetLogic's management and technical teams.

On August 12, 2011, our board of directors met to consider Broadcom's written indication of interest to acquire the company at a price ranging from $49 to $51 per share, and whether to enter into discussions with Broadcom regarding a potential sale of the company, including the question of whether to conduct those discussions on an exclusive basis for a short period. All directors participated in the meeting in person or by telephone conference call. Representatives of Qatalyst and Bingham also attended the meeting in person or by telephone conference call. Mr. Jankov said he had received a written proposal setting forth Broadcom's indication of interest. He noted that the board of directors had just received current information about NetLogic's operating performance and forecasts at the regular meeting held in late July. He provided a detailed update of NetLogic's product markets, competition, emerging opportunities, and risks. He reviewed the recent chronology of discussions with Mr. McGregor beginning with a telephone conversation on August 3, 2011. Mr. Jankov then described the letter he had received from Mr. McGregor on August 11, 2011 and said it had been sent in response to NetLogic's request that Broadcom state its position in writing before he would convene a board of directors meeting to consider a proposed acquisition or entering into an exclusive negotiation period. The Qatalyst representatives discussed with the board of directors the terms of Broadcom's proposal and several aspects of the negotiation process as well as providing a recap of the process pursuant to which the board of directors and management had determined a list of potential acquirers, which had been narrowed by eliminating companies that either lacked the financial resources to compete with a Broadcom offer, or posed such a competitive risk that sharing sensitive competitive information with them seemed inadvisable, and had determined to approach Company A, Company B and Company C. Mr. Jankov also described his most recent contact with Company B, which occurred on July 15, 2011. Both Qatalyst and Mr. Jankov said that neither Company B nor Company C had expressed interest in pursuing acquisition discussions. The Qatalyst representatives also indicated to the board of directors that no other potential acquirers had emerged since the last board of directors meeting that representatives of Qatalyst had attended. The Bingham representatives described the responsibilities of the board of directors at this stage of the discussions with Broadcom and in light of Broadcom's written proposal and request for an exclusivity agreement, neither of which included terms that would preclude NetLogic from pursuing other opportunities if they arose in the future. The directors questioned Mr. Jankov about his perception of the combined companies' operations, integration, employee retention, and management's perception of the benefits of the transaction to the company. The board of directors discussed Broadcom's request for an exclusivity agreement and to engage in exclusive negotiations for a period of 30 days, and relevant considerations and factors with the Qatalyst representatives and Bingham. The board of directors authorized Mr. Jankov to negotiate with Broadcom with respect to its indication of interest and to enter into an exclusivity agreement if in management's judgment that was necessary for negotiations to proceed.

On August 12, 2011, Mr. Jankov called Mr. McGregor to tell him that NetLogic's board of directors had authorized acquisition discussions to proceed in response to Broadcom's written non-binding indication of interest dated August 11, 2011. He asked that Broadcom and its legal counsel provide a draft of a definitive agreement, so that NetLogic and its financial and legal representatives could evaluate other significant non-price terms of the transaction before agreeing to exclusivity with Broadcom.

In conversations on August 12, 2011, Bingham, Qatalyst and Mr. Cortes discussed the exclusivity agreement proposed by Broadcom and the need for a new non-disclosure agreement with their counterparts at Skadden and Broadcom.

Skadden sent a term sheet with material terms of the transaction to Bingham, Qatalyst and Mr. Cortes on August 13, 2011.

Between August 12, 2011 and August 16, 2011, the parties and their representatives negotiated the terms of an exclusivity agreement and a new non-disclosure agreement. The exclusivity agreement provided for a 15-day exclusivity period that would renew automatically for 15 additional days, if Broadcom had provided a complete draft definitive agreement during the initial exclusivity period and neither party notified the other of its decision to terminate the discussions. The parties signed both agreements on August 16, 2011.

On August 17, 2011, we opened a virtual data room for due diligence purposes to Broadcom and Skadden personnel. Between August 17, 2011 and September 11, 2011, Broadcom personnel and representatives of Skadden conducted an extensive due diligence review. During this period, there were multiple diligence meetings involving NetLogic personnel and Broadcom personnel addressing a broad range of financial, technical, product, and human resources issues.

Skadden sent an initial draft of a definitive agreement to Bingham on August 20, 2011. Bingham sent a responsive draft raising a number of issues to Skadden on August 26, 2011. Representatives of Bingham and Skadden were able to resolve some of the issues in the definitive agreement during telephone conference calls on August 30 and August 31, 2011. Skadden sent a revised draft of the definitive agreement to Bingham on September 1, 2011.

Between August 25 and September 9, 2011, Mr. Jankov and Mr. Ramaswami had several in person meetings, telephone conversations and email exchanges regarding the NetLogic key employees, including Mr. Jankov, from whom Broadcom wished to receive employment acceptance commitments prior to signing and announcing the definitive agreement. They discussed compensation, job titles and retention packages for these key employees.

On September 2, 2011, representatives of Skadden and Broadcom met with representatives of Bingham, Qatalyst and NetLogic to negotiate unresolved issues in the definitive agreement, other than price. Those issues included fiduciary out terms, termination fees and expenses, representations and warranties, interim operating covenants, deal termination provisions, required responses to government antitrust regulatory actions, closing conditions, damages provisions, closing date provisions and covenants regarding Broadcom's proposed debt financing.

Later on September 2, 2011, our board of directors held a previously scheduled meeting to receive a report on the status of acquisition discussions, diligence, and definitive agreement negotiations. All directors attended the meeting in person or by telephone conference call. Messrs Tate and Cortes, representatives of Qatalyst and a Bingham representative attended the meeting in person or by telephone conference call. The Qatalyst and Bingham representatives described the status and proposed structure of the transaction, timing considerations and the unresolved issues under the definitive agreement. They reported that there remained substantial differences in the parties' positions after the morning meeting with Broadcom and its legal counsel. Mr. Jankov described Broadcom's desire to obtain employment commitments from a number of employees, including himself. He said in light of this, he was recommending that a committee of the board of directors become involved in the review and oversight of the terms of the transaction and the negotiations. The board of directors unanimously requested the Audit Committee to expand its current role and assume this responsibility.

The Broadcom and NetLogic teams resumed their meeting to negotiate the definitive agreement in the afternoon on September 2, 2011 and made substantial progress. At the conclusion of the meeting, the material unresolved issues consisted of Broadcom's requested financing assistance covenants and related timing considerations, required responses to antitrust regulatory actions, fiduciary out provisions, the size of Broadcom's requested break-up fee, and representations and warranties.

On September 3, 2011, Skadden sent a revised draft of the definitive agreement to Bingham.

On September 4, 2011, Mr. Jankov and Mr. McGregor spoke by telephone regarding certain significant unresolved issues in the definitive agreement. During the conversation, Mr. McGregor identified other concerns that had surfaced for Broadcom and proposed certain compromises and a deal price at the low end of Broadcom's range of $49 per share. Mr. Jankov disagreed with the proposal, and their conversation ended without a resolution.

On September 5, 2011, the Audit Committee of our board of directors held a meeting by telephone conference call to obtain a report on the status of the negotiations with Broadcom. Committee members Perham, Domenik and Burkett participated in the meeting. Messrs. Jankov, Tate and Cortes, the representatives of Qatalyst, and a representative of Bingham also participated in the meeting. Representatives of Qatalyst and Bingham discussed with the Audit Committee the principal unresolved issues. Mr. Jankov described his conversation with Mr. McGregor on September 4, 2011, including Broadcom's proposed price of $49 per share. After discussion, the participants in the meeting and the Audit Committee agreed on a counteroffer to Broadcom, including a price of $51 per share, and other proposed terms.

On September 6, 2011, Bingham sent a revised draft of the definitive agreement to Skadden, and Mr. Cortes sent a first draft of disclosure schedules under the definitive agreement to Broadcom and Skadden. Bingham and Skadden continued to negotiate provisions of the definitive agreement and exchange comments on the NetLogic disclosure schedules from September 7, 2011 through September 11, 2011.

On September 8, 2011, Mr. Jankov and a representative of Qatalyst presented the counteroffer approved by the Audit Committee to Messrs. McGregor and Ignatin in two separate conference calls. In the second call, the parties proposed a deal price of $50 per share, and a lower break-up fee for Broadcom of $127 million, or approximately 3.25% of the transaction value, subject to mutually agreeable completion of the remaining documentation and remaining open issues. Broadcom also agreed that its proposed debt financing would not impact the closing date.

On September 8, 2011, Mr. Ramaswami presented Broadcom's compensation offers to the NetLogic key employees including Mr. Jankov, who had retained his own legal counsel to advise him in these employment and compensation discussions.

Mr. Jankov signed the employment offer letter from Broadcom on September 9, 2011. Other NetLogic key employees, including Dimitrios Dimitrelis, our Vice President of Engineering, and Chris O'Reilly, our Vice President of Marketing, executed employment offer letters from Broadcom on September 9, 2011 and September 10, 2011.

On September 9, 2011, our board of directors held a special meeting. All directors and Messrs. Tate and Cortes, representatives of Qatalyst and representatives of Bingham attended the meeting in person or participated by telephone conference call. Representatives of Qatalyst provided a summary description of the principal terms of the transaction which the parties had agreed upon, as well as the material terms still unresolved. Representatives of Qatalyst discussed the valuation analysis that would be utilized by Qatalyst in preparing an opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by holders of shares of our common stock, other than Broadcom or any affiliate of Broadcom, pursuant to the contemplated merger agreement to such holders. The Bingham representatives provided additional information regarding the principal unresolved issues in the negotiation of the definitive agreement and the provisions primarily related to the board of directors exercise of its fiduciary duties, including the no shop and fiduciary out provisions, the closing conditions, the parties' respective termination rights, and the conditions applicable to NetLogic's obligations to pay Broadcom the $127 million break-up, or termination, fee and reimbursement for reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by Broadcom. The board of directors discussed with NetLogic's advisors and legal counsel the expected timing for completion of the definitive agreement and related documentation and the approval of the agreement and the transaction.

On September 9 and September 10, 2011, the parties and their respective legal counsel and advisors negotiated, revised and concluded all remaining terms of the definitive agreement. Broadcom accepted the final version of the NetLogic disclosure schedules under the definitive agreement on September 11, 2011.

Our board of directors met on Sunday, September 11, 2011. Prior to the meeting, the directors received proposed resolutions to be adopted at the meeting, a schedule of the compensation offered by Broadcom to the NetLogic key employees, a Bingham presentation setting forth the final terms of the merger agreement, an amendment to the NetLogic Rights Agreement dated as of July 7, 2004 with Wells Fargo, National Association, as rights agent to provide that the merger agreement and merger with Broadcom would not be subject to such rights agreement, and a summary of the transaction terms and a financial presentation from Qatalyst. All directors attended the meeting in person or participated by telephone conference call. Messrs. Tate and Cortes and representatives of Qatalyst and Bingham attended the meeting in person. Representatives of Qatalyst Partners reviewed with the board of directors their presentation as to the financial aspects of the Broadcom transaction and delivered to the board of directors its oral opinion that the consideration to be received by the holders of shares of NetLogic common stock (other than Broadcom or any of its affiliates) pursuant to the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders, which oral opinion was subsequently confirmed in writing on the same date. The full text of the opinion of Qatalyst Partners, dated as of September 11, 2011, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications of the review undertaken by Qatalyst Partners in rendering its opinion, is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement. The Bingham representatives provided a detailed presentation of the material terms of the proposed merger agreement. They also summarized the amendment to the rights agreement, provided information regarding Section 203 of the DGCL and confirmed the board of directors determination to approve the merger before Broadcom became an interested stockholder for purposes of that section. The board of directors discussed the information presented at the meeting and unanimously declared that the merger with Broadcom and the merger agreement are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of the stockholders of NetLogic and approved the Merger Agreement with Broadcom and the amendment to the rights agreement.

The parties executed the Merger Agreement on September 11, 2011. They publicly announced the transaction by press release in the morning before the opening of the stock markets on September 12, 2011.

NetLogic's Board of Directors' Reasons for Approval of the Merger

Our board of directors unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the Merger are fair to, and advisable and in the best interests of, our stockholders. On September 11, 2011, our board of directors approved the Merger Agreement and authorized the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Merger, and recommended that our stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement. In reaching these conclusions, the board consulted with our management, as well as our financial and legal advisors, and considered the following material factors, among others:

the historical and current financial condition, results of operations, business and prospects of NetLogic as well as our financial plan and prospects if we were to remain an independent company, including the current and expected conditions in the general economy and in the semiconductor industry, the substantial investment in research and development required to advance the development of our products and growth strategy and the accompanying risks associated with financing such research and development activities, the need to pursue strategic acquisitions and to increase our employee recruitment and retention efforts, along with the accompanying possible dilution to our earnings per share and the value of our stock, and the fact that our stockholders would continue to be subject to the risks and uncertainties of our financial plan and prospects unless we were acquired in a strategic transaction for cash consideration;

our board of directors' belief, based upon our historical and current financial performance and results of operations, our prospects and long-term strategy, our competitive position in our industry, the outlook for the semiconductor industry and general economic and stock market conditions, and considering the material risk factors faced by NetLogic (including those identified below), that the $50.00 per share Merger Consideration would result in greater value to our stockholders than pursuing our current business plan;

the historical market prices of our common stock and recent trading activity, including the fact that the $50.00 per share Merger Consideration represented a 57% premium over the closing price of our shares on the NASDAQ Global Select Market on September 9, 2011, the last trading day before the date the proposed transaction with Broadcom was publicly announced, and a 69% premium over our average closing share price for the 20-trading-day period ended September 9, 2011;

our board of directors' belief that our stock price was not likely to trade at or above the $50.00 per share Merger Consideration in the immediately foreseeable future, which belief was based on a number of factors, including the directors' knowledge and understanding of our company and our industry, our management's projections and our business plan, research analyst target prices, historical performance of our stock and general economic conditions;

the risks affecting our ability to meet future growth expectations for our business and stock market expectations for the future price of our common stock, including (together with other risk factors identified in our annual report on Form 10-K and other filings of ours with the SEC from time to time) the following specific factors:

our high customer concentration;

we are a fabless semiconductor company that relies on third parties for the manufacture of our products and do not control the supply or price of the silicon wafers and semiconductor assembly and other services necessary to produce our integrated circuit products;

the average selling prices of our products may decline;

we face significant competition in our largest and fastest growing product markets;

to be successful we must continue to develop, and have manufactured for us, innovative products to meet the evolving requirements of networking original equipment manufacturers, or OEMs;

factors that negatively affect the business of our targeted OEM customers that use or could use our products could negatively impact our revenue, such as the cyclical nature of the semiconductor industry and the networking infrastructure markets served by those customers;

our revenue and operating results may fluctuate significantly from period-to-period, on a quarterly or annual basis, causing volatility in our stock price; and difficulties that we may experience in identifying, acquiring and integrating other companies could inhibit our ability to continue to expand our growth opportunities through acquisitions, which is a strategy that has benefited us significantly in the past;

the opinion of Qatalyst Partners addressed to our board of directors that, as of September 11, 2011 and based upon and subject to the considerations, limitations and other matters set forth in the opinion, the $50.00 per share Merger Consideration to be received by holders of shares of our common stock (other than Broadcom and its affiliates) pursuant to the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. See Opinion of NetLogic's Financial Advisor below and Annex B;

the business reputation and capabilities of Broadcom and its management and the substantial financial resources of Broadcom, which the board of directors believed supported the conclusion that a transaction with Broadcom could be completed in an orderly manner; that the Merger Consideration to be paid is all cash, which provides certainty of value and liquidity to our stockholders and that Broadcom has the financial resources to complete the acquisition on hand or readily available;

our board of directors' belief that it was preferable to negotiate on a confidential basis with a single potential acquiror rather than to conduct a private or public auction of NetLogic, particularly in light of (1) the risk that an auction would not result in a transaction at a more attractive price than offered by Broadcom and that a failed attempt to sell NetLogic would be highly detrimental to NetLogic, (2) the fact that we would be permitted, under circumstances described in the Merger Agreement, to terminate the Merger Agreement in order to enter into an agreement with respect to a superior offer (as defined under The Merger Agreement - No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals) after giving Broadcom the opportunity to match the superior offer and upon payment of a $127 million termination fee (refer to The Merger Agreement - Termination Fee), (3) the fact that, after considering a range of potential acquirors other than Broadcom and arriving at a list of three other companies that had the financial resources and might have a strategic rationale to compete with a Broadcom offer to acquire NetLogic, those three companies were contacted and none of them had made a proposal, and (4) the risk that disclosure of competitively sensitive confidential information to some potential acquirors could adversely affect NetLogic's business in the future;

that, subject to compliance with the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, we are permitted to furnish information to and conduct negotiations with any third party that makes a bona fide written, unsolicited acquisition proposal for us;

our board of directors' belief that an acquisition by Broadcom has a reasonable likelihood of closing without potential issues under applicable antitrust laws;

that the Merger Agreement is subject to customary closing conditions and is not subject to a financing condition;

that, subject to compliance with the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, our board of directors is permitted to change its recommendation that our stockholders vote in favor of adoption of the Merger in response to a superior offer or certain intervening events, if, in either case, our board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that the failure to change its recommendation would constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties;

that all of the members of our board of directors were unanimous in their determination to recommend the Merger Agreement for adoption by our stockholders;

that the transaction will be subject to the approval of our stockholders and that, in this regard, our directors and executive officers do not own a significant enough interest, in the aggregate, in our shares to influence substantially the outcome of the stockholder vote. As of October 19, 2011, the record date for the Special Meeting, our directors and executive officers and their respective affiliates owned an aggregate of 4,260,658 shares, representing approximately 6.1% of our outstanding common stock. See Interests of NetLogic's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger beginning on page 38; and Beneficial Ownership of NetLogic Common Stock beginning on page 75;

that we are able to specifically enforce Broadcom's obligations pursuant to the Merger Agreement; and that our stockholders may exercise appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL.

Our board of directors also believed the process by which we entered into the Merger Agreement with Broadcom was fair, and in reaching that determination our board of directors took into account, in addition to the factors noted above, the following:

the consideration and negotiation of the transaction was conducted entirely under the oversight of the members of our board of directors, and that none of the members of our board of directors has any financial interest in the Merger that is different from our stockholders generally, other than as described under Interests of NetLogic's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger;

the fact that once an employment offer was made to Mr. Jankov, the Audit Committee of the Board reviewed and supervised the negotiations over the material terms, including price, of the proposed Merger;

our extensive, arm's-length negotiations with Broadcom, which, among other things, resulted in an increase in the Merger Consideration from Broadcom's initial offered price range of mid-to-high $40s per share to $50.00 per share. See Background of the Merger beginning on page 19; and the fact that three potential strategic buyers with adequate financial resources to compete with a Broadcom offer were contacted and did not make a proposal.

Our board of directors was aware of and also considered potentially adverse factors associated with the Merger, including among others:

that the all-cash consideration, while providing certainty of value to our stockholders generally, would not allow our stockholders generally to have any ongoing equity participation in the surviving corporation following the closing of the Merger, meaning that stockholders would cease to participate in our future earnings or growth, or to benefit from any increases in the value of Broadcom's stock following the closing of the Merger;

that the proposed Merger will be a taxable transaction for our stockholders;

that we will be required to pay Broadcom a termination fee of $127 million if the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, which could, but in the view of our board of directors should not, preclude other potential bidders from making a competing offer to acquire NetLogic;

that the Merger is conditioned on the receipt of regulatory approvals and clearances, including expiration of the waiting period under the HSR Act and clearance under the applicable competition laws of China and Taiwan, and, therefore, the Merger may not be completed in a timely manner or at all;

that the Merger may not be completed as a result of the failure of our stockholders to adopt the Merger Agreement, and the result that the public announcement of the termination of the Merger Agreement may have on the trading price of our common stock and our operating results, particularly in light of the costs incurred in connection with the transaction;

that we are subject to restrictions on the conduct of our business prior to the consummation of the Merger, requiring us to conduct our business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice, subject to specified limitations, which may delay or prevent us from undertaking business opportunities that may arise during the term of the Merger Agreement, whether or not the Merger is completed;

the potential negative impact of the announcement of the Merger Agreement and of the Merger on certain customer relationships and uncertainties surrounding those relationships;

the fact that some of our executive officers have other interests in the merger that are in addition to their interests as NetLogic stockholders, including the manner in which they would be affected by the Merger (refer to Interests of NetLogic's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger);

that the announcement and pendency of the Merger could result in the disruption of our business, including the possible diversion of management and employee attention, potential employee attrition and the potential effect on our business relationships; and that if the Merger is not completed, we may be adversely affected due to potential disruptions in our operations and adverse publicity.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by our board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but, rather, includes the material factors considered by our board of directors. In view of the large number of factors considered by our board of directors in connection with the evaluation of the Merger Agreement and the Merger and the complexity of these matters, our board of directors did not consider it practicable to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors considered in reaching a decision, nor did our board of directors evaluate whether these factors were of equal importance. In addition, each director may have given different weight to the various factors.

Our board of directors conducted discussions of, among other things, the factors described above, including asking questions of our management and our financial and legal advisors, and unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the Merger are fair to, and advisable and in the best interests of, our stockholders, approved the Merger Agreement and authorized the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Merger.

Recommendation of NetLogic's Board of Directors

Opinion of NetLogic's Financial Advisor

We retained Qatalyst Partners to act as financial advisor to our board of directors in connection with a potential transaction such as the Merger and to evaluate whether the consideration to be received by the holders of our common stock (other than Broadcom or any affiliates of Broadcom) pursuant to the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. We selected Qatalyst Partners to act as our financial advisor based on Qatalyst Partners' qualifications, expertise, reputation and knowledge of the business and affairs of NetLogic and the industry in which it operates. Qatalyst Partners has provided its written consent to the reproduction of the Qatalyst Partners' opinion in this proxy statement. consideration to be received by the holders of our common stock (other than Broadcom or any affiliate of Broadcom) pursuant to the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. Qatalyst Partners delivered its written opinion, dated September 11, 2011, to our board of directors following the board meeting.

The full text of the Qatalyst Partners written opinion, dated September 11, 2011, to our board of directors is attached hereto as Annex B and is incorporated by reference herein. The opinion sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications of the review undertaken by Qatalyst Partners in rendering its opinion. You should read the opinion carefully in its entirety. Qatalyst Partners opinion was provided to our board of directors and addresses only, as of the date of the opinion, the fairness from a financial point of view, of the $50.00 per share cash consideration to be received by the holders of our common stock (other than Broadcom or any affiliate of Broadcom) pursuant to the Merger Agreement, and it does not address any other aspect of the Merger. It does not constitute a recommendation as to how any stockholder should vote with respect to the Merger or any other matter and does not in any manner address the price at which the NetLogic common stock will trade at any time. The summary of Qatalyst Partners opinion set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

In arriving at its opinion, Qatalyst Partners reviewed the Merger Agreement, certain related documents and schedules, and certain publicly available financial statements and other business and financial information of NetLogic. Qatalyst Partners also reviewed certain financial projections and operating data prepared by the management of NetLogic, which we refer to as the Company Projections described below in the section entitled Financial Forecasts. Additionally, Qatalyst Partners discussed the past and current operations and financial condition and the prospects of NetLogic with senior executives of NetLogic. Qatalyst Partners also reviewed the historical market prices and trading activity for NetLogic common stock and compared the financial performance of NetLogic and the prices and trading activity of NetLogic common stock with that of certain other selected publicly-traded companies and their securities. In addition, Qatalyst Partners reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of selected acquisition transactions and performed such other analyses, reviewed such other information and considered such other factors as Qatalyst Partners deemed appropriate.

In arriving at its opinion, Qatalyst Partners assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the information that was publicly available or supplied or otherwise made available to, or discussed with, Qatalyst Partners by NetLogic. With respect to the Company Projections, Qatalyst Partners was advised by management of NetLogic, and Qatalyst Partners assumed, that the Company Projections had been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of NetLogic of the future financial performance of NetLogic and other matters covered thereby. Qatalyst Partners assumed that the Merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement, without any modification or delay. In addition, Qatalyst Partners assumed that in connection with the receipt of all the necessary approvals of the proposed Merger, no delays, limitations, conditions or restrictions will be imposed that could have an adverse effect on NetLogic. Qatalyst Partners did not make any independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of NetLogic, nor was Qatalyst Partners furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. Merger as compared to any strategic alternatives that may be available to NetLogic. Qatalyst Partners' opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the $50.00 per share cash consideration to be received by the holders of our common stock (other than Broadcom or any affiliates of Broadcom) pursuant to the Merger Agreement, and Qatalyst Partners expressed no opinion with respect to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to any of NetLogic's officers, directors or employees, or any class of such persons, relative to such consideration.

The following is a brief summary of the material analyses performed by Qatalyst Partners in connection with its opinion dated September 11, 2011. The analyses and factors described below must be considered as a whole; considering any portion of such analyses or factors, without considering all analyses and factors, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying Qatalyst Partners' opinion. For purposes of its analyses, Qatalyst Partners utilized both the consensus of third-party research analysts' projections, which we refer to as the Analyst Projections, and the Company Projections. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables are not intended to stand alone, and in order to more fully understand the financial analyses used by Qatalyst Partners, the tables must be read together with the full text of each summary. Considering the data set forth below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of Qatalyst Partners' financial analyses.

For purposes of its analyses, Qatalyst Partners reviewed a number of financial metrics including:

Fully Diluted Enterprise Value generally the value as of a specific date of the relevant company's outstanding equity securities (taking into account its outstanding stock options, warrants and other convertible securities) plus the value of its minority interest and the amount of its net debt (i.e., the amount of its outstanding indebtedness, preferred stock and capital lease obligations less the amount of cash and cash equivalents on its balance sheet) as of a specified date; and

Non-GAAP Net Operating Profit After Taxes, or NOPAT generally the amount of the relevant company's operating profits, excluding stock-based compensation, amortization of intangibles and other non-recurring charges, tax-affected for a specific time period.

Illustrative Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Qatalyst Partners performed an illustrative discounted cash flow (DCF) analysis, which is designed to imply a potential, present value of NetLogic by adding the net present value of the estimated future cash flows to the net present value of a corresponding terminal value of NetLogic. Qatalyst Partners' analysis included the unlevered free cash flows of NetLogic for the fourth quarter of calendar year 2011 through calendar year 2015 and calculated the terminal value at the end of 2015 by applying a range of multiples of 12.0x to 20.0x to NetLogic's calendar year 2016 estimated NOPAT (assuming an effective tax rate of 10%). These values were discounted to present values using a weighted average cost of capital ranging from 9.5% to 15.5%. Qatalyst Partners then applied a dilution factor of 15% to reflect the dilution to current stockholders due to the effect of future equity compensation grants projected by NetLogic's management. Based on the calculations set forth above, this analysis implied a range of values for NetLogic's common stock of approximately $33.02 to $58.48 per share.

Selected Companies Analysis

Qatalyst Partners compared selected financial information and public market multiples for NetLogic with publicly available information and public market multiples for selected companies. The companies used in this comparison included those companies listed below and were selected because they are publicly traded companies in NetLogic's industry.

Altera Corporation
Cavium, Inc.

Based upon research analyst consensus estimates for calendar year 2012, and using the closing prices as of September 9, 2011 for shares of the selected companies, Qatalyst Partners calculated, among other things, the implied Fully Diluted Enterprise Value divided by the estimated consensus revenue for calendar year 2012, which we refer to as the CY12E Revenue Multiple. The median CY12E Revenue Multiples among the selected companies analyzed was 2.7x, and the CY12E Revenue Multiple for NetLogic based on the Analyst Projections was 4.7x.

Based on an analysis of the CY12E Revenue Multiple for the selected companies, Qatalyst Partners selected a representative range of 3.5x to 5.0x and applied this range to NetLogic's estimated calendar year 2012 revenue. Based on NetLogic's fully-diluted shares (assuming treasury stock method), including common stock, RSUs, and stock options as provided by management of NetLogic on August 8, 2011, as well as contingent shares to be issued, this analysis implied a range of values for Company's common stock of approximately $25.28 to $35.15 per share based on the Company Projections and approximately $24.12 to $33.49 per share based on selected Analyst Projections.

Based upon research analyst consensus estimates for calendar year 2012 and using the closing prices as of September 9, 2011 for shares of the selected companies, Qatalyst Partners calculated the closing stock price divided by the estimated consensus earnings per share for calendar year 2012, which we refer to as the CY12E P/E Multiples, for each of the selected companies. The median CY12E P/E Multiples among the selected companies analyzed was 12.0x, and the CY12E P/E Multiple for NetLogic based on the Analyst Projections was 17.7x.

Based on an analysis of the CY12E P/E Multiple for the selected companies, Qatalyst Partners selected a representative range of 14.0x to 25.0x and applied this range to NetLogic's estimated calendar year 2012 earnings per share. Based on the calculations set forth above, this analysis implied a range of values for NetLogic common stock of approximately $31.74 to $56.68 per share based on the Company Projections and approximately $25.30 to $45.18 per share based on the Analyst Projections.

No company included in the selected companies analysis is identical to NetLogic. In evaluating the selected companies, Qatalyst Partners made judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters. Many of these matters are beyond the control of NetLogic, such as the impact of competition on the business of NetLogic and the industry in general, industry growth and the absence of any material adverse change in the financial condition and prospects of NetLogic or the industry or in the financial markets in general. Mathematical analysis, such as determining the arithmetic median, or the high or low, is not in itself a meaningful method of using selected company data.

For each of the transactions listed above, Qatalyst Partners also reviewed, among other things, the price paid in the transaction as a multiple of next twelve months earnings of the target company reflected in Wall Street analyst research, certain publicly available financial statements and press releases. Based on the analysis of such metrics for the transactions noted above, Qatalyst Partners selected a representative range of 20.0x to 26.0x and applied this range of multiples to NetLogic's next twelve months estimated earnings per share reflected in the Analyst Projections. Based on the calculations set forth above, this analysis implied a range of values for NetLogic common stock of approximately $34.30 to $44.59 per share.

No company or transaction utilized in the selected transactions analysis is identical to NetLogic or the Merger. In evaluating the selected transactions, Qatalyst Partners made judgments and assumptions with regard to general business, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of NetLogic, such as the impact of competition on the business of NetLogic or the industry generally, industry growth and the absence of any material adverse change in the financial condition of NetLogic or the industry or in the financial markets in general, which could affect the public trading value of the companies and the aggregate value of the transactions to which they are being compared. Because of the unique circumstances of each of these transactions and the Merger, Qatalyst Partners cautioned against placing undue reliance on this information.

Miscellaneous

In connection with the review of the Merger by the board, Qatalyst Partners performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses for purposes of rendering its opinion. The preparation of a financial opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily amenable to a partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Qatalyst Partners considered the results of all of its analyses as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor it considered. Qatalyst Partners believes that selecting any portion of its analyses, without considering all analyses as a whole, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion. In addition, Qatalyst Partners may have given various analyses and factors more or less weight than other analyses and factors, and may have deemed various assumptions more or less probable than other assumptions. As a result, the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis described above should not be taken to be Qatalyst Partners' view of the actual value of NetLogic. In performing its analyses, Qatalyst Partners made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of NetLogic. Any estimates contained in Qatalyst Partners' analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by such estimates.

Qatalyst Partners conducted the analyses described above solely as part of its analysis of the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the $50.00 per share cash consideration to be received by the holders of the NetLogic common stock (other than Broadcom or any affiliates of Broadcom) pursuant to the Merger Agreement, and in connection with the delivery of its opinion to the board of directors. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the price at which NetLogic's common stock might actually trade.

Qatalyst Partners' opinion and its presentation to the board of directors was one of many factors considered by the board of directors in deciding to approve the Merger Agreement. Consequently, the analyses as described above should not be viewed as determinative of the opinion of the board of directors with respect to the consideration to be received by NetLogic's stockholders pursuant to the Merger or of whether the board of directors would have been willing to agree to a different consideration. The consideration was determined through arm's-length negotiations between NetLogic and Broadcom and was approved by the board of directors. Qatalyst Partners provided advice to NetLogic during these negotiations. Qatalyst Partners did not, however, recommend any specific consideration to NetLogic or that any specific consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the Merger.

Qatalyst Partners provides investment banking and other services to a wide range of corporations and individuals, domestically and offshore, from which conflicting interests or duties may arise. In the ordinary course of these activities, affiliates of Qatalyst Partners may at any time hold long or short positions, and may trade or otherwise effect transactions in debt or equity securities or loans of NetLogic, Broadcom or certain of their respective affiliates. During the two year period prior to the date of Qatalyst Partners' opinion, no material relationship existed between Qatalyst Partners or any of its affiliates and NetLogic or Broadcom pursuant to which compensation was received by Qatalyst Partners or its affiliates. However, Qatalyst Partners or its affiliates may in the future provide investment banking and other financial services to NetLogic and Broadcom or any of their respective affiliates for which it would expect to receive compensation.

Under the terms of its engagement letter, Qatalyst Partners provided NetLogic with financial advisory services in connection with the proposed Merger for which it will be paid approximately $31 million, $5 million of which was payable upon delivery of its opinion, and the remaining portion of which will be paid upon, and subject to, consummation of the Merger. We have also agreed to reimburse Qatalyst Partners for its expenses incurred in performing its services. We have also agreed to indemnify Qatalyst Partners and its affiliates, their respective members, directors, officers, partners, agents and employees and any person controlling Qatalyst Partners or any of its affiliates against certain liabilities and expenses related to or arising out of Qatalyst Partners' engagement.

Table of ContentsFinancial Forecasts

In connection with the evaluation of a possible transaction as discussed in Background of the Merger beginning on page 19, internal financial forecasts were prepared by our management and reviewed with and discussed with our board of directors and Qatalyst Partners. Financial forecasts for the years ended December 31, 2011, 2012 and 2013 were also made available to Broadcom in its evaluation of the Merger.

We have included a summary of the Company Projections to provide our stockholders access to certain non-public information that was made available to our board of directors, our financial advisor, and, through 2013, to Broadcom in connection with their consideration of the Merger. As a result, there can be no assurance that the projected results will be realized or that actual results will not be significantly higher or lower than projected.

Interests of NetLogic's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of our board of directors in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement, our stockholders should be aware that our executive officers and directors may have interests in the Merger that are different from or in addition to the interests of our stockholders in general. The members of our board of directors were aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the Merger Agreement and the Merger, and in recommending to our stockholders that they adopt the Merger Agreement. Our stockholders should take these interests into account in deciding whether to vote FOR the adoption of the Merger Agreement.

Treatment of Outstanding Equity Awards

Under the Merger Agreement, equity-based awards held by NetLogic executive officers and directors will be treated at the effective time of the Merger as follows:

Employee Stock Options. Outstanding in-the-money stock options to acquire NetLogic common stock held by our executive officers immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger will be assumed by Broadcom at the effective time of the Merger and converted into stock options to acquire shares of Broadcom Class A Common Stock on substantially the same terms and conditions as were applicable to the stock options prior to the conversion, except that (i) the number of shares of Broadcom Class A Common Stock subject to each converted stock option will be equal to the product, rounded down to the nearest whole share, of the number of shares of NetLogic common stock subject to such stock option immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger multiplied by the exchange ratio, as described below and (ii) the exercise price per share of Broadcom Class A Common Stock subject to each stock option immediately following its conversion will be equal to the quotient of the exercise price per share of NetLogic common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, divided by the exchange ratio (as described below), rounded up to the nearest whole cent. The exchange ratio is a fraction, the numerator of which is $50.00 and the denominator of which is the volume weighted average price for a share of Broadcom Class A Common Stock for the five trading days immediately prior to the Merger closing date as reported by Bloomberg, L.P.

Employee Restricted Stock Units. Outstanding RSUs with respect to NetLogic common stock held by our executive officers will be assumed by Broadcom and converted into RSUs of Broadcom Class A Common Stock on substantially the same terms and conditions as were applicable to the RSUs prior to the conversion, except that the number of shares of Broadcom Class A Common Stock subject to the converted RSUs will be equal to the product, rounded down to the nearest whole share, of the number of shares of NetLogic common stock subject to such RSUs immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger multiplied by the exchange ratio, as described above.

Non-Employee Director Stock Options. Outstanding stock options to acquire NetLogic common stock held by our non-employee directors immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger will be terminated at the effective time of the Merger, and the holder of each such stock option will be entitled to receive a cash payment equal to the product of the number of shares of our common stock issuable upon the exercise in full of such stock option multiplied by the excess, if any, of $50.00 over the exercise price of such stock option, less any required withholdings.

Non-Employee Director Restricted Stock Units. Outstanding RSUs with respect to NetLogic common stock held by our non-employee directors immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger will be terminated at the effective time of the Merger and the holder of each such RSU will be entitled to receive a cash payment of $50.00 for each share of our common stock subject to the RSU, less any required withholdings.

Change-of-Control Arrangements With Our Non-Employee Directors

Equity Awards Acceleration. Under the terms of the equity awards with each of the non-employee members of our board of directors, such equity awards will vest in full upon a change-of-control. The following table sets forth, as of September 30, 2011, (i) the number of shares subject to stock options and RSUs held by our non-employee directors, including shares subject to such equity awards that will automatically vest upon the closing of the Merger pursuant to the terms of the directors' stock option award agreements, and (ii) the dollar values of such stock options and RSUs. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, our non-employee directors will receive cash payments in exchange for the cancellation of their stock options and RSUs at the effective time of the Merger, as described above under Treatment of Outstanding Equity Awards.

⁽²⁾ The value is calculated at the intrinsic value per share based on a consideration price per share of $50.00, multiplied by the number of shares that would become fully vested upon the change in control.

Change-of-Control Arrangements With Our Executive Officers

Double-Trigger Equity Awards Acceleration. Each equity award agreement corresponding to an outstanding stock option or RSU award held by one of our executive officers provides that, if the employment of such executive officer is involuntarily terminated within 24 months after the effective date of a change-of-control, the vesting of the officer's equity awards will be accelerated such that all shares subject to the award that would have become vested during such 24-month period will so vest as of the effective date of such termination. An involuntary termination is one that occurs by reason of dismissal for any reason other than misconduct (as defined in the agreements) or by reason of voluntary resignation following (i) a change in position that materially reduces the level of the officer's responsibility, (ii) a material reduction in the officer's base salary, or (iii) relocation by more than 50 miles; provided that (ii) and (iii) will apply only if the executive officer has not consented to the change or relocation. These change-of-control provisions have been included in all agreements for stock option grants to our named executive officers and other members of our senior management since July 2002 and have been included in all agreements for RSU grants to our named executive officers and other members of our senior management since July 2007.

Change-of-Control Agreements with Messrs. Jankov, Tate and Cortes. We have also entered into change-of-control arrangements with each of Ronald Jankov, Michael Tate and Roland Cortes that provide for modified acceleration terms in connection with a change-of-control, which agreements were approved by our board of directors and signed in April 2011. These acceleration terms supersede the provisions contained in any other agreements between us and the executive officers. Under the terms of these change-of-control agreements, if the employment of the executive officer is terminated by the employer other than for cause (as defined in the agreement) or is involuntarily terminated within 12 months after the effective date of the change-of-control, each outstanding equity award held by the officer that is not fully vested on the date of termination of employment will immediately vest in full as of the effective date of such termination. An involuntary termination is one that occurs by reason of dismissal for any reason other than cause or by reason of voluntary resignation following (i) a change in position accepted with NetLogic or its subsidiaries that materially reduces the level of recipient's responsibility, including if the officer does not effectively have the same position and level of responsibility with respect to the acquiring entity, or its parent organization, that the officer had with NetLogic immediately prior to the change-of-control, (ii) a material reduction in the officer's base salary, or (iii) the officer's relocation by more than 50 miles; provided that (ii) and (iii) will apply only if the executive officer has not consented to the change or relocation. However, in the event any of these acceleration benefits, together with any other benefits provided for in any other agreements between us and the executive officer, would constitute parachute payments within the meaning of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we refer to as the Code, and would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code, then such benefits will be provided either (1) in full or (2) as to a lesser amount that would result in no portion of the benefits being subject to the excise tax, whichever of such amounts results in the executive receiving the greatest amount of after-tax benefits.

Change-of-Control Severance Arrangements with Ms. Zander and Mr. Korgav. We have entered into change-of-control arrangements with Marcia Zander, our Senior Vice President of Worldwide Sales, dated as of March 11, 2005 and amended as of December 30, 2008, and with Ibrahim Korgav, our Senior Vice President of Worldwide Business Operations, dated as of March 15, 2002, which agreements provide for cash severance upon termination of employment for certain reasons in connection with a change-of-control.

Our agreement with Ms. Zander provides that, if her employment is terminated for any of the following reasons within one year following a change-of-control, she will be entitled to receive a cash severance payment equal to 50% of her annual salary at the time of termination, in addition to any other amounts and benefits to which she may be entitled:

a material diminution in Ms. Zander's base compensation;

a material diminution in Ms. Zander's authority, duties or responsibilities;

a material diminution in the authority, duties, or responsibilities of the supervisor to whom Ms. Zander is required to report, including a requirement that Ms. Zander report to a corporate officer or employee instead of reporting directly to our board of directors; a material diminution in the budget over which Ms. Zander retains authority; or a material change in the geographic location at which Ms. Zander must perform the services.

Ms. Zander is not entitled to receive the cash severance payment, however, unless she has given us notice of the occurrence of the change within 90 days of its occurrence and we fail to remedy the occurrence within 30 days of receipt of notice. In the event that any of the payments or benefits under Ms. Zander's change of control agreement would constitute a parachute payment within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code and would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code, then such benefits will be provided either (1) in full or (2) as to a lesser amount that would result in no portion of the benefits being subject to the excise tax, whichever of such amounts results in Ms. Zander receiving the greatest amount of after-tax benefits.

Under our employment arrangement with Mr. Korgav, if his employment with us is involuntarily terminated (which is defined in a manner similar to the change-of-control provisions described above under Double-Trigger Equity Awards Acceleration) prior to a change-in-control, for any reason other than misconduct

(as defined in Mr. Korgav's employment arrangement), Mr. Korgav will receive (i) six months of salary; (ii) six months of any applicable employee benefits in effect at the time of his termination, and (iii) 12 months of acceleration of any stock options previously granted. If Mr. Korgav's employment is involuntarily terminated within 24 months following a change-in-control, for any reason other than misconduct, Mr. Korgav will be entitled to (i) six months of salary, and (ii) six months of applicable employee benefits in effect at the time of such termination.

Arrangements Between Broadcom and Our Executive Officers

Severance Arrangements Offered by Broadcom. Broadcom has indicated that all of our employees, including our executive officers (but not including Mr. Jankov), may be eligible to receive a severance package provided by Broadcom. Under the terms of this arrangement, if an employee is terminated within 12 months of the date of the close of the Merger due to the elimination of his/her position related to the acquisition, the employee will be eligible to receive (i) four weeks of base pay, plus one additional week of pay for every full year of service (which would include service at NetLogic) up to a maximum of 12 weeks, and (ii) three months of outplacement services. Each of our employees will also be eligible to participate in a supplemental severance program, which provides for three additional months of base salary plus a lump sum payment equal to three months of COBRA payments.

Offer Letters with Messrs. Jankov, Dimitrelis and O'Reilly. Broadcom has entered into employment offer letters effective upon the closing of the Merger with certain of our employees, including the following executive officers: Ronald Jankov, Dimitrios Dimitrelis and Chris O'Reilly. We refer to the offer letters from Broadcom with each of Messrs. Jankov, Dimitrelis and O'Reilly as the executive offer letters.

Except for Mr. Jankov's letter, the executive offer letters set each such executive officer's base salary to approximate the executive officer's annual base salary in effect with NetLogic during fiscal year 2011 prior to the Merger, as well as a non-guaranteed target annual cash bonus of 30% of base salary. For Mr. Jankov, the offer letter sets his base salary to approximately 79.5% of his annual base salary in effect with NetLogic during fiscal 2011 prior to the Merger, as well as a non-guaranteed target annual cash bonus of 60% of base salary.

Under the terms of the executive offer letters, following consummation of the Merger, Broadcom intends to recommend to the applicable committee of its board of directors that each of Messrs. Jankov and O'Reilly receive from Broadcom RSUs entitling the executives to receive Class A Common Stock of Broadcom with stated values as set forth in the table below. Subject to approval of the appropriate committee of Broadcom's board of directors, the number of shares subject to each RSU award will be equal to the stated value of the award divided by the average closing share price of Broadcom stock for all trading days in the full calendar month preceding the award. One-half of the awards to Mr. Jankov will vest on each of the third and fourth anniversaries of the date of grant while the awards to Mr. O'Reilly will vest in full on the third anniversary of the date of grant.

Participation in the Broadcom Corporation Severance Benefit Plan. Following the closing of the Merger, in lieu of the Broadcom severance program described above under Severance Arrangements Offered by Broadcom, Mr. Jankov, in his position as a senior vice president, will become eligible for benefits under the Broadcom Corporation Severance Benefit Plan for Vice Presidents and Above (the Broadcom Executive Severance Plan) in the event his employment is terminated other than for cause or he terminates his employment for good reason (as such terms are defined in the Broadcom Executive Severance Plan), provided that such benefits are conditioned on Mr. Jankov executing, and not revoking, a release of claims. Such benefits include:

a payment equal to nine months' base salary;

a payment equal to 75% of Mr. Jankov's target bonus opportunity;

a payment equal to the value of equity awards that would have vested during a period of nine months following Mr. Jankov's termination;

Table of Contents

a payment equal to COBRA coverage for nine months; and outplacement services for six months.

The table below sets forth the compensation to be paid to Messrs. Jankov, O Reilly and Dimitrelis pursuant to the terms of their respective executive offer letters.

Name	Annual Base Salary ($)	Target Annual Cash Bonus ($)⁽¹⁾	Stated Value of RSU Grant ($)⁽²⁾
Ronald Jankov	325,000	195,000	3,000,000 ⁽³⁾
Chris O Reilly	229,000	68,700	350,000
Dimitrios Dimitrelis	254,200	76,260

- (1) Eligible participation in the Broadcom Bonus Plan on a non-guaranteed basis for the 2012 plan year. If the closing of the Merger occurs after March 1, 2012, any bonus award for 2012 plan year will be pro-rated based on the actual closing date. The bonus award decision is entirely at Broadcom's discretion and may be modified in the future.
- (2) The number of RSUs to be granted will be subject to approval by the applicable committee of Broadcom's board of directors and will be based on the average closing share price of Class A Common Stock for all trading days in the full calendar month preceding the award grant date.
- (3) This grant is subject to potential future acceleration rights as follows: if Mr. Jankov is terminated without cause or resigns for good reason (in each case, as defined in the Broadcom Executive Severance Plan) prior to the fourth anniversary of the RSU grant date and such termination does not entitle Mr. Jankov to acceleration rights under our change-of-control agreement with him or under his equity award agreements with us (as described above under Change-of-Control Arrangements With Our Executive Officers), then a pro-rata portion of the RSU grant from Broadcom will vest. The portion of the RSU grant that will vest will be equal to the total number of RSUs granted multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of full months of service between the date of grant and the date of termination, and the denominator of which is 48; provided that the portion that will vest will be reduced by the number of RSUs that have already vested.

The offer letters between Broadcom and Messrs. Jankov, Dimitrelis and O Reilly generally provide that all outstanding NetLogic stock options and unvested RSUs that are held by executive officers of NetLogic immediately prior to the closing of the Merger will be assumed by Broadcom upon the closing of the Merger. However, with respect to Mr. Jankov's unvested NetLogic stock options and RSUs that are outstanding immediately prior to the closing of the Merger, 25% of such unvested awards will be cancelled in exchange for a cash payment from Broadcom and 75% will be assumed by Broadcom and converted into awards in Broadcom shares pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement. The amount of cash paid for the cancelled stock options will be based on the excess of $50.00 above the exercise price of such stock options, and the amount of cash paid for the cancelled RSUs will be equal to $50.00 per underlying share of NetLogic common stock.

The following table sets forth as of September 30, 2011 the number of shares subject to unvested stock options and RSUs held by Mr. Jankov that would be cancelled under the terms of his offer letter with Broadcom (representing 25% of the unvested portion of each such award) and the related cash payment from Broadcom at the closing of the Merger.

If Broadcom subsequently changes the position of Messrs. O Reilly and Dimitrelis within the 24-month period following the closing of the Merger from that set forth in the offer letter of each such executive officer in a manner that materially reduces the level of the executive's responsibility, materially reduces base salary or relocates the executive by more than 50 miles from the principal office where the executive was located as of immediately following the closing, the executive officer will be entitled to accelerate the unvested stock options and RSUs assumed by Broadcom that would have vested in such 24-month period.

If Broadcom subsequently changes the position of Mr. Jankov within the 12-month period following the closing of the Merger from that set forth in his executive offer letter in a manner that materially reduces the level of Mr. Jankov's responsibility, materially reduces his base salary or relocates Mr. Jankov by more than 50 miles from the principal office where the Mr. Jankov was located as of immediately following the closing, or terminates his employment without cause, Mr. Jankov will be entitled to acceleration of all of his then-unvested stock options and unvested RSUs that were assumed by Broadcom.

Non-Competition Agreement. Mr. Jankov also entered into a non-competition agreement with Broadcom on September 9, 2011, which will be effective upon the closing of the Merger. Under the non-competition agreement, Mr. Jankov agrees that until the later of 24 months after the closing of the Merger and 12 months following the cessation of Mr. Jankov's employment, consultation or other similar arrangement with Broadcom, Mr. Jankov will not have any relationship in which Mr. Jankov engages or assists any person other than Broadcom and its affiliates in certain business areas related to the design, development or production of semiconductor solutions, including multi-core processors, knowledge-based processors, content processors, network search engines, digital front-end processors, processor cores, wireless baseband and base station solutions, and optical and copper physical layer (PHY) devices and transceivers. Mr. Jankov also agrees that during the non-competition period he will not solicit, divert, or induce any business, clients, suppliers, agents or customers of Broadcom to reduce or alter their association or business with Broadcom, knowingly solicit any person in the employment of Broadcom to terminate or limit their employment with Broadcom, accept employment or enter into any consulting arrangement with any person other than Broadcom, or take any action to cause any person to offer employment or any consulting arrangement to any person in the employment of Broadcom.

Indemnification and Insurance. Under the Merger Agreement, Broadcom has agreed that the surviving corporation will assume, and Broadcom will cause the surviving corporation to fulfill and honor, our indemnification obligations under our charter and bylaws and pursuant to the indemnification agreements as in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement with current or former directors or officers of NetLogic or our subsidiaries. Broadcom has further agreed to cause the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the surviving corporation to contain indemnification, exculpation and advance of expenses provisions that are least as favorable to such directors and officers as those contained in our charter and bylaws as of the date of the Merger Agreement and those provisions may not be amended or repealed in a manner adverse to such directors and officers for six years after the effective time of the Merger. Broadcom has also agreed to purchase a tail insurance policy with a claims period of six years from the effective time of the Merger with respect to directors' and officers' liability insurance covering those persons who were, as of the date of the Merger Agreement, covered by our directors' and officers' liability insurance policy, for acts or omissions occurring prior to the effective time of the Merger on terms that are no less favorable, in the aggregate, than our policies in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement.

Arrangements with Our Other Executive Officers or Employees. Prior to the effective time of the Merger, Broadcom or its affiliates may initiate negotiations of agreements, arrangements and understandings with our other executive officers or employees regarding compensation and benefits, and may enter into definitive agreements regarding employment with the surviving corporation or NetLogic or the right to participate in the equity of Broadcom, in each case, on a going-forward basis following the completion of the Merger.

Quantification of Golden Parachute Payments and Benefits to Our Named Executive Officers

Our principal executive officer, principal financial officer, and three other of our executive officers who, based on their total compensation, were the most highly compensated in 2010 are referred to in this proxy statement collectively as the named executive officers. The table below sets forth the information required by Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K regarding certain compensation that is based on or that otherwise relates to the merger to which the following individuals, each a named executive officer of NetLogic, are entitled under existing agreements with NetLogic or Broadcom. This compensation is referred to as golden parachute compensation. The golden parachute compensation payable to these individuals is subject to a non-binding advisory vote of NetLogic's stockholders, as described under Advisory Vote on Golden Parachute Compensation below.

The table below assumes that:

the Merger is consummated on September 30, 2011;

Broadcom assumes each of the outstanding stock option and RSU awards held by the named executive officers; and the employment of each of the named executive officers is involuntarily terminated immediately following the effective time of the Merger.

Golden Parachute Compensation

Name	Cash ($) ⁽¹⁾	Equity ($) ⁽⁴⁾	Perquisites/ Benefits ($) ⁽⁵⁾	Other ($) ⁽⁵⁾	Total ($)
Ronald Jankov	402,330	17,966,646		66,138	18,435,114
Michael Tate	124,005	6,108,360		33,685	6,266,050
Marcia Zander	545,431 ⁽²⁾	3,749,114		38,903	4,333,448
Mozafar Maghsoudnia	126,169	2,802,737		40,402	2,969,308
Behrooz Abdi	515,110 ⁽³⁾	13,302,295	16,440	42,000	13,875,845

⁽¹⁾ Under Broadcom's severance plan, with the exception of Mr. Jankov, each executive officer whose employment is terminated within 12 months following the closing of the Merger due to the elimination of his or her position related to the acquisition would receive four weeks of base salary plus an additional one week for every year of service at NetLogic up to a total of 12 weeks. Additionally, each terminated executive would be entitled to supplemental severance of three additional months of base pay plus a lump sum payment equal to three months of COBRA. The value of the COBRA benefits is estimated to be the following: Mr. Tate, $4,110, Ms. Zander, $4,110, Mr. Maghsoudnia, $4,110, and Mr. Abdi, $4,110. Payment of severance is conditioned upon the executive officer's execution of Broadcom's standard contingent severance agreement.

Following the closing of the Merger, in lieu of the Broadcom severance program described above, Mr. Jankov will become eligible for benefits under the Broadcom Executive Severance Plan as described above under Arrangements Between Broadcom and Our Executive Officers' Participation in the Broadcom Corporation Severance Benefit Plan. The total amount of cash payable to Mr. Jankov under the Broadcom Executive Severance Plan as shown in the table is comprised of payments of: (1) $243,750, corresponding to nine months of base salary; (2) $146,250, corresponding to 75% of Mr. Jankov's target bonus opportunity; and (3) $12,330, corresponding to COBRA coverage for nine months. Mr. Jankov would not be entitled to any payment with respect to the vesting of his equity awards under the Broadcom Executive Severance Plan under this scenario.

⁽²⁾ Ms. Zander is entitled to 50% of her annual salary (including commission amounts) upon a qualifying termination within one year following a change-of-control as discussed above under Change-of-Control Arrangements With Our Executive Officers. Her estimated cash severance payment includes $200,819 for commissions based on actual amounts earned during the first half of fiscal 2011 and $73,586 for bonus based on actual amounts earned during fiscal 2010. This severance payment would constitute a double-trigger benefit because payment of the benefit upon termination of employment is conditioned on a change in control occurring in advance of such termination.

- (3) In addition to amounts payable under the severance arrangements offered by Broadcom, Mr. Abdi's existing letter agreement with NetLogic entitles him to (i) one year's salary and (ii) monthly payments of COBRA premiums totaling up to $400,000 in the event of his involuntary termination (as defined in his letter agreement). Eligibility to receive these benefits is not a true double-trigger benefit because receipt of the benefits upon termination is not conditioned on a change in control occurring in advance of such termination.
- (4) The Equity column sets forth the value of the shares of NetLogic common stock subject to unvested stock options and RSUs that would vest immediately as a result of acceleration for each of the named executive officers if the applicable acceleration provisions were triggered in connection with the Merger, calculated as provided in this note (4). The circumstances under which the acceleration provisions of these equity awards would be triggered are discussed above under Change-of-Control Arrangements With Our Executive Officers. In the case of each executive officer other than Mr. Jankov, the acceleration provisions are solely double-trigger in that they require a qualifying termination of employment in connection with a change-of-control before they become payable. In the case of Mr. Jankov, a portion of the unvested shares subject to stock options and RSUs held by him as of immediately prior to the Merger will vest on a single-trigger basis, as they will accelerate upon the closing of the Merger regardless of whether his employment terminates, as described above under Arrangements Between Broadcom and Our Executive Officers Offer Letters.

The value of the accelerated stock options and RSUs is calculated at the intrinsic value per share based on a consideration price per share of $50.00 (reduced by the applicable exercise price with respect to stock options), multiplied by the number of shares that would become vested as result of the applicable acceleration provisions. All stock options held by the named executive officers are in-the-money.

Name	Number of Accelerated Option Shares	Number of Accelerated Shares Under Stock Awards	Value of Accelerated Options ($)	Value of Accelerated Stock Awards ($)
Ronald Jankov	78,375	299,050	3,014,146	14,952,500
Michael Tate	28,291	100,182	1,099,260	5,009,100
Marcia Zander	33,000	49,600	1,269,114	2,480,000
Mosafar Maghsoudnia	22,275	38,902	857,637	1,945,100
Behrooz Abdi	226,934	126,073	6,998,645	6,303,650

- (5) Upon a termination of employment with NetLogic, or upon continuation of employment with Broadcom immediately after the close of the Merger, each named executive officer is entitled to a cash settlement of the balance of his or her accrued and unused vacation.

Advisory Vote on Golden Parachute Compensation

In accordance with Section 14A of the Exchange Act and related SEC rules and regulations, we are providing our stockholders with the opportunity to cast an advisory (non-binding) vote on the compensation that may be paid or become payable to our named executive officers in connection with the Merger and the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable. As required by those rules, we ask our stockholders to vote on the adoption of the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the compensation that may be paid or become payable to NetLogic Microsystems's named executive officers in connection with the Merger and the agreements or understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, as disclosed in the tables in the section of the proxy statement entitled Interests of Our Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger Quantification of Golden Parachute Payments and Benefits to Our Named Executive Officers, including the associated narrative discussion, are hereby APPROVED.

The vote on executive compensation payable in connection with the Merger is a vote separate and apart from the vote to adopt the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, you may vote to approve the executive compensation and vote not to adopt the Merger Agreement and vice versa. Because the vote on executive compensation paid or that may become payable in connection with the Merger is advisory only, it will not be binding on either NetLogic or Broadcom. Accordingly, because we are contractually obligated to pay the compensation, if the Merger Agreement is adopted and the Merger is completed, the compensation will be payable, subject only to the conditions applicable thereto, regardless of the outcome of the advisory vote.

The affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares of our common stock present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote on the matter will be required to approve the advisory resolution on executive compensation payable to our named executive officers in connection with the Merger. Abstentions will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal but the failure to vote your shares will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal.

Our board of directors recommends a vote FOR this proposal.

Substantial Benefits of the Merger to Our Other Executive Officers

The table below sets forth information regarding compensation that may be paid or become payable to each of our executive officers other than our named executive officers in connection with the Merger under arrangements with NetLogic or Broadcom. Although the compensation payable to these individuals is not subject to an advisory vote of NetLogic's stockholders, it is being provided for illustrative purposes. The table assumes:

the Merger is consummated on September 30, 2011;

Broadcom assumes each of the outstanding stock option and RSU awards held by the executive officers; and the employment of each of the executive officers is involuntarily terminated immediately following the effective time of the Merger.

(1) Under Broadcom's severance plan, each executive officer whose employment is terminated within 12 months following the closing of the Merger due to the elimination of his or her position related to the acquisition would receive four weeks of base salary plus an additional one week for every year of service at NetLogic up to a total of 12 weeks. Payment of severance is conditioned upon the executive officer's execution of Broadcom's standard contingent severance agreement.

(2) Mr. Srinivasan is entitled to six months of his annual salary. This severance payment is not a true double-trigger benefit because payment of the benefit upon termination is not conditioned on a change in control occurring in advance of such termination.

(3) Mr. Korgav is entitled to six months of his annual salary in connection with a qualifying termination following a change-of-control as described above under "Change-of-Control Arrangements With Our Executive Officers."

Delisting and Deregistration of NetLogic Common Stock

Following the closing of the Merger, shares of our common stock will be delisted and will no longer be traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market or any other public market and will be deregistered under the Exchange Act.

NetLogic After the Merger

At the effective time of the Merger, we will cease to be an independent public company and will instead be a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Broadcom. At the effective time of the Merger, the directors of Merger Sub immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger will become the directors of the surviving corporation, and the officers of Merger Sub immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger will become the officers of the surviving corporation, in each case until the earlier of their resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified, as the case may be.

Conduct of Our Business if the Merger is Not Completed

In the event that the Merger Agreement is not adopted by our stockholders or if the Merger is not completed for any other reason, our stockholders would not receive any consideration from Broadcom or Merger Sub for their shares of our common stock. Instead, we would remain an independent public company, our common stock would continue to be listed and traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market and our stockholders would continue to be subject to the same risks and opportunities as they currently are subject to with respect to their ownership of our common stock. If the Merger is not completed, there can be no assurance as to the effect of these risks and opportunities on the future value of our shares, including the risk that the market price of our common stock may decline to the extent that the current market price of our stock reflects a market assumption that the Merger will be completed. If the Merger is not completed, our board of directors would, from time to time, evaluate and review our business operations, properties, dividend policy and capitalization, among other things, and make such changes as are deemed appropriate. In addition, if the Merger is not completed, our board of directors might seek to identify strategic alternatives to maximize stockholder value. If the Merger Agreement is not adopted by our stockholders or if the Merger is not consummated for any other reason, there can be no assurance that any other transaction acceptable to us would be offered or that our business, prospects or results of operations would not be adversely impacted.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, under certain circumstances, we are permitted to terminate the Merger Agreement and to accept a superior offer. See The Merger Agreement Termination of Merger Agreement beginning on page 67.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, under certain circumstances, if the Merger is not completed, we may be obligated to pay Broadcom a termination fee. See The Merger Agreement Termination Fees and Expenses beginning on page 68.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following discussion summarizes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to holders of NetLogic common stock. This discussion is based upon the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we refer to as the Code, the U.S. Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder and judicial and administrative rulings, all as in effect as of the date of this proxy statement and all of which are subject to change or varying interpretation, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such changes could affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions set forth herein.

This discussion assumes that holders of NetLogic common stock hold their shares as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). This discussion does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to a holder of NetLogic common stock in light of such holder's particular circumstances, nor does it discuss the special considerations applicable to holders of NetLogic common stock subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws, such as, for example, banks and other financial institutions, broker-dealers, mutual funds, cooperatives, partnerships or other pass-through entities and their partners or members, tax-exempt organizations, insurance companies, dealers in securities or foreign currencies, traders in securities who elect the mark-to-market method of accounting, controlled foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies, U.S. expatriates, holders who acquired their NetLogic common stock through the exercise of stock options or otherwise as compensation, holders who hold their NetLogic common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale or conversion transaction, U.S. holders whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, holders liable for the alternative minimum tax, and holders who exercise appraisal rights. This discussion does not address any aspect of non-U.S., state, local, alternative minimum, estate, gift or other tax law that may be applicable to a holder of NetLogic common stock.

We intend this discussion to provide only a general summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to holders of NetLogic common stock. We do not intend it to be a complete analysis or description of all potential U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger. The U.S. federal income tax laws are complex and subject to varying interpretation. Accordingly, the Internal Revenue Service may not agree with the U.S. federal income tax consequences described in this proxy statement.

For purposes of this discussion, the term U.S. holder means a beneficial owner of NetLogic common stock that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation (including any entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia;

Table of Contents

a trust if (1) its administration is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (2) it has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source.

A non-U.S. holder is a beneficial owner (other than a partnership or other entity classified as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) of NetLogic common stock that is not a U.S. holder.

If an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds NetLogic common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in such partnership generally will depend on the status of the partner and activities of the partnership. If you are a partner of a partnership holding NetLogic common stock, you should consult your own tax advisor regarding the tax consequences of the Merger.

U.S. Holders

The receipt of cash in exchange for shares of NetLogic common stock pursuant to the Merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. A U.S. holder generally will recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received pursuant to the Merger and such U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares converted into cash pursuant to the Merger. Such gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if the holder's holding period for such shares exceeds one year as of the date of the Merger. Long-term capital gains for certain non-corporate U.S. holders, including individuals, are generally eligible for a reduced rate of U.S. federal income taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. If a U.S. holder acquired different blocks of NetLogic common stock at different times or different prices, such U.S. holder must determine its tax basis, holding period, and gain or loss separately with respect to each identified block of NetLogic common stock converted into cash pursuant to the Merger (that is, shares of NetLogic common stock acquired at the same cost in a single transaction).

A U.S. holder may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding at the applicable rate (currently, 28%) with respect to the cash received pursuant to the Merger, unless such holder properly establishes an exemption or provides its correct tax identification number on Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (or other appropriate withholding form) and otherwise complies with the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules can be refunded or credited against a payee's U.S. federal income tax liability, if any, provided that such U.S. holder furnishes the required information to the Internal Revenue Service in a timely manner.

Non-U.S. Holders

Any gain recognized on the receipt of cash pursuant to the Merger by a non-U.S. holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax unless:

the gain is effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business of such non-U.S. holder (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, is also attributable to a permanent establishment in the United States maintained by such non-U.S. holder), in which case the non-U.S. holder generally will be subject to tax on such gain in the same manner as a U.S. holder and, if the non-U.S. holder is a foreign corporation, such corporation may be subject to branch profits tax at the rate of 30% (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty); or the non-U.S. holder is a nonresident alien individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the Merger and certain other conditions are met, in which case the non-U.S. holder generally will be subject to a 30% tax on the non-U.S. holder's net gain realized in the Merger, which may be offset by U.S. source capital losses of the non-U.S. holder, if any; or the non-U.S. holder owned (directly, indirectly or constructively) more than 5% of NetLogic's outstanding common stock at any time during the five years preceding the Merger, and NetLogic is or has been a United States real property holding corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes during such period. Although there can be no assurances in this regard, NetLogic does not believe that it is or was a United States real property holding corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

A non-U.S. holder will be subject to information reporting and, in certain circumstances, backup withholding (currently, at a rate of 28%) will apply with respect to the cash received by such holder pursuant to the Merger, unless such non-U.S. holder certifies under penalties of perjury that it is a non-U.S. holder (and the payor does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that the holder is a United States person as defined under the Code) or such holder otherwise establishes an exemption from backup withholding. Backup withholding is not an additional tax and any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be refunded or credited against a non-U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, if any, provided that such holder furnishes the required information to the Internal Revenue Service in a timely manner.

The foregoing discussion of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences is not tax advice. Holders of NetLogic common stock should consult their tax advisors to determine the U.S. federal, state and local and non-U.S. tax consequences of the Merger to them in view of their own particular circumstances.

Governmental and Regulatory Clearances

HSR Act

The closing of the Merger is subject to expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act and the rules thereunder. Under the HSR Act and the rules thereunder, the Merger may not be completed unless certain information has been furnished by Broadcom and NetLogic to the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice and to the Federal Trade Commission and applicable waiting periods expire or are terminated. The HSR Act requires the parties to observe a 30-day waiting period, which we refer to as the initial waiting period, during which time the Merger may not be consummated, unless that initial waiting period is terminated early. If, before the expiration of the initial waiting period, the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice or the Federal Trade Commission issues a request for additional information, the parties may not consummate the transaction until 30 days after Broadcom and NetLogic have each substantially complied with such request for additional information (unless this period is shortened pursuant to a grant of earlier termination). Broadcom and NetLogic filed their respective notification and report forms pursuant to the HSR Act with the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission on September 19, 2011 and September 20, 2011, respectively, and each requested early termination of the waiting period. The initial waiting period is scheduled to expire on October 20, 2011.

At any time before the effective time of the Merger, the Federal Trade Commission, the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice, state attorneys general, or private parties can file suit under the antitrust laws seeking to enjoin consummation of the Merger. There can be no assurance that the Merger will not be challenged on antitrust grounds or, if such a challenge is made, that the challenge will not be successful.

Other Jurisdictions

The completion of the Merger is also subject to comparable notifications and review under the antitrust laws of various foreign jurisdictions, including China and Taiwan. Broadcom has filed or intends to file notifications with the appropriate governmental entities, including in China and Taiwan. Both of these jurisdictions require that the regulatory agency complete its review before the parties may complete the Merger and Broadcom and NetLogic intend to observe such applicable waiting periods prior to completing the Merger. There can be no assurance that Broadcom and NetLogic will be able to obtain all required regulatory approvals.

Table of Contents

In addition, even if we and Broadcom obtain all necessary regulatory clearances and approvals, and the Merger Agreement is adopted by our stockholders, conditions may be placed on any such clearance or approval that could cause Broadcom to abandon the Merger.

Litigation Regarding the Merger

On September 16, 2011, a putative class action lawsuit, New Jersey Carpenters Pension Fund v. Broyles, et al., Case No. 111CV209381, challenging the Merger was filed in California Superior Court, County of Santa Clara (referred to as the California Action) against Broadcom, Merger Sub and the members of our board of directors. On September 20, 2011, another putative class action lawsuit, Vincent Anthony Daniello v. NetLogic Microsystems, Inc., et al., CA No. 6881, challenging the Merger was filed in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (referred to as the Delaware Action) against NetLogic, Broadcom, Merger Sub and the members of our board of directors. The complaints in both lawsuits allege that our directors violated their fiduciary duties to our stockholders by, among other things, failing to ensure a fair sale process and a fair price in connection with the Merger, and acting to further their personal interests and the interests of Broadcom at the expense of NetLogic's stockholders. Each lawsuit also alleges that Broadcom and Merger Sub aided and abetted our directors in breaching their fiduciary duties. On October 7, 2011, the plaintiff in the California Action filed an amended complaint adding allegations that the preliminary proxy statement filed on October 5, 2011 contained inadequate and misleading disclosures under Delaware law by failing to provide additional and more detailed disclosures regarding the events leading up to the merger, the analysis and opinion of Qatalyst, and the Company Projections. On October 19, 2011, the plaintiff in the Delaware Action filed his amended complaint adding similar disclosure claims. The plaintiffs in both lawsuits seek to enjoin the consummation of the Merger and seek an award of the costs of the action, including reasonable allowances for attorneys' and experts' fees, among other relief. On October 7, 2011, defendants in the California Action filed a motion to stay that action pending the resolution of the Delaware Action. A hearing on that motion is set for December 23, 2011. On October 3, 2011, the Broadcom defendants filed an answer to the original Delaware Action complaint denying all the substantive allegations and asserting affirmative defenses. On October 13, 2011, the NetLogic defendants filed their answer to the original Delaware Action complaint denying all the substantive allegations and asserting affirmative defenses. On October 19, 2011, the NetLogic defendants filed a motion to dismiss the Delaware Action. We believe the allegations in these lawsuits are entirely without merit, and we intend to defend against them vigorously.

The pleadings and court dockets in both actions are available from the respective courts on their websites at: <http://www.scefiling.org/> and <http://courts.delaware.gov/chancery/>. The information contained in these websites is not a part of this proxy statement and is not incorporated herein by reference.

Accounting Treatment

The Merger will be accounted for as a business combination for financial accounting purposes.

This summary is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A and incorporated into this proxy statement by reference. We urge you to read carefully the Merger Agreement in its entirety because this summary may not contain all the information about the Merger Agreement that is important to you.

The Merger Agreement and this summary are not intended to modify or supplement any factual disclosures about NetLogic or Broadcom, and should not be relied upon as disclosure about NetLogic or Broadcom without consideration of the periodic and current reports and statements that NetLogic or Broadcom file with the SEC. The terms of the Merger Agreement govern the contractual rights and relationships, and allocate risks, among us, Broadcom and Merger Sub in relation to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. In particular, the representations and warranties made by us, Broadcom and Merger Sub to each other in the Merger Agreement reflect negotiations between, and are solely for the benefit of, the parties to the Merger Agreement and may be limited or modified by a variety of factors, including: subsequent events, information included in public filings, disclosures made during negotiations, correspondence between the parties and disclosure schedules to the Merger Agreement. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specific date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what might be viewed as material to stockholders, or may have been used for purposes of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters of fact. Accordingly, the representations and warranties may not describe the actual state of affairs at the date they were made or at any other time, and you should not rely on them as statements of fact.

The Merger

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and in accordance with Delaware law, at the effective time of the Merger, Merger Sub, a wholly owned subsidiary of Broadcom, will merge with and into us. We will survive the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Broadcom and the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease.

Effective Time; Closing

The Merger will become effective upon the filing of a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at such later time as is agreed upon by Broadcom and us and specified in the certificate of merger. The filing of the certificate of merger will occur on the date of closing, which will take place on a date to be specified by Broadcom, Merger Sub and us and which will be no later than the second business day after satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the closing of the Merger set forth in the Merger Agreement which are summarized below under Conditions to the Closing of the Merger (such date, the Normal Closing Due Date). However, Broadcom has the option in its sole and absolute discretion to defer the closing date in the following circumstances:

If the Normal Closing Due Date is on or before the 15th business day after our filing of our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ending September 30, 2011, then Broadcom may defer the merger closing date to any business day until and including the 16th business day after we file such Form 10-Q with the SEC;

If the Normal Closing Due Date is between December 10, 2011 and January 1, 2012, then Broadcom may defer the merger closing date to any business day until and including January 3, 2012; and

If the Normal Closing Due Date is after February 16, 2012 and we have not filed our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011, then Broadcom may defer the merger closing date until and including the first business day after we file such Form 10-K with the SEC.

Table of Contents

Even though Broadcom has the option to defer the closing date of the Merger in the above circumstances, for purposes of determining whether the closing conditions with respect to the accuracy of our representations and warranties and the absence of Material Adverse Effect, as summarized below under Conditions to the Closing of the Merger, have been satisfied, the closing date will be deemed to have occurred on the Normal Closing Due Date.

Merger Consideration

The Merger Agreement provides that each share of our common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger (other than shares owned by us as treasury stock, shares owned by Broadcom, Merger Sub or any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of us or Broadcom or shares held by holders properly exercising appraisal rights under Delaware law) will be converted at the effective time of the Merger into the right to receive $50.00 in cash, without interest and subject to any applicable withholding taxes.

If any of our stockholders perfect appraisal rights with respect to any of our shares of common stock, then we will treat those shares as described under Appraisal Rights beginning on page 71.

Treatment of Stock Options, Restricted Stock Units and Other Equity Awards

Stock Options

At the effective time of the Merger, generally each outstanding stock option to acquire NetLogic common stock granted under our various stock incentive plans or certain other grants will be assumed and converted into a stock option to acquire, subject to substantially the same terms and conditions as were applicable to that stock option prior to the conversion, a number of shares of Broadcom Class A Common Stock equal to the product of the following, rounded down to the nearest whole share:

the number of shares of NetLogic common stock subject to such option immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, multiplied by the exchange ratio, as described below.

The exchange ratio is a fraction, the numerator of which is the Merger Consideration and the denominator of which is the volume weighted average price for a share of Broadcom Class A Common Stock for the five trading days immediately prior to the Merger closing date as reported by Bloomberg, L.P. The exercise price per share of Broadcom Class A Common Stock subject to each stock option immediately following such conversion will be equal to the quotient of the following, rounded up to the nearest whole cent:

the per share exercise price for the shares of NetLogic common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, divided by the exchange ratio.

However, at the effective time of the Merger, the following stock options outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger will be terminated:

options held by a person who is not as of immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger an employee of us or our subsidiaries;

options held by an employee of us or our subsidiaries who is a permanent resident of the People's Republic of China; and options that have a per share exercise price equal to or greater than the Merger Consideration.

The holder of an in-the-money terminated stock option will be entitled to receive cash equal to the product of the number of shares of our common stock issuable upon the exercise in full of such stock option multiplied by the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration over the exercise price of such stock option.

Restricted Stock Units

At the effective time of the Merger, generally each outstanding restricted stock unit with respect to our common stock will be converted into a restricted stock unit of Broadcom Class A Common Stock, subject to substantially the same terms and conditions as were applicable to that restricted stock unit prior to the conversion, with respect to a number of shares of Broadcom Class A Common Stock equal to the product of the following, rounded down to the nearest whole share:

number of shares of our common stock subject to the restricted stock unit immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, multiplied by the exchange ratio, as described above.

However, at the effective time of the Merger, the following restricted stock units outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger will be treated as follows:

restricted stock units held by a person who is not as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger an employee of us or our subsidiaries will be terminated, and the holders of these restricted stock units will be entitled to receive the Merger Consideration for each share of our common stock subject to the restricted stock unit immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger; and restricted stock units held by an employee of us or our subsidiaries who is a permanent resident of the People's Republic of China will be terminated, and the holders of these restricted stock units will be entitled to receive a new restricted stock unit for Broadcom common stock that is economically equivalent to the cancelled restricted stock units.

Surrender of Stock Certificates; Payment of Merger Consideration; Lost Certificates

Prior to the effective time of the Merger, Broadcom will designate a paying agent, and Broadcom will deliver to the paying agent funds in the amount of the aggregate Merger Consideration.

Promptly after the effective time of the Merger, the paying agent will mail, to each person who was a holder of record of our common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, a letter of transmittal and instructions for exchanging stock certificates or book-entry shares previously representing shares of our common stock. After the effective time of the Merger, each such holder will, upon surrender to the paying agent of the stock certificate and a properly completed letter of transmittal or receipt by the paying agent of an order to transfer book-entry shares, together with other applicable required documents, be entitled to receive the Merger Consideration of $50.00 in cash, less any applicable withholding taxes, for each share of our common stock surrendered by such holder. No interest will be paid or accrue on the cash payable upon completion of the above procedures.

If any stock certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the paying agent will pay the Merger Consideration with respect to each share of our common stock formerly represented by the stock certificate upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Broadcom, the posting by such person of a bond in an amount as Broadcom may reasonably direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against Broadcom, NetLogic or the paying agent with respect to the stock certificate.

After six months from the closing date of the Merger, Broadcom may require the paying agent to deliver to Broadcom any funds that have not been distributed to our stockholders. After that time, stockholders will no longer be able to receive the Merger Consideration from the paying agent. Instead, they will be required to seek to obtain the Merger Consideration from Broadcom only, and in so doing will be treated as general creditors with respect to the payment of any Merger Consideration, without interest.

No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals

We have agreed that we, our subsidiaries or our respective offices and directors will not (and that we will cause our and our subsidiaries' other employees, agents and representatives, including investment bankers, attorneys and accountants, not to and will not authorize or permit any of them to), directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate or knowingly take any action to facilitate or encourage any inquiry with respect to an Acquisition Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement and summarized below), or the making, submission or announcement of any proposal that is or could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal;

conduct, participate or engage in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any other person any nonpublic information relating to us or our subsidiaries to, or otherwise cooperate in any way with, or knowingly assist, participate in, facilitate or knowingly encourage any effort with respect to any Acquisition Proposal by, any other person that is seeking to make, or has made, an Acquisition Proposal;

approve, endorse, recommend or make or authorize any public statement, recommendation or solicitation in support of any Acquisition Proposal;

approve any transaction under, or any other person becoming an interested stockholder under, Section 203 of the DGCL; or terminate, amend or waive any material rights under (or fail to take commercially reasonable steps to enforce such agreement) any standstill or other similar agreement between us or our subsidiaries and any other Person.

Despite these general prohibitions, at any time prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by our stockholders and subject to the conditions described below, in the event that we receive a bona fide, written unsolicited Acquisition Proposal that did not result from a breach of our non-solicitation, board recommendation and other obligations described in No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals and Change of Board Recommendation, which are referred to collectively as our deal protection obligations and our board of directors in good faith concludes, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and our financial advisor, that such Acquisition Proposal is, or would reasonably be expected to lead to, a Superior Offer (as summarized below), then we may:

furnish nonpublic information to the person making the Acquisition Proposal; and engage in negotiations with that person with respect to the Acquisition Proposal.

However, we may only take these actions if:

we comply with our deal protection obligations;

prior to furnishing or making available any nonpublic information or entering into any negotiations or discussions with such person:

that person is bound to a confidentiality agreement no less restrictive than the confidentiality agreement we have with Broadcom (including with respect to non-solicitation provisions); and contemporaneously with furnishing or making available any such nonpublic information to such person, we provide Broadcom any copies of information not previously provided to them; and our board of directors reasonably determines in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to provide such information or enter into such discussion or negotiations would result in a breach of our board of directors' fiduciary duties to our stockholders under applicable law.

In addition, in response to the receipt of an unsolicited Superior Offer, our board of directors may terminate the Merger Agreement in accordance with the termination provisions in order to concurrently enter into a definitive binding acquisition agreement accepting such Superior Offer, or effect a Change of Recommendation (as summarized under Change of Board Recommendation), if all of the following conditions are met:

our board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with our financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that a Superior Offer has been made and not withdrawn;

we have not obtained our stockholder approval to adopt the Merger Agreement;

we have delivered to Broadcom prior written notice at least three business days in advance of our intention to take such action, which notice states (1) that we received a Superior Offer, (2) the terms and conditions of the Superior Offer, copies of all relevant documents relating to such Superior Offer and the identity of the person or group making the Superior Offer and (3) that we intend to terminate the Merger Agreement to concurrently enter into a definitive acquisition agreement accepting such Superior Offer, or effect a Change of Recommendation, as applicable;

after delivering the Superior Offer notice, we have provided Broadcom with a reasonable opportunity to make adjustments to the Merger Agreement during such three-business day period, and negotiate (and cause our financial and legal advisors to negotiate) in good faith during such period, to make such changes to the Merger Agreement and the other agreements that may be offered in writing by Broadcom during the applicable notice period so that such Acquisition Proposal ceases to be a Superior Offer or that the cause for the Change of Recommendation ceases to exist, as applicable; provided that any material amendment or modification to the terms of the Superior Offer (including any amendment to any price term), will require a new notice of Superior Offer and again require compliance with the conditions described in these bullets except that the additional advance notice period will be reduced to two business days;

our board of directors has considered, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and its financial advisor, any amendment to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement (including any increase in the Merger Consideration) and the other agreements contemplated by the Merger Agreement offered by Broadcom during the applicable notice period and determined (1) after consultation with its financial advisor, that the terms of the Superior Offer are more favorable to our stockholders than the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (taking into account any amendments), and (2) after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would result in a breach of our board of directors' fiduciary duties to our stockholders under applicable law; and we have not breached our deal protection obligations in any material respect in connection with such Superior Offer.

An Acquisition Proposal means any offer or proposal, or indication of interest in making a proposal or offer, for any transaction or series of related transactions involving:

any purchase from us or acquisition by any person or group (as defined under Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder) of more than 15% beneficial ownership interest in our total outstanding voting securities or any tender offer or exchange offer that would result in any person or group beneficially owning 15% or more of our total outstanding voting securities, any merger, consolidation, business combination or similar transaction involving us or our subsidiaries which would result in a person acquiring 15% or more of any class of our equity or voting securities or 15% or more of the consolidated assets of us and our subsidiaries taken as a whole,

any sale, lease (other than in the ordinary course of business materially consistent with past practice), exchange, transfer, license (other than in the ordinary course of business materially consistent with past practice), acquisition or disposition of more 15% of our consolidated assets, or any liquidation or dissolution of NetLogic.

Table of Contents

A Superior Offer means a bona fide written Acquisition Proposal by a third person that did not result from a breach of our deal protection obligations on terms that our board of directors in good faith concludes, after consultation with our financial advisor and outside legal counsel, taking into account all aspects of the Acquisition Proposal, to be more favorable to our stockholders from a financial point of view than the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and is reasonably capable of being consummated, substituting each reference to 15% in the definition of Acquisition Proposal with 50%.

In addition, within the time frames specified in the Merger Agreement, we are obligated to provide Broadcom with notice as promptly as practicable of the receipt of any Acquisition Proposal or any request for nonpublic information or inquiry that could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal or from any person seeking to have discussions or negotiations with us relating to a possible Acquisition Proposal, including the terms proposed, the name of the proposing party and copies of documents relating to the proposal; any decision of our board of directors to enter into discussions or negotiations concerning any Acquisition Proposal, to provide nonpublic information to any person or that an Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Offer; and to keep Broadcom currently informed with respect to such matters and provide copies of various materials in connection with the foregoing.

Change of Board Recommendation

The Merger Agreement provides that neither our board of directors nor any committee of our board of directors will, directly or indirectly:

make a Change of Recommendation, which is defined in the Merger Agreement as:

to withdraw or modify, or publicly propose to withdraw or modify, in a manner adverse to Broadcom, our board of directors recommendation to our stockholders to adopt the Merger Agreement, to approve, adopt or recommend, or publicly propose to approve, adopt or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal, in the event of a tender offer or exchange offer for our common stock, to fail to recommend against acceptance of such offer by our stockholders within ten business days of commencement of such offer (and the taking of no position or a neutral position by our board of directors in respect of the acceptance of such offer by our stockholders as of the end of the ten business day period will constitute a failure to recommend against any such offer), or to recommend that our stockholders reject adoption of the Merger Agreement, the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; or allow us or our subsidiaries to execute or enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, merger agreement, acquisition agreement, option agreement, joint venture agreement, partnership agreement, or other similar agreement, arrangement or understanding:

constituting or related to, or that is intended to or would reasonably be expected to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal (other than a permitted confidentiality agreement), or requiring us to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Despite the above described restrictions or any other term in the Merger Agreement to the contrary, our board of directors may, at any time prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by our stockholders, effect a Change of Recommendation either in response to a Superior Offer, as summarized above, or in response to an intervening event. An intervening event is any event, development or change in circumstances, with respect to us or our subsidiaries outside of the ordinary course of business, that is material to us and our subsidiaries, taken as a whole, that was neither known to our board of directors, Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer

nor reasonably foreseeable as of or prior to the date of the Merger Agreement and does not relate to any Acquisition Proposal or to any event, change or circumstance relating to Broadcom, Merger Sub or any of their affiliates.

To effect a Change of Recommendation in response to an intervening event, the following conditions must be met:

our board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with our outside legal counsel, that an intervening event has occurred;

we delivered to Broadcom prior written notice at least four business days in advance of our intention to effect a Change of Recommendation in response to the intervening event, which notice must include information describing such intervening event in reasonable detail and state that we intend to effect a Change of Recommendation in response to the intervening event (and any material change to the facts and circumstances relating to such intervening event will require a new intervening event notice and again require compliance with the terms described in these bullets, except that the additional advance notice period will be reduced to two business days);

after delivering the intervening event notice, we provide Broadcom with a reasonable opportunity to make such adjustments to the Merger Agreement during such four-business day period, and negotiate (and cause our financial and legal advisors to negotiate) in good faith with respect thereto during such period, to make such changes to the Merger Agreement and other agreements that may be offered in writing by Broadcom during such period so that the cause for the Change of Recommendation ceases to exist; and our board of directors will have considered, after consultation with our outside legal counsel and our financial advisor, any amendment to the Merger Agreement (including any increase in the Merger Consideration) and the related agreements offered in writing by Broadcom during the applicable notice period and determined, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to effect a Change of Recommendation in response to such intervening event would result in a breach of our board of directors' fiduciary duties to our stockholders under applicable law, taking into account any such offered amendments to the Merger Agreement and other agreements.

Our board of directors is restricted from, in connection with any Change of Recommendation, taking any action to change the approval of our board of directors for purposes of causing any state takeover statute or other state law to be applicable to the Merger. However, this does not prohibit us from effecting a Change of Recommendation as specifically permitted under the Merger Agreement, as described above.

Stockholders Meeting

Subject to the termination of the Merger Agreement, we have agreed to convene and hold a stockholders meeting to consider the adoption of the Merger Agreement reasonably promptly after any SEC comments on our proxy statement have been resolved and the final proxy statement is ready for mailing. Without the prior consent of Broadcom, we cannot adjourn or postpone the stockholders meeting or recess the stockholders meeting beyond the scheduled meeting date, except where we are required to allow additional time to provide any necessary proxy statement supplement to our stockholders or if we do not have a quorum for the stockholders meeting.

Subject to certain exceptions described above (see Change of Board Recommendation), our board of directors is required to include its recommendation in this proxy statement and we are required to solicit from our stockholders proxies in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement and take all other actions necessary or advisable to pursue the vote of our stockholders in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement.

Efforts to Consummate the Merger; Regulatory Matters

We, Broadcom and Merger Sub have each agreed to use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions that are necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective in the most expeditious manner practicable the Merger, including using reasonable best efforts to accomplish the following:

satisfying the conditions to closing, as discussed below under Conditions to the Closing of the Merger ;

obtaining all necessary actions or nonactions, waivers, consents, approvals, orders and authorizations from governmental entities; making of all necessary registrations, declarations, submissions and filings; and taking all reasonable steps to avoid any suit, claim, action, investigation or proceeding by any governmental entity;

defending any suit, claim, action, investigation or proceeding challenging the Merger Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; obtaining specified consents, approvals and waivers from governmental agencies; and entering into any additional instrument necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and to fully carry out the purposes of the Merger Agreement.

In addition, we, Broadcom and Merger Sub have agreed to make as promptly as practicable after the date of the Merger Agreement all filings, notices, petitions, statements, registrations, submissions of information or other submissions required by an governmental entity in connection with the Merger and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

However, Broadcom is not required to agree to take an action of divestiture, which is:

any license, sale or other disposition or holding separate of any shares of capital stock or of any business, assets or properties of Broadcom, its subsidiaries or affiliates or of us or our subsidiaries;

any limitation on the ability of Broadcom, its subsidiaries or affiliates or us or our subsidiaries to conduct their respective businesses or own any capital stock or assets or to acquire, hold or exercise full rights of ownership of their respective businesses or, as applicable, the business of us and our subsidiaries; or any impediment on Broadcom, its subsidiaries or affiliates or us or our subsidiaries under any statute, rule, regulation, order, degree or other law governing competition, monopolies or restrictive trade practices.

We have also agreed not to take any of the above actions without Broadcom's prior written consent.

Conditions to the Closing of the Merger

Our, Broadcom's and Merger Sub's obligations to effect the Merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions:

the adoption of the Merger Agreement by our stockholders;

the absence of any temporary restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction, or other judgment issued by a court of competent jurisdiction or other law or legal requirement that has the effect of making the Merger illegal or otherwise prohibiting or preventing the consummation of the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; and the expiration or termination of any waiting period applicable to the Merger required under the HSR Act and the receipt of the affirmative approval or clearance of governmental entities required under the competition laws of the People's Republic of China and Taiwan.

Broadcom's and Merger Subs' obligations to effect the Merger are further subject to the satisfaction by us or waiver by them of the following conditions:

all of our representations and warranties are true and correct (disregarding all materiality or material adverse effect qualifications), in each case as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the closing date of the Merger (except that the accuracy of representations and warranties that by their terms address matters only as of a specified time or date will be determined as of that time or date) except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, has not nor would it reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect; provided that the representations and warranties with respect to our capital structure will be true and correct (disregarding any materiality or material adverse effect qualifications) other than such inaccuracies that would not cause the sum of the following to increase by more than a de minimis amount: the aggregate Merger Consideration required to be paid by Broadcom, any additional amount needed to be paid to indirectly acquire all of the outstanding equity interests in our subsidiaries, the aggregate spread as of immediately prior to the Merger closing date represented by all our outstanding stock options, and the value of our restricted stock units outstanding immediately prior to the closing date of the Merger;

we will not have materially breached or failed to perform or comply in any material respects with any of our agreements, obligations or covenants under the Merger Agreement;

no Effect, either individually or in the aggregate with other Effects, shall have occurred and be continuing after the date of the Merger Agreement that has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect;

the absence of any pending or threatened suit, action or proceeding asserted by a governmental entity with respect to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement:

challenging or seeking to make illegal, impose material limitations on, delay materially or otherwise directly or indirectly restrain or prohibit the consummation of the Merger;

seeking to obtain any damages that are material, individually or in the aggregate, or otherwise directly or indirectly relating to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;

seeking to restrain or prohibit Broadcom or Merger Subs' ownership or operation (or that of any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates) of all or a material portion of their or our business or assets;

seeking to require Broadcom, us, or any subsidiary or affiliate to effect an action of divestiture (as described under "Efforts to Consummate the Merger; Regulatory Matters");

seeking to impose limitations on the ability of Broadcom or Merger Sub to exercise full rights of ownership of our common stock, including the right to vote our shares on matters presented to our stockholders; or that is reasonably likely to cause a Material Adverse Effect; and

Broadcom will have received an officer's certificate from us certifying that the representations and warranties, agreements, obligations and covenants and material adverse effect conditions described above have been satisfied.

Our obligations to effect the Merger are further subject to the satisfaction by Broadcom and Merger Sub or waiver by us of the following conditions:

Broadcom's and Merger Sub's representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement (disregarding all materiality and material adverse effect qualifications) are true and correct in all material respects as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the closing date of the Merger (except that the accuracy of representations and warranties that by their terms address matters only as of a specified time will be determined as of that time) except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be true and correct would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the ability of Broadcom to consummate the Merger;

Broadcom and Merger Sub will not have breached or failed to perform or comply in any material respects with any their respective agreements, obligations or covenants under the Merger Agreement; and we will have received an officer's certificate from Broadcom certifying that the foregoing two conditions have been satisfied.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The Merger Agreement may be terminated under the following circumstances:

by mutual written consent authorized by the boards of directors of Broadcom and us;

by either Broadcom or us if:

the Merger is not consummated by April 30, 2012 (which we refer to as the End Date), but if on April 30, 2012, the antitrust closing condition is not satisfied but all other conditions to closing are satisfied or, with respect to closing conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at the Merger Closing, are capable of being satisfied, then we or Broadcom may extend the End Date until August 31, 2012; this right to terminate is not, however, available to any party whose action or failure to act has been a principal cause of or resulted in the failure of the Merger to occur and is a breach of the Merger Agreement;

a governmental entity (including a court) has issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action (or failed to take an action) that has become final and non-appealable and has the effect of permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the Merger; or our stockholders do not adopt the Merger Agreement at the stockholders meeting (or at any adjournment or postponement thereof);

by us prior to obtaining the requisite stockholder approval if:

Broadcom breaches a representation or warranty in the Merger Agreement, so that the related closing condition cannot be satisfied, or materially breaches a covenant or other agreement contained in the Merger Agreement and such breach or failure to perform cannot be cured by Broadcom or Merger Sub prior to the End Date through the exercise of reasonable best efforts or, if capable of being cured, is not cured within 30 days after receipt of written notice from us of the breach so long as Broadcom continues to exercise reasonable best efforts to cure such inaccuracy or breach through such 30-day period; however, we cannot terminate under this provision if we materially breached the Merger Agreement; or we determine to enter into a definitive binding acquisition agreement accepting a Superior Offer in compliance with our deal protection obligations and concurrently with such termination, we enter into such agreement and pay to Broadcom the termination fee described under Termination Fee and Expenses ;

by Broadcom if:

prior to obtaining the requisite stockholder approval, we breach a representation or warranty so that the related closing conditions cannot be satisfied or materially breach our covenants or other agreements contained in the Merger Agreement, and such breach or failure to perform cannot be cured prior to the End Date through the exercise of reasonable best efforts or, if capable of being cured, is not cured within 30 days after receipt of written notice from Broadcom of the breach so long as we continue to exercise reasonable best efforts to cure such inaccuracy or breach through such 30-day period; however Broadcom cannot terminate under this provision if it or Merger Sub materially breached the Merger Agreement;

an Effect that, individually or in the aggregate, has occurred since the date of the Merger Agreement and is continuing that has, or would reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect; provided that if the Effect is capable of remediation through the exercise of our reasonable best efforts prior to the End Date, then Broadcom cannot terminate under this provision prior to 30 days following the occurrence of such Effect; or prior to obtaining the requisite stockholder approval, if:

we effect a Change of Recommendation;

we fail to include our board's recommendation of the Merger Agreement in the proxy statement;

our board fails to reaffirm (publicly, if so requested) its recommendation of the Merger Agreement with 10 business days after Broadcom requests in writing affirmation in response to a publicly announced Acquisition Proposal;

we or our subsidiaries enter into an acquisition agreement; or we materially breach our obligations with respect to holding the stockholder meeting or knowingly, intentionally and materially breach our deal protection obligations (this item, collectively, with the prior four bullet points, are referred to as a Triggering Event).

Termination Fee and Expenses

Each party will generally pay its own fees and expenses in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, whether or not the Merger is consummated. We agreed to pay one-half of the filing fee under the HSR Act.

We will be required to pay a termination fee of $127,000,000 to Broadcom if:

Broadcom terminates the Merger Agreement because of a Triggering Event (including a material breach of our deal protection obligations or obligations to call and hold a special stockholder meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement), which fee is due within two business days of termination;

we terminate the Merger Agreement to enter into a definitive binding acquisition agreement accepting a Superior Offer, which fee is due concurrently with such termination; or the Merger Agreement is terminated by:

us or Broadcom because of the failure of the Merger to be consummated by the End Date, as may be extended, or the failure to obtain stockholder approval of the Merger Agreement at the stockholders meeting; or

Edgar Filing: NETLOGIC MICROSYSTEMS INC - Form DEFM14A

Broadcom because of a knowing and intentional breach of our covenants other than our deal protection obligations or obligations to call and hold a special stockholder meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement;

and:

after the date of the Merger Agreement and prior to the termination of the Merger Agreement, there was public disclosure of an Acquisition Proposal and within 12 months following termination of the Merger Agreement, an acquisition of NetLogic is consummated or we enter into a definitive agreement with a third person with respect to such an acquisition. In this case, we are obligated to pay the termination fee upon the earlier of the consummation of the acquisition or 12 months after the termination of the Merger Agreement. For purposes of this description, an acquisition means any transaction described in the definition of Acquisition Proposal substituting references of 15% with 40%.

However, we are not obligated to pay a termination fee to Broadcom due to the failure of the Merger to be consummated by the End Date if Broadcom's or Merger Subs's breach of the Merger Agreement was the principal cause of the failure of the Merger to close on or prior to the End Date or the antitrust condition was not satisfied prior to the termination of the Merger Agreement and our breach of the Merger Agreement was not the principal cause of the failure of the satisfaction of such condition on or prior to the End Date.

No termination fee is payable solely on the basis of any failure by NetLogic to obtain stockholder approval of the Merger Agreement absent an Acquisition Proposal.

If we fail to pay the termination fee when due and Broadcom successfully brings a suit for payment, then we are obligated to pay Broadcom's reasonable costs and expenses in connection with Parent's suit as well as per annum interest on the termination fee equal to two percent above the U.S. bank prime rate.

Any termination fee is not in lieu of, but will be credited against, damages for our knowing and intentional breach of the Merger Agreement or fraud.

Employee Matters

For one year after the effective time of the Merger, Broadcom has generally agreed to provide to our employees who remain employees of us or our subsidiaries after the effective time employee benefits that, in the aggregate, are no less favorable to such employee than, at Broadcom's election, either those benefits provided by Broadcom to its similarly situated employees or the benefits that we provide to such employees immediately prior to the Merger (excluding the value of any equity or equity related benefits or compensation). Our continuing employees will also receive credit for their service with us or our subsidiaries for purposes of determining eligibility to participate and vesting under Broadcom's benefit plans to the extent they were credited with service under our comparable benefit plans for those purposes, other than in the case of equity, equity-based compensation or other specified plans. Broadcom also generally agreed with respect to its welfare benefit plans maintained for the benefit of our continuing employees to waive eligibility requirements or pre-existing conditions and give effect to amounts previously paid by our employees for deductibles and out-of-pocket limitations under our corresponding benefit plans, subject to various exceptions.

We have agreed to terminate our and our subsidiaries' 401(k) plans and our 2004 Employee Stock Purchase Plan prior to the closing date.

Indemnification and Insurance

From and after the effective time of the Merger, the surviving corporation will assume, and Broadcom will cause the surviving corporation to fulfill and honor, our obligations under our charter and bylaws and pursuant to specified indemnification agreements as in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement with current or former directors or officers of us or our subsidiaries, subject to applicable law, including indemnification obligations. Broadcom will cause the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the surviving corporation to contain indemnification, exculpation and advance of expenses provisions that are least as favorable to such directors and officers as those contained in our charter and bylaws as of the date of the Merger Agreement and those provisions may not be amended or repealed in a manner adverse to such directors and officers for six years after the effective time of the Merger.

Prior to the effective time of the Merger, Broadcom will purchase a tail insurance policy with a claims period of six years from the effective time of the Merger with respect to directors' and officers' liability insurance covering those persons who were, as of the date of the Merger Agreement, covered by our directors.

and officers' liability insurance policy, for acts or omissions occurring prior to the effective time of the Merger on terms that are no less favorable, in the aggregate, than our policies in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement. If tail insurance is not available on these terms, then Broadcom will cause the surviving corporation to maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions that are, in the aggregate, no less favorable than those of our policies in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement. However, in no event will Broadcom or the surviving corporation be required to pay, with respect to the six-year period following the effective time of the Merger, annual premiums for such insurance which in the aggregate exceed 250% of our current annual premiums.

Additional Agreements

Under the Merger Agreement, we, Broadcom and Merger Sub have made certain additional agreements, including:

We have agreed to, and to cause our subsidiaries and representatives to, take various actions at Broadcom's expense to cooperate with Broadcom to obtain financing for the Merger. However, the Merger is not conditioned on Broadcom or Merger Sub obtaining any financing.

We are obligated to keep Broadcom informed on a current basis with respect to any stockholder litigation against us, our directors or officers relating to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. We will give Broadcom the opportunity to participate in the defense or settlement of such stockholder litigation. We cannot settle or offer to settle any stockholder litigation without Broadcom's prior written consent.

We and Broadcom have agreed to give prompt notice to the other party of:

any representation or warranty made by it in the Merger Agreement becoming untrue or inaccurate that, in the case of a breach by us, to an extent that would cause the failure of related closing condition to the Merger or, in the case of a breach by Broadcom, that is material;

its failure to comply with or satisfy in any material respect any agreement, obligation or covenant to be performed or complied with by it under the Merger Agreement, provided that, with respect to a breach by us, the failure must be to an extent that would cause the failure of the related closing condition to the Merger;

any notice or other communication received from a governmental entity or from any person alleging that their consent is required in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; or any actions, suits, claims, investigations or proceedings commenced or threatened against, relating to or involving or affecting it or its subsidiaries that relate to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

We agreed to give prompt notice to Broadcom of the occurrence of any Material Adverse Effect on us.

Extension, Waiver and Amendment of the Merger Agreement

We, Broadcom and Merger Sub may amend the Merger Agreement at any time. However, after the adoption of the Merger Agreement by our stockholders, no amendment can be made that by law requires approval by our stockholders without obtaining such approval.

We, Broadcom or Merger Sub may extend the time for performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties under the Merger Agreement, waive any inaccuracies in another party's representations and warranties and waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the Merger Agreement. However, after the adoption of the Merger Agreement by our stockholders, no waiver can be provided that by law requires approval by our stockholders without obtaining such approval.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS

If you do not vote for the adoption of the Merger Agreement at the Special Meeting and otherwise comply with the applicable statutory procedures of Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, or DGCL, summarized herein, you may be entitled to appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL. In order to exercise and perfect appraisal rights, a record holder of our common stock must follow the steps summarized below properly and in a timely manner.

Section 262 of the DGCL is reprinted in its entirety as Annex C to this proxy statement. Set forth below is a summary description of Section 262 of the DGCL. The following summary is not a complete statement of the law relating to appraisal rights and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Annex C. All references in Section 262 and this summary to stockholder are to the record holder of the shares of our common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger as to which appraisal rights are asserted. This discussion and Annex C should be reviewed carefully by any holder who wishes to exercise statutory appraisal rights or who wishes to preserve the right to do so, as failure to comply with the procedures set forth herein or therein will result in the loss of appraisal rights. Any stockholder considering making a demand for appraisal is advised to consult legal counsel because the failure strictly to comply with the procedures required by Section 262 of the DGCL could result in the loss of appraisal rights.

Under Section 262 of the DGCL, any holder of our common stock who does not wish to accept the $50.00 per share Merger Consideration may elect to exercise appraisal rights. If the Merger is consummated, you are entitled to exercise appraisal rights and obtain payment of the fair value for your shares, exclusive of any element of value arising from the expectation or accomplishment of the Merger.

Under Section 262 of the DGCL, when a merger is submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, as in the case of the Merger Agreement, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, NetLogic must notify each of our stockholders who was such on the record date for notice of the Special Meeting that appraisal rights are available and include in the notice a copy of Section 262 of the DGCL. This proxy statement constitutes such notice.

In order to exercise appraisal rights effectively, you, as a record holder, must satisfy each of the following primary requirements, in addition to complying with the other requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL:

you must hold shares in NetLogic as of the date you make your demand for appraisal rights and continue to hold shares in NetLogic through the effective date of the Merger;

you must deliver to NetLogic a written notice of your demand of payment of the fair value for your shares prior to the taking of the vote at the Special Meeting;

you must not have voted in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement; and a petition must be filed in the Delaware Court of Chancery, or the Delaware Court, demanding a determination of the fair value of the shares within 120 days after the effective date of the Merger.

Strict compliance with Section 262 of the DGCL is required in order to perfect appraisal rights. You will receive no further notices from us regarding your appraisal rights.

A demand for appraisal will be sufficient if it reasonably informs NetLogic of the identity of the stockholder and that such stockholder intends thereby to demand appraisal of such stockholder's shares of common stock. If you sign and return a proxy card that does not contain voting instructions, or submit a proxy by Internet or telephone that does not contain voting instructions, you will effectively waive your appraisal rights because such shares represented by the proxy will, unless the proxy is revoked, be voted for the adoption of the Merger Agreement. Therefore, a stockholder who submits a proxy and who wishes to exercise appraisal rights must submit a proxy containing instructions to vote against the adoption of the Merger Agreement or abstain from voting on the adoption of the Merger Agreement. Neither voting (in person or by proxy) against, abstaining from voting on or failing to vote on the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement will constitute a written demand for appraisal within the meaning of Section 262 of the DGCL. The written demand for appraisal must be in addition to and separate from any proxy or vote.

The address for purposes of making an appraisal demand is:

NetLogic Microsystems, Inc.

3975 Freedom Circle

Santa Clara, California 95054

Attention: Secretary

Only a holder of record of shares of our common stock, or a person duly authorized and explicitly purporting to act on his, her or its behalf, is entitled to assert an appraisal right for the shares of our common stock registered in his, her or its name. Beneficial owners who are not record holders and who wish to exercise appraisal rights are advised to consult with the appropriate record holders, such as a broker, promptly to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a timely appraisal demand. A record holder, such as a broker, who holds shares of our common stock as a nominee for others, may exercise appraisal rights with respect to the shares of our common stock held for one or more beneficial owners, while not exercising such rights for other beneficial owners. In such a case, the written demand should set forth the number of shares as to which the demand is made. Where no shares of our common stock are expressly mentioned, the demand will be presumed to cover all shares of our common stock held in the name of such record holder.

A demand for appraisal should be signed by or on behalf of the stockholder exactly as the stockholder's name appears on the stockholder's stock certificates or, in the case of shares held in book-entry form, stockholder registry with our transfer agent and should specify the stockholder's name and mailing address and the number of shares registered in the stockholder's name and must state that the stockholder intends thereby to demand appraisal of such shares. A demand for the appraisal of shares of our common stock owned of record by two or more joint holders, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, must identify and be signed by or for all of the holders. An authorized agent, including an agent for two or more joint holders, may execute the demand for appraisal for a stockholder of record; however, the agent must identify the record owner and expressly disclose the fact that, in exercising the demand, such person is acting as agent for the record owner. If a stockholder holds shares through a broker who in turn holds the shares through a central securities depository nominee such as Cede & Co., a demand for appraisal of such shares must be made by or on behalf of the depository nominee and must identify the depository nominee as record holder. A demand for appraisal signed by trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, attorneys-in-fact, officers of corporations or others acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity must so identify the persons signing the demand.

An appraisal demand may be withdrawn by a former stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party within 60 days after the effective date of the Merger, in a withdrawal that is in writing and delivered to the surviving corporation, or thereafter only with our approval. Upon withdrawal of an appraisal demand, the former stockholder will be entitled to receive the $50.00 per share Merger Consideration referred to above, without interest and subject to any applicable withholding taxes. After this period, a stockholder may withdraw his or her demand for appraisal only with our written consent.

If we complete the Merger, we will give written notice of the effective date of the Merger within 10 days after the effective date of the Merger to each of our former stockholders who did not vote in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement and who made a written demand for appraisal in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL. Within 120 days after the effective date of the Merger, but not later, either the surviving corporation or any dissenting stockholder who has complied with the requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL may file a petition in the Delaware Court demanding a determination of the value of the shares of our common stock, with a copy served on the surviving corporation in the case of a petition filed by a dissenting stockholder. If no petition for appraisal is filed with the Delaware Court within 120 days after the effective date of the Merger, a stockholder's right to appraisal will cease and he or she will be entitled to receive the $50.00 per share Merger

Consideration for his or her shares pursuant to the Merger Agreement, as if he or she had not demanded appraisal of his or her shares. We have no present intent to file an appraisal petition and stockholders seeking to exercise appraisal rights should not assume that the surviving corporation will file such a petition or initiate any negotiations with respect to the fair value of the shares of common stock. Accordingly, stockholders who desire to have their shares appraised should initiate any petitions necessary for the perfection of their appraisal rights within the time periods and in the manner prescribed in Section 262 of the DGCL.

Within 120 days after the effective date of the Merger, any dissenting stockholder who has complied with the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL up to that point may receive from the surviving corporation, upon written request, a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the Merger Agreement and with respect to which we have received demands for appraisal, and the aggregate number of holders of those shares. A person who is the beneficial owner of shares held in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, file an appraisal petition or request from the surviving corporation the statement described in the previous sentence. The surviving corporation must mail this statement to the stockholder within 10 days of receipt of the request or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisals under Section 262 of the DGCL, whichever is later.

If a petition for an appraisal is timely filed and a copy thereof served upon us, we will then be obligated, within 20 days after such service, to file with the Delaware Register in Chancery a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of the stockholders who have demanded appraisal of their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached. After notice to the stockholders as required by the Delaware Court, the Delaware Court is empowered to conduct a hearing on such petition and to determine which dissenting stockholders are entitled to an appraisal of their shares. The Delaware Court may require dissenting stockholders who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates representing shares for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings, and the Delaware Court is empowered to dismiss the proceedings as to any dissenting stockholder who does not comply with this request. Accordingly, dissenting stockholders are cautioned to retain their share certificates, pending resolution of the appraisal proceedings.

After determination of the dissenting stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Delaware Court will appraise the shares held by such dissenting stockholders at their fair value as of the effective date of the Merger, exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the Merger, together with interest, if any, to be paid on the amount determined to be fair value. When the value is so determined, the Delaware Court will direct the payment by the surviving corporation of such value, with interest thereon if the Delaware Court so determines, to the dissenting stockholders entitled to receive the same, upon, as applicable, surrender to the surviving corporation by such dissenting stockholders of the certificates representing such shares, or, in the case of holders of uncertificated shares, forthwith. Unless the Delaware Court in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, interest from the effective date of the Merger through the date of payment of the judgment shall be compounded quarterly and shall accrue at 5% over the Federal Reserve discount rate (including any surcharge) as established from time to time during the period between the effective date of the Merger and the date of payment of the judgment.

In determining fair value, the Delaware Court will take into account all relevant factors. In Weinberger v. UOP, Inc. the Delaware Supreme Court discussed the factors that could be considered in determining fair value in an appraisal proceeding, stating that "proof of value by any techniques or methods which are generally considered acceptable in the financial community and otherwise admissible in court should be considered and that [f]air price obviously requires consideration of all relevant factors involving the value of a company." The Delaware Supreme Court has stated that in making this determination of fair value the court must consider market value, asset value, dividends, earnings prospects, the nature of the enterprise and any other facts which could be ascertained as of the date of the Merger which throw any light on future prospects of the merged corporation. Section 262 of the DGCL provides that fair value is to be "exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger." In Cede & Co. v. Technicolor, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court stated that such exclusion is a narrow exclusion [that] does not encompass known elements of value, but which rather applies only to the speculative elements of value arising from such accomplishment or expectation. In Weinberger, the Delaware Supreme Court construed Section 262 of the DGCL to mean that elements of future value, including the nature of the enterprise, which are known or susceptible of proof as of the date of the merger and not the product of speculation, may be considered.

Stockholders should be aware that the fair value of their shares as determined under Section 262 of the DGCL could be greater than, the same as, or less than the $50.00 per share Merger Consideration. We make no representation as to the outcome of any appraisal of fair value as determined by the Delaware Court. Moreover, we do not anticipate offering more than the Merger Consideration to any stockholder exercising appraisal rights and reserve the right to assert, in any appraisal proceeding, that, for purposes of Section 262, the fair value of a share of our common stock is less than the Merger Consideration. In addition, stockholders should be aware that investment banking opinions as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the merger consideration payable in a merger are not necessarily opinions as to fair value under Section 262 of the DGCL.

The cost of the appraisal proceeding may be determined by the Delaware Court and taxed against the parties as the Delaware Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Each dissenting stockholder is responsible for his or her attorneys' and expert witness expenses, although, upon application of a stockholder, the Delaware Court may order that all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts, be charged pro rata against the value of all shares of stock entitled to appraisal. Determinations by the Delaware Court are subject to appellate review by the Delaware Supreme Court.

No appraisal proceedings in the Delaware Court shall be dismissed as to any dissenting stockholder without the approval of the Delaware Court, and this approval may be conditioned upon terms which the Delaware Court deems just; provided, however, that the foregoing statement shall not affect the right of any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the Merger within 60 days after the effective date of the Merger.

From and after the effective date of the Merger, former holders of our common stock, including those who have demanded appraisal rights as set forth in Section 262 of the DGCL, are not entitled to vote their shares for any purpose and are not entitled to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the shares (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the Merger).

If you properly demand appraisal of your shares of common stock under Section 262 of the DGCL and you fail to perfect, or effectively withdraw or lose, your right to appraisal, as provided in the DGCL, your shares will be deemed to have been converted on the effective date of the Merger into the right to receive the $50.00 per share Merger Consideration with respect to such shares in accordance with the Merger Agreement. You will fail to perfect, or effectively lose or withdraw, your right to appraisal if, among other things, no petition for appraisal is filed within 120 days after the effective date of the Merger, or if you deliver to us a written withdrawal of your demand for appraisal. Any such attempt to withdraw an appraisal demand more than 60 days after the effective date of the Merger will require our written approval.

The foregoing discussion is not a complete summary regarding your appraisal rights under Delaware law and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the applicable provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL, which is set forth in Annex C to this proxy statement and incorporated by reference herein. A stockholder who wishes to exercise appraisal rights should carefully review the foregoing description and the applicable provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL. Any stockholder considering demanding appraisal is advised to consult legal counsel because the failure strictly to comply with the procedures required by Section 262 of the DGCL could result in the loss of appraisal rights.

(a) Company Common Stock. Each share of the Company's common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Company Common Stock), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, other than any shares of Company Common Stock (the Company Shares) to be canceled pursuant to Section 1.6(e), will be canceled and extinguished and automatically converted (subject to Section 1.7) into the right to receive an amount of cash equal to $50.00, without interest (such amount of cash hereinafter referred to as the Merger Consideration), to be distributed in the manner provided in Section 1.8 (or in the case of a lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, upon delivery of an affidavit (and bond, if required in Parent's sole and absolute discretion) in the manner provided in Section 1.10).

product of (X) the number of shares of Company Common Stock that were issuable upon exercise of such Company Option immediately prior to the Effective Time, multiplied by (Y) a fraction (such ratio, the Option Ratio), the numerator of which is the Merger Consideration and the denominator of which is the volume weighted average price for a share of Parent Common Stock for the five (5) trading days immediately prior to (and excluding) the Merger Closing Date as reported by Bloomberg, L.P., and rounding such product down to the nearest whole number of shares of Parent Common Stock, and (B) the per share exercise price for the shares of Parent Common Stock issuable upon exercise of such Assumed Option will be equal to the quotient determined by dividing (1) the exercise price per share of Company Common Stock at which such Company Option was exercisable immediately prior to the Effective Time by (2) the Option Ratio, and rounding such quotient up to the nearest whole cent. The Company will not take any action to accelerate the vesting of any Company Options (other than to implement any existing agreements or arrangements for such acceleration in effect as of the date of this Agreement). As soon as reasonably practicable, Parent will use all reasonable best efforts to issue to each Person who holds an Assumed Option a document evidencing the foregoing assumption of such Company Option by Parent.

At the Effective Time, each Company RSU that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and that is held by a PRC Employee shall, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, terminate in its entirety at the Effective Time (Cancelled RSUs). The Company will not take any action to accelerate the vesting of any Company RSU (other than to implement any existing agreements or arrangements for such acceleration in effect as of the date of this Agreement). As soon as reasonably practicable, Parent will issue to each Person who holds an assumed Company RSU a document evidencing the foregoing assumption of such Company RSU by Parent.

(vi) The Company shall take all steps necessary prior to the Effective Time to cause the Company Options and Company RSUs to be treated as set forth in this Section 1.6, including providing any necessary notices and obtaining any necessary consents or waivers and making any necessary amendments to the Company Stock Plans and related agreements. Each share of common stock, par value $0.001 per share, of Merger Sub (the Merger Sub Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall at the Effective Time be converted into one validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable share of common stock, par value $0.001 per share, of the Surviving Corporation. After the Effective Time, each certificate, if any, evidencing ownership of shares of Merger Sub Common Stock shall evidence ownership of such shares of capital stock of the Surviving Corporation.

From and after the Effective Time, a holder of Dissenting Shares shall not be entitled to exercise any of the voting rights or other rights of an equity owner of the Surviving Corporation or of a stockholder of Parent.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1.7(a), if any holder of Company Shares who demands appraisal for such shares in accordance with Delaware Law shall effectively withdraw or lose (through failure to perfect or otherwise) such holder's appraisal rights under Delaware Law, then, as of the later of the Effective Time and the occurrence of such event, each of such holder's shares shall automatically be converted into and represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration as set forth in Section 1.6, without interest thereon, subject to any withholding of Taxes required under applicable Law, upon surrender of the Certificate representing such shares or transfer of such Book-Entry Shares, as applicable.

(c) The Company shall give Parent (i) prompt notice of any written demands for appraisal rights of any Company Shares, withdrawals of such demands, and any other instruments served pursuant to Delaware Law and received by the Company which relate to any such demand for appraisal rights and (ii) the opportunity to

Any communication to be made by the Company to any holder of Company Common Stock with respect to such demands shall be submitted to Parent in advance and shall not be presented to any holder of Company Common Stock prior to the Company receiving Parent's consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld.

1.8 Surrender of Certificates or Transfer of Book-Entry Shares.

(a) Paying Agent. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall designate a national bank or trust company to act as the paying agent (the Paying Agent) for the payment of the Merger Consideration in respect of each share of Company Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time represented by a stock certificate (each, a Certificate) and each non-certificated share of Company Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time represented by book-entry (the Book-Entry Shares), in each instance other than Dissenting Shares, in accordance with this Article I and Parent shall enter into a customary paying agent agreement with the Paying Agent.

(b) Parent to Provide Cash. At the Effective Time, Parent shall deliver to the Paying Agent for exchange, in accordance with this Article I, cash in an amount sufficient to pay the full amount of the cash payable pursuant to Section 1.6(a) as Merger Consideration in exchange for outstanding Company Shares. Any cash deposited with the Paying Agent shall hereinafter be referred to as the Exchange Fund.

(c) Exchange Procedures. Promptly after the Effective Time, Parent shall cause the Paying Agent to mail to each holder of record (as of the Effective Time) of a Certificate or Book-Entry Share, whose shares were converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 1.6(a): (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates or transfer of Book-Entry Shares to the Paying Agent and shall otherwise be in customary form) and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares in exchange for the cash payable pursuant to Section 1.6(a) as Merger Consideration. Upon (X) surrender of Certificates for cancellation to the Paying Agent together with such letter of transmittal, duly completed and validly executed in accordance with the instructions thereto and such other documents as may reasonably be required by the Paying Agent, or (Y) receipt of an agent's message by the Paying Agent (or such other evidence, if any, of transfer as the Paying Agent may reasonably request) in the case of Book-Entry Shares, the holder of record of such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor, with respect to each Company Share surrendered by such holder, the cash constituting the Merger Consideration, and the Certificates so surrendered or Book-Entry Shares so transferred shall forthwith be canceled. Until so surrendered or transferred, outstanding Certificates or Book-Entry Shares, respectively, will be deemed from and after the Effective Time, for all corporate purposes, to evidence the right to receive the Merger Consideration into which each Company Share represented thereby shall have been so converted. No interest will be paid or accrue on any cash payable to holders of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares under this Agreement.

(d) Required Withholding. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, each of the Paying Agent, Parent, Merger Sub and the Surviving Corporation shall be entitled to deduct and withhold (or cause to be deducted and withheld) from any consideration payable or otherwise deliverable pursuant to this Agreement, to any holder or former holder of Company Shares, Company Options, Company RSUs or otherwise, such amounts as may be required to be deducted or withheld therefrom under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), or any other provision or under any provision of state, local or non-United States Tax Law or under any other applicable Law. To the extent such amounts are so deducted or withheld, such amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such deduction or withholding was made.

(f) Investment of Exchange Fund. The Paying Agent shall invest the cash included in the Exchange Fund as directed by Parent; provided that no such investment or loss thereon shall affect the amounts payable to Company stockholders pursuant to this Article I. Any interest and other income resulting from such investment shall become a part of the Exchange Fund, and any amounts in excess of the amounts payable to Company stockholders pursuant to this Article I shall promptly be paid to Parent.

(g) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund which remains undistributed to the holders of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares six (6) months after the Effective Time shall, at the request of Parent, be delivered to Parent, and any Person entitled to payment in accordance with this Article I shall be entitled to look only to Parent solely as general creditors for any cash (which shall not accrue interest) payable to such Person pursuant to Section 1.6(a) as Merger Consideration with respect to the Company Shares held by such Person.

1.9 No Further Ownership Rights in Company Common Stock. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates or Book-Entry Shares are presented to the Surviving Corporation for any reason, they shall be canceled and exchanged as provided in the applicable provisions of this Article I.

1.10 Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. In the event any Certificates shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the Paying Agent shall issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificates, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the holder thereof, cash in an amount equal to the Merger Consideration with respect to each Company Share represented thereby; provided that Parent may, in its sole and absolute discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificates to deliver a bond in such sum as it may reasonably direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against Parent, the Company or the Paying Agent with respect to the Certificates alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

5.1 Proxy Statement.

(a) The Company shall prepare, in consultation with Parent, and file with the SEC a preliminary proxy or information statement relating to the Merger and this Agreement (a Proxy Statement) promptly after the date of this Agreement and use its reasonable best efforts, in consultation with Parent, to:

(i) obtain and furnish the information required to be included by the SEC in the preliminary Proxy Statement,

(ii) respond promptly to any comments made by the SEC or its staff with respect to the preliminary Proxy Statement,

(iii) cause a definitive Proxy Statement (together with any amendments and supplements thereto) to be mailed to its stockholders as soon as reasonably practicable containing all information required under applicable Law to be furnished to the Company's stockholders in connection with the Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement,

(iv) promptly amend or supplement any information provided by it for use in the preliminary or definitive Proxy Statement (including any amendments or supplements thereof) if and to the extent that it shall have become false or misleading in any material respect and take all steps necessary to cause the Proxy Statement as so amended or supplemented to be filed with the SEC and to be disseminated to the Company's stockholders, in each case as and to the extent required by applicable United States federal securities Laws, and

(v) cause the preliminary and definitive Proxy Statements, on each relevant filing date, on the date of mailing to the Company's stockholders and at the time of the Stockholders Meeting, not to contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, and cause the Proxy Statement to comply as to form in all material respects with the provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall have no responsibility with respect to any information supplied by Parent or Merger Sub for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Proxy Statement. Parent and its counsel shall be given a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on the preliminary and the definitive Proxy Statement and any amendment or supplement to the preliminary or the definitive Proxy Statement, as the case may be, each time before any such document is filed with the SEC, and the Company shall give reasonable and good faith consideration to any comments made by Parent and its counsel. The Company shall provide Parent and its counsel with (A) any comments or other communications, whether written or oral, that the Company or its counsel may receive from time to time from the SEC or its staff with respect to the Proxy Statement promptly after receipt of those comments or other communications, and (B) a reasonable opportunity to participate in the response of the Company to those comments and to provide comments on that response (to which reasonable and good faith consideration shall be given), including by participating with the Company or its counsel in any discussions or meetings with the SEC or its staff.

(b) Parent shall use reasonable best efforts to:

(i) cause the information supplied or to be supplied by or on behalf of Parent and Merger Sub in writing expressly for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Proxy Statement not to contain, on the date of the mailing to the Company's stockholders and at the time of the Stockholders Meeting, any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, and

(ii) promptly inform the Company if at any time prior to the Effective Time, any event relating to Parent or any of its affiliates, officers or directors should be discovered by Parent which is required to be set forth in a supplement to the Proxy Statement.

5.2 Meeting of Company Stockholders. The Company shall take all action reasonably necessary in accordance with Delaware Law and the Company Charter Documents to establish a record date, duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders, to consider adoption of this Agreement (the Stockholders Meeting) reasonably promptly after the date of any SEC comments on the Proxy Statement have been resolved and the final Proxy Statement is otherwise ready for dispatch and, in connection therewith, the Company shall mail the Proxy Statement to the Company's stockholders in advance of such meeting. Except to the extent that the Company's Board of Directors shall have effected a Change of Recommendation as permitted by Section 5.3(e) or Section 5.3(f), (i) the Proxy Statement shall include the Board Recommendation and (ii) the Company will use reasonable best efforts to solicit from its stockholders proxies in favor of the adoption of this Agreement and to take all other actions necessary or advisable to pursue the vote or consent of its stockholders, including such actions as are required by the rules and regulations of the Nasdaq Stock Market or Delaware Law or any other applicable Laws to obtain such approvals. Notwithstanding the foregoing in this Section 5.2, any adjournments or postponements of the Stockholders Meeting or any recess of the Stockholders Meeting beyond the scheduled meeting date shall require the prior written consent of Parent other than in the case and to the extent to which the Company is required to allow additional time to ensure that any necessary supplement or amendment to the Proxy Statement is provided to its stockholders in advance of a vote on the adoption of this Agreement or, if as of the time for which the Stockholders Meeting is originally scheduled (as set forth in the Proxy Statement), there are insufficient shares of Company Common Stock represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such Stockholders Meeting. Unless this Agreement is terminated by the Company or Parent, as the case may be, pursuant to Article VII, the Company shall use reasonable best efforts to ensure that any Stockholders Meeting (including any adjournment or postponement thereof) is called, noticed, convened, held and conducted, and that all proxies solicited by it in connection with the Stockholders Meeting (including any adjournment or postponement thereof) are solicited, in compliance with Delaware Law, its Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market and all other applicable Laws.

5.3 Acquisition Proposals and Change of Recommendation.

(a) No Solicitation. The Company agrees that none of the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or any of the Company's or any of its Subsidiaries officers and directors shall, and that it shall cause the Company's and its Subsidiaries' other Employees, agents and representatives (including any investment banker, attorney or accountant retained by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries) (such officers, directors, Employees, agents and representatives, collectively, Company Representatives) not to (and shall not authorize or permit any of them to), directly or indirectly: (i) solicit, initiate or knowingly take any action to facilitate or encourage any inquiry with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, or the making or submission or announcement of any proposal that is or could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal, (ii) conduct, participate or engage in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any Person (other than Parent and its affiliates and their respective representatives and other than the Company Representatives) any nonpublic information relating to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to, or otherwise cooperate in any way with, or knowingly assist, participate in, facilitate or knowingly encourage any effort with respect to any Acquisition Proposal by, any Person other than Parent, Merger Sub or any Subsidiary of Parent that is seeking to make, or has made, an Acquisition Proposal, (iii) approve, endorse, recommend or make or authorize any public statement, recommendation or solicitation in support of any Acquisition Proposal, (iv) approve any transaction (other than the transactions contemplated hereby) under, or any Person other than Parent, Merger Sub or any Subsidiary of Parent becoming an interested stockholder under, Section 203 of Delaware Law or (v) terminate, amend or waive any material rights under (or fail to take commercially reasonable steps to enforce such agreement) any standstill or other similar agreement between the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and any other Person other than Parent, Merger Sub or any Subsidiary of Parent, except in the case of clauses (ii), (iii) or (iv) to the extent specifically permitted pursuant to Section 5.3(d) or Section 5.3(e). Upon entering into of this Agreement, the Company and its Subsidiaries will immediately cease and cause to be terminated any and all existing activities, discussions or negotiations (including any such activities, discussions or negotiations conducted by affiliates of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or any Company Representatives) with any third parties conducted prior to the date of this Agreement with respect to consideration of any proposal that is or could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal. The Company will exercise any rights under any confidentiality or non-disclosure agreements with any such third parties to require the return or destruction of nonpublic information provided prior to the date of this Agreement by the Company, its Subsidiaries or any Company Representative to any such third parties.

(b) Subject to the provisions of this Section 5.3, neither the Board of Directors of the Company nor any committee thereof shall, directly or indirectly, (i)(A) withdraw or modify, or publicly propose to withdraw or modify, in a manner adverse to Parent, the Board Recommendation, (B) approve, adopt or recommend, or publicly propose to approve, adopt or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal, (C) in the event of a tender offer or exchange offer for any outstanding Company Shares, fail to recommend against acceptance of such tender offer or exchange offer by the Company's stockholders within ten (10) Business Days of the commencement thereof (for the avoidance of doubt, the taking of no position or a neutral position by the Board of Directors of the Company in respect of the acceptance of any tender offer or exchange offer by its stockholders as of the end of the ten (10) day Business Day period shall constitute a failure to recommend against any such offer); or (D) recommend that the Company's stockholders reject adoption of this Agreement, the Merger or the other transactions contemplated hereby (any action described in clauses (A)-(D) above being referred to as a Change of Recommendation) or (ii) allow the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to execute or enter into, any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, merger agreement, acquisition agreement, option agreement, joint venture agreement, partnership agreement, or other similar agreement, arrangement or understanding, (A) constituting or related to, or that is intended to or would reasonably be expected to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal (other than any confidentiality agreement pursuant to Section 5.3(d)) (an Acquisition Agreement) or (B) requiring it to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(c) Notification of Unsolicited Acquisition Proposals. As promptly as practicable (and in any event no later than twenty four (24) hours) after receipt of any Acquisition Proposal or any request for nonpublic information or inquiry that could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal or from any Person seeking to have discussions or negotiations with the Company relating to a possible Acquisition Proposal, the Company shall provide Parent with notice of such Acquisition Proposal, request or inquiry, including the material terms and conditions of such Acquisition Proposal, request or inquiry, the identity of the Person or group making any such Acquisition Proposal, request or inquiry and a copy of all drafts and final versions of transaction documents provided by or on behalf of such Person or group in connection with such Acquisition Proposal. The Company shall notify Parent, in writing, of any decision of its Board of Directors to enter into discussions or negotiations concerning any Acquisition Proposal or to provide nonpublic information to any Person, which notice shall be given as promptly as practicable after the meeting or action by written consent of the Board of Directors at which such decision is made (and in any event at least twelve (12) hours prior to entering into any discussions or negotiations or providing any nonpublic information to any Person). The Company agrees that it shall promptly (and in any event within twelve (12) hours) (i) provide Parent with oral and written notice setting forth all such information as is reasonably necessary to keep Parent currently informed in all material respects of the status and material terms of any such Acquisition Proposal, request or inquiry (including any negotiations contemplated by Section 5.3(d)), (ii) provide Parent a copy of all written materials subsequently provided to, by or on behalf of such Person or group in connection with such Acquisition Proposal, request or inquiry and (iii) notify Parent of any determination by the Board of Directors of the Company that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Offer.

(d) Permitted Response to Acquisition Proposals. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 5.3(a) or elsewhere in this Agreement, in the event that the Company receives prior to obtaining Stockholder Approval a bona fide, written unsolicited Acquisition Proposal from a third Person that did not result from a breach of this Section 5.3 and the Company's Board of Directors in good faith concludes, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and its financial advisor, that such Acquisition Proposal is, or would reasonably be expected to lead to, a Superior Offer, the Company may then (1) furnish nonpublic information to the third Person making such Acquisition Proposal and (2) engage in negotiations with the third Person with respect to such Acquisition Proposal; provided that:

(i) the Company complies with all of the terms of this Section 5.3;

(ii) prior to furnishing or making available any nonpublic information or entering into any negotiations or discussions with such third Person, (1) such third Person is bound to an executed confidentiality agreement with the Company no less restrictive to such third Person with respect to the use or disclosure of nonpublic information than the Confidentiality Agreement is with respect to Parent (including with respect to non-solicitation provisions) and (2) contemporaneously with furnishing or making available any such nonpublic information to such third Person, to the extent such nonpublic information has not been previously so furnished or made available to Parent, copies of such nonpublic information; and

(iii) the Board of Directors of the Company reasonably determines in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to provide such information or enter into such discussion or negotiations would result in a breach of the Board of Directors' fiduciary duties to the stockholders of the Company under applicable Law.

(e) Superior Offers. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 5.3(a) or elsewhere in this Agreement, solely in response to the receipt of an unsolicited Superior Offer, the Board of Directors of the Company may (i) terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(g) in order to concurrently enter into a definitive binding Acquisition Agreement accepting such Superior Offer or (ii) effect a Change of Recommendation, in the case of clauses (i) or (ii) if all of the following conditions in clauses (A) through (F) are met:

(A) the Board of Directors of the Company determines in good faith, after consultation with the Company's financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that a Superior Offer has been made and not withdrawn;

(B) the Stockholder Approval has not been obtained;

(C) the Company shall have delivered to Parent prior written notice (a Superior Offer Notice) at least three (3) Business Days in advance of its intention to take such action with respect to such Superior Offer which shall state expressly (1) that the Company has received a Superior Offer, (2) the terms and conditions of the Superior Offer, copies of all relevant documents relating to such Superior Offer and the identity of the Person or group making the Superior Offer and (3) that the Company intends to terminate this Agreement in order to concurrently enter into a definitive Acquisition Agreement accepting such Superior Offer, or effect a Change of Recommendation, as applicable;

(D) after delivering the Superior Offer Notice, the Company shall provide Parent with a reasonable opportunity to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement during such three (3)-Business Day period, and negotiate (and shall cause the Company's financial and legal advisors to negotiate) in good faith with respect thereto during such three (3)-Business Day period, to make such changes in the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the other agreements that may be offered in writing by Parent during the applicable notice period so that such Acquisition Proposal ceases to constitute a Superior Offer or that the cause for the Change of Recommendation ceases to exist, as applicable (it being agreed that any material amendment or modification to the terms of the Superior Offer (including any amendment to any price term thereof), shall require a new Superior Offer Notice and again require compliance with the terms of this Section 5.3(e), except that the additional advance notice period shall be reduced to two (2) Business Days with respect to any such new Superior Offer Notice;

(E) the Board of Directors of the Company shall have considered, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and its financial advisor, any amendment to the terms and conditions of this Agreement (including any increase in the Merger Consideration) and the other agreements contemplated hereby that may be offered in writing by Parent during the applicable notice period and shall have determined (1) after consultation with its financial advisor, that the terms of the Superior Offer are more favorable to the stockholders of the Company (in their capacities as stockholders) than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (taking into account as it may be adjusted pursuant to paragraph (D) above) and (2) after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to take the applicable action set forth in clause (i) or (ii) of this Section 5.3(e) would result in a breach of the Board of Directors' fiduciary duties to the stockholders of the Company under applicable Law; and

(F) the Company shall not have breached any of the provisions set forth in Section 5.2 or this Section 5.3 in any material respect in connection with such Superior Offer.

(f) Intervening Event Change of Recommendation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time prior to obtaining the Stockholder Approval, the Board of Directors of the Company may, in response to an Intervening Event, effect a Change of Recommendation; provided that all of the following conditions in clauses (A) through (D) are met:

(A) the Board of Directors of the Company determines in good faith, after consultation with the Company's outside legal counsel, that such Intervening Event has occurred;

(B) the Company shall have delivered to Parent prior written notice (an Intervening Event Notice) at least four (4) Business Days in advance of its intention to effect a Change of Recommendation in response to such Intervening Event which notice shall include information describing such Intervening Event in reasonable detail and state expressly (1) that an Intervening Event has occurred and (2) that the Company intends to effect a Change of Recommendation in response to such Intervening Event (and provided that any material change to the facts and circumstances relating to such Intervening Event shall require a new Intervening Event Notice and again require compliance with the terms of this Section 5.3(f), except that the additional advance notice period shall be reduced to two (2) Business Days with respect to any such new Intervening Event Notice);

(C) after delivering the Intervening Event Notice, the Company shall provide Parent with a reasonable opportunity to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement during such four (4)-Business Day period, and negotiate (and shall cause the Company's financial and legal advisors to negotiate) in good faith with respect thereto during such four (4)-Business Day period, to make such changes in the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the other agreements that may be offered in writing by Parent during the notice period so that the cause for the Change of Recommendation ceases to exist; and

(D) the Board of Directors of the Company shall have considered, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and its financial advisor, any amendment to the terms and conditions of this Agreement (including any increase in the Merger Consideration) and the other agreements contemplated hereby that may be offered in writing by Parent during the applicable notice period and shall have determined after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to effect a Change of Recommendation in response to such Intervening Event would result in a breach of the Board of Directors' fiduciary duties to the stockholders of the Company under applicable Law (taking into account any such offered amendments to this Agreement and such other agreements).

(g) State Takeover Statute. The Board of Directors of the Company shall not, in connection with any Change of Recommendation, take any action to change the approval of the Board of Directors of the Company for purposes of causing any state takeover statute or other state Law to be applicable to the transactions contemplated hereby. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 5.3(g) shall not prohibit the Company from effecting a Change of Recommendation as specifically permitted pursuant to the terms of Section 5.3(e) or Section 5.3(f).

(h) Certain Definitions. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms have the following respective meanings:

(i) Acquisition Proposal, with respect to the Company, means any offer or proposal, or indication of interest in making a proposal or offer, for any transaction or series of related transactions involving: (a) any purchase from the Company or acquisition by any Person or group (as defined under Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder) of more than fifteen percent (15%) beneficial ownership interest in the total outstanding voting securities of the Company or any tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any Person or group beneficially owning fifteen percent (15%) or more of the total outstanding voting securities of the Company, (b) any merger, consolidation, business combination or similar transaction involving the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, in each such case in this clause (b) which would result in a third Person acquiring (A) fifteen percent (15%) or more of any class of equity or voting securities of the Company or (B) fifteen percent (15%) or more of the consolidated assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole, (c) any sale, lease (other than in the ordinary course of business materially consistent with past practice), exchange, transfer, license (other than in the ordinary course of business materially consistent with past practice), acquisition or disposition of more than fifteen percent (15%) of the consolidated assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole or (d) any liquidation or dissolution of the Company; provided, that the transactions between Parent and the Company contemplated by this Agreement (and any other transactions between the Company and Parent or any wholly owned Subsidiary of Parent) shall not be deemed an Acquisition Proposal;

(ii) Intervening Event means any event, development or change in circumstances, with respect to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries outside of the ordinary course of business, that is material to the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, that (i) was neither known to the Board of Directors of the Company, the Chief Executive Officer of the Company or the Chief Financial Officer of the Company nor reasonably foreseeable as of or prior to the date hereof and (ii) does not relate to (A) any Acquisition Proposal or (B) any events, changes or circumstances relating to Parent, Merger Sub or any of their affiliates; and

(iii) Superior Offer, with respect to the Company, means a bona fide written Acquisition Proposal by a third Person that did not result from a breach of this Section 5.3 on terms that the Board of Directors of the Company in good faith concludes, after consultation with its financial advisor and outside legal counsel, taking into account all aspects of the Acquisition Proposal to be more favorable to the Company's stockholders (in their capacities as stockholders) from a financial point of view than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and is reasonably capable of being consummated, provided that each reference to fifteen percent (15%) in the definition of Acquisition Proposal shall be replaced with fifty percent (50%) for purposes hereof.

(i) Specific Performance. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that the provisions of this Section 5.3 were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed by the parties hereto that Parent shall be entitled to an immediate injunction or injunctions, without the necessity of proving the inadequacy of money damages as a remedy and without the necessity of posting any bond or other security, to prevent breaches of the provisions of this Section 5.3 and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof in any court of the United States or any state having jurisdiction, this being in addition to any other remedy to which Parent may be entitled at law or in equity.

(j) Violations. Without limiting the foregoing, it is understood that any violation of the restrictions set forth in this Section 5.3 by any affiliate of the Company or Company Representative shall be deemed to be a breach of this Agreement by the Company; provided that any violation of the restrictions set forth in this Section 5.3 by any employee of the Company (other than any officer or director of the Company) shall only be deemed to be a breach of this Agreement by the Company to the extent that any such violation was authorized or knowingly permitted by any director or officer of the Company.

5.4 Confidentiality; Access to Information; No Modification of Representations, Warranties or Covenants.

(a) Confidentiality. The parties acknowledge that the Company and Parent have previously executed an Amended and Restated Mutual Nondisclosure Agreement, dated August 16, 2011 (as may be further amended or supplemented from time to time, the Confidentiality Agreement), which Confidentiality Agreement will continue in full force and effect in accordance with its terms, and each of Parent and the Company will hold, and will cause its respective Representatives (as defined in the Confidentiality Agreement) to hold and keep confidential, any Evaluation Material (as defined in the Confidentiality Agreement) confidential in accordance with the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement.

(b) Access to Information. Subject to the Confidentiality Agreement and applicable Law, the Company shall afford Parent and its accountants, counsel and other Representatives, reasonable access (during regular business hours upon reasonable notice) during the period from the date hereof and continuing until the earlier of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VII and the Effective Time to (i) the properties, books, contracts, personnel, commitments and records of the Company and its Subsidiaries (provided that such access shall not unreasonably interfere with the business and operations of the Company and its Subsidiaries) and all capitalization and equity compensation information that is necessary for Parent to promptly comply with applicable Law (to the extent such information is in the possession of or reasonably available to the Company and its Subsidiaries or its independent registered accountants) and (ii) all other information concerning the business, properties and personnel (subject to reasonable procedures as the parties may agree) of the Company and its Subsidiaries as Parent may reasonably request; provided that the Company may restrict the foregoing access to the extent that any Law, treaty, rule or regulation of any Governmental Entity applicable to the Company requires such party to restrict or prohibit access to any such properties or information. Any information obtained from the Company or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to the access contemplated by this Section 5.4 shall be subject to the Confidentiality Agreement.

(c) No Modification of Representations and Warranties or Covenants. No information or knowledge obtained in any investigation or notification pursuant to this Section 5.4, Section 5.6 or Section 5.7, or otherwise shall affect or be deemed to modify any representation or warranty contained herein, the covenants or agreements of the parties hereto or the conditions to the obligations of the parties hereto under this Agreement.

5.5 Public Disclosure. Without limiting any other provision of this Agreement, each of Parent and the Company shall consult with the other and issue a joint press release with respect to the execution of this Agreement. Thereafter, neither the Company nor Parent, nor any of their respective affiliates, shall issue any press release or other announcement (to the extent not previously publicly disclosed or made in accordance with this Agreement) with respect to this Agreement, the transactions contemplated hereby or any Acquisition Proposal without the prior consent of the other party (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), (i) except as such press release or other announcement may be required by applicable Law or the applicable rules of a national securities exchange, in which case the party required to issue the release or make the announcement shall use its reasonable best efforts to provide the other party with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on such release or announcement in advance of its issuance or (ii) in connection with a Change of Recommendation if and to the extent permitted by Section 5.3.

It is acknowledged and agreed by the parties hereto that all provisions contained in this Section 5.8 with respect to employees are included for the sole benefit of the respective parties and shall not create any right (i) in any other Person, including any employees, former employees, any participant in any Company Employee Plan or any participant in any Parent Benefit Plan or any beneficiary thereof or (ii) to continued employment with the Company, any of its Subsidiaries, the Surviving Corporation, Parent or any of their affiliates. (c) Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Section 5.9 is intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by the Indemnified Parties and their heirs and personal representatives and shall be binding on Parent and the Surviving Corporation and their respective successors and assigns, and shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights to indemnification or contribution that any such Person may have by contract or otherwise. On and after the Merger Closing, the obligations of Parent under this Section 5.9 shall not be terminated or modified in such a manner as to adversely affect the rights of any Indemnified Party under this Section 5.9 without the consent of such affected Indemnified Party.

5.10 Financing Cooperation.

(a) Subject to Sections 5.10(b) and 5.10(c), the Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Company Representatives to, in each case at Parent's sole expense and provided that such efforts do not interfere unreasonably with the business or operations of the Company and its Subsidiaries, use its good faith efforts to:

(i) Termination Fee. Other than as set forth below, the Company shall promptly, but (except in the case of clause (B) below) in no event later than two (2) Business Days after the date of termination pursuant to the sections of this Agreement as set forth below, pay Parent a fee equal to One Hundred Twenty-Seven Million Dollars ($127,000,000) (the Termination Fee) in the event that this Agreement is (A) terminated by Parent pursuant to Section 7.1(d); (B) terminated by the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(g), provided that in the case of termination under Section 7.1(g), payment of the Termination Fee by the Company shall be made concurrently with such termination, or (C) terminated by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(b), Section 7.1(f) or Section 7.1(i); provided that in the case of termination pursuant to Section 7.1(b), Section 7.1(f) or Section 7.1(i) (on account of a knowing and intentional breach of one or more covenants and agreements other than Section 5.2 or Section 5.3) or Section 7.1(i) such payment (1) shall be made only if after the date of this Agreement and prior to such termination, there has been disclosure publicly of an Acquisition Proposal with respect to the Company and within twelve (12) months following the termination of this Agreement, an Acquisition of the Company is consummated or the Company enters into a definitive agreement with a third Person with respect to an Acquisition of the Company and (2) shall be made no later than the earlier of (x) the consummation of such Acquisition of the Company and (y) twelve (12) months following the termination of this Agreement; provided further that the Company shall not be excused of its obligation to pay the Termination Fee by reason of the termination or abandonment of any such definitive agreement with respect to the Acquisition. Notwithstanding the foregoing in this Section 7.3(b)(i), no Termination Fee shall be payable with respect to any termination pursuant to Section 7.1(b) under circumstances where (x) Parent's or Merger Sub's breach of this Agreement was the principal cause of the failure of the Merger Closing Date to occur on or before the End Date, or (y) the condition set forth in Section 6.1(c) has not been satisfied prior to termination and the Company's breach of this Agreement was not the principal cause of the failure of the satisfaction of Section 6.1(c) on or before the End Date.

(ii) Interest and Costs: Other Remedies. The Company acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 7.3(b) are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, Parent would not enter into this Agreement; accordingly, if the Company fails to pay in a timely manner the amounts due pursuant to this Section 7.3(b), and, in order to obtain such payment, Parent makes a claim that results in a judgment against the Company for the amounts set forth in this Section 7.3(b), the Company shall pay to Parent the reasonable costs and expenses of Parent (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with such suit, together with interest on the amounts due pursuant to this Section 7.3(b) at the rate two percent (2%) per annum over the United States bank prime rate of interest published in The Wall Street Journal on the date such payment was required (or, if such date is not a publication date, the most recent preceding publication date) from the date such payment was required to be made (or such lesser percentage as is the maximum permitted under applicable Law). Any and all such payment of fees and expenses described in this Section 7.3(b) shall be made by the Company by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account to be designated by Parent. Payment of the fees and expenses described in this Section 7.3(b) shall not be in lieu of, but shall be credited against, damages incurred in the event of a Covered Breach. Each of the parties acknowledges and agrees that the Termination Fee is not a penalty, but rather is liquidated damages in a reasonable amount that will compensate Parent and Merger Sub in the circumstances in which such Termination Fee is payable for the efforts and resources expended and opportunities foregone while negotiating this Agreement and in reliance on this Agreement and on the expectation of the consummation of the Merger, which amount would otherwise be impossible to calculate with precision. The parties acknowledge and agree that in no event shall the Company be required to pay the Termination Fee on more than one occasion, whether or not the Termination Fee may be payable under more than one provision of this Agreement at the same or at different times and the occurrence of different events. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 7.3(b)(ii) shall limit the rights of Parent, Merger Sub or the Company under Section 8.8 (or otherwise with respect to injunctive or similar relief) or the rights of Parent or Merger Sub to seek damages under Section 7.2 for any Covered Breach.

(iii) Certain Definitions. For the purposes of this Section 7.3(b) only, Acquisition, with respect to the Company, means a transaction of the type described in the definition of Acquisition Proposal, except that for this purpose each reference to fifteen percent (15%) therein shall be deemed to be a reference to forty percent (40%) .

7.4 Amendment. Subject to applicable Law, this Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto, by action taken or authorized by their respective Boards of Directors, at any time before or after obtaining Stockholder Approval; provided that no such amendment shall be made after the Stockholder Approval which by Delaware Law requires further approval by the stockholders of the Company without such further stockholder approval; provided further that this Agreement may not be amended except by execution of an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of Parent, Merger Sub and the Company.

7.5 Extension: Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time either party hereto, by action taken or authorized by their respective Board of Directors, may, to the extent legally allowed: (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties hereto, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties made to such party contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto and (iii) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions for the benefit of such party contained herein. No failure or delay by any party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder, including pursuant to Section 7.1, shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. The rights and remedies herein provided shall be cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by applicable Law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any provision of this Agreement may be waived prior to the Effective Time if, but only if, such waiver is in writing and is signed by each party against whom the waiver is to be effective; provided that that no such waiver shall be made after the Stockholder Approval which by Delaware Law requires further approval by the stockholders of the Company without such further stockholder approval.

(a) constitute the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, it being understood that the Confidentiality Agreement shall continue in full force and effect until the Merger Closing and shall survive any termination of this Agreement and

(b) are not intended to confer upon any Person other than the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns any rights or remedies hereunder, except

(i) as specifically provided, following the Effective Time, in Section 5.9; and

(ii) prior to the Effective Time, for the right of the Company (or any successor in interest thereto), in its sole and absolute discretion, on behalf of the holders of Company Shares to pursue specific performance or, if specific performance is not sought or is not granted as a remedy, damages (which damages may include the loss of the economic benefits of the Merger to the holders of Company Shares) in the event of Parent's knowing and intentional and material breach of this Agreement or fraud with respect hereto, which right is hereby acknowledged and agreed to by Parent and Merger Sub but which right may only be pursued subject to and in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

(a) Parent and Merger Sub acknowledge and agree that the Company has not made and is not making any representations or warranties whatsoever regarding the subject matter of this Agreement, express or implied, except as provided in Article II, and that they are not relying and have not relied on any representations or warranties whatsoever regarding the subject matter of this Agreement, express or implied, except as provided in Article II; and (b) the Company acknowledges and agrees that Parent and Merger Sub have not made and are not making any representations or warranties whatsoever regarding the subject matter of this Agreement, express or implied, except as provided in Article III, and that it is not relying and has not relied on any representations or warranties whatsoever regarding the subject matter of this Agreement, express or implied, except as provided in Article III.

8.8 Other Remedies; Specific Performance. Except as otherwise provided herein, any and all remedies herein expressly conferred upon a party will be deemed cumulative with and not exclusive of any other remedy conferred hereby, or by Law or equity upon such party, and the exercise by a party of any one remedy will not preclude the exercise of any other remedy. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed by the parties hereto that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions, without the necessity of proving the inadequacy of money damages as a remedy and without the necessity of posting any bond or other security, to prevent breaches of the provisions of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof, this being in addition to any other remedy to which the parties may be entitled at law or in equity.

8.11 Assignment. No party may assign, delegate or otherwise transfer either this Agreement or any of its rights, interests, or obligations hereunder without the prior written approval of the other parties, except that Parent may transfer or assign its rights and delegate its obligations hereunder, in whole or in part, to any of its wholly owned Subsidiaries at any time; provided that Merger Sub may assign this Agreement to any wholly owned Subsidiary of Parent (provided that such assignment shall not impede or delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or otherwise materially impede the rights of the stockholders of the Company under this Agreement). No transfer or assignment by any party shall relieve such party of any of its obligations hereunder. Any purported assignment in violation of this Section 8.11 shall be void. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

8.12 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH OF PARENT, MERGER SUB AND THE COMPANY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THE ACTIONS OF PARENT, MERGER SUB OR THE COMPANY IN THE NEGOTIATION, ADMINISTRATION, PERFORMANCE AND ENFORCEMENT HEREOF.

Board of Directors

NetLogic Microsystems, Inc.

3975 Freedom Circle

Santa Clara, CA 95054

Members of the Board of Directors:

We understand that NetLogic Microsystems, Inc. (the Company), Broadcom Corporation (Parent) and I&N Acquisition Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of September 11, 2011 (the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which, among other things, Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company (the Merger). Pursuant to the Merger, the Company will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent, and each outstanding share of common stock of the Company, par value $0.01 per share (Company Common Stock), other than shares held in treasury or held by Parent or any affiliate of Parent, will be converted into the right to receive $50.00 in cash. The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Merger Agreement.

You have asked for our opinion as to whether the consideration to be received by the holders of shares of Company Common Stock, other than Parent or any affiliate of Parent, (the Holders) pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to such Holders.

For purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have reviewed the Merger Agreement, certain related documents and schedules, and certain publicly available financial statements and other business and financial information of the Company. We have also reviewed certain financial projections and operating data prepared by the management of the Company (the Company Projections). Additionally, we discussed the past and current operations and financial condition and the prospects of the Company with senior executives of the Company. We also reviewed the historical market prices and trading activity for Company Common Stock and compared the financial performance of the Company and the prices and trading activity of Company Common Stock with that of certain other selected publicly-traded companies and their securities. In addition, we reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of selected acquisition transactions and performed such other analyses, reviewed such other information and considered such other factors as we have deemed appropriate.

In arriving at our opinion, we have assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the information that was publicly available or supplied or otherwise made available to, or discussed with, us by the Company. With respect to the Company Projections, we have been advised by the management of the Company, and have assumed, that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of the Company of the future financial performance of the Company and other matters covered thereby. We have assumed that the Merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement, without any modification or delay. In addition, we have assumed that in connection with the receipt of all the necessary approvals of the proposed Merger, no delays, limitations, conditions or restrictions will be imposed that could have an adverse effect on the Company. We have not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. In addition, we have relied, without independent verification, upon the assessment of the management of the Company as to the existing and future technology and products of the Company and the risks associated with such technology and products.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with this transaction and will receive a fee for our services payable upon rendering of this opinion. We will also receive an additional, larger fee if the Merger is consummated. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse our expenses and indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. During the two year period prior to the date hereof, no material relationship existed between Qatalyst or any of its affiliates and the Company or Parent pursuant to which compensation was received by Qatalyst or its affiliates; however, Qatalyst and/or its affiliates may in the future provide investment banking and other financial services to the Company or Parent and their respective affiliates for which we would expect to receive compensation.

Qatalyst provides investment banking and other services to a wide range of corporations and individuals, domestically and offshore, from which conflicting interests or duties may arise. In the ordinary course of these activities, affiliates of Qatalyst may at any time hold long or short positions, and may trade or otherwise effect transactions in debt or equity securities or loans of the Company, Parent or certain of their respective affiliates. This opinion has been approved by our opinion committee in accordance with our customary practice.

This opinion is for the information of the Board of Directors of the Company and may not be used for any other purpose without our prior written consent. This opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any Holder should vote with respect to the Merger or any other matter and does not in any manner address the price at which Company Common Stock will trade at any time.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof may affect this opinion and the assumptions used in preparing it, and we do not assume any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion. Our opinion does not address the underlying business decision of the Company to engage in the Merger, or the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any strategic alternatives that may be available to the Company. Our opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by the Holders pursuant to the Merger Agreement and we express no opinion with respect to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to any of the Company's officers, directors or employees, or any class of such persons, relative to such consideration.

Based on and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion on the date hereof that the consideration to be received by the Holders pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to such Holders.

Yours faithfully,

GENERAL CORPORATION LAW OF DELAWARE

SECTION 262 APPRAISAL RIGHTS

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in 1 or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 255, § 256, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in § 251(f) of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (b)(1) of this section, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

- a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;
- b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;
- c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing paragraphs (b)(2)a. and b. of this section; or
- d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing paragraphs (b)(2)a., b. and c. of this section.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 253 or § 267 of this title is not owned by the parent immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for notice of such meeting (or such members who received notice in accordance with § 255(c) of this title) with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) of this section that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section and, if 1 of the constituent corporations is a nonstock corporation, a copy of § 114 of this title. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228, § 253, or § 267 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section and, if 1 of the constituent corporations is a nonstock corporation, a copy of § 114 of this title. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may commence an appraisal proceeding by filing a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) of this section hereof, whichever is later. Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section, a person who is the beneficial owner of shares of such stock held either in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, file a petition or request from the corporation the statement described in this subsection.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After the Court determines the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the appraisal proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the Court of Chancery, including any rules specifically governing appraisal proceedings. Through such proceeding the Court shall determine the fair value of the shares exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. Unless the Court in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, interest from the effective date of the merger through the date of payment of the judgment shall be compounded quarterly and shall accrue at 5% over the Federal Reserve discount rate (including any surcharge) as established from time to time during the period between the effective date of the merger and the date of payment of the judgment. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholders entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just; provided, however that this provision shall not affect the right of any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, as set forth in subsection (e) of this section.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.
