Prior to joining the Company, Mr. Bleustein served as Chief Medical Officer and Global Provider Solutions Leader at Dell Services since October 2014. He joined Dell Services in March 2013 as Managing Director & Global Head of Healthcare Consulting and was named Chief Medical Officer and Global Head of Healthcare Consulting in July 2014. Prior to his career at Dell Services, Mr. Bleustein was a director in the health industries advisory practice at PricewaterhouseCoopers where between 2009 and 2013 he focused on sales and delivery of their consulting services to healthcare providers. Mr. Bleustein has no family relationships with any other officer or director of the Company.

In connection with his appointment as the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, the Compensation Committee and the Board also approved an employment agreement and a change in control agreement for Mr. Bleustein.

In addition, the Company has agreed to grant Mr. Bleustein 200,000 non-qualified stock options under the Company's 2010 Equity Award Plan (as amended, the 2010 Plan), which provides for an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Company's common stock at the close of trading on the date of grant and a term of ten years with one-half vesting on the second anniversary of the date of grant and one-half vesting on the third anniversary of the date of grant and 67,000 restricted stock units (RSUs) under the Company's 1991 Restricted Stock Plan (as amended, the 1991 Plan), which vest in equal, annual installments over a period of four years with the first installment vesting on the first anniversary of the date of grant. Mr. Bleustein will also be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable travel and housing expenses incurred in connection with travel between the Company's headquarters in Buffalo, NY and his principal residence in New York City.

Under the employment agreement, if Mr. Bleustein's employment with the Company is terminated other than for cause, death or disability, or if he terminates his employment with the Company for good reason, subject to his signing a release of claims, he will be entitled to (i) a payment equal to his annual base salary at the rate in effect immediately prior to the date of termination plus the average annual cash incentive compensation over the last 3 years, (ii) up to 12 months of continued coverage pursuant to COBRA and (iii) stock-based incentive compensation plan payout under each stock-based incentive compensation plan maintained by the Company pursuant to the terms of and within the periods specified in each such stock-based incentive compensation plan that may then be applicable.

The change in control agreement provides that if the Company terminates Mr. Bleustein's employment (other than for cause, death or disability) or if he terminates his employment with the Company for good reason within 24 months following a change in control of the Company or within 6 months preceding a change in control, subject to his signing a release of claims and less any amounts previously paid under his employment agreement, Mr. Bleustein will be entitled to receive severance pay in a cash amount equal to 1.99 times his annual base salary at the rate in effect immediately prior to the date of termination plus the average annual cash incentive compensation over the last 3 years. Upon such termination, and in addition to severance pay, he will also be entitled to receive (i) an additional cash payment equal to 25% of his annual base salary at the rate in effect immediately prior to the date of termination to cover fringe benefits and (ii) if certain conditions are satisfied, all stock options, restricted stock units and other equity awards granted to Mr. Bleustein under the 1991 Plan, the 2010 Plan or any other similar incentive plan shall be immediately exercisable in full, or vested, as applicable, in accordance with the applicable provisions of the relevant award agreement.
