Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.Securitization of Receivables

On March 17, 2016, affiliates of Conns, Inc. (the Company) completed a securitization transaction (the Securitization Transaction), which involved the issuance and sale in a private offering of three classes of asset-backed fixed rate notes, Class A, Class B and Class C, and one class, Class R, of asset-backed pass-through notes (collectively, the Notes). The Notes are being issued by Conn's Receivables Funding 2016-A, LLC, a newly formed special purpose entity that is indirectly owned by the Company (the Issuer). The Notes are secured by a portfolio of approximately $705 million of retail installment contract receivables sold and contributed from the Company's loan portfolio indirectly to Conn's Receivables 2016-A Trust (the Receivables Trust), a newly formed Delaware statutory trust. Net proceeds from the offering were approximately $493 million and will be used to repay all of the then-outstanding indebtedness under the Company's asset-based credit facility and for other general corporate purposes. Fitch Ratings, Inc. has currently rated our Class A, Class B and Class C Notes as follows: Class A, BBBsf; Class B, BBSf; and Class C, Bsf. The Class C Notes and Class R Notes are currently being retained by an affiliate of the Company but some or all may be sold in the future.

To execute the Securitization Transaction, Conn Credit I, L.P., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (the Seller), sold or conveyed certain retail installment sales contracts (the Contracts) (made to finance customer purchases of merchandise from the Company's subsidiaries) to Conn Appliances Receivables Funding, LLC, an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (the Depositor), pursuant to a receivables purchase agreement, dated as of March 17, 2016, by and between the Seller and the Depositor (the First Purchase Agreement). The Depositor then contributed the Contracts to the Receivables Trust pursuant to a receivables purchase agreement, dated as of March 17, 2016, by and between the Depositor and the Receivables Trust (the Second Purchase Agreement). The Receivables Trust issued a certificate to the Depositor representing a 100% interest in the Receivables Trust (the Receivables Trust Certificate) and the Receivables Trust Certificate was sold by the Depositor to the Issuer pursuant to a Purchase and Sale Agreement, dated March 17, 2016, by and between Depositor and Issuer (the Purchase and Sale Agreement). The rights of the Issuer to and under the Receivables Trust Certificate were pledged to Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as trustee (the Trustee), for the benefit of the holders of the Notes and any other person to whom certain obligations of the Issuer are payable. Conn Appliances, Inc., a direct and wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (Conn Appliances), is responsible for servicing the Receivables transferred to the Receivables Trust as described in more detail below.

The Notes were issued by the Issuer pursuant to a Base Indenture, dated March 17, 2016, by and among the Issuer and the Trustee (the Base Indenture), and a Series 2016-A Supplement to the Base Indenture, dated as of March 17, 2016, by and among the Issuer and the Trustee (the Supplemental Indenture, and together with the Base Indenture, the Indenture). The Notes consist of the following securities:

Class A Notes - $423,030,000 in aggregate principal amount of Asset Backed Fixed Rate Notes, Class A, Series 2016-A that bear interest at a fixed rate equal to 4.68% per annum and mature on April 16, 2018.

Class B Notes - $70,510,000 in aggregate principal amount of Asset Backed Fixed Rate Notes, Class B, Series 2016-A that bear interest at a fixed rate equal to 8.96% per annum and mature on April 15, 2018.

Class C Notes - $70,510,000 in aggregate principal amount of Asset Backed Fixed Rate Notes, Class C, Series 2016-A that bear interest at a fixed rate equal to 12.00% per annum and mature on April 15, 2020. The Depositor is currently retaining the Class C Notes but may sell some or all of the Class C Notes in the future

Class R Notes - Asset Backed Notes, Class R, Series 2016-A that do not have a principal amount or interest rate and that are initially held by the Depositor. The Depositor is currently retaining the Class R Notes but may sell some or all of the Class R Notes in the future.

The Notes (other than the Class C Notes and the Class R Notes) were offered and sold to qualified institutional buyers through the initial purchaser pursuant to the exemptions from registration provided by Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or, solely with respect to the Class A Notes, outside of the United States to Non-U.S. Persons in compliance with Regulation S under the Securities Act.

Payments on the Class R Notes are subordinate to all payments of principal and interest on the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes and all payments to Conn Appliances as servicer, all third party service providers and the reserve account. Credit enhancement will be provided by excess cashflow, overcollateralization, a reserve account and in the case of the Class A Notes, subordination of the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes, and, in the case of the Class B Notes, subordination of the Class C Notes.

The Notes (other than the Class R Notes) are subject to redemption by 100% of the holders of the Class R Notes, at their option, in accordance with the terms specified in the Indenture, on any interest payment date if, as of the last day of the related monthly period, the balance of outstanding receivables under the Contracts has declined to 10% or less of the balance of outstanding receivables under the Contracts as of the January 31, 2016 (the Optional Redemption). Conn Appliances will have the option to purchase (the Optional Purchase) the Contracts and certain other assets of the Receivables Trust on any interest payment date for an amount equal to the fair market value of such assets from the Issuer on such interest payment date if, as of the last day of the related monthly period, the balance of outstanding receivables under the Contracts has declined to 10% or less of the outstanding balance as of January 31, 2016. The price paid for the Optional Purchase will not be less than an amount sufficient to pay accrued and unpaid interest then due on the Notes and the aggregate unpaid principal, if any, of all of the outstanding Notes plus other contractual fees and expenses related to servicing the loan portfolio and to the Trustee.

After payment in full of all amounts due and owing with respect to the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes are subject to prepayment on any payment date then or thereafter, in whole but not in part, at the option of 100% of the holders of the Class R Notes (the Optional Prepayment). The amount necessary to effect such Optional Prepayment will be, after giving effect to all distributions on such payment date, (a) (i) for the Class B Notes, equal to 100.5% of the outstanding principal amount, if any, of the Class B Notes and (ii) for the Class C Notes, equal to 101% of the outstanding principal amount if any, of the Class C Notes, plus (b) accrued and unpaid interest on the Class B Notes and Class C Notes through the day preceding the payment date on which the redemption occurs, plus (c) any other amounts payable to the Class B Noteholders and Class C Noteholders pursuant to the Contracts, plus (d) any other amounts due and owing by the Issuer to other parties pursuant to the Contracts; provided, that, the amount to be paid to the holders of the Class B Notes and the holders of the Class C Notes in connection with the exercise of the Optional Prepayment will be equal to the sum of (a), (b) and (c) in the foregoing.

If an event of default were to occur under the Indenture, the Trustee may, and at the direction of the required noteholders shall, accelerate the maturity of the Class A Notes, Class B Notes and Class C Notes, in which event the cash proceeds of the Receivables that otherwise might be released to the Class R Noteholders would instead be directed entirely toward repayment of the Notes. Events of default include, but are not limited to, events such as failure to make required payments on the Notes or specified bankruptcy-related events.

The purchase of the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes were governed by a Note Purchase Agreement entered into on March 11, 2016 (the Note Purchase Agreement), by the Company, the Issuer, the Depositor, Conn Appliances and Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC and Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., as initial purchasers.

Conn Appliances is responsible for servicing the Receivables transferred to the Receivables Trust pursuant to a Servicing Agreement, dated as of March 17, 2016 (the Servicing Agreement) by and among the Issuer, the Receivables Trust, Conn Appliances and the Trustee. Under the Servicing Agreement, Conn Appliances will receive a monthly service fee equal to 4.75% (annualized) based on the outstanding balance of the Trust Estate. If Conn Appliances defaults in its obligations under the Servicing Agreement, it may, and under certain circumstances will, be terminated and replaced as Servicer.
