NOTES TO THE CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Unaudited)

1. In the opinion of the Company, the accompanying unaudited interim financial statements contain all adjustments necessary to present fairly the financial position of the Company as of September 30, 2016 (unaudited) and December 31, 2015 (audited) and the results of operations and changes in cash flows for the indicated periods. Certain information and note disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America have been omitted from these unaudited financial statements in accordance with applicable rules. Please refer to the financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The results of operations for the three and nine-month period ending September 30, 2016 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the year.

2. The Company extends credit on the basis of terms that are customary within our markets to various companies doing business primarily in the automotive industry. The Company has a concentration of credit risk primarily within the automotive industry and in the Midwestern United States.

3. The Company is, from time to time, involved in litigation, including environmental claims and contract disputes, in the normal course of business. While it is not possible at this time to establish the ultimate amount of liability with respect to contingent liabilities, including those related to legal proceedings, management is of the opinion that the aggregate amount of any such liabilities, for which provision has not been made, will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position.

4. The Company's effective tax rates were 31.9% and 32.8% for the third quarter of 2016 and 2015, respectively, and 32.9% and 32.5% for the nine months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. Rates were lower than the U.S. federal statutory rate primarily due to the Domestic Production Activities Deduction allowed under Internal Revenue Code Section 199.

In November 2015, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2015-17 Income Taxes (Topic 740): Balance Sheet Classification of Deferred Taxes (ASU 2015-17) to simplify the presentation of deferred income taxes. Under this update, all deferred income tax assets and liabilities, along with any related valuation allowance, are required to be classified as noncurrent on the balance sheet. Effective January 1, 2016, the Company early adopted ASU No. 2015-17 and retrospectively reclassified $425,191 of current deferred income tax assets to long-term deferred income tax liability on the December 31, 2015 consolidated balance sheet.

The Company's federal income tax returns for the 2013, 2014 and 2015 tax years are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). While it may be possible that a reduction could occur with respect to the Company's unrecognized tax benefits as an outcome of an IRS examination, management does not anticipate any adjustments that would result in a material change to the results of operations or financial condition of the Company. No statutes have been extended on any of the Company's federal income tax filings. The statute of limitations on the Company's 2013, 2014 and 2015 federal income tax returns will expire on September 15, 2017, 2018 and 2019, respectively.

The Company's state income tax returns for the 2013 through 2015 tax years remain subject to examination by various state authorities with the latest closing period on October 31, 2019. The Company is currently not under examination by any state authority for income tax purposes and no statutes for state income tax filings have been extended.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.
Results of Operations

Net sales in the third quarter were $8,854,274 this year compared to $9,018,272 in the third quarter of 2015, a decline of $163,998, or 1.8%. As of September 30, 2016, year to date sales totaled $28,271,399 compared to $27,508,237, for the first three quarters of 2015, an increase of $763,162, or 2.8%. Net income for the third quarter of 2016 was $462,329, or $0.48 per share, compared with $422,471, or $0.44 per share, in the third quarter of 2015, an improvement of 9.4%. Net income for the first three quarters of 2016 was $1,904,445, or $1.97 per share, compared with $1,455,905, or $1.51 per share, reported in 2015.

Fastener segment revenues were $8,089,800 in the third quarter of 2016 compared to $8,153,422 in the year earlier quarter, a decline of $63,622, or 0.8%. For the first three quarters of 2016, fastener segment revenues were $25,395,165 compared to $24,830,182 in 2015, an increase of $564,983, or 2.3%. The automotive sector is the primary market for our fastener segment products and the percentage increase in year to date segment sales exceeded that of domestic automotive sales. The decline in sales during the third quarter was offset by lower material costs during the period, resulting in a 10.5% increase in third quarter gross margin to $1,768,625 from $1,600,848 in the third quarter of 2015. For the first nine months of 2016, the increase in sales combined with favorable raw material prices resulted in improved margins compared to the year earlier periods. Fastener segment gross margin for the first three quarters of 2016 was $6,070,222 compared to $5,255,390 in 2015, an increase of $814,832, or 15.5%.

Assembly equipment segment revenues were $764,474 in the third quarter of 2016, a decline of $100,376, or 11.6%, compared to the third quarter of 2015, when revenues were $864,850. The decrease in third quarter sales was primarily the result of fewer machines being shipped compared to the third quarter of 2015. However, tools and parts sales also declined during the quarter, resulting in a reduction in segment gross margin of $110,136. For the first three quarters of the year, assembly equipment sales were $2,876,234, an increase of $198,179, or 7.4%, compared to $2,678,055 reported for the first three quarters of 2015. Although down in the third quarter, on a year to date basis machine sales have increased and offset a year to date decline in tools and parts sales. Due to the change in product sales mix and higher labor and health insurance expenses, gross margins for the first three quarters have declined $44,038, or 4.4%, to $952,505 from $996,543 in the same period of 2015.

Selling and administrative expenses for the third quarter of 2016 were $1,322,064, an increase of $27,924, or 2.2%, compared to the year earlier quarter total of $1,294,140. The largest components of the increase were salaries of $33,000, related to headcount changes, and office supplies of $13,000, primarily related to computer system expenditures. Partially offsetting these increases was a reduction in commissions of $17,000. Selling and administrative expenses for the first three quarters of 2016 were $4,230,685 compared to $4,128,819 for the same period of 2015, an increase of $101,866, or 2.5%. Profit sharing expense, which increased $76,000 due to greater operating profit, is the largest component of the increase. Salaries account for $57,000 of the increase. Partially offsetting these increases is a reduction in commissions of $18,000. The remaining net difference is comprised of various smaller items of change. Selling and administrative expenses as a percentage of net sales for the first nine months of 2016 remained unchanged from 2015 at 15.0%.

Other Income

Other income in the third quarter of 2016 was $16,193 compared to $12,053 in the third quarter of 2015. Other income for the first three quarters of 2016 was $45,403 compared to $32,791 in the same period of 2015. Other income consists primarily of interest income on certificates of deposit.

Income Tax Expense

The Company's effective tax rates were 31.9% and 32.8% for the third quarter of 2016 and 2015, respectively, and 32.9% and 32.5% for the nine months ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. Rates were lower than the U.S. federal statutory rate primarily due to the Domestic Production Activities Deduction allowed under Internal Revenue Code Section 199.

Table of Contents

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Working capital as of September 30, 2016 amounted to $16.1 million, an increase of approximately $0.4 million from the beginning of the year. The most significant change in the individual working capital components since the beginning of the year was accounts receivable, which increased by $0.5 million due to greater sales activity during the quarter compared to the seasonally lower fourth quarter of 2015. Partially offsetting this change was an increase of $0.4 million in accounts payable, which relates to the greater level of activity in the quarter. Capital expenditures for the first three quarters of 2016 were $1.8 million, which consisted of approximately $959,000 for equipment used in our fastener segment operations, $191,000 for equipment used in our assembly equipment segment, $591,000 for the building expansion at H & L Tool and the remainder for various building and computer system upgrades. Dividends paid in the first three quarters of 2016 were $0.8 million, including three regular quarterly payments of $0.18 per share and an extra dividend of $0.25 per share paid in the first quarter. The net result of these changes and other cash flow items on cash, cash equivalents and certificates of deposit was to increase such balances by $0.3 million from the beginning of the year, to $7.7 million. Management believes that current cash, cash equivalents and operating cash flow will provide adequate coverage for working capital for the next twelve months.

Results of Operations Summary

While sales in the third quarter were modestly lower, we were able to report an increase in net income for the quarter by successfully managing our costs. The automotive sector, upon which we rely for the majority of our fastener segment revenue, remains healthy, but domestic automotive sales in 2016 appear to have plateaued, which will make future growth for that segment more challenging. Sales of our assembly equipment segment products have increased in 2016, but that improvement was primarily due to an increase in the number of machines shipped. The current machine backlog is less than a year ago when demand was particularly strong. Net income for the first nine months of 2016 improved 30.8% compared to 2015, contributing to our continued sound financial condition. That strength has allowed us to invest $1.8 million in equipment and facilities improvements during the first three quarters of 2016 while also paying $0.8 million to our shareholders in dividends.

This discussion contains certain forward-looking statements which are inherently subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual events to differ materially from those discussed herein. Factors which may cause such differences in events include, those disclosed under Risk Factors in our Annual Report on Form 10-K and in the other filings we make with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. These factors, include among other things: conditions in the domestic automotive industry, upon which we rely for sales revenue, the intense competition in our markets, the concentration of our sales to two major customers, the price and availability of raw materials, labor relations issues, losses related to product liability, warranty and recall claims, costs relating to environmental laws and regulations, the loss of the services of our key employees and difficulties in achieving expected cost savings. Many of these factors are beyond our ability to control or predict. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. We undertake no obligation to publish revised forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures.

(a) Disclosure Controls and Procedures. The Company's management, with the participation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and President, Chief Operating Officer and Treasurer (the Company's principal financial officer), has evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act)) as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on such evaluation, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and President, Chief Operating Officer and Treasurer have concluded that, as of the end of such period, the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective in recording, processing, summarizing and reporting, on a timely basis, information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act.

(b) Internal Control Over Financial Reporting. There have not been any changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting (as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act) during the fiscal quarter to which this report relates that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
