All Three Proxy Advisory Firms ISS, Glass Lewis and Egan-Jones Recommend that Stockholders Vote FOR All Three Farmer Bros. Director Nominees

The Proxy Firms All Agree that the Waite Group's Nominees are Unqualified and Lack Necessary Experience

Farmer Bros. Urges Stockholders to Protect the Value of Their Investment and Vote FOR Farmer Bros. Director Nominees on the GOLD Proxy Card

FT. WORTH, Texas November 28, 2016 Farmer Bros. Co. (NASDAQ: FARM, the Company or Farmer Bros.) today announced that each of the three of the leading, independent proxy advisory firms Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS), Glass Lewis & Co. (Glass Lewis) and Egan-Jones Proxy Services (Egan-Jones) have recommended that stockholders vote FOR all three of Farmer Bros. highly qualified and experienced director nominees Michael H. Keown, Charles F. Marcy and Christopher P. Mottern on the GOLD proxy card in connection with the Company's 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on December 8, 2016.

In stating their recommendations that stockholders vote FOR Farmer Bros. three highly qualified nominees, the proxy advisory firms reached the following conclusions:¹

In Support of ALL Three Farmer Bros. Director Nominees

It seems difficult to dispute the fact that the current board and CEO have been the main driver behind the turnaround of Farmer Bros...having delivered an impressive improvement of the company fundamentals and strong appreciation of the company's stock, from $11.83 in 2012 to $34.10 in 2016. (ISS)

We find that the Company has outperformed peers and the broad market since Mr. Keown was appointed CEO in 2012 the Management Nominees are well qualified for continued service on the board and significantly more qualified than the Dissident Nominees. (Glass Lewis)

[W]e believe that voting FOR the management's nominees is in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders...We recognize management's efforts, led by the new CEO Michael H. Keown, in maximizing stockholder value, generating volume and profit growth and building an organization with accountability and sustainability. (Egan-Jones)

Against the Waite Group's Nominees

The dissident has also failed to demonstrate that it is adequately prepared to address any downside risks associated with this contest none of the members of such a reconstituted board seem to possess any outside board experience or relevant industry knowledge or operational expertise beyond that gained during their years at the company. The lack of relevant experience of certain members of the dissident slate also raises serious concerns as to whether the dissident group's interests are truly aligned with those of unaffiliated shareholders. (ISS)

In this case, we question whether appointing an additional representative of the Farmer family to the board would serve the interests of all shareholders, particularly given that members of the Farmer family appear to be divided over their views of the current management team. Furthermore, in our view, the Dissident slate would not provide any meaningful qualifications or experience that is not already represented on the board. (Glass Lewis)

We are not convinced that the Waite Group's nominees would work to the benefit of the shareholders given their level of industry expertise, public company experience and diversity. We believe that electing the dissident shareholders nominees could compromise their independence due to affiliations to the Waite Group the solicitation being made by the dissidents could disrupt the ongoing efforts of management toward the implementation of the strategic plan.
(Egan-Jones)

Commenting on the consensus from ISS, Glass Lewis and Egan-Jones, Farmer Bros. stated:

The support from ISS, Glass Lewis and Egan-Jones for ALL THREE of Farmer Bros. highly qualified and experienced director nominees reaffirms, strongly and clearly, what we have said all along: the current Board is focused on the interests of ALL stockholders and has the right mix of industry expertise, C-level executive leadership experience, operational and financial skills, and company knowledge.

All three proxy advisory firms recognize that under the leadership and direction of Mr. Keown and the current Board, Farmer Bros. continues to successfully execute a turnaround plan that is creating substantial value for ALL stockholders. All three proxy firms also support our view that the Waite Group's nominees, who lack the qualifications and experience necessary to deliver positive financial results and superior stockholder value, would add no value to the Board. Electing the Waite Group nominees puts your investment at risk by placing control of the Board in the Waite Group's hands, which would put the Company's leadership at risk and derail the proven turnaround plan.

We strongly urge stockholders to follow the recommendations of ISS, Glass Lewis and Egan-Jones and protect their investment by voting FOR Farmer Bros. director nominees Michael H. Keown, Charles F. Marcy and Christopher P. Mottern on the GOLD proxy card.

Farmer Bros. reminds stockholders that every vote is important, no matter how many or how few shares it represents. The Company urges all stockholders to use the GOLD proxy card to vote FOR the Company's highly-qualified and experienced director nominees TODAY.
