Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On January 11, 2019, Eclipse Resources Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), was notified by the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") that the Company was not in compliance with the NYSE's continued listing requirements, as the average closing price of its shares of common stock had fallen below $1.00 per share over a period of 30 consecutive trading days, which is the minimum average closing price for continued listing on the NYSE under Rule 802.01C of the NYSE Listed Company Manual. Under the NYSE's rules, the Company has six months following receipt of the notification to regain compliance with the minimum share price requirement.

As has been previously announced, in connection with the acquisition of Blue Ridge Mountain Resources, Inc. ("Blue Ridge"), the Company will effect a 15-to-1 reverse stock split immediately prior to the closing of the transaction. The Company anticipates that the reverse stock split will return the Company to compliance with the NYSE's share price requirements. The acquisition of Blue Ridge is expected to close during the first quarter of 2019.

As required by the NYSE, the Company will notify the NYSE within ten business days of receipt of the NYSE's notification of its intent to cure the deficiency and return to compliance with the NYSE continued listing requirements. The Company can regain compliance at any time during the six month cure period if on the last trading day of any calendar month during the cure period its common stock has a closing share price of at least $1.00 and an average closing share price of at least $1.00 over the 30 trading-day period ending on the last trading day of that month. Under NYSE rules, the Company's common stock will continue to be listed on the NYSE during this six month period, subject to compliance with other continued listing requirements. If the Company fails to regain compliance with Section 802.01C during the cure period, its common stock will be subject to the NYSE's suspension and delisting procedures.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On January 15, 2019, the Company issued a press release with respect to the receipt of the notice of noncompliance from the NYSE. The full text of the press release is attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 3.01 above is incorporated by reference into this Item 8.01.
