Sasol investor newsletter published on its website

Sasol has published the latest Investor Insight, a six-monthly newsletter aimed at investors interested in Sasol, on its website
http://www.sasol.com/sasol_internet/frontend/navigation.jsp?navid=5600002&rootid=3&cmpAd=1

The newsletter is published between interim and year-end results to provide an update to the market on issues ranging from an overview of the business, project updates and outlooks as well as other news from the company ahead of the full-year results release on September 10, 2007.

The July 2007 newsletter provides an update on the company's expected capital expenditure over the next three financial years, and also contains an article on domestic capacity expansion. With global awareness on greenhouse gas emissions increasing, there is also an article outlining Sasol's current activities on this important front. Also featured is a brief update on Sasol's BEE initiatives, as well as other articles highlighting various business activities such as a hedge on domestic synfuels production and progress on the share buy-back program.

Sasol has also posted the latest set of market price indicators on its website. This information covers historical average rand/US dollar exchange rates, fuel product prices and crude oil prices, refining margins and average prices for the basket of chemicals produced by Sasol
