Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 16, 2014, Novation Companies, Inc., a Maryland corporation (Novation or the Company), entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement (the Purchase and Sale Agreement) for the sale of StreetLinks LLC, an Indiana limited liability company (StreetLinks), by and among the other members of StreetLinks (collectively with the Company, the Sellers), Assurant Services, LLC, a Texas limited liability company (Buyer) and Assurant, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Parent) providing for the sale of 100% of equity interests in StreetLinks (the Units) to Buyer for a total of up to $72 million, with $60 million paid in cash at closing and up to a further $12 million payment dependent on the total revenue of StreetLinks in fiscal 2015 and 2016 (the Earn-Out), subject to adjustment for working capital and the other terms and conditions set forth in the Purchase and Sale Agreement (the Transaction). The Transaction closed on April 16, 2014. Prior to the Transaction, Novation owned 88% of StreetLinks.

The Earn-Out provides for a payment if (a) the total revenue of StreetLinks is $184 million or more for calendar year 2015, Buyer shall pay to the Sellers an aggregate of $12 million (subject to reduction for certain earned bonus payments to StreetLinks employees); but if not, then (b) if the total revenue of StreetLinks is greater than $167.455 million for the calendar year 2016, Buyer shall pay to Sellers up to an aggregate of $12 million (subject to reduction for certain earned bonus payments to StreetLinks employees), based on a linear scale where full payment of the $12 million would occur at total revenue of $184 million.

In the Purchase and Sale Agreement, Sellers have made customary representations and warranties regarding StreetLinks, and in their capacity as the sellers of the Units. Buyer has made customary representations and warranties in its capacity as the purchaser of the Units.

Sellers have agreed, subject to certain conditions, to indemnify Buyer from and against any and all damages suffered or incurred by such indemnified parties relating to, arising out of or resulting from (i) Sellers' breach of or inaccuracy in any representations or warranties made in the Purchase and Sale Agreement (generally subject to a specified basket and cap amount), (ii) any breach or failure by Sellers to materially perform their covenants or obligations contained in the Purchase and Sale Agreement and (iii) certain other agreed upon matters. Claims against the Sellers may reduce the amount of Earn-Out.

Liability under the Purchase and Sale Agreement among the Sellers is several and not joint (i.e., all members/Sellers are responsible for their pro rata share of any indemnity payment based on their share of the proceeds). Novation has agreed to pay any indemnity liability of any other Seller to the extent the other Seller does not pay (after application of an offset of the Earn-Out, if any). In the event that Novation pays an indemnified liability on behalf of any other Seller, the right to collect against such other Seller would be assigned to Novation.

Steve Haslam, Novation's Chief Operating Officer, had been an equity owner of StreetLinks for several years but had sold his Units in StreetLinks to Novation pursuant to the previously disclosed Membership Interest Purchase Agreement, dated March 8, 2012 (the Haslam Purchase Agreement) by which the $6,112,500 purchase price was paid to Mr. Haslam in quarterly installments. Through December 31, 2013, the Company had timely paid $2,250,000 in principal and $345,000 in interest to Mr. Haslam under the Haslam Purchase Agreement, which corresponded to payment for 709 of the total 1,927 Units subject to the Haslam Purchase Agreement. As Mr. Haslam's sole remedy for non-payment by the Company under the Haslam Purchase Agreement was an equitable right to return of the amount of StreetLinks equity interests attributable to the pro-rata portion of the Haslam Purchase Price then owed but not paid (the Non-Payment Remedy), and the price per Unit paid in the Transaction is lower than the price per Unit reflected in the Haslam Purchase Agreement, on April 16, 2014, immediately prior to the Transaction, Novation and Mr. Haslam reached an agreement pursuant to which the Company (in compliance with the procedures in the Non-Payment Remedy) returned to Mr. Haslam, and Mr. Haslam accepted in lieu of further payment of $3,862,500 in principal and $234,000 in interest, the remaining unpaid portion of 1,218 Units of StreetLinks. Thus, Mr. Haslam was the owner of approximately 3% of the Units of StreetLinks at the time of the sale and constitutes one of the Sellers under the Transaction, receiving approximately $1,785,000 before expenses.

In connection with the Transaction, the parties have also entered into a Transition Services Agreement, between Novation and Buyer, pursuant to which the Company will provide ongoing services to StreetLinks for up to eighteen (18) months. Novation has also executed a Non-Competition, Non-Solicitation and Non-Disclosure Agreement with StreetLinks providing that Novation will be prohibited from competing in the real estate appraisal management or valuation services business for a period of four (4) years.

The foregoing description of the Purchase and Sale Agreement does not purport to be complete, is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Purchase and Sale Agreement attached as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
