State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant needs additional time to complete its review of financial information following changes to financial accounting standards and major changes in share capitalization due to shareholder action during the quarter ended September 30, 2006. As a result of the delay related to this complexity and in order to ensure the accuracy and completeness of the Registrant's Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB for the quarter ended September 30, 2006, the Registrant is unable to complete and file its Form 10-QSB by the prescribed filing date without unreasonable effort and expense. The Registrant currently anticipates filing the Form 10-QSB within 5 days of the date on which its Form 10-QSB is due.

Due to the Registrant's acquisition of Deer Valley Homebuilders, Inc., the Registrant anticipates a change in its results of operations for the quarter ended September 30, 2006 when compared to the corresponding period for its previous fiscal year. At this time, the Registrant's financial statements are not complete and remain subject to review. As such, the Registrant cannot make a reasonable estimate of the positive change in results of operations from the corresponding period of the prior year which will be reported on its Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB for the quarter ended September 30, 2006, nor can it quantify the extent of any change at this time.
