CHAPTER II

GENERAL RULES

2nd Article - The CAE, as set forth in Article 26 of the Company's Bylaws and in Article 31-B of Instruction CVM no. 308, is an advisory body linked directly to the Board of Directors and shall function permanently, and it shall comply with the applicable provisions of Instruction no. 308 of the CVM, of US Laws, particularly the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, as well as with the rules of NYSE, the Regulation, the Company's Bylaws and these Bylaws of this Committee.

3rd Article - The CAE shall have (i) operational autonomy and budget allocation, yearly or per project, within the limits approved by the Company's Board of Directors, for the performance of consultations, assessment and investigations within the scope of its activities, including to hire and to use independent external specialists; and (ii) means to receive complaints, including confidential complaints, whether internal or external to the Company, in matters related to the scope of its activities, as provided for in the 9th Article of these Bylaws.

CHAPTER III

COMPOSITION OF THE COMMITTEE

4th Article - The CAE shall be composed by, at least, 03 (three) members, all of them elected by the Board of Directors, with a mandate term of 1 (one) year, and, in the event of definitive impediment or vacancy of the office of a member of the CAE, it shall be competence of the Board of Directors to elect an alternate member, who shall complete the mandate of the replaced member.

1st Paragraph – The members of the CAE shall cause the Board of Directors to take the measures required to inform CVM of such replacement within up to 10 (ten) days of the respective resolution of the Board of Directors in this sense.

2nd Paragraph – All members of the CAE shall be Independent Board Members, as such term is defined in the Regulation and as defined in the applicable norms of SEC and of NYSE. Additionally to the independence requirements established in the Regulation and in the applicable norms of SEC and of NYSE, the members of the CAE, as established by Instruction 308, cannot be, or have been, during the last 5 (five) years:

- a) Officer or employee of the Company, its direct or indirect controlling company, controlled or affiliated company, or companies under common control; or

- b) Technical responsible of the team involved in the Company's audit works; and

c) Spouse, straight line or collateral relative, up to the third degree, and relative by marriage up to the second degree, of the persons indicated under letters "a" and "b" above.

3rd Paragraph – Without prejudice of the provisions of the 2^d Paragraph above, in compliance with Article 31-C, 5th and 6th §§, of Instruction CVM no. 308, at least 1 (one) of the members of the CAE shall have recognized experience in matters of corporate accounting, which experience shall be evidenced by means of the availability of documents proving the compliance with the requirements determined by Instruction 308, which shall be kept at the head office of the Company for a term of 5 (five) years counted from the last day of mandate of such member.

4th Paragraph – The members of the CAE shall be literate in finances and, at least 1 (one) member shall be sufficiently experienced in finances and accounting to qualify as an Audit Committee Financial Expert, as defined by the norms of U.S. Securities Act, of 1933, of the United States of America.

5th Paragraph – Participation in the CAE of Officers of the Company, and of its direct or indirect controlling company, controlled or affiliated company, or companies under common control is forbidden.

6th Paragraph - In the event that any member of the CAE is part of, at any time, more than 3 (three) audit committees in publicly-held companies, the Board of Directors shall verify if such fact does not make the effective performance of said member in the CAE impossible, and shall inform such decision to the market.

7th Paragraph – If the mandate of the members of the CAE is terminated for any reason, such members only shall be able to integrate the CAE again after, at least, 3 (three) years have passed after mandate termination.

8th Paragraph – The function as member of the CAE cannot be delegated.

Article 5 - CAE members shall meet the requirements provided in Article 147 of Brazilian Corporation Law (Rule 6.404/76) and keep an impartial and ethical behavior while performing their activities, and especially with respect to financial statement estimates and Company's management.

Sole Paragraph - While performing their duties, CAE members shall serve with loyalty and use the due diligence required from persons holding such position, being prohibited from interfering in any conflict situations that may affect Company's and Company shareholders' interests.

Article 6 - When taking office, CAE members shall execute (i) the instrument of appointment; (ii) an statement acknowledging the compliance with the terms of these Bylaws and the Conduct Documents; and (iii) a certificate stating they are not prevented from holding office, pursuant to these Bylaws and Article 147 of the Corporation Act.

Article 7 - At the first meeting after being elected, CAE members shall appoint one of their peers to hold office as CAE coordinator, whose duties and tasks are defined in article 13 of these Bylaws ("Coordinator").

Article 8 - CAE members shall immediately notify the Company, CVM, and SEC upon any change in their shareholding position in the Company.

CHAPTER IV

AUTHORITY

Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.
