CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

All statements, other than statements of historical fact, included in this Form 10-Q, including without limitation the statements under "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operation" and "Description of Business," are, or may be deemed to be, forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, statements containing the words "believe," "anticipate," "expect" and words of similar import. These statements are based on certain assumptions and analyses made by us in light of our experience and our assessment of historical trends, current conditions and expected future developments as well as other factors we believe are appropriate under the circumstances. However, whether actual results will conform to the expectations and predictions of management are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially. Such risks include, among others, the following: international, national and local general economic and market conditions; our ability to sustain, manage or forecast our growth; raw material costs and availability; new product development and introduction; existing government regulations and changes in, or the failure to comply with, government regulations; adverse publicity; competition; the loss of significant customers or suppliers; fluctuations and difficulty in forecasting operating results; changes in business strategy or development plans; business disruptions; the ability to attract and retain qualified personnel; the ability to protect technology; and other factors referenced in this filing.

Consequently, all of the forward-looking statements made in this Form 10-Q are qualified by these cautionary statements and there can be no assurance that the actual results anticipated by management will be realized or, even if substantially realized, that they will have the expected consequences to or effects on our business operations. As used in this Form 10, unless the context requires otherwise, "we" or "us" or the "Company" means One eCommerce Corporation.

The following list of important factors may not be all-inclusive, and we specifically decline to undertake an obligation to publicly revise any forward-looking statements that have been made to reflect events or circumstances after the date of such statements or to reflect the occurrence of anticipated or unanticipated events. Among the factors that could have an impact on our ability to achieve expected operating results and growth plan goals and/or affect the market price of our stock are:

Lack of operating history, operating revenue or earnings history.

Dependence on key personnel.

Fluctuation in quarterly operating results and seasonality in certain of our markets.

Our ability to raise capital to fund our operations.

Our ability to successfully integrate and operate acquired or newly formed entities, ventures and or subsidiaries.

Changes in laws and regulations that affect our operations.

Available Information

The Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") maintains an Internet site that contains reports, proxy and information statements and other information regarding issuers that file electronically with the SEC at www.sec.gov. The public may read and copy any materials we file with the SEC at the SEC's Public Reference Room at 100 F Street, NE, Washington, D.C. 20549. One eCommerce Corporation
(A Development Stage Company)
Condensed Notes to Financial Statements

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business

One eCommerce Corporation (the “Company”) was organized under the laws of the State of Nevada on September 14, 1994, under the name Arianne Co. The Company changed its name on March 30, 1999 to One eCommerce Corporation in connection with the acquisition of One Commerce Corporation on March 30, 1999 and an associated reverse merger and forward stock split.

One Commerce Corporation was founded in 1995 and was headquartered in central Texas. In 1999, the Company acquired One Commerce Corporation, One Commerce Corporation’s wholly owned subsidiary, Corridor Technologies, Inc. (incorporated within the state of Texas), Corridor Voice & Data Services, LLC and Corridor Telecom, LLC (both limited liability companies having been registered in the state of Texas). One Commerce Corporation also had been known formerly by doing business as Altcomm.

The business of the Company was carried out through its Texas subsidiary, One Commerce Corporation. None of the subsidiaries of One eCommerce Corporation was active after December 31, 2000.

During 2000, the subsidiaries of One Commerce Corporation (Corridor Technologies, Inc., Corridor Voice & Data Services, LLC and Corridor Telecom, LLC) ceased to do business, or never did any business, and were dissolved at the direction of the Company’s board of director’s.

As a result of unfavorable business conditions, One Commerce Corporation (as debtor) filed for Chapter 7 bankruptcy in the Western District of Texas (Austin) on April 23, 2001. One Commerce Corporation was discharged on October 25, 2001. There were no assets transferred nor were any payments made on the outstanding shareholder notes as the debtor had no assets at the time of filing. As a result, the Company was forced to write off all of its investment in One Commerce Corporation in 2001.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Development Stage Activities

Since coming out of bankruptcy at the close of the 2001 calendar year, the Company has been in the development stage and has not realized any significant revenue from operations. It is primarily engaged in pursuing a merger or other acquisition with an unidentified company or companies.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

Loss per Common Share

The Company applies "Earnings per Share," ASC 260-1-45-60 which requires two presentations of earnings (loss) per share—"basic" and "diluted." Basic earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing income or loss available to common stockholders by the weighted-average number of common shares issued and outstanding for the period. The computation of diluted earnings (loss) per share is similar to basic earnings per share, except that the weighted average number of common shares is increased to include the number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding if the potentially dilutive common shares had been issued. For the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, the 30,573,664 potential common stock shares to be issued upon conversion of the notes payable to a stockholder (see Note 3) have not been included in the determination of loss per share because the effect would be anti-dilutive.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company measures its financial assets and liabilities in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. "Fair Value Measurements" ASC 820-10, requires certain disclosures regarding the fair value of financial instruments. For certain of the Company's financial instruments, including cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to their short maturities.

In September 2006, the FASB issued ASC 820-10, which is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2008, and for interim periods within those years. This statement defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value and expands the related disclosure requirements. The statement indicates, among other things, that a fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell an asset or transfer a liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market for the asset or liability based upon an exit price model.

ASC 820-10 prescribes a fair value hierarchy in order to increase consistency and comparability in fair value measurements and related disclosures. The hierarchy is broken down into three levels based on the reliability of inputs as follows:

Level 1—Valuations based on quoted prices in active markets for identical assets. Since valuations are based on quoted prices that are readily and regularly available in an active market, valuation of these products does not entail a significant degree of judgment.

Level 2—Valuations based on quoted prices in markets that are not active or for which all significant inputs are observable, directly or indirectly. Quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active, or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Level 3—Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Amendments to Accounting Standards Codification: In February 2010, the FASB issued ASU No. 2010-08, Technical Corrections to Various Topics ("ASU 2010-08"). ASU 2010-08 makes various non-substantive amendments to the FASB Codification that does not fundamentally change existing GAAP; however, certain amendments could alter the application of GAAP relating to embedded derivatives and the income tax aspects of reorganization. The amended guidance is effective beginning in the first interim or annual period beginning after the release of the ASU, except for certain amendments. The Company does not anticipate this adoption will have a material impact on its financial statements.

Subsequent Events: On February 24, 2010, the FASB issued ASU No. 2010-09, Subsequent Events (Topic 855)—Amendments to Certain Recognition and Disclosure Requirements ("ASU 2010-09"). ASU 2010-09 removes the requirement that SEC filers disclose the date through which subsequent events have been evaluated. This amendment alleviates potential conflicts between Subtopic 855-10 and the SEC's requirements. The guidance became effective with the issuance of ASU 2010-09 and the Company adopted this guidance upon its issuance.

The above pronouncements are not currently expected to have a material effect on our financial statements.

In April 2010, the FASB issued ASU 2010-17 which establishes authoritative guidance permitting use of the milestone method of revenue recognition for research or development arrangements that contain payment provisions or consideration contingent on the achievement of specified events. This guidance is effective for milestones achieved in fiscal years beginning on or after June 15, 2010 and allows for either prospective or retrospective application, with early adoption permitted. The Company does not anticipate this adoption will have a material impact on its financial statements.

Other recent accounting pronouncements issued by the FASB (including its Emerging Issues Task Force ("EITF")), the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("AICPA"), and the SEC did not or are not believed by us to have a material impact on our present or future financial statements.

The Company has adopted all recently issued accounting pronouncements. The adoption of the accounting pronouncements, including those not yet effective, is not anticipated to have a material effect on the financial position or results of operations of the Company.

NOTE 2 - GOING CONCERN

The accompanying condensed financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America which contemplate continuation of the Company as a going concern. However, the Company has suffered recurring losses from operations and currently has no revenue or assets.

The Company has inadequate working capital to maintain or develop its operations, and is dependent upon funds from private investors and the support of certain stockholders. These factors raise substantial doubt about the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern. The condensed financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty. In this regard, the Company's Management may raise any necessary additional funds through loans, additional sales of its common stock, or through the possible acquisition of other companies. There is no assurance that the Company will be successful in raising additional capital.

NOTE 3 – RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company is currently indebted to John Welch, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company per the schedule of notes below:

Issue Date	Interest Rate	Maturity Date	Conversion Rate	Amount
December 31, 1999	10%	December 31, 2000	$ 0.1000	$ 190,010
December 31, 1999	10%	December 31, 2000	$ 0.1000	72,580
April 27, 2000	10%	July 27, 2000	$ 0.0054	98,168
May 16, 2000	10%	July 27, 2000	$ 0.1000	75,000
July 19, 2000	10%	September 19, 2000	$ 0.0054	33,700
September 28, 2000	10%	December 28, 2000	$ 0.0054	15,000
October 2, 2009	10%	October 2, 2010	$ N/A	10,000
				$ 494,458

In the event Mr. Welch elects to exercise his conversion rights under the various notes, the potential additional shares to be issued would be dilutive to the existing shares outstanding by an additional 30,573,664 shares. The notes are all unsecured demand notes with maturity dates in 2000 and they are all in a state of default. As of September 30, 2010, and through the filing of this document, Mr. Welch has not demanded to accelerate immediate payment of these notes. Interest has accrued since the issuance of these notes and at September 30, 2010 and December 31, 2009, an aggregate accrued interest amount of $512,053 and $475,220, respectively, was due and payable. While the notes carry the same conversion option for the accrued interest as for the principal amount of each note, Mr. Welch has agreed to waive the conversion option for the accrued interest.

Mr. Welch and Mr. Nass directly paid or will pay the Company's auditing fees and other fees related to SEC filings, which totaled $16,570 for the nine-months ended September 30, 2010.

On October 2, 2009, the Company issued a related party note payable to Mr. Welch and received $10,000 of proceeds. The related party note payable carries an interest rate of 10% and is due on October 2, 2010. The note is not convertible to equity.

NOTE 4 – STOCKHOLDER'S EQUITY TRANSACTIONS

Since December 31, 2009, there have been no stockholder equity transactions.

NOTE 5 – CORPORATE OVERHEAD

Since emerging from bankruptcy in 2001 (see Note 1), the Company has not been charged corporate overhead for service performed by its two officers, for office rent, professional fees and other administrative expenses.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The accompanying interim financial statements have been prepared by management without audit, pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, in accordance with the accounting policies described in our Annual Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2010, and reflect all adjustments which are, in the opinion of management, necessary to present a fair statement of the results for the interim period on a basis consistent with the annual audited consolidated financial statements. All such adjustments are of a normal recurring nature. The condensed financial statements include the accounts of One eCommerce Corporation ("ONCE", "we", "our" or the "Company"). Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles have been omitted. These condensed financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements and related notes included in our Annual Report on Form 10K for the year ended December 31, 2009.

GENERAL

One eCommerce Corporation (The Company) was originally incorporated on September 14, 1994, under the laws of the State of Nevada.

The company has had no material business since the cessation of the operations of its wholly owned subsidiary, One Commerce Corporation at the end of 2001. Since coming out of bankruptcy at the close of the 2001 calendar year, the Company has been in the development stage and has not realized any significant revenue from operations. It is primarily engaged in pursuing a merger or other acquisition with an unidentified company or companies.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Company has had no revenue since inception (December 31, 2001). During the nine month periods ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, general and administrative expenses totaled $16,570 and $9,981, respectively. Some general and administrative expenses in the period ending September 30, 2010, specifically accounting fees and other fees related to SEC filings, were paid directly to the service providers by the Company's officers in the form of check or wire transfer. We recorded these payments, as accounts payable - related party.

Interest expense for the nine month periods ended September 30, 2010 and 2009 was $37,333 and $36,333, respectively, and $425,149 from inception (December 21, 2001) to September 30, 2010. Interest expense is simple interest calculated at 10% on the outstanding balances of related party notes. See Note 3 of the Condensed Notes to Financial Statements.

PLAN OF OPERATIONS

The Company's current purpose is to seek, investigate and, if such investigation warrants, merge or acquire an interest in business opportunities presented to it by persons or companies who or which desire to seek the perceived advantages of a Securities Exchange Act of 1934 registered corporation. As of the date of this filing, the Company has no particular acquisitions in mind and has not entered into any negotiations regarding such an acquisition, and neither the Company's officer and director nor any promoter and affiliate has engaged in any negotiations with any representatives of the owners of any business or company regarding the possibility of a merger or acquisition between the Company and such other company.

Pending negotiation and consummation of a combination, the Company anticipates that it will have, aside from carrying on its search for a combination partner, no business activities, and, thus, will have no source of revenue.

Should the Company incur any significant liabilities prior to a combination with a private company, it may not be able to satisfy such liabilities as are incurred. If the Company's management pursues one or more combination opportunities beyond the preliminary negotiations stage and those negotiations are subsequently terminated, it is foreseeable that such efforts will exhaust the Company's ability to continue to seek such combination opportunities before any successful combination can be consummated. In that event, the Company's common stock will become worthless and holders of the Company's common stock will receive a nominal distribution, if any, upon the Company's liquidation and dissolution.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

It is the intent of management and significant stockholders to provide sufficient working capital necessary to support and preserve the integrity of the corporate entity. However, there is no legal obligation for either management or significant stockholders to provide additional future funding.

The Company is currently indebted to John Welch, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company per the schedule of notes below:

Issue Date	Interest Rate	Maturity Date	Conversion Rate	Amount
December 31, 1999	10%	December 31, 2000	$ 0.1000	$ 190,010
December 31, 1999	10%	December 31, 2000	$ 0.1000	72,580
April 27, 2000	10%	July 27, 2000	$ 0.0054	98,168
May 16, 2000	10%	July 27, 2000	$ 0.1000	75,000
July 19, 2000	10%	September 19, 2000	$ 0.0054	33,700
September 28, 2000	10%	December 28, 2000	$ 0.0054	15,000
October 2, 2009	10%	October 2, 2010	$ N/A	10,000
				$ 494,458

Interest has accrued since the issuance of these notes and at September 30, 2010 and December 31, 2009, an aggregate accrued interest amount of $512,053 and $475,220, respectively, was due and payable. See Note 3 of the Condensed Notes to Financial Statements.

Should this pledge fail to provide financing, the Company has not identified any alternative sources. Consequently, there is substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company's need for capital may change dramatically as a result of any business acquisition or combination transaction. There can be no assurance that the Company will identify any such business, product, technology or company suitable for acquisition in the future. Further, there can be no assurance that the Company would be successful in consummating any acquisition on favorable terms or that it will be able to profitably manage the business, product, technology or company it acquires.

Off Balance Sheet Arrangements

We have no off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on our financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources that is material to stockholders.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURE ABOUT MARKET RISK

None.

ITEM 4T. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES.

As of the end of the period covered by this quarterly report on Form 10-Q, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and President conducted an evaluation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15 and 15d-15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934). Based upon this evaluation, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and President concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are ineffective due to the limited resources of the Company.
