Who Can Vote?

Stockholders who owned Majesco common stock and shares of Series A Preferred Stock, Series B Preferred Stock and Series C Preferred Stock at the close of business on June 19, 2015 (the “Record Date”), are entitled to vote at the Special Meeting; provided, however, per applicable Nasdaq Marketplace Rules, 1,631,984 shares of common stock and the shares of common stock underlying the Company’s Series C Convertible Preferred Stock issued to investors on May 15, 2015 will not be eligible to vote for, and votes submitted with respect to such shares of common stock will not be counted for Proposal 1. On the Record Date there were 9,640,901 shares of common stock, 1,054,559 shares of Majesco common stock underlying the shares of the Company’s Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, 0 shares of Majesco common stock underlying the shares of the Company’s Series B Convertible Preferred Stock and 33,333 shares of common stock underlying the shares of the Company’s Series C Convertible Preferred Stock entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. preferred stock are entitled to vote. The shares of common stock, the shares of common stock underlying the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, the shares of common stock underlying the Series B Convertible Stock and the shares of common stock underlying the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock that are entitled to vote, in such amounts as identified above, are herein referred to as the “Shares.”

Table of Contents

You do not need to attend the Special Meeting to vote your Shares. Shares represented by valid proxies, received in time for the Special Meeting and not revoked prior to the Special Meeting, will be voted at the Special Meeting. A stockholder may revoke a proxy before the proxy is voted by delivering to our Secretary a signed statement of revocation or a duly executed proxy card bearing a later date. Any stockholder who has executed a proxy card but attends the Special Meeting in person may revoke the proxy and vote at the Special Meeting.

How Many Votes Do I Have?

Each share of Majesco common stock entitled to vote that you own entitles you to one vote. For each share of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, Series B Convertible Preferred Stock or Series C Convertible Preferred Stock owned and entitled to vote you hold the number of votes equal to the number of shares of common stock into which your shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, Series B Convertible Preferred Stock or Series C Convertible Preferred Stock, as applicable, are convertible; provided, however, per applicable Nasdaq Marketplace Rules, the shares of common stock underlying the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock and 1,631,984 shares of common stock issued to investors on May 15, 2015 will not be eligible to vote for, and votes submitted with respect to such shares of common stock will not be counted for, the proposal contained herein. The shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of each share of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, Series B Convertible Preferred Stock or Series C Convertible Preferred Stock, as applicable, is determined by dividing the base amount by the conversion price, subject to certain limitations as described in the Certificate of Designations, Preferences and Rights of the 0% Series A Convertible Preferred Stock of Majesco Entertainment Company, as filed with the Delaware Secretary of State on December 17, 2014, the Certificate of Designations, Preferences and Rights of the 0% Series B Convertible Preferred Stock of Majesco Entertainment Company, as filed with the Delaware Secretary of State on April 30, 2015 or the Certificates of Designations, Preferences and Rights of the 0% Series C Convertible Preferred Stock of Majesco Entertainment Company, as filed with the Delaware Secretary of State on May 15, 2015, and as corrected by that Certificate of Correction filed with the Delaware Secretary of State on May 21, 2015, and on June 9, 2015, as applicable.

How Do I Vote?

Whether you plan to attend the Special Meeting or not, we urge you to vote by proxy. All shares represented by valid proxies that we receive through this solicitation, and that are not revoked, will be voted in accordance with your instructions on the proxy card or as instructed via Internet or telephone. You may specify whether your shares should be voted for, against or abstain with respect to each of the proposals. Except as set forth below, if you properly submit a proxy without giving specific voting instructions, your shares will be voted in accordance with the Board's recommendations as noted below. Voting by proxy will not affect your right to attend the Special Meeting. If your shares are registered directly in your name through our stock transfer agent, Equity Stock Transfer, or you have stock certificates, you may vote:

- By Internet or by telephone. Follow the instructions on the enclosed proxy card to vote by Internet or by telephone.
- By mail. Complete and mail the enclosed proxy card in the enclosed postage prepaid envelope. Your proxy will be voted in accordance with your instructions. If you sign the proxy card but do not specify how you want your shares voted, they will be voted as recommended by the Board.
- In person at the meeting. If you attend the meeting, you may deliver your completed proxy card in person or you may vote by completing a ballot, which will be available at the Special Meeting.

If your shares are held in “street name” (held in the name of a bank, broker or other nominee), you must provide the bank, broker or other nominee with instructions on how to vote your shares and can do so as follows:

- By Internet or by telephone. Follow the instructions you receive from your broker to vote by Internet or telephone.
- By mail. You will receive instructions from your broker or other nominee explaining how to vote your shares.
- In person at the meeting. Contact the broker or other nominee who holds your shares to obtain a broker’s proxy card and bring it with you to the meeting. You will not be able to attend the Special Meeting unless you have a proxy card from your broker.

Table of Contents

How Does The Board Recommend That I Vote On The Proposals?

The Board recommends that you vote as follows:

- “FOR” the issuance of shares of the Company’s common stock in excess of the 5,000,000 shares previously approved by the Company’s stockholders in accordance with the requirements of The Nasdaq Capital Market (including, without limitation, Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 5635(d)), which may be issued upon conversion or dilution of the Company’s Series C Convertible Preferred Stock and/or exercise of the warrants that were issued in a private placement on May 15, 2015.

If any other matter is presented, the proxy card provides that your Shares will be voted by the proxy holder listed on the proxy card in accordance with his or her best judgment. At the time this proxy statement was printed, we knew of no matters that needed to be acted on at the Special Meeting, other than those discussed in this proxy statement. No appraisal or dissenters’ rights exist for any action proposed to be taken at the Special Meeting.

May I Change or Revoke My Proxy?

If you give us your proxy, you may change or revoke it at any time before the Special Meeting. You may change or revoke your proxy in any one of the following ways:

- signing a new proxy card and submitting it as instructed above;
- if your shares are held in street name, re-voting by Internet or by telephone as instructed above — only your latest Internet or telephone vote will be counted;
- if your shares are registered in your name, notifying Majesco’s Secretary in writing before the Special Meeting that you have revoked your proxy; or
- attending the Special Meeting in person and voting in person. Attending the Special Meeting in person will not in and of itself revoke a previously submitted proxy unless you specifically request it.

What If I Receive More Than One Proxy Card?

You may receive more than one proxy card or voting instruction form if you hold shares of our common stock in more than one account, which may be in registered form or held in street name. Please vote in the manner described under “How Do I Vote?” on the proxy card for each account to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Table of Contents

Will My Shares Be Voted If I Do Not Return My Proxy Card?

If your Shares are registered in your name or if you have stock certificates, they will not be voted if you do not return your proxy card by mail or vote at the Special Meeting as described above under “How Do I Vote?” If your broker cannot vote your Shares on a particular matter because it has not received instructions from you and does not have discretionary voting authority on that matter, or because your broker chooses not to vote on a matter for which it does have discretionary voting authority, this is referred to as a “broker non-vote.” The New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) has rules that govern brokers who have record ownership of listed company stock (including stock such as ours that is listed on The Nasdaq Capital Market) held in brokerage accounts for their clients who beneficially own the shares. Under these rules, brokers who do not receive voting instructions from their clients have the discretion to vote uninstructed shares on certain matters (“routine matters”), but do not have the discretion to vote uninstructed shares as to certain other matters (“non-routine matters”). Under NYSE interpretations, Proposal 1 (the issuance of shares of the Company’s common stock in excess of the 5,000,000 shares previously approved by the Company’s stockholders, which may be issued upon conversion or dilution of the Company’s Series C Convertible Preferred Stock and/or exercise of the warrants that were issued in a private placement on May 15, 2015) is considered a non-routine matter. If your shares are held in street name and you do not provide voting instructions to the bank, broker or other nominee that holds your shares as described above under “How Do I Vote?,” the bank, broker or other nominee does not have authority to vote your unvoted shares for Proposal 1 (the issuance of shares of the Company’s common stock in excess of the 5,000,000 shares previously approved by the Company’s stockholders, which may be issued upon conversion or dilution of the Company’s Series C Convertible Preferred Stock and/or exercise of the warrants that were issued in a private placement on May 15, 2015). We encourage you to provide voting instructions. This ensures your Shares will be voted at the Special Meeting in the manner you desire.

What Vote is Required to Approve Each Proposal and How are Votes Counted?

| Proposal 1: Issuance of Shares of Common Stock, in Excess of the Previously Approved 5,000,000 Shares of Common Stock, Underlying the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock and Warrants | The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast for this proposal is required to approve the issuance of shares of the Company's common stock in excess of the 5,000,000 shares previously approved by the Company's stockholders in accordance with the requirements of The Nasdaq Capital Market (including, without limitation, Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 5635(d)), which may be issued upon conversion or dilution of the Company's Series C Convertible Preferred Stock and/or exercise of the warrants that were issued in a private placement on May 15, 2015. Brokerage firms do not have authority to vote customers' unvoted Shares held by the firms in street name for this proposal. As a result, any Shares not voted by a beneficial owner will be treated as a broker non-vote. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted towards the tabulation of votes cast on this proposal and will have no effect on this proposal. In addition, per applicable Nasdaq Marketplace Rules, the shares of the Company's common stock underlying the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock and 1,631,984 shares of the Company's common stock issued on May 15, 2015 will not be eligible to vote for, and votes submitted with respect to such shares of common stock will not be counted for, this proposal but will count towards the determination of quorum. |

What Constitutes a Quorum for the Special Meeting?

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the Shares entitled to vote at the Special Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Special Meeting. Votes of stockholders of record who are present at the Special Meeting in person or by proxy, abstentions, and broker non-votes are counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists.

Householding of Proxy Statements

The Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") previously adopted a rule concerning the delivery of proxy statements. The rule allows us or brokers holding our shares on your behalf to send a single copy of our proxy statement to any household at which two or more of our stockholders reside, if either we or the brokers believe that the stockholders are members of the same family. This practice, referred to as "householding," benefits both stockholders and us. It reduces the volume of duplicate information received by you and helps to reduce our expenses. The rule applies to our annual reports, proxy statements and information statements. Once stockholders receive notice from their brokers or from us that communications to their addresses will be "household," the practice will continue until stockholders are otherwise notified or until they revoke their consent to the practice. Each stockholder will continue to receive a separate proxy card or voting instruction card.

Those stockholders who either (i) do not wish to participate in "householding" and would like to receive their own sets of our proxy statements in future years or (ii) who share an address with another one of our stockholders and who would like to receive only a single copy of our proxy statements should follow the instructions described below:

- stockholders whose shares are registered in their own name should contact our transfer agent, Equity Stock Transfer, and inform them of their request by calling them at 917-746-4595 or writing them at 237 W. 37th Street, Suite 601, New York, New York 10018.
- stockholders whose shares are held by a broker or other nominee should contact such broker or other nominee directly and inform them of their request, stockholders should be sure to include their name, the name of their brokerage firm and their account number.

APPROVAL OF THE ISSUANCE OF SHARES OF THE COMPANY'S COMMON STOCK IN EXCESS OF THE 5,000,000 SHARES PREVIOUSLY APPROVED BY THE COMPANY'S STOCKHOLDERS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE NASDAQ CAPITAL MARKET (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, NASDAQ MARKETPLACE RULE 5635(D)), WHICH MAY BE ISSUED UPON CONVERSION OR DILUTION OF THE COMPANY'S SERIES C CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK AND/OR EXERCISE OF THE WARRANTS THAT WERE ISSUED IN A PRIVATE PLACEMENT ON MAY 15, 2015.

(Notice Item 1)

On May 15, 2015 (the "Closing Date"), the Company closed its sale of $5,050,000 of units (the "Units"), pursuant to separate subscription agreements with accredited investors (the "Investors") entered into on April 29, 2015, at a purchase price of $1.20 per Unit. Each Unit consisted of one share (each a "Common Share") of the Company's common stock, provided that, if the issuance of any such Common Shares would have resulted in the recipient Investor owning in excess of 4.99% of the Company's issued and outstanding common stock, then such accredited investor could elect to receive shares of the Company's 0% Series C Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Preferred C Shares") in lieu of Common Shares that are, on an as converted basis, equal to one share of common stock for every Unit purchased, and a three year warrant (each a "Warrant") to purchase one share of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $1.40 per share (such sale and issuance, the "Private Placement"). The information set forth in this Proposal is qualified in its entirety by reference to the actual terms of the agreements entered into in connection with the Private Placement, which are included as exhibits to our Current Report on Form 8-K, dated May 15, 2015, as amended, and originally filed with the SEC on May 21, 2015.

The Company's stockholders previously approved a private placement at the Company's 2015 Annual Meeting held on March 30, 2015 under Proposal No. 7 described in the Company's Proxy Statement filed with the SEC on February 17, 2015 (the "Approved Proposal"). The Private Placement was completed pursuant to such Approved Proposal. The terms of the Approved Proposal permitted the Company to issue up to 5,000,000 shares of common stock in one or more non-public offerings at a discount to the market price of the Company's common stock. The full exercise of the Warrants and conversion of the Preferred C Shares would result in the issuance of approximately 6,784,690 shares of common stock (including the Common Shares that were issued pursuant to the Private Placement and subject to any adjustments that might be made as a result of dilution of the Preferred C Shares). The Certificate of Designations, Preferences and Rights of the 0% Series C Convertible Preferred Stock of Majesco Entertainment Company filed with the Delaware Secretary of State on May 15, 2015, and as corrected by that Certificate of Correction filed with the Delaware Secretary of State on May 21, 2015, and on June 9, 2015 (together, the "Certificates of Designations") currently restricts adjustment of the conversion price to below $0.86 (the "Floor") and the Warrants currently contain a provision restricting their full exercise, in the aggregate, to the extent such exercise would result in the Company exceeding the previously authorized 5,000,000 share threshold (the "Exercise Limitation"). We are therefore seeking your approval to issue shares of common stock pursuant to the Private Placement, as a result of the exercise of the Warrants and conversion or dilution of the Preferred C Shares, in excess of the previously approved a maximum of 5,000,000 shares of common stock and, in connection with such approval, to remove the Floor and the Exercise Limitation.

Description of Preferred C Shares

The Preferred C Shares are convertible into shares of common stock based on a conversion calculation equal to the stated value of such Preferred C Share, plus all accrued and unpaid dividends, if any, on such Preferred C Share, as of such date of determination, divided by the conversion price. The stated value of each Preferred C Share is $120 and the initial conversion price is $1.20 per share, each subject to adjustment for stock splits, stock dividends, recapitalizations, combinations, subdivisions or other similar events. In addition, in the event the Company issues or sells, or is deemed to issue or sell, shares of common stock at a per share price that is less than the conversion price then in effect, the conversion price shall be reduced to such lower price, subject to certain exceptions and provided that the conversion price may not be reduced to less than the Floor, unless and until such time as the Company obtains stockholder approval to allow for removal of the Floor. Each holder is entitled to vote on all matters submitted to stockholders of the Company, and shall have the number of votes equal to the number of shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of such holder's Preferred C Shares.

Table of Contents

The Preferred C Shares are also governed by certain anti-dilution provisions contained in the Certificate of Designations. If at any time the Company grants, issues or sells any securities or rights to purchase securities pro rata to the holders of common stock, then each holder of Preferred C Shares will be entitled to acquire or receive, as applicable, subject to certain terms, such securities or right to purchase securities or other assets, as applicable, such holder could have acquired if such holder had held the number of shares of common stock acquirable upon complete conversion of all of such holder's Preferred C Shares held by such holder immediately before the record date for such issuance. In addition, should the Company ever undertake a corporate event (as defined in the Certificates of Designations), the Company shall ensure that each holder of Preferred C Shares shall have the right to receive, upon conversion of such holder's Preferred C Shares (i) in addition to the shares of common stock received upon such conversion, such securities or other assets such holder would have been entitled to with respect to such shares of common stock had the common stock been held by such holder upon the consummation of the corporate event or (ii) in lieu of the shares of common stock receivable upon such conversion, such securities or other assets received by holders of common stock in such amount such holder would have been entitled to receive had the Preferred C Shares initially been issued with conversion rights for such consideration at a conversion rate commensurate with the conversion rate for the Preferred C Shares. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company is prohibited from effecting a conversion of the Preferred C Shares to the extent that, as a result of such conversion, any Investor would beneficially own more than 4.99% of the number of shares of common stock outstanding immediately after giving effect to the issuance of shares of common stock upon conversion of the Preferred C Shares, which beneficial ownership limitation may be increased by the holder up to, but not exceeding, 9.99%.

Description of Warrants

The Warrants are exercisable, at any time, following the date of issuance, at a price of $1.40 per share, subject to adjustment, and expire three years from the date of issuance. The holders may, subject to certain limitations, exercise the Warrants on a cashless basis. The Company is prohibited from effecting an exercise of any Warrant to the extent that, as a result of any such exercise, the holder would beneficially own more than 4.99% of the number of shares of common stock outstanding immediately after giving effect to the issuance of shares of common stock upon exercise of such Warrant, which beneficial ownership limitation may be increased by the holder up to, but not exceeding, 9.99%. The Warrants also include a provision that prevent their full exercise, in the aggregate, unless and until the Company's receives stockholder approval to exceed the previously approved 5,000,000 shares of common stock. The Warrants are also subject to certain adjustments upon certain actions by the Company as outlined in the Warrants.

Registration Rights Agreement

In connection with the Private Placement, the Company entered into a registration rights agreement, dated as of May 15, 2015 (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), with each Investor, pursuant to which the Company is obligated to file a registration statement to register the Common Shares and the shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the Preferred C Shares, within thirty days following the Closing Date and to maintain the effectiveness of the registration statement until all of the Common Shares and shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the Preferred C Shares, are sold or may otherwise able to be sold pursuant to Rule 144. In the event the Company fails to file, or obtain effectiveness of, such registration statement within the thirty-day period, the Company is obligated to pay liquidated damages to the Investors for every thirty-days during which such filing is not made and/or effectiveness obtained, such fee being subject to certain exceptions.

Possible Effects on Rights of Existing Stockholders

The issuance of up to 5,000,000 shares of common stock was previously approved by the stockholders at the 2015 Annual Meeting held on March 30, 2015. The full exercise of the Warrants and conversion of the Preferred C Shares, subject to adjustments for dilution, could result in the issuance of approximately 6,784,690 shares of common stock (including those Common Shares issued pursuant to the Private Placement). The approval of the issuance of shares of common stock upon conversion or dilution of the Preferred C Shares and full exercise of the Warrants in excess of the previously approved 5,000,000 shares of common stock will further dilute, and thereby reduce, each existing stockholder's proportionate ownership in our common stock. Any additional equity or convertible debt financings in the future could result in further dilution to our stockholders. Additionally, sales in the public market of shares of common stock, the Common Shares or the shares of common stock acquired upon conversion of the Preferred C Shares or the exercise of the Warrants, or the perception that such sales could occur, could adversely affect the prevailing market price of our common stock and impair our ability to raise funds in additional stock financings. While the Company previously obtained stockholder approval for the issuance of up to 5,000,000 shares of common stock, the conversion of or dilution of the Preferred C Shares and the exercise of the Warrants, in combination with the issuance of the Common Shares under the Private Placement, could result in the issuance of more than 5,000,000 shares of our common stock. Therefore, the Company is seeking stockholder approval under applicable Nasdaq Marketplace Rules.

Reasons for Stockholder Approval

Our common stock is listed on The Nasdaq Capital Market and, as such, we are subject to Nasdaq Marketplace Rules. Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 5635(d) requires that an issuer obtain stockholder approval prior to the issuance of common stock in certain circumstances, including for an issuance of common stock through a private placement, if such issuance is for less than the greater of book or market value of the common stock and would equal 20% or more of the common stock or voting power of the issuer outstanding before the issuance. While we previously obtained stockholder approval for a private issuance of up to 5,000,000 shares of common stock, adjustments to the conversion price of the Preferred C Shares and/or the full exercise of the Warrants could result in the issuance of shares of common stock in excess of this amount. We therefore seek your approval of this Proposal in order to exceed such previously approved 5,000,000 amount and satisfy the requirements of Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 5635(d) and permit the issuance of the common stock upon the conversion or dilution of the Preferred C Shares and exercise of the Warrants.
