Section 5 — Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers;

Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Effective June 11, 2018 (the "Effective Date"), Eric-Yves Mahe, Senior Vice President, Eastman Kodak Company (the "Company") and President, Software and Solutions Division, was appointed President, Consumer and Film Division. In this position, Mr. Mahe is required to engage in substantial business travel to Europe and North America from his home location of Singapore. In light of this, on September 28, 2018, the Executive Compensation Committee (the "Committee") of the Company approved, commencing as of the Effective Date, a monthly travel allowance to fund Mr. Mahe's intra-region travel to a third location when travelling outside of Asia between other scheduled business travel in the amount of SGD 6,700 (which corresponds to approximately USD 5,000 based on the last 12-month average exchange rate for SGD to USD of 0.746), payable as a taxable allowance through the normal payroll cycle. The travel allowance is considered by the Committee and the Company to be a cost-effective alternative to either relocation or more frequent long-haul return trips to Mr. Mahe's home base of Singapore and will be periodically re-evaluated by the Committee as business circumstances dictate.
