Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers Election of Directors Appointment of Certain Officers
Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

As previously disclosed, on November 23, 2018, CenterState Bank Corporation (“CSFL” or “Company”) and National Commerce Corporation (“NCC”) entered into an agreement and plan of merger (the “Merger Agreement”) that provides for NCC to be merged with and into the Company, with the Company as the surviving company (the “Merger”). Immediately thereafter, NCC’s direct wholly-owned subsidiary, National Bank of Commerce (“NBC”), will be merged with and into CSFL’s direct wholly-owned subsidiary, CenterState Bank, N.A. (the “Bank Merger”). The Merger Agreement contemplates, among other things, that three of the current directors of NCC will be appointed to the board of directors of the Company and CenterState Bank and one additional NBC director will be appointed solely to the board of directors of CenterState Bank, each as mutually agreed to by the parties, subject to completion of and effective as of the effective time of the merger.

On February 21, 2019, the boards of directors of CSFL and CenterState Bank each took action to appoint the following NCC directors to the CSFL and CenterState Bank boards, contingent upon the receipt of regulatory and shareholder approvals and the completion of , and effective as of the effective time of, the Merger: John H. Holcomb, III, the current Vice Chair of the NCC board, Richard Murray, IV, the current Chair and CEO of NCC, and G. Ruffner Page, Jr., the President of McWane, Inc., a leading manufacturer of pipes, valves, fire hydrants and fittings for the water industry, and the current lead independent board member of NCC. In addition, the CenterState Bank board of directors took action to appoint Mark L. Drew, a current NBC director and currently the Executive Vice President and General Counsel of Protective Life Corporation, a subsidiary of the Daiichi Life Insurance Company, Limited, to the CenterState Bank board of directors only, contingent upon the receipt of regulatory and shareholder approvals and the completion of, and effective as of the effective time of, the Merger. The Merger is expected to be completed in the second quarter of 2019. At this time, none of these proposed appointees have been named to serve on any committees of the board of directors of the Company or CenterState Bank, nor has the board of the Company or CenterState Bank identified any committees to which any of the appointees is expected to be appointed. Effective upon commencement of each proposed director’s term, each director other than Mr. Murray would be entitled to receive the same compensation as other nonemployee directors of the Company: an annual cash retainer of $30,000, payable on a quarterly basis for his or her service on the board of the Company and CenterState Bank, and a $50,000 annual retainer fee paid in the Company’s common stock. These amounts exclude meeting fees paid to serve on a committee of the board of directors of the Company (i.e., Audit, Compensation, Nominating, Risk and Culture), which are currently $1,000 per meeting attended by members of a committee.

See “Interests of NCC’s Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger” of the joint proxy statement/prospectus contained in the Registration Statement (File No. 333-229159) filed by CSFL with the Securities and Exchange Commission on January 28, 2019, which is incorporated herein by reference, for information about arrangements and transactions between the Company and Messrs. Holcomb, Murray, Page, and Drew.

Item 8.01 Other Events

The information set forth above under Item 5.02 is incorporated herein by reference.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Information

This Current Report contains “forward-looking statements” as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In general, forward-looking statements usually use words such as “may,” “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “will,” “should,” “plan,” “estimate,” “predict,” “continue” and “potential” or the negative of these terms or other comparable terminology, including statements related to the expected timing of the closing of the Merger between CSFL and NCC, the expected returns and other benefits of the Merger to shareholders, expected improvement in operating efficiency resulting from the Merger, estimated expense reductions resulting from the transactions and the timing of achievement of such reductions, the impact on and timing of the recovery of the impact on tangible book value, and the effect of the Merger on CSFL’s capital ratios. Forward-looking statements represent management’s beliefs, based upon information available at the time the statements are made, with regard to the matters addressed – they are not guarantees of future performance. Forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties that change over time and could cause actual results or financial condition to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by such statements.

Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to (1) the risk that the cost savings and any revenue synergies from the Merger may not be realized or take longer than anticipated to be realized, (2) disruption from the Merger with customer, supplier, employee or other business partner relationships, (3) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the merger agreement with NCC, (4) the risk of successful integration of NCC’s businesses into CSFL, (5) the failure to obtain the necessary approvals by the stockholders of NCC with respect to the Merger or the shareholders of CSFL with respect to the issuance of CSFL common stock in connection with the Merger, (6) the amount of the costs, fees, expenses and charges related to the Merger, (7) the ability by CSFL to obtain required governmental approvals of the Merger, (8) reputational risk and the reaction of each of the companies’ customers, suppliers, employees or other business partners to the Merger, (9) the failure of the closing conditions in the Merger Agreement to be satisfied, or any unexpected delay in closing the Merger, (10) the risk that the integration of NCC’s operations into the operations of CSFL will be materially delayed or will be more costly or difficult than expected, (11) the possibility that the Merger may be more expensive to complete than anticipated, including as a result of unexpected factors or events, (12) the dilution caused by CSFL’s issuance of additional shares of its common stock in the Merger, and (13) general competitive, economic, political and market conditions. Additional factors which could affect the forward-looking statements can be found in the cautionary language included under the headings “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” and “Risk Factors” in CSFL’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017, NCC’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017, and other documents subsequently filed by CSFL and NCC with the SEC. Consequently, no forward-looking statement can be guaranteed. CSFL and NCC do not undertake any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. For any forward-looking statements made in this Current Report on Form 8-K, the exhibits hereto or any related documents, CSFL and NCC claim protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.
