Item 8.01 Other Events

On March 12, 2019, CenterState Bank Corporation (NASDAQ: CSFL) (the “Company” or “CenterState”) announced that it has received approval from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System for the merger of National Commerce Corporation (“NCOM”) with and into the Company pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of November 23, 2018, between the Company and NCOM (“Merger Agreement”), and the approval from the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency for the merger of National Bank of Commerce (“NBC”), the bank subsidiary of NCOM, with and into CenterState Bank, N.A. (the “Bank”), the wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. The Company and NCOM each had obtained shareholder approval for the transaction last week.

The Company and NCOM also jointly announced today that they expect the merger of NCOM with and into the Company will become effective April 1, 2019, subject to the satisfaction of other closing conditions described in the Merger Agreement. The merger of NBC into the Bank will occur immediately after the holding company merger.

“Safe Harbor” Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995:

Some of the statements in this report constitute forward-looking statements, within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These statements related to future events, other future financial and operating performance, costs, revenues, economic conditions in our markets, loan performance, credit risks, collateral values and credit conditions, or business strategies, including expansion and acquisition activities and may be identified by terminology such as “may,” “will,” “should,” “expects,” “scheduled,” “plans,” “intends,” “anticipates,” “believes,” “estimates,” “potential,” or “continue” or the negative of such terms or other comparable terminology. Actual events or results may differ materially. In evaluating these statements, you should specifically consider the factors described throughout this report. We cannot assure you that future results, levels of activity, performance or goals will be achieved, and actual results may differ from those set forth in the forward looking statements.

Forward-looking statements, with respect to our beliefs, plans, objectives, goals, expectations, anticipations, estimates and intentions, involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, which may be beyond the Company’s control, as well as beyond the control of NCOM, many of which, with respect to future business decisions and actions, are subject to change, and which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the Company or the Bank, to be materially different from future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Examples of uncertainties and contingencies include, among other important factors, general economic and business conditions, expectations of and actual timing and amount of interest rate movements, including the slope and shape of the yield curve, which can have a significant impact on a financial services institution, market and monetary fluctuations, including fluctuations in mortgage markets, responses to any or all of these conditions, the actions of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, and other regulators and agencies, pending, threatened, or possible future regulatory or judicial actions, proceedings or outcomes, changes in laws and regulations applicable to the Company, or NCOM, the possibility that the proposed transactions will not close when expected, the possibility that the anticipated benefits of the transactions will not be realized when expected or at all, including as a result of the impact of, or problems arising from, the integration of the companies, the possibility that the transactions may be more expensive to complete than anticipated, including as a result of unexpected factors or events, diversion of management's attention from ongoing business operations and opportunities, the Company's and NCOM's success in executing their respective business plans and strategies and managing the risks involved in the foregoing; and other factors that may affect future results of the Company and NCOM, both individually and as a combined entity.

Additional factors that could cause results to differ materially from those contemplated by forward-looking statements can be found in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2018, and otherwise in our SEC reports and filings, and in NCOM's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2018 and in its other SEC reports and filings. You should not expect us to update any forward-looking statements. All written or oral forward-looking statements attributable to us are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary notice, including, without limitation, those risks and uncertainties described in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2018, and otherwise in our SEC reports and filings.
