CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus contains certain statements which constitute “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). Such statements may be identified by the use of words like “may,” “will,” “would,” “could,” “should,” “believes,” “estimates,” “projects,” “potential,” “expects,” “plans,” “seeks,” “intends,” “pursues,” “anticipates,” “continues,” “designs,” “impacts,” “affects,” “forecasts,” “target,” “outlook,” “initiative,” “objective,” “priorities,” “goal,” or the negative of those words or other similar expressions is intended to identify forward-looking statements that represent our current judgment about possible future events.

All statements that address expectations or projections about the future, including, without limitation, statements about development, launches, regulatory approvals, governmental and regulatory actions and proceedings, market position, acquisitions, sale of assets, revenues, expenditures, are forward-looking statements. The Company’s actual results in the future may differ materially from those indicated by the forward-looking statements due to risks and uncertainties that exist in the Company’s operations and business environment, including, but not limited to, competitive factors and pricing pressures, non-renewal of franchise agreements, shifts in market demand, the success of new franchise programs, including the new Noble Roman’s Craft Pizza & Pub format, the Company’s ability to successfully operate an increased number of company-owned restaurants, general economic conditions, changes in demand for the Company’s products or franchises, the Company’s ability to service and refinance its loans, the impact of franchise regulation, the success or failure of individual franchisees and changes in prices or supplies of food ingredients and labor. This discussion is not exhaustive, but is designed to highlight important factors that may impact our forward-looking statements.

Because the factors referred to above, as well as the statements included elsewhere in this prospectus, could cause actual results or outcomes to differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statements made by us or on our behalf, you should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements attributable to us are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements in this “Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” and the risk factors that are included under the caption “Risk Factors” in this prospectus. Except as required by applicable law, including the securities laws of the United States and the rules and regulations of the Securities Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), we do not plan to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements contained herein after we distribute this prospectus, whether as a result of any new information, future events or otherwise.

RISK FACTORS

All phases of the Company’s operations are subject to a number of uncertainties, risks and other influences, many of which are outside of its control, and any one or a combination of which could materially affect its results of operations. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the Company’s expectations are discussed in Item 1A of the 2016 Annual Report and are incorporated by reference herein. In addition, we face the following risk specific to this offering:

Future issuances of our securities could dilute current stockholders’ ownership.

We are registering for offer, resale or other disposition 7,020,000 shares of our Common Stock issuable upon the conversion of the Notes or the exercise of the Warrants, in each case held by the selling stockholders identified in this prospectus or their transferees. The Notes accrue interest at a rate of 10% per annum, which interest will also be convertible into shares of Common Stock. We may also decide to raise additional funds through public or private debt or equity financing to fund our operations. While we cannot predict the effect, if any, that future sales of debt, our Common Stock, other equity securities or securities convertible into our Common Stock or other equity securities or the availability of any of the foregoing for future sale, will have on the market price of our Common Stock, it is likely that sales of substantial amounts of our Common Stock (including shares issued upon the conversion of the Notes or the exercise of the Warrants) will dilute the ownership interest of our existing stockholders and that the perception that such sales could occur could adversely affect prevailing market prices for our Common Stock.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Each of the selling securityholders will receive all of the net proceeds from the sale of Common Stock by that securityholder. We will not receive any of the net proceeds from the sale of such Common Stock. The selling securityholders will pay any underwriting discounts and commissions and expenses incurred by the selling securityholders for brokerage, accounting, tax or legal services or any other expenses incurred by the selling securityholders in offering or selling their Common Stock. We will bear all other costs, fees and expenses incurred in effecting the registration of the shares of Common Stock covered by this prospectus.

Assuming that all Warrants held by the selling securityholders are exercised for cash, we would receive proceeds of approximately $1.95 million, which we intend to use for working capital and general corporate purposes. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale by the selling securityholders of the Common Stock issued to the selling securityholders upon exercise of the Warrants, nor will we receive any cash from the conversion of the Notes.

We have agreed to bear the expenses in connection with the registration of the Common Stock being offered by the selling securityholders under this prospectus, which we have estimated to be approximately $7,500.

DETERMINATION OF OFFERING PRICE

The selling securityholders will determine at what price they may sell the offered shares, and such sales may be made at prevailing market prices, at prices related to prevailing market prices or at privately negotiated prices.

The table below lists the names of the selling securityholders and other information regarding the beneficial ownership of shares of our Common Stock by the selling securityholders. PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We are registering shares of Common Stock underlying the Warrants and the Notes to permit the resale of the shares by the holders from time to time after the date of this prospectus. The selling securityholders, which as used herein includes donees, pledgees, transferees or other successors-in-interest selling shares of Common Stock or interests in shares of Common Stock received after the date of this prospectus from a selling securityholder as a gift, pledge, partnership distribution or other transfer, may, from time to time, sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any or all of their shares of Common Stock or interests in shares of Common Stock on any stock exchange, market or trading facility on which the shares are traded or in private transactions. These dispositions may be at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices at the time of sale, at prices related to the prevailing market price, at varying prices determined at the time of sale, or at negotiated prices.

The selling securityholders may use any one or more of the following methods when disposing of shares or interests in the shares of our Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of the Warrants or conversion of the Notes:

ordinary open market brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers, through Divine Capital Markets LLC or another broker-dealer;

block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent, but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;

privately negotiated transactions;

short sales effected after the date the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part is declared effective by the SEC;

through the writing or settlement of options or other hedging transactions, whether through an options exchange or otherwise;

broker-dealers may agree with the selling securityholders to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share;

one or more underwritten offerings on a firm commitment or best efforts basis;

a combination of any such methods of sale; and any other method permitted by applicable law.

The selling securityholders may, from time to time, pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares of Common Stock owned by them and, if they default in the performance of their secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell the shares of Common Stock, from time to time, under this prospectus. The selling securityholders also may transfer the shares of Common Stock in other circumstances, in which case the transferees, pledgees or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus.

In connection with the sale of our Common Stock or interests therein, the selling securityholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions, which may in turn engage in short sales of the Common Stock in the course of hedging the positions they assume. The selling securityholders may also sell shares of our Common Stock short and deliver these securities to close out their short positions, or loan or pledge the Common Stock to broker-dealers that in turn may sell these securities. The selling securityholders may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions or the creation of one or more derivative securities which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of shares offered by this prospectus, which shares such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction).

The aggregate proceeds to the selling securityholders from the sale of the Common Stock offered by them, less discounts or commissions, if any, will be the purchase price of the Common Stock. Each of the selling securityholders reserves the right to accept and, together with their agents from time to time, to reject, in whole or in part, any proposed purchase of Common Stock to be made directly or through agents.

The selling securityholders also may resell all or a portion of the shares in open market transactions in reliance upon Rule 144 under the Securities Act, provided that they meet the criteria and conform to the requirements of that rule.

The selling securityholders and any underwriters, broker-dealers or agents that participate in the sale of the Common Stock or interests therein may be “underwriters” within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act. Any discounts, commissions, concessions or profit they earn on any resale of the shares may be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. Selling securityholders who are “underwriters” within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act.

To the extent required, the shares of our Common Stock to be sold, the names of the selling securityholders, the respective purchase prices and public offering prices, the names of any agents, dealer or underwriter, any applicable commissions or discounts with respect to a particular offer will be set forth in an accompanying prospectus supplement or, if appropriate, a post-effective amendment to the registration statement that includes this prospectus.

In order to comply with the securities laws of some states, if applicable, the Common Stock may be sold in these jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in some states the Common Stock may not be sold unless it has been registered or qualified for sale or an exemption from registration or qualification requirements is available and is complied with.

We are required to pay all fees and expenses incident to the registration of the shares of Common Stock underlying the Warrants and the Notes, excluding any underwriting discounts and selling commissions and all legal fees and expenses of legal counsel for any selling securityholder. We have agreed to indemnify the selling securityholders against liabilities relating to the registration of the shares offered by this prospectus.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

We are authorized to issue 40,000,000 shares of Common Stock, and 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock, without par value, which may be issued in one or more series.

Common Stock

The holders of our Common Stock are entitled to one vote for each share held of record on all matters to be voted on by shareholders. There is no cumulative voting with respect to the election of directors, with the result that the holders of more than 50% of the shares voting for the election of directors can elect all of the directors then standing for election. The holders of Common Stock are entitled to receive dividends when, as and if declared by the board of directors out of legally available funds. In the event of our liquidation, dissolution or winding down of our business, the holders of Common Stock would share ratably in all remaining assets which are available for distribution to them after payment of liabilities and after provision has been made for each class of stock, if any, having preference over the Common Stock. Holders of shares of Common Stock, as such, have no conversion, preemptive or other subscription rights, and there are no redemption provisions applicable to the Common Stock.

Preferred Stock

We are authorized to issue preferred stock with such designations, rights and preferences as may be determined from time to time by the board of directors. Accordingly, the board of directors is empowered, without further shareholder approval, to issue preferred stock with dividend, liquidation, conversion, voting or other rights which could adversely affect the voting power or other rights of the holders of the Common Stock.

Our board of directors designated 4,929,275 shares of our authorized preferred stock as Series A Convertible Preferred Stock and 51,000 shares of our authorized preferred stock as Series B Convertible Preferred Stock. No shares of any series of preferred stock are currently outstanding.

Warrants

In late 2016 and early 2017, the Company issued warrants to purchase up to 2,400,000 shares of common stock including the Warrants issued to the selling security holders, which permit the holders to purchase of up to 2,400,000 total shares of our Common Stock at an exercise price of $1.00 per share. Subject to certain limitations, the Company may redeem the Warrants at a price of $0.001 per share of Common Stock subject to the Warrant upon at least 30 days' notice if the daily average weighted trading price of the Common Stock equals or exceeds $1.50 per share for a period of 30 consecutive trading days. Each of the Warrants expires three years from the date of issuance. The exercise price of the Warrants and the shares issuable thereunder are subject to adjustment pursuant to certain anti-dilution provisions.

Notes

In late 2016 and early 2017, the Company issued $2.4 million aggregate principal amount of notes including the Notes issued to the selling security holders. Interest on the Notes accrues at the annual rate of 10% and is payable quarterly in arrears. Principal of the Notes matures three years after issuance. Each holder of the Notes may convert the unpaid principal amount and any accrued interest at any time into Common Stock of the Company at a conversion price of $0.50 per share. Subject to certain limitations, upon at least 30 days' notice the Company may require the Notes to be converted into Common Stock if the daily average weighted trading price of the Common Stock equals or exceeds $2.00 per share for a period of 30 consecutive trading days. The Notes provide for customary events of default. The conversion price of the Notes is subject to adjustment pursuant to certain anti-dilution provisions.

Dividends

We have never declared or paid dividends on our Common Stock. We intend to retain earnings to fund the development and growth of our business and do not expect to pay any dividends on our Common Stock within the foreseeable future. The declaration and payment of cash dividends is prohibited without the consent of certain of our lenders. Future dividends, if any, also will depend, in the discretion of the board of directors, on our earnings, financial condition, capital requirements and other relevant factors.

Item 14.
Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 23-1-37, et seq., of the Indiana Business Corporation Law (“IBCL”) requires a corporation, unless its articles of incorporation provide otherwise, to indemnify a director or an officer of the corporation who is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative and whether formal or informal, against reasonable expenses, including counsel fees, incurred in connection with the proceeding. The IBCL also permits a corporation to indemnify a director or an officer who is made a party to a proceeding because the individual was a director or an officer of the corporation against liability incurred in the proceeding if the individual’s conduct was in good faith and the individual reasonably believed, in the case of conduct in the individual’s official capacity with the corporation, that the conduct was in the corporation’s best interests, and in all other cases, that the individual’s conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation’s best interests. In a criminal proceeding, the individual must also either have had reasonable cause to believe the individual’s conduct was lawful or no reasonable cause to believe the individual’s conduct was unlawful. The IBCL also permits a corporation to pay for or reimburse reasonable expenses incurred before the final disposition of a proceeding and permits a court of competent jurisdiction to order a corporation to indemnify a director or officer if the court determines that the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not the person met the standards for indemnification otherwise provided in the IBCL.

Article VI of the Company’s Amended and Restated By-Laws dated December 18, 2009 (the “By-Laws”) provides that the Company shall indemnify every person who is or was a director, officer, or employee of the Company against any and all losses incurred by such persons, to the maximum extent permitted by law, in connection with or resulting from any claim, in which such person may be involved by reason of his or her service to the Company, provided such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in the Company’s best interests. The By-Laws also provide that the Company may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any such person, and where such insurance exists, the Company shall have no duty to indemnify against losses to the extent covered by insurance.

Item 15.

Item 17.
Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

1.

To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

i.

To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

ii.

To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) of this chapter) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement.

To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

Paragraphs (1)(i), (ii), and (iii) of this Item do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

3.

To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

4.

That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities: the undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

i.

Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

ii.

Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

iii.

The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and iv.

Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

II-2

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
