PROXY STATEMENT

Annual Meeting of Shareholders

July 2, 2019

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the board of directors of Noble Roman's, Inc., an Indiana corporation ("Noble Roman's," "we" or the "Company"), for use at the annual meeting of shareholders to be held on Tuesday, July 2, 2019 at 9:30 a.m., local time, in the conference room in Heritage Park at 6612 E. 75th Street, Indianapolis, Indiana 46250, and any adjournment or postponement thereof, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying notice of the annual meeting of shareholders.

Unless otherwise directed by the giver of the proxy, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy, or the one of them who acts, will vote all shares subject to the proxy as follows:

FOR the election of Mr. A. Scott Mobley as a Class III director of the Company, to serve until the 2022 annual meeting of shareholders or until his successor is elected and qualified;
2.
FOR the advisory approval of the compensation of the Company's named executive officers as disclosed pursuant to Item 402 of Regulation S-K;
3.
With respect to the frequency of future advisory approval of the compensation of the Company's named executive officers, that the vote be held every THREE YEARS;
4.
FOR the ratification of the engagement of Somerset CPAs, P.C. as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2019; and 5.
In their discretion on the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the annual meeting.

This proxy statement, the notice of annual meeting and the accompanying proxy form were first mailed to the holders of our common stock on or about May 20, 2019. We will bear the entire expense of soliciting proxies. Proxies will be solicited by mail initially. Our directors, officers and employees also may solicit proxies personally or by telephone or other means, but they will not be specially compensated for such services. Certain holders of record, such as brokers, custodians and nominees, may be requested to distribute proxy materials to beneficial owners and will be reimbursed by us for their reasonable expenses incurred in sending proxy materials to beneficial owners.

A shareholder who executes a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is exercised by delivering to us another proxy bearing a later date, by submitting written notice of the revocation to our corporate secretary, or by personally appearing at the annual meeting and casting a contrary vote.

VOTING RIGHTS AND SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

Only common shareholders of record at the close of business on April 30, 2019 are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the annual meeting. On such date, there were 21,683,032 shares of our common stock outstanding. There are approximately 260 holders of record of our common stock. Holders of common stock are entitled to one vote for each share held on each matter to be voted upon at the annual meeting.

The Company's Amended and Restated By-Laws (the "By-Laws") provide that the holders of a majority of the Company's outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote at the meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the meeting. Abstentions and "broker non-votes" will be counted as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

A "broker non-vote" occurs when a broker lacks discretionary voting power to vote on a "non-routine" proposal and a beneficial owner fails to give the broker voting instructions on that matter. The election of directors, the advisory approval of executive compensation (a so-called "say-on-pay" vote), and the frequency of the "say-on-pay" votes are not considered "routine" matters. Beneficial owners who hold their shares through stock brokerage accounts will have to give voting instructions to their brokers in order for the brokers to vote on the election of directors, the advisory approval of executive compensation, and the advisory vote regarding frequency of future "say-on-pay" votes. If you are a beneficial owner, failure to provide instructions to your broker will result in your shares not being voted in connection with the election of directors, the advisory approval of executive compensation, and the advisory vote regarding frequency of future "say-on-pay" votes. The ratification of the selection of Somerset CPAs, P.C. as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for 2019 is considered a "routine" matter and a broker has the discretionary voting power to vote on this matter without any instructions from the beneficial owner. Broker non-votes are counted for purposes of determining a quorum, but will have no effect on: the election of directors; the advisory vote on executive compensation; the advisory vote on the frequency of future advisory votes on executive compensation; or the ratification of the selection of Somerset CPAs, P.C. An abstention will not count as a vote against the ratification of the selection of Somerset CPAs, P.C.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a plurality of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and eligible to vote is required for the election of the director nominee. At this year's meeting there is one duly nominated individual for election as a Class III director. Therefore, the nominee will be elected if he receives any votes "FOR" his election, regardless of how many votes to "WITHHOLD AUTHORITY" that nominee receives.

The affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and voting on such matter will be required for: (1) the advisory approval of executive compensation; (2) ratification of Somerset CPAs, P.C. as the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2019; and (3) for the approval of any other matter that might be properly raised and submitted to a vote at the meeting. The advisory vote recommending the frequency (i.e., every one, two, or three years) of future “say-on-pay” votes that receives the greatest number of votes will be considered our shareholders’ advice on the issue. Consistent with our By-Laws, the agenda for this year’s meeting is set and no additional matters, other than the proposals described in this proxy statement, may be submitted for consideration by our shareholders at the meeting, other than procedural issues such as adjournment, postponement or continuation. On procedural issues, all shares represented by proxy may be voted at the discretion of the attorneys-in-fact named in the proxies, to the extent permitted by law.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

At the 2019 annual meeting of shareholders, in accordance with the Company’s By-Laws, the shareholders will elect one Class III director to serve until the 2022 annual meeting of shareholders or until his successor is duly elected and qualified. The board of directors has nominated Mr. A. Scott Mobley as a Class III director. Mr. Mobley is currently a director of the Company, has consented to being named in this proxy statement, and has agreed to continue to serve as a director, if elected.

Should the nominee become unavailable or decline to serve for any reason, the Company expects that each person named in the proxy will vote for the election of another person as may be designated by the board of directors. The board of directors is not aware of any circumstances likely to cause the nominee to be unavailable for election or to decline to serve.

The board of directors recommends a vote “FOR” the election of the director nominee.

Set forth below is certain information regarding the director nominee, the executive officers and the directors of the Company:

Name	Age	Positions with the Company

The officers of the Company serve at the discretion of the board of directors and are elected at the annual meeting of the board of directors. The board of directors has a classified structure in which the directors are divided into three classes with approximately one-third of the directors standing for election each year. Under this structure, directors serve staggered three-year terms or until their successors are duly elected and qualified. At this year's meeting, one Class III director is standing for re-election.

When determining whether the directors and the director nominee have the experience, qualifications, attributes, diversity and skills, taken as a whole, to enable the board of directors to satisfy its responsibilities to the Company effectively in light of the Company's business and structure, the board focused primarily on the information discussed in each of the directors' individual biographies above, in particular with respect to: (a) Paul W. CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

For a number of years until November 2014, the Company operated using a common U.S. board leadership structure under which the Chief Executive Officer also served as Chairman of the board of directors. In November 2014, the Company determined to separate these roles and appointed Paul W. Mobley to serve as the Executive Chairman of the board of directors and A. Scott Mobley to serve as Chief Executive Officer. The Company may elect to combine these positions in the future if it determines it is best for the Company and its shareholders.

Our whole board of directors has responsibility for the oversight of risk management. Our whole board of directors from time to time discusses with management areas of material risk exposures, their potential impact on the Company, the steps we take to monitor risk exposure, and controls to mitigate such exposures.

The Company has adopted a code of ethics for its senior executive and financial officers. The code of ethics can be obtained without charge by contacting the Company's executive office at 6612 E. 75th Street, Suite 450, Indianapolis, Indiana, and requesting a copy of the code of ethics.

In 2018, the board of directors met one time, and each of the directors of the Company attended the meeting of the board of directors. All directors are encouraged to attend our annual meeting of shareholders. The Company held an annual meeting of shareholders on July 6, 2018, at which all directors were in attendance. The Company does not have standing audit, compensation, or nominating and corporate governance committees.

Certain Relationships and Transactions

The Company has reviewed all transactions to which the Company and officers and directors of the Company are a party or have a financial interest. The board of directors of the Company has adopted a policy that all transactions between the Company and its officers, directors, principal shareholders and other affiliates must be approved by a majority of the Company's disinterested directors, and be conducted on terms no less favorable to the Company than could be obtained from unaffiliated third parties.

The Company sold 48 units in a private placement which began in October 2016 and was completed in January 2017. Each unit consists of a note in the principal amount of $50,000 with interest at the rate of 10% per annum and convertible to the Company's common stock at the rate of $.50 per share and a warrant to purchase 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock at $1.00 per share. Three of those units were purchased by Paul W. Mobley, and four units were purchased by Mr. Herbst. The units purchased by Mr. Mobley and Mr. Herbst were on the same terms and conditions as the other 41 units that were purchased by independent investors. In December 2018, the Company offered to extend the maturity of the convertible notes and the expiration date of the warrants to January 2023. The holders of $650,000 of the convertible notes and corresponding warrants, including Mr. Mobley and Mr. Herbst, accepted the Company's offer.

The Company's board of directors is currently comprised of: Paul W. Mobley, our Executive Chairman and Chief Financial Officer; A. Scott Mobley, our President and Chief Executive Officer; Douglas H. Coape-Arnold; and Marcel Herbst. For the purpose of determining director independence, the Company has adopted the New York Stock Exchange definition of independence. The board of directors has determined that Mr. Coape-Arnold and Mr. Herbst are independent directors under that definition.

Board Role in Audit Process

The board of directors does not have a separately established audit committee. Because no separate audit committee has been established, the board of directors, as a whole, performs certain functions ordinarily delegated to an audit committee. The board of directors has determined that each of Mr. Coape-Arnold and Mr. Herbst qualify as an “Audit Committee Financial Expert.”

The board of directors has reviewed, and communicated with management and with Somerset CPAs, P.C., the Company’s independent auditor, with respect to, the Company’s audited consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2018 and for the year then ended. The board of directors also has communicated with Somerset CPAs, P.C. with respect to the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standard No. 1301, “Communication with Audit Committees.” The board of directors has received the written disclosures and the letter from Somerset CPAs, P.C. required by applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board regarding the independent accountant’s communications with the board of directors concerning independence, and has communicated with the independent accountant with respect to the independent accountant’s independence. Based upon the board of directors’ review and communications noted above, the board of directors authorized the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company to be included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2018, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Board of Directors of Noble Roman’s, Inc.
Paul W. Mobley, A. Scott Mobley, Douglas Coape-Arnold
and Marcel Herbst

Board Role in Nominations

The Company does not have a standing nominating committee. The board of directors does not believe that a nominating committee is necessary due to the Company's relatively small size, the relatively small size of its board of directors, and its historically limited need to add new directors. When the Company has had a vacancy on the board of directors, the entire board has participated in the nomination process. The board expects all of the directors to participate in the nomination process and in the review of potential nominees. The board of directors does not have a formal policy regarding the consideration of shareholder nominees; however, the board will consider candidates on a case-by-case basis. There are no specific qualifications that a candidate must have in order to be considered. When a vacancy exists, the board generally relies on the personal knowledge and references of the directors and publicly available data to identify potential nominees.

The Company's By-Laws contain the procedures by which shareholders may nominate directors. Among other items, these provisions set forth the procedures that shareholders must follow in order for a shareholder nominee to be considered at a meeting, the information that a shareholder must provide to the Company with respect to itself and the nominee, and the deadlines by which a shareholder nomination must be received in order to be considered at a meeting.

Board Role in Compensation Determinations

The Company does not have a standing compensation committee. The compensation program is supervised by the entire board of directors. The board of directors does not believe that a compensation committee is necessary due to the Company's relatively small size and the relatively small size of its board of directors. All directors participate in compensation discussions. A director that is also an officer does not vote on his own compensation. The compensation of the Executive Chairman/Chief Financial Officer and the President/Chief Executive Officer of the Company has been set by long-term contracts with those individuals. The compensation of other executive officers of the Company is recommended by the Executive Chairman/Chief Financial Officer and President/Chief Executive Officer and reviewed by the Company's board of directors as it deems appropriate. Other than the Executive Chairman/Chief Financial Officer and President/Chief Executive Officer, no other executive officer participates in the compensation process.

Communication with the Board

Communications by shareholders or by other parties may be sent to the board of directors by U.S. mail or overnight delivery and should be addressed to the board of directors c/o Secretary, Noble Roman's, Inc., 6612 E. 75th Street, Suite 450, Indianapolis, Indiana 46250. Communications directed to the entire board of directors, or one or more directors, will be reviewed by the Secretary and forwarded to the board of directors as appropriate and may be made anonymously.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Based solely on a review of the copies of reports of ownership and changes in ownership of the Company's common stock, furnished to the Company, the Company believes that all filing requirements under Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, during the year ended December 31, 2018, were complied with.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

Because no separate Compensation Committee has been established, the board of directors, as a whole, performs certain functions ordinarily delegated to a Compensation Committee. Paul W. Mobley, A. Scott Mobley, Douglas H. Coape-Arnold and Marcel Herbst all participated in executive compensation decisions for the year ended December 31, 2018.

Equity Incentive Awards

The Company maintains an employee stock option plan for our employees, officers and directors that is designed to motivate them to increase shareholder value. Any employee, officer or director of the Company is eligible to be awarded options under the plan. The employee stock option plan provides that any options issued pursuant to the plan for non-director employees will have a three-year vesting period and for director employees will vest one-third each year and both will expire ten years after the date of grant. The vesting period is intended to provide incentive for longevity with the Company. Awards under the plan are periodically made at the recommendation of the Executive Chairman/Chief Financial Officer and President/Chief Executive Officer, and then approved by the board of directors.

The employee stock option plan does not have a limit on the number of shares that may be issued under the plan.

The Summary Compensation Table includes the grant date fair value for stock options granted in 2017 and 2018 to the named executive officers under the Company's employee stock option plan. The Company determines the grant date fair value of stock options calculated in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification Topic 718. See Note 7 to the Notes to the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2018 for a discussion of the Company's determination of the grant date fair value of stock options.

In 2017, the Company granted options to purchase 410,500 shares on July 7, 2017 at an exercise price equal to the then-current market price of $0.51 per share. There were no employee stock options exercised in 2017 and stock options for 42,000 shares were forfeited. In 2018, the Company granted options to purchase 415,000 shares on July 6, 2018 at an exercise price equal to the then-current market price of $0.623 per share. There were no employee stock options exercised in 2018 and stock options for 105,500 were forfeited.

Employment Agreements

Paul W. Mobley has an employment agreement with the Company which: (A) fixes his base compensation at approximately $650,000 per year for 2018 (although Mr. Mobley voluntarily reduced his base compensation to $225,000 for 2018); (B) provides for reimbursement of travel and other expenses incurred in connection with his employment, including the furnishing of an automobile and health and accident insurance similar to that provided other employees; and (C) provides life insurance in an amount related to his base salary. The initial term of the agreement is seven years and the term automatically renews each year for a seven-year period unless the board of directors takes specific action to not renew. The agreement is terminable by the Company for cause as defined in the agreement. The agreement does not provide for any benefits payable as a result of a change of control of the Company.

A. Scott Mobley has an employment agreement with the Company which: (A) fixes his base compensation at approximately $525,000 per year for 2018 (although Mr. Mobley voluntarily reduced his base compensation to $443,720 for 2018); (B) provides for reimbursement of travel and other expenses incurred in connection with his employment, including the furnishing of an automobile and health and accident insurance similar to that provided other employees; and (C) provides life insurance in an amount related to his base salary. Non-Equity Incentive Arrangements

The Company currently has a non-equity incentive arrangement with our Executive Vice President under which he may earn additional compensation. For 2018, his compensation was based on 2.5% of the Company's earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA") (from Consolidated Statement of Operations - operating income plus depreciation and amortization) for the first $2.5 million and 3.0% of EBITDA above $2.5 million. For 2017, his compensation was based on 2.5% of all royalty and fee revenue associated with non-traditional franchising/licensing less the direct expenses of those activities excluding any administrative cost. Under these plans, the Executive Vice President was paid an incentive compensation in 2017 of $78,799 and, in 2018, was paid $81,938 in incentive compensation.

The employee stock option plan provides that any options issued pursuant to the plan for non-director employees will have a three-year vesting period and for director employees will vest one-third each year, so long as the optionee continues to be employed by the Company, and both will expire ten years after the date of grant.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Name	Fees Earned or Paid in Cash ($)	Option Awards ($)	All Other Compensation ($)	Total ($)
Douglas H. Coape-Arnold	15,000	-	-	15,000
Marcel Herbst	15,000	2,200	-	17,200

Each non-employee director is compensated: $14,000 as an annual retainer fee paid quarterly; a $1,000 fee for each board of directors meeting attended; a $1,000 annual fee for each committee on which such director serves; and a $900 fee for each committee meeting attended. The directors are all eligible for stock option grants and are reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their board service. The board of directors currently does not have any standing committees.

The Company does not pay any separate compensation for directors that are also employees of the Company.

NON-BINDING, ADVISORY VOTE TO APPROVE NAMED EXECUTIVE OFFICER COMPENSATION

We are requesting our shareholders to provide advisory approval of the compensation of our named executive officers as disclosed in this proxy statement pursuant to Item 402 of Regulation S-K. This vote, on what is sometimes referred to as a “say-on-pay” proposal, is required by the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010 (the “Dodd-Frank Act”). At the 2016 annual meeting of the Company’s shareholders (the last annual meeting in which our shareholders considered our “say-on-pay” proposal), our “say-on-pay” proposal received the affirmative vote of holders of majority of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the meeting.

The Company’s executive compensation program is designed to attract, motivate, and retain our executive officers, who are critical to the Company’s continuing success. As set forth in the “Summary Compensation” and “Outstanding Equity Awards at Fiscal Year-End” tables above, including the accompanying narrative disclosure to those tables, our executive compensation program is comprised of cash and equity-based compensation. We believe this program: enables the Company to effectively compete for qualified executive personnel; aligns the interests of named executive officers with those of our shareholders; and appropriately rewards our named executive officers for achievement of both short- and long-term financial and strategic goals of the Company.

The Company’s board of directors is therefore asking our shareholders to approve a non-binding advisory vote on the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That the shareholders approve the compensation of the Company’s named executive officers as disclosed in its proxy statement for the 2019 annual meeting of shareholders pursuant to the compensation disclosure rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (which includes the compensation tables and related narrative disclosure).

While this “say-on-pay” proposal is a non-binding advisory vote, the Company’s board of directors values the opinion of the Company’s shareholders, and will consider the outcome of this vote when making future compensation decisions for the Company’s named executive officers.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy and voting is required to approve this “say-on-pay” vote.

The board of directors recommends a vote “FOR” the proposal approving the compensation of the Company’s named executive officers.

NON-BINDING, ADVISORY VOTE ON THE FREQUENCY OF FUTURE ADVISORY VOTES TO APPROVE EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

We are also requesting the Company's shareholders to vote to recommend that future "say-on-pay" votes be held every three years. This vote, on what is sometimes referred to as a "frequency of say-on-pay proposal," is required under the Dodd-Frank Act. As previously determined by the board of directors and supported by the vote of the stockholders in 2013 (the last year in which the shareholders voted on the frequency of the "say-on-pay" votes), the board of directors believes that holding future "say-on-pay" votes every three years is most consistent with the Company's approach to executive compensation, in which the Company seeks to enhance the long-term growth of the Company, and to attract, retain and motivate our executive officers over the long term.

As an advisory vote, this proposal is not binding upon the Company or its board of directors; however, the board of directors values the opinion of the Company's shareholders, and will consider the outcome of this vote when making future decisions regarding the frequency of shareholder votes on named executive officer compensation.

The frequency (e.g., every one, two, or three years) that receives the greatest number of votes of holders of shares present in person or represented by proxy will be deemed to be the shareholders' recommendation with respect to the frequency of future "say-on-pay" voting.

The board of directors recommends a vote of "EVERY THREE YEARS" on the frequency of future shareholder "say-on-pay" votes.

RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The board of directors has appointed the firm of Somerset CPAs, P.C. ("Somerset") as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for 2019. Somerset has served as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm since 2006. Although action by the shareholders in this matter is not required, the board of directors believes that in light of the critical role played by the independent registered public accounting firm in maintaining the integrity of the Company's financial controls and reporting, it is a matter of good practice.

In the event our shareholders fail to approve the proposal to appoint Somerset as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, the board of directors will reconsider retaining another firm. Even if the selection is ratified, the board of directors in its discretion may direct the appointment of a different independent registered public accounting firm at any time during the year if it determines that such a change would be in the best interest of the Company and our shareholders.

The board of directors recommends a vote "FOR" the proposal to ratify the selection of Somerset CPAs, P.C. as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2019.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S FEES

The following table presents fees for professional audit services rendered by Somerset for the audit of our annual financial statements and review of our quarterly financial statements, and fees billed for other services rendered by Somerset during 2018 and 2017.

The engagement of Somerset, for conducting the audit of the Company's financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, and for the review of its financial statements included in its Form 10-Q's during 2018 and 2017, was pre-approved by the Company's board of directors. Somerset has not been engaged by the Company to perform any services other than audits of the financial statements included in its Form 10-Ks and review of the financial statements in its Form 10-Qs. The board of directors does not have a pre-approval policy with respect to work performed by the Company's independent auditor.

Representatives of Somerset are not expected to attend the annual meeting.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS FOR 2020 ANNUAL MEETING

If a shareholder wishes to have a proposal included in the Company's proxy statement for an annual meeting, the shareholder must satisfy the requirements established under our By-Laws and the requirements established by the Securities and Exchange Commission. Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires that shareholders requesting to have a proposal included in the Company's proxy statement for an annual meeting of shareholders must submit their proposal in writing to the Company at least 120 days before the anniversary date of the date the Company's proxy statement was released to shareholders for the prior year's annual meeting. Therefore, any shareholder requesting to submit a proposal for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement for the 2020 annual shareholders' meeting must deliver a proposal to the Secretary of the Company no later than December 21, 2019.

Any shareholder of Noble Roman's eligible to vote in an election may also make shareholder proposals and nominations for the 2020 annual meeting outside of the process described above for proposals subject to Rule 14a-8. In order to be considered at the 2020 annual meeting, all shareholder proposals, nominations and notifications submitted outside of the process described above for proposals subject to Rule 14a-8 must (1) comply with the procedures set forth in the Company's By-Laws, and (2) be delivered to the Secretary of the Company no earlier than March 4, 2020 and no later than April 3, 2020.

OTHER MATTERS

The board of directors does not intend to bring any matters before the meeting other than as stated in this proxy statement, and the Company is not aware that any other matters will be presented for action at the meeting. If any other matters properly come before the meeting, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy will vote the proxy with respect thereto in accordance with their best judgment, pursuant to the discretionary authority granted by the proxy. However, consistent with the Company's By-Laws, the agenda for this year's meeting is set and no additional matters may be submitted for consideration by our shareholders at the meeting, other than procedural issues such as adjournment, postponement or continuation. Whether or not you plan to attend the Meeting in person, please complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy form promptly.
