(a-f): The name, residence or business address, and the principal occupation or employment and the name, principal business and address of any corporation or other organization in which such employment is conducted, of each executive officer and director and each controlling person, if any, of the reporting persons named above is set forth in Exhibit E hereto. Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

The response set forth in Item 3 of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended by deleting the text of Item 3 in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

The securities reported herein were acquired with funds of approximately $1,425,145.18 (including brokerage commissions). All such funds were provided by FAS's investment management clients.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

The response set forth in Item 4 of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended by deleting the text of Item 4 in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

The securities covered by this statement were acquired by FAS's investment management clients for the purpose of investment. As reported in its Form 4 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 23, 2002, FAS caused, on October 21, 2002, the sale of 373,500 shares of Common Stock of the Issuer at a price of $0.00010 per share. On February 14, 2006, FAS caused the sale of the remaining 100 shares of Common Stock of the Issuer to be sold for an aggregate amount of $0.01. As of the date of hereof, FAS's investment management clients hold no shares of Common Stock of the Issuer.

FAS has caused two of its clients (Franklin Balance Sheet Investment Fund and Franklin MicroCap Value Fund) to join (1) with other participating shareholder plaintiffs (2) with the debtors estates of Baldwin Piano & Organ Company, and (3) with the official Committee of the Unsecured Creditors of Baldwin Piano & Organ Company to bring action in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Ohio against certain former directors of the Issuer for breach of fiduciary duty. Damages are alleged because of material misstatements and omissions of material fact made by defendants in violation of Section 10(b) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules promulgated thereunder.

In connection with that litigation, the shareholder plaintiffs, including FAS's two clients, have entered into a formal Sharing Agreement substantially in the form of the Exhibit B attached to the Schedule 13D. The Sharing Agreement, which received court approval before becoming effective, spells out: (1) the various obligations of the parties to share the funding of expenses; (2) the various priorities between the parties to recover their respective expenses; and (3) terms by which any recovered damage awards in excess of expenses will be divided among the parties.

FAS previously contributed funds to assist in financing the forensic investigation to determine the viability of mounting such litigation. FAS contributed additional funds to support the obligations contemplated by the Sharing Agreement pursuant to its terms. FAS entered into, and expects further to enter into, strategic discussions among participating shareholders and to contribute to the decision making process of the litigation.

FAS's investment management clients reserve the right to exercise any and all of their respective rights as a stockholder of the Issuer in a manner consistent with their prior equity interests.

Other than as described above, neither FAS nor any executive officer or director of FAS has any present plans or proposals which relate to or would result in:

(a) the acquisition by any person of additional securities of the Issuer, or the disposition of securities of the Issuer;

(b) an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries;

(c) a sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries;

(d) any change in the present board of directors or management of the Issuer, including any plans or proposals to change the number or term of directors or to fill any existing vacancies on the board;

(e) any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of the Issuer;

(f) any other material change in the Issuer's business or corporate structure;

(g) changes in the Issuer's charter, bylaws or instruments corresponding thereto or other actions which may impede the acquisition of control of the Issuer by any person;

CUSIP No. 058246109

(h) causing a class of securities of the Issuer to be delisted from a national securities exchange or to cease to be authorized to be quoted in an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association;

(i) a class of equity security of the Issuer becoming eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Act; or

(j) any action similar to any of those enumerated above.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

The response set forth in Item 5 of the Schedule 13D is amended by deleting it in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

(a-b) FAS's investment management clients own 0 shares of the Common Stock representing approximately 0.0% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. Since FAS's investment management contracts with its clients grant to FAS sole investment power over the securities owned by its investment management clients, FAS may be deemed to be, for purposes of Rule 13d-3 under the Act, the beneficial owner of securities owned by its investment management clients.

Franklin MicroCap Value Fund, one of the series comprising Franklin Value Investors Trust, an open-end investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, is an investment management client of FAS.

FAS is a limited liability company, the managing member and sole member of which is Franklin/Templeton Distributors, Inc., which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of FRI. Charles B. Johnson and Rupert H. Johnson, Jr. (the Principal Shareholders) each own in excess of 10% of the outstanding common stock of FRI and are the principal stockholders of FRI. FRI and the Principal Shareholders therefore may be deemed to be, for purposes of Rule 13d-3 under the Act, the beneficial owner of securities held by persons and entities managed by FRI subsidiaries. However, no investment management personnel of FRI subsidiaries other than FAS's are involved in the investment management decisions of FAS. Moreover, FAS, FRI and the Principal Shareholders each disclaim any economic interest or beneficial ownership in any of the securities covered by this statement owned by investment management clients of FRI subsidiaries.

Furthermore, FAS, FRI and the Principal Shareholders are of the view that they are not acting as a group for purposes of Section 13(d) of the Act and that they are not otherwise required to attribute to each other the beneficial ownership of securities held by any of them or by any persons or entities managed by FRI subsidiaries.

(c) There were no transactions in the shares of Common Stock of the Issuer within the past sixty days, except for the sale on Instinet on February 14, 2006 of the remaining 100 shares of Common Stock of the Issuer then held for the benefit of Franklin MicroCap Value Fund for an aggregate amount of $0.01.

(d) No person other than respective investment management clients of FAS have the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of dividends from, or the proceeds of the sale of, the securities being reported herein.

(e) Each of the reporting persons ceased to be the beneficial owner of more than five percent of the Common Stock of the Issuer as of October 21, 2002.

Item 7. Material to Be Filed as Exhibits

The response set forth in Item 7 of the Schedule 13D is further amended by adding the following:
