Item 8.01 Other Events.

On March 28, 2011, EMCORE Corporation (the “Company”) received a cash payment of approximately $3.4 million in satisfaction of a judgment for damages that the Company was previously awarded in connection with litigation related to patent infringement of certain patents associated with the Company’s Fiber Optics segment. Of the total $3.4 million payment, the Company intends to apply $950,000 to the payment of legal fees, which were incurred on a contingency basis, and to use the remaining $2.5 million for general corporate purposes.

As previously disclosed in the Company’s SEC filings, the Company originally filed the lawsuit against Optium Corporation, currently part of Finisar Corporation, on September 11, 2006 in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania. After a trial in October 2009, a jury awarded the Company and JDS Uniphase Corporation (“JDSU”) monetary damages of $3.4 million. Optium filed an appeal of this award with the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, and on January 26, 2011, the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit fully affirmed the lower court’s jury award to the Company and JDSU.
