Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 1, 2006, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the Compensation Committee) of Cadence Design Systems, Inc. (Cadence) established the performance criteria and specific goals for the payment of bonuses to executive officers under the Senior Executive Bonus Plan (the Bonus Plan) for the second half of 2006. As set forth in the Bonus Plan, the Compensation Committee may select from a set of pre-determined performance criteria, including, but not limited to, earnings per share, return on equity, revenue, income or net income, and operating income or net operating income. For the second half of 2006, the Compensation Committee approved a minimum non-GAAP operating income target as the prerequisite for any payment under the Bonus Plan. The aggregate maximum amount payable to all eligible executive officers (i.e., the bonus pool) under the Bonus Plan is 5% of Cadence s non-GAAP operating income for the second half of 2006. The maximum amount payable to any one executive officer for any fiscal year is the lesser of $5 million or a pre-determined percentage of the aggregate bonus pool as designated by the Compensation Committee.

The actual bonuses payable for the second half of 2006 (if any) will depend on the extent to which the goals relating to the performance criterion approved by the Compensation Committee (i.e., non-GAAP operating income) are achieved. In addition, the Compensation Committee may exercise discretion to reduce the bonuses that potentially would be payable to the executive officers under the terms of the Bonus Plan based on other factors, such as Cadence s total revenue, net bookings, operating margin, or business group or individual goals.

On August 1, 2006, the Compensation Committee increased the target bonus under the Bonus Plan for Moshe Gavrielov, Executive Vice President, Verification Division, and R.L. Smith McKeithen, Senior Vice President and General Counsel, to 100% of base salary, or $400,000 for Moshe Gavrielov and $400,000 for R.L. Smith McKeithen.
