CUSIP NO. 46609J106

The following constitutes Amendment No. 1 to the Schedule 13D filed by the undersigned (“Amendment No. 1”). This Amendment No. 1 amends the Schedule 13D as specifically set forth herein.

Item 1.

Security and Issuer.

Item 1 is hereby amended and restated to read as follows:

This statement relates to the Common Stock, par value $0.001 per share (the “Shares”), of J. Alexander's Holdings, Inc., a Tennessee corporation (“J. Alexander’s” or the “Issuer”). The address of the principal executive offices of the Issuer is 3401 West End Avenue, Suite 260, Nashville, Tennessee 37203.

Item 3.

Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

Item 3 is hereby amended and restated to read as follows:

The Shares purchased by each of Partners LP and Focus Fund were purchased with working capital (which may, at any given time, include margin loans made by brokerage firms in the ordinary course of business) in open market purchases. The aggregate purchase price of the 800,000 Shares beneficially owned by Partners LP is approximately $8,184,184, excluding brokerage commissions. The aggregate purchase price of the 119,000 Shares beneficially owned by Focus Fund is approximately $1,214,612, excluding brokerage commissions.

Item 4.

Purpose of Transaction.

Item 4 is hereby amended to add the following:

On October 19, 2017, Marathon Partners delivered a second letter to the Issuer’s board of directors (the “Board”) following its review of the preliminary merger proxy statement (the “Proxy”) filed by the Issuer on October 11, 2017 in connection with the Special Meeting of Shareholders that will be held to consider the proposed merger (the “Transaction”) between the Issuer and 99 Restaurants, LLC (“99 Restaurants”). In the letter, Marathon Partners expressed to the Board that its already deep concerns and suspicions regarding the Transaction were exacerbated upon its review of the Proxy and that it remains strongly opposed to the Transaction.

Marathon Partners cited the significant deterioration in the financial performance of 99 Restaurants, which stands in stark contrast to the extremely favorable projections for 99 Restaurants provided in the Proxy. Such rosy projections, says Marathon Partners, would require a dramatic turnaround from current trends with a large jump in profits over the next three years, and would imply a share price for the Issuer of approximately $20 to $23 by 2020.

Marathon Partners stated that its concerns with 99 Restaurants’ poor financial performance include that payroll and benefits, its single largest expense, has grown significantly faster than revenues in 2017 and is accelerating, causing a large decline in profits, and that income from operations has declined by 16% year-to-date and by over 20% when the results are adjusted for pre-opening costs. Marathon Partners stated in the letter that 99 Restaurants is poorly positioned for the current environment threatening the restaurant industry given its concentration in the Northeast and its focus on a more price sensitive consumer.

Marathon Partners further stated that if the Board and Fidelity National Financial, Inc. (“FNF”) actually believed these projections, then Marathon Partners believes it would behoove them to induce the Issuer’s shareholders with value-protecting instruments, such as contingent value rights, to help assure closure of a transaction that they view favorably. This would especially be true of a transaction such as here, where Board independence, conflicts of interest, and other corporate governance concerns are so readily apparent.

Marathon Partners cited contingent value rights as an example of such a value-protecting instrument that would pay, in cash, the difference between $15 and any shortfall of that number based on the future share price of the Issuer in 2020, and that would provide a strong inducement for shareholders to support the Transaction.

CUSIP NO. 46609J106

Marathon Partners also stated that it remains dismayed by the related party nature of the Transaction, and cited in the letter its surprise in learning that Board member Tim Janszen, the CEO of Newport Global Advisors, L.P. ("Newport Global"), appeared to be actively negotiating against the Issuer's shareholders on behalf of 99 Restaurants, and that Stephens Inc. ("Stephens"), the investment bank engaged by the Issuer for a fairness opinion, has previously provided investment banking services to FNF. Not to mention that Richard Massey, FNF's Lead Director, was formerly a managing director of Stephens. Actions such as this, combined with other conflicts of interest, reflect corporate governance practices at their worst, Marathon Partners stated in the letter.

The letter further states that the market seems to agree with Marathon Partners' assessment of the Transaction given that for the ten days after the Transaction was announced, the Issuer's average closing share price was $9.60, and for the ten days after Marathon Partners first publicly announced its opposition to the Transaction, the average closing share price was $11.75. Marathon Partners stated that these numbers demonstrate that shareholders seem willing to place a higher valuation on the Issuer's shares when they believe the odds are greater that the Transaction will not be approved, which should speak loudly to directors.

Marathon Partners concluded the letter by stating that it continues to view the Transaction as destructive to shareholder value and therefore not in the best interests of the Issuer's owners, and suggested that Board members immediately start placing shareholders' interests first and foremost in their minds.

The full text of the letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

Item 5 is hereby amended and restated to read as follows:

The aggregate percentage of Shares reported as being owned by each Reporting Person is based upon 14,695,176 Shares outstanding, which is the total number of Shares outstanding as of September 29, 2017, as reported in the Proxy filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 11, 2017.
