ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS

The purpose of this Current Report on Form 8-K is to announce the signing of a definitive agreement to acquire MidAmerica Bancorp of Louisville, Kentucky

Nov. 8, 2001

BB&T to acquire MidAmerica Bancorp of Louisville, Ky.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - BB&T Corporation (NYSE: BBT) today said it plans to buy MidAmerica Bancorp (AMEX: MAB) of Louisville, Ky., in a $372.4 million transaction. The acquisition, one of two BB&T announced today, would expand BB&T's presence in the economically vibrant Louisville market.

With $1.8 billion in assets, MidAmerica Bancorp operates 30 banking offices in the Louisville metropolitan statistical area through the Bank of Louisville, its primary subsidiary.

The announcement comes on the same day BB&T said it would buy Owensboro, Ky.-based AREA Bancshares Corporation, with $2.95 billion in assets and 72 banking offices in Kentucky, which it operates through its subsidiary AREA Bank. Together, the mergers would increase BB&T's Kentucky assets to more than $5 billion and move BB&T from 29th to fourth place in market share in the state. BB&T wants to be among the top five in every market it serves.

The transaction, approved by the directors of both companies, is valued at $32.57 per MAB share based on BB&T's closing price Wednesday of $34.01. For each share of MAB stock, shareholders would receive .7187 shares and $8.13 per share in cash. The cash portion of consideration is also subject to adjustment relating to the settlement of certain legal proceedings to which MidAmerica is a party.

"This is a key acquisition because it gives us significant entry into the most attractive banking market in Kentucky," said BB&T Chairman and Chief Executive Officer John Allison. "MidAmerica Bancorp does a great job of providing personal, attentive service to its clients which makes them a perfect partner for BB&T."

Part of the "Golden Triangle" with Cincinnati, Ohio, and Lexington, Ky., Louisville was recently ranked by Entrepreneur magazine as the third best midsize city in the country for entrepreneurs. Louisville ranks as the 12th best large city for starting and growing a company by Inc. magazine, and as the 14th fastest growing city nationally.

MidAmerica controls the fourth largest market share in the economically strong Louisville market.

BB&T will create a total of three new community banking regions: one in Louisville, formed from the MidAmerica branches, and two additional regions formed from AREA Bancshares' branch operations. BB&T divides its banking network into autonomous regions - each with its own president - which operate like community banks. Nearly all lending decisions are made locally.

"MidAmerica has a solid record of strong community commitment and, above all, excellent personal service," said Bertram W. Klein, MidAmerica's chairman of the board.

"BB&T, like MidAmerica, believes in respecting the individual and providing the highest level of personal service possible, which is what makes this partnership so appealing," said R.K. Guillaume, MidAmerica's chief executive officer.

"It's rare to find an institution of their size placing that much emphasis on quality service, but BB&T firmly believes in it. And their community banking strategy allows local bankers to make their own decisions."

Guillaume will become the new state president for BB&T and the regional president for the new Louisville community banking region.

MidAmerica customers will be able to take advantage of BB&T's broad product and services line. It includes: insurance, mutual funds, trust, online banking, annuities, investment banking, retail brokerage, treasury services, international banking and leasing.

BB&T will create a state advisory board for Kentucky and a regional advisory board for the Louisville market. MidAmerica board members will be asked to serve on one of the two new BB&T boards.

The merger, which is subject to the approval of MidAmerica shareholders and banking regulators, is expected to be completed in the second quarter of 2002.

Winston-Salem-based BB&T Corporation, with $70.3 billion in assets, operates more than 1,000 banking offices in the Carolinas, Georgia, Virginia, Maryland, West Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Alabama and Washington, D.C.

BB&T Corporation is the fourth largest financial holding company in the Southeast and 16th largest in the nation. More information is available at www.BB&T.com.

Forward-Looking Information

BB&T has made forward-looking statements in the accompanying analyst presentation materials that are subject to risks and uncertainties. These statements are based on the beliefs and assumptions of the management of BB&T, and on the information available to management at the time the analyst presentation materials were prepared. In particular, the analyst materials in this report include statements regarding estimated earnings per share of BB&T on a stand alone basis, expected cost savings from the merger, estimated restructuring charges relating to the merger, estimated increases in MidAmerica Bancorp's fee income ratio, the anticipated accretive effect of the merger, and BB&T's anticipated performance in future periods. With respect to estimated cost savings and restructuring charges, BB&T has made assumptions about, among other things, the extent of operational overlap between BB&T and MidAmerica Bancorp, the amount of general and administrative expense consolidation, costs relating to converting MidAmerica Bancorp's bank operations and data processing to BB&T's systems, the size of anticipated reductions in fixed labor costs, the amount of severance expenses, the extent of the charges that may be necessary to align the companies' respective accounting reserve policies, and the cost related to the merger. The realization of cost savings and the amount of restructuring charges are subject to the risk that the foregoing assumptions are inaccurate.

Any statements in the accompanying exhibit regarding the anticipated accretive effect of the merger and BB&T's anticipated performance in future periods are subject to risks relating to, among other things, the following possibilities: (1) expected cost savings from this merger or other previously announced mergers may not be fully realized or realized within the expected time frame; (2) deposit attrition, customer loss or revenue loss following proposed mergers may be greater than expected; (3) competitive pressure among depository and other financial institutions may increase significantly; (4) costs or difficulties related to the integration of the businesses of BB&T and its merger partners, including MidAmerica Bancorp, may be greater than expected; (5) changes in the interest rate environment may reduce margins; (6) general economic or business conditions, either nationally or regionally, may be less favorable than expected, resulting in, among other things, a deterioration in credit quality, or a reduced demand for credit; (7) legislative or regulatory changes, including changes in accounting standards, may adversely affect the businesses in which BB&T and MidAmerica Bancorp are engaged; (8) adverse changes may occur in the securities markets; and (9) competitors of BB&T and MidAmerica Bancorp may have greater financial resources and develop products that enable such competitors to compete more successfully than BB&T and MidAmerica Bancorp.

BB&T believes these forward-looking statements are reasonable; however, undue reliance should not be placed on such forward-looking statements, which are based on current expectations. Such statements are not guarantees of performance. They involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions. The future results and shareholder value of BB&T following completion of the merger may differ materially from those expressed in these forward-looking statements. Many of the factors that will determine these results and values are beyond management's ability to control or predict.

Rationale For Acquisition

BB&T has an announced strategy to pursue in-market (Carolinas/Virginia/West Virginia/DC/Maryland/Georgia/Kentucky/Tennessee) and contiguous state acquisitions of high quality banks and thrifts in the $250 million to $10 billion range. The acquisition of MidAmerica Bancorp is consistent with this strategy.

- o This acquisition is very consistent with past acquisitions which we have successfully executed, i.e. it fits our model.
  - o MidAmerica Bancorp allows BB&T to enter the economically attractive Louisville market with a significant presence.

Strategic Objectives

The key strategic objectives achieved in this acquisition:

- o Provides BB&T with entry into the economically attractive Louisville market
- o Improves efficiency
  - 20% cost savings fully realized in the first 12 months of operations following conversion
- o Utilizes MidAmerica Bancorp's branch franchise to sell BB&T's broad array of retail and commercial banking products to their existing customer base and expand the reach of the branch beyond MidAmerica Bancorp's traditional customer

- o Increases product and market penetration through the use of BB&T's world standard sales system

Franchise Enhancement

- o Along with the concurrently announced acquisition of AREA Bancshares, this acquisition improves BB&T's market share rank in Kentucky from 29th to 4th and provides BB&T with a sufficient framework in Kentucky to achieve economies of scale
  - o Continues BB&T's expansion into economically strong contiguous markets
  - o Provides BB&T with the 4th largest market share in Louisville, the most attractive Federal Banking Market in Kentucky

Efficiency Improvement

Targeted Annual Cost Savings
$10.2 million or approximately
20% of MAB's expense base

After-Tax One-Time Charges

One-time after-tax merger-related charges
$10.0 million

Branch Locations

Economic Vitality Map

Market Characteristics

- o Kentucky is ranked 1st nationally in annualized 10 year percentage change in median household income by the Bureau of Census.
- o According to Site Selection magazine, Kentucky:
  - ranked 2nd nationally in new jobs created per 1 million residents between 1998-2000,
  - is the third largest state in terms of auto manufacturing,
  - ranked 5th nationally in new/expanded facilities per 1 million residents between 1998-2000, and

- ranked 10th nationally in capital investment per 1 million residents between 1998-2000.

- o Kentucky is home to 10 of the top 100 US small towns for corporate facilities; 3rd highest total behind only Ohio and North Carolina with 22 and 18, respectively.
  - o Kentucky is ranked 9th nationally in percentage increase of estimated average yearly wage by the Bureau of Census.

Market Characteristics

- o Louisville ranked 3rd among mid-sized cities for entrepreneurs by Entrepreneur magazine.
  - o Louisville ranked 12th best large city in the U. S. for starting and growing a company by Inc. magazine.
  - o Louisville is ranked 16th in the list of "Entrepreneurial Hot Spots" created by Cognetics, a Cambridge, Massachusetts based demographics firm.
  - o It is part of the "Golden Triangle," the area encompassing Louisville, northern Kentucky (Cincinnati), and Lexington.
  - o Louisville is ranked as the 14th fastest growing in terms of the "Economic Performance Index for Cities" (EPIC) of the 33 "large-size" metros tracked by the University of Louisville.
  - o The Louisville economic region ranks in the top quartile of all U. S. regions on the Urban Vitality scale according to the Kentucky Economic Development Partnership.
  - o According to the Bureau of Census, Louisville is in the top quartile of MSA's in terms of total population and population density.

BB&T Investment Criteria

- o Cash Basis EPS (accretive by year 2)
- o GAAP EPS (accretive by year 4)
- o Internal rate of return (15% or better)
- o Cash Basis ROE (accretive by year 3)
- o Cash Basis ROA (accretive by year 3)
- o Book value per share (accretive by year 3)
- o Must not cause combined leverage capital ratio to go below 7%

Criteria are listed in order of importance. There are sometimes trade-offs among criteria.

Assumptions

- o BB&T's 2001 EPS is based on the First Call estimate of $2.40 and subsequent years are based on 12% income statement and balance sheet growth.
- o MAB's 2001 fully diluted core EPS, prior to acquisition effects, is based on MAB management's estimate of $2.15.
- o 20% annual cost savings ($10.2 million) fully realized in the first 12 months following conversion.
- o Growth Rates - Following the acquisition, we have assumed a base rate of 12% income statement and balance sheet growth in year 1, 15% growth in years 2 through 4, and 12% growth thereafter in addition to the enhancements cited below:
  - MAB's noninterest income is grown to achieve a fee income ratio of 30% by year 5.
  - MAB's net interest margin is incrementally raised to 4.10% in year 3 and held constant thereafter.
- o CDI is amortized over ten years using the sum of the years digits method.
- o MAB's loan loss allowance is conformed to BB&T's allowance level of 1.30%.
- o

MAB's net charge-off rate for loan losses is raised incrementally to 0.35% in year 3 (2004) and is held constant thereafter.

- o 25% of the consideration is cash, 75% stock.

Summary

- o The acquisition of MidAmerica Bancorp is a strong strategic fit:
  - It helps accomplish our goal of expanding our Kentucky market
  - Including our acquisition of AREA Bancshares, it achieves our goal of being in the top 5 in market share
  - It fits culturally and geographically
  - This is the type of merger we have consistently, successfully executed
- o Overall Investment Criteria are met:
  - Cash Basis EPS accretive in year 1 and GAAP EPS accretive in year 2
  - IRR 19.77%
  - Cash ROE accretive in all years
  - Cash ROA accretive in year 5
  - Book value accretive immediately
  - Combined leverage ratio remains above 7%

Glossary

Return on Assets - recurring earnings for the period as a percentage of average assets for the period.

Return on Equity - recurring earnings for the period as a percentage of average common equity for the period.

Cash Basis Performance Results and Ratios - These calculations exclude the effect on net income of amortization expense applicable to certain intangible assets. The ratios also exclude the effect of the unamortized balances of these intangibles from assets and equity.

Efficiency Ratio - calculated as recurring noninterest expense as a percentage of the sum of recurring net interest income on a fully taxable equivalent basis and recurring noninterest income.

Leverage Capital Ratio - Common shareholders' equity excluding unrealized securities gains and losses and certain intangible assets as a percentage of average assets for the most recent quarter less certain intangible assets.

Total Risk-Based Capital Ratio - The sum of shareholders' equity, a qualifying portion of subordinated debt and a qualifying portion of the allowance for loan and lease losses as a percentage of risk-weighted assets.

Net Charge-Off Ratio - Loan losses net of recoveries as a percentage of average loans and leases.

Internal Rate of Return - The interest rate that equates the present value of future returns to the investment outlay. An investment is considered acceptable if its IRR exceeds the required return. The investment is defined as the market value of the stock and/or other consideration to be received by the selling shareholders.

Recurring Results or Ratios - earnings excluding charges and expenses principally related to completing mergers and acquisitions.

Certain of the ratios discussed above may be annualized if the applicable periods are less than a full year.
