Report of Independent Auditors

To the Participants, Administrator and BB&T Corporation Retirement Plans Committee

In our opinion, the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the BB&T Corporation 401(k) Savings Plan (the Plan) at December 31, 2002 and 2001 and the changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management; our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Our audit was performed for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental Schedule of Assets (Held at End of Year) is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. This supplemental schedule is the responsibility of the Plan's management. The supplemental schedule has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

BB&T Corporation 401(k) Savings Plan

Notes to Financial Statements

Years Ended December 31, 2002 and 2001

1. Description of the BB&T Corporation 401(k) Savings Plan

The following description of the BB&T Corporation 401(k) Savings Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan Agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Plan is a defined contribution plan sponsored by BB&T Corporation (the Corporation or Plan Sponsor). The Plan was established effective July 1, 1982 and was restated most recently effective January 1, 2000, and is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

Eligibility of Participation

The Plan covers all employees who meet age and service requirements. Employees are eligible to make salary reduction contributions after 90 days of employment with the Corporation. Employees are eligible to receive matching contributions after attaining the age of 21 with one year of continuous employment in which they have worked at least 1,000 hours. Participation in the Plan is based on voluntary election by each employee.

Contributions

Participants may elect to contribute between 1 percent and 16 percent, in whole percentages, of their eligible earnings on a pre-tax basis subject to certain Internal Revenue Code limitations. Effective January 1, 2002, the maximum deferral percentage increased to 25 percent. During 2002 and 2001, the Corporation made matching contributions of 100 percent up to 6 percent of each participant's contribution to the Plan.

Participants may make changes in their contribution percentage daily and can terminate withholdings at any time. Allocations among fund options offered by the Plan may be changed on a daily basis. Participants may also contribute funds from other tax-qualified plans as rollover contributions.

Vesting

Participants are vested immediately in their contributions, employer matching contributions and actual earnings allocated to their account.

Participant Loans

Participants may borrow from their account balances an amount not to exceed the lesser of $50,000 or 50 percent of their account balance. The minimum loan amount allowed by the Plan is $1,000. Only one loan can be taken during the Plan year and a participant may have only one loan outstanding at any time. The interest rate charged on amounts borrowed is equal to the Corporation's prime lending rate plus 1 percent at the loan origination date.

Payment of Benefits

Upon retirement, a participant may elect to have distributions paid from this account in installments, a lump sum or any combination of the two. Retired participants may elect installment payments to occur over a period not to exceed the participant's life expectancy, or the life expectancy of the participant and beneficiary. Hardship withdrawals are allowed by the Plan in accordance with Plan provisions and Internal Revenue Service regulations.

Notes to Financial Statements

Participant Accounts

Each participant's separate account is credited with the participant's contribution and allocations of matching contributions, earnings on the account and administrative expenses. Allocations of earnings and expenses are based upon the market activity and fees of the investment options selected by the participant. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

Forfeitures

Forfeitures represent nonvested employer matching contributions of participants in predecessor plans that have terminated their employment with their employer. As a result of transfers from other plans into the Plan during 2002 and 2001, approximately $7,000 and $313,000 of unallocated forfeitures were transferred into the Plan. During 2002 and 2001, the Plan used $199,058 and $249,683, respectively, of forfeitures to reduce employer matching contributions.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The Plan's financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting.

Administrative Expenses

The Plan Sponsor may elect, but is not required, to pay recordkeeping and other administrative expenses incurred by the Plan. The Plan Sponsor has elected to pay certain administrative fees related to professional services provided to the Plan which aggregated $10,490 and $35,505 in 2002 and 2001, respectively. Trustee fees are paid by the Plan and consist primarily of administrative services rendered by the Corporation's Trust Division (see Note 8).

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

Participants may direct the investment of their contributions as well as employer matching contributions between fifteen mutual funds, the common stock fund, a money market fund and a bank investment contract, each offering different degrees of risk and return. The Plan's investments in mutual funds, the money market fund, the BB&T common stock fund and BB&T common stock are stated at fair value. The fair value of mutual funds, the money market fund, the BB&T common stock fund and BB&T common stock was determined by closing prices at the end of the Plan year. The investment contracts of the Plan are stated at contract value which approximates fair value.

Purchases and sales of investments are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is accrued when earned. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date. Capital gain distributions are included in dividend income.

Investments in participant loans are stated at cost which approximates fair market value.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of net assets available for Plan benefits at the dates of the financial statements and the reported changes in net assets available for benefits during the reported periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

BB&T Corporation 401(k) Savings Plan

Notes to Financial Statements

Years Ended December 31, 2002 and 2001

Concentration of Credit Risk

Concentrations of credit risk that arise from financial instruments exist for groups of counterparties when they have similar economic characteristics that would cause their ability to meet contractual obligations to be similarly affected by changes in economic or other conditions. Financial instruments which potentially subject the Plan to concentration of credit risk consist principally of mutual funds, the money market fund, bank investment contracts and common stock investments.

Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

Party-in-Interest

The Plan invests in shares of mutual funds, bank investment contracts and common stock of the Corporation. The income of the Plan is derived from these investments. These transactions are party-in-interest transactions which are allowable under ERISA.

3. Bank Investment Contracts

The Plan invests in fully benefit responsive bank investment contracts guaranteed by the Corporation. The contracts are credited with earnings on the underlying investments and charged for participant withdrawals and administrative expenses. The contracts are included in the financial statements at contract value. Contract value represents contributions made under the contract, plus interest earned at the contract rate, less withdrawals and administrative expenses. Participants may ordinarily direct the withdrawal or transfer of all or a portion of their investment at contract value.

There are no reserves against contract value for credit risk of the contract issuer or otherwise. The contract value, which approximates fair value, of the investment contracts at December 31, 2002 and 2001 was $45,296,955 and $41,553,225, respectively. The average yield and crediting interest rates were approximately 2.53 percent and 2.50 percent, respectively, in 2002, and 6.10 percent and 5.92 percent, respectively, in 2001. The crediting interest rate of the contracts is based upon the last U.S. Treasury bill auction prior to December 1st of the year prior to the contracts issuance. Contracts are issued annually.

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has determined and informed the Plan Sponsor by letter dated September 6, 1996, that the Plan is designed in accordance with applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). The Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter. However, the Plan administrator believes that the Plan is designed and is currently being operated in compliance with the applicable provisions of the IRC.

The Plan applied for an updated determination letter during 2002; no response from the IRS has been received.

7. Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Plan Sponsor has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA.
