To Be Held May 13, 2003

SOLICITATION AND REVOCATION OF PROXIES

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Vintage Petroleum, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), of proxies to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company to be held on May 13, 2003, or at any adjournment thereof (the Annual Meeting), for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting. This Proxy Statement and accompanying proxy were first forwarded on or about April 4, 2003, to stockholders of record on March 21, 2003.

If the accompanying proxy is properly executed and returned, the shares represented by the proxy will be voted at the Annual Meeting. If a stockholder indicates in his or her proxy a choice with respect to any matter to be acted upon, that stockholder's shares will be voted in accordance with such choice. If no choice is indicated, such shares will be voted FOR (a) the election of all of the nominees for directors listed below and (b) the ratification of the appointment of the independent auditor. A stockholder giving a proxy may revoke it by giving written notice of revocation to the Secretary of the Company at any time before it is voted, by executing another valid proxy bearing a later date and delivering such proxy to the Secretary of the Company prior to or at the Annual Meeting, or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

The expenses of this proxy solicitation, including the cost of preparing and mailing this Proxy Statement and accompanying proxy will be borne by the Company. Such expenses will also include the charges and expenses of banks, brokerage firms, and other custodians, nominees or fiduciaries for forwarding solicitation material regarding the Annual Meeting to beneficial owners of the Company's Common Stock. Solicitation of proxies may be made by mail, telephone, personal interviews or by other means by the Board of Directors or employees of the Company who will not be additionally compensated therefor, but who may be reimbursed for their out-of-pocket expenses in connection therewith.

PROPOSAL ONE

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the Charter) of the Company provides that the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board of Directors) shall consist of not less than three nor more than fifteen directors, as determined from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors. The number of directors is currently fixed at nine. The Board of Directors is divided into three equal classes. The terms of such classes are staggered so that only one class is elected at the annual meeting of stockholders each year for a three-year term. The term of the Class I directors, consisting of Rex D. Adams, William C. Barnes and John T. McNabb, II, will expire at the Annual Meeting, and the accompanying proxy solicits your vote for three Class I directors. The terms of the Class II directors and the Class III directors will expire at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 2004 and 2005, respectively.

In accordance with the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, the Board of Directors has nominated Rex D. Adams, William C. Barnes and John T. McNabb, II, for re-election as directors, each to hold office until the annual meeting of stockholders in 2006 and until his successor is duly elected and qualified, or until the earlier of his death, resignation or retirement. The persons named as proxies in the accompanying proxy, who have been designated by the Board of Directors, intend to vote, unless otherwise instructed in such proxy, for the election of Messrs. Adams, Barnes and McNabb. Should any of the nominees become unable for any reason to stand for election as a director of the Company, it is intended that the persons named in such proxy will vote for the election of such other person as the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may recommend and the Board of Directors may propose to replace such nominee. The Company knows of no reason why any of the nominees will be unavailable or unable to serve.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote is required for the election of directors. The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR each of the following nominees for directors.

PROPOSAL TWO

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITOR

The Audit Committee has appointed Ernst & Young LLP (Ernst & Young) as the independent auditor of the Company for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. Arthur Andersen's reports on the financial statements of the Company for the two fiscal years ended December 31, 2001, neither contained an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

On June 27, 2002, upon its review of the recommendation of the Audit Committee, the Board of Directors of the Company approved the engagement of Ernst & Young as the Company's independent auditors for its 2002 fiscal year.

Audit Fees

The aggregate fees billed by Ernst & Young for professional services rendered for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, and for the reviews of the financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for that fiscal year were $160,000. All Other Fees

The aggregate fees billed by Ernst & Young for services rendered to the Company, other than the services described above under Audit Fees for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, were $382,300.

Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) as a result of an investigation, obtained an order temporarily restraining Credit Bancorp from making fraudulent offers, sales and purchases of securities in connection with the investment program. The SEC also received a court order freezing the assets of Credit Bancorp, and since then, a receiver has been appointed for Credit Bancorp. Mr. Stephenson has informed the Company that the 8,000,000 shares are subject to the freeze order and that, although none of the 8,000,000 shares have been sold, a substantial portion of these shares have been margined by Credit Bancorp without his consent and in violation of the agreement that SECO entered into with Credit Bancorp. SECO has requested, and has filed a lawsuit against Credit Bancorp demanding, Credit Bancorp to return the shares to SECO, as the rightful owner of the shares. Mr. Stephenson has indicated that the receiver has reached a settlement with Credit Bancorp's insurance carriers that should cover a substantial amount of any losses that may result from the unauthorized activities of Credit Bancorp with respect to the shares that SECO owns and the court has approved a partial plan of distribution which should result in the ultimate return of SECO's shares. Mr. Stephenson has further advised the Company that SECO will be able to vote the 8,000,000 shares at the Annual Meeting. The Company cannot predict the effect, if any, that this matter may ultimately have on Mr. Stephenson's ownership of shares of the Company.

Report on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors administers the Company's executive compensation program, except that the Board of Directors is generally responsible for administering the Company's 1990 Stock Plan with respect to the executive officers of the Company. During 2002, the Committee was comprised of Messrs. Lawrence, McNabb, Mahaffey (after February 6, 2002) and Maier (after December 13, 2002), each of whom is an outside director of the Company, and Mr. Stephenson, the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company, who resigned from the Committee on December 13, 2002. All decisions of the Committee relating to the compensation of the executive officers of the Company are reviewed by the full Board of Directors.

Overall Executive Compensation Policy. The overall policy of the Company's executive compensation program is to attract, retain and reward executives who are capable of leading the Company in achieving its business objectives and strategies in a highly competitive industry. The executive compensation program basically consists of three elements: salary, awards under the Company's 1990 Stock Plan, and, beginning in 1999, a discretionary bonus program tied to annual financial and operating performance targets.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, provides that no publicly-held company shall be permitted to deduct from its income taxes compensation exceeding $1 million paid to its chief executive officer or any of its four other highest paid executive officers unless (a) the compensation is payable solely on account of the attainment of performance goals, (b) the performance goals are determined by a compensation committee of two or more outside directors, (c) the material terms under which the compensation is paid are disclosed to and approved by the stockholders, and (d) the compensation committee certifies that the performance goals were met. The Company has never sustained the loss of a material deduction as a result of Section 162(m). However, it is possible that the exercises of stock options and the vesting of restricted stock awards in the future could result in a loss of a deduction. While the Company intends to pursue a strategy of maximizing the deductibility of compensation paid to executive officers in the future, it also intends to maintain the flexibility to take actions that it considers to be in the Company's best interest and to take into consideration factors other than deductibility.

Salary. The Committee reviews each executive officer's salary annually. The Committee believes there is necessarily some subjectivity in setting the salaries of the Company's executive officers and does not follow specific objective performance criteria when setting such salaries. In determining appropriate salary levels for 2002, the Committee primarily considered the individual's past performance, the past performance of the Company and the individual's contribution to that performance. The Committee also considered the executive's level and scope of responsibility, experience, internal equity of the Company's executive compensation program, and the compensation practices of other companies in the oil and gas industry for executives of similar responsibility.

Discretionary Performance Bonus Program. The Board of Directors has adopted the Vintage Petroleum, Inc. Discretionary Performance Bonus Program. The purpose of this Program is to enhance stockholder value by providing eligible employees of the Company, including executive officers, with an added incentive to achieve specific annual Company targets and goals. This Program also allows the Company to remain competitive with its peers in attracting and retaining qualified personnel. The targets and goals are approved by the Board of Directors and are intended to be aligned with the Company's mission so that bonus payments are made only if stockholder interests are advanced. In 2002, the Company's executive officers and all other U.S. employees were eligible for cash incentive awards under this Program. Each executive officer of the Company was eligible to earn an individual award expressed as a percentage of base salary paid

during the Program year. Executive officer incentive award opportunities varied by level of responsibility. There was no minimum incentive award. The maximum percentage of base salary payable as an incentive award was 40% or 60%, depending on the executive officer's position. Awards may be granted if specified financial and operating performance targets are achieved and the Board of Directors determines to grant such bonuses. Once granted, the bonuses to executive officers are generally payable over a two and one half-year period and are subject to forfeiture under certain circumstances. Such bonus payments may also be postponed under certain circumstances. Total bonus awards to all eligible employees for a given Program year may not exceed 5% of net income of the Company. During 2002, the Company reported net losses. Accordingly, no bonuses were awarded under this Program during 2002.

Despite the reported net losses, which resulted from large non-cash charges for impairments of the Company's Canadian assets, the Company achieved several of its objectives during 2002. Management successfully marketed the Company's non-strategic assets in Trinidad and Ecuador; replaced its floating-rate bank debt and lengthened debt maturities by issuing its $350 million 8 1/4% Senior Notes due 2012; exceeded its net debt reduction target of $200 million; met or bettered its targets for production, cash flow, EBITDAX, and certain expenses; increased its inventory of exploration projects; and managed its Argentina asset base through the political and economic uncertainties, maximizing profitability and the repatriation of its cash flow. As a result, the Board of Directors is considering awarding discretionary bonuses outside of the Program. However, the amount, if any, of such bonuses for 2002 has not yet been determined.

Restricted Stock Awards. During 2002, the Board of Directors relied heavily upon restricted stock awards to compensate the executive officers of the Company. The Board of Directors believes that restricted stock awards enhance the retentive and incentive impact of equity compensation awards and advance further the Company's philosophy of employees, including executive officers, as owners. The Company is committed to the concept of executive officers as owners because it believes that it helps the Company attract and retain the very best executive officers and aligns their interests with those of the Company's stockholders. Restricted stock awards represent shares of Common Stock. The shares are considered restricted because they are subject to forfeiture and restrictions on transfer prior to vesting, which may be tied to a specified time period or the achievement of certain goals.

Restricted stock awards granted to executive officers during 2002 were based on the subjective evaluation of the executive's ability to influence the Company's long-term growth and profitability and to reward outstanding past individual performance and contributions to the Company. The Board of Directors also considered the executive's level and scope of responsibility, experience, internal equity of the Company's executive compensation program, and the compensation practices of other companies in the oil and gas industry for executives of similar responsibility. Restricted stock awards granted during 2002 vest over a period of three years.

In early 2003, the Company offered to employees, including executive officers, the opportunity to receive restricted stock or restricted stock rights in exchange for stock options which had exercise prices ranging from $19.28 to $21.81 per share. Exchange ratios were based on a Black-Scholes valuation of the various stock options as of January 6, 2003, in order to make the exchange values neutral. The Board of Directors approved this offer in order to enhance the retentive and incentive impact of outstanding equity compensation awards, to advance further the corporate philosophy of employees as owners, and to create a renewed opportunity for employees to realize future benefit from their equity awards. Many of the outstanding stock options had exercise prices that were significantly higher than the current market price of the Common Stock and did not advance this goal.

On February 20, 2003, the Company accepted for exchange stock options to purchase 2,118,000 shares of Common Stock (1,360,000 shares from executive officers) and granted restricted stock and restricted stock rights representing an aggregate of 562,840 shares of Common Stock (358,500 shares to executive officers) in exchange for the tendered stock options.

CEO Compensation. During 2002, Mr. George served as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. His base salary for 2002 and restricted stock awards granted to him during 2002 were determined in the same manner utilized by the Committee and the Board of Directors when determining salaries and restricted stock awards for the Company's other executive officers as described above. During 2002, no bonuses were granted under the Discretionary Performance Bonus Program described above. Under this Program, the maximum amount that Mr. George may earn is 60% of his base salary. As discussed above, the Board of Directors is considering awarding discretionary bonuses outside of this Program. However, a determination has not yet been made whether any executive officers, including Mr. George, will receive a bonus for 2002.

Performance Graph

The following graph compares the yearly percentage change in the cumulative total stockholder return on the Company's Common Stock during the period commencing January 1, 1998, and ending on December 31, 2002, with the cumulative total return on the S&P 500 Index and an index of peer companies (weighted by market capitalization) selected by the Company. Companies in the peer group are as follows: Apache Corporation, Cabot Oil & Gas Corporation, Devon Energy Corporation, Forest Oil Corporation, Noble Energy, Inc., Nuevo Energy Company, Ocean Energy, Inc., Pioneer Natural Resources Company, Pogo Producing Company and XTO Energy, Inc. (formerly, Cross Timbers Oil Company). The comparison assumes $100 was invested on December 31, 1997, in the Company's Common Stock and in each of the foregoing indices and assumes reinvestment of dividends.

Accordingly, the Audit Committee's oversight does not provide an independent basis to determine that management has maintained appropriate accounting and financial reporting principles or appropriate internal control and procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. Furthermore, the Audit Committee's considerations and discussions referred to above do not assure that the audit of the Company's financial statements has been carried out in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, that the financial statements are presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or that the Company's auditors are in fact independent.

Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, and subject to the limitations on the role and responsibilities of the Audit Committee referred to above and in the Audit Committee Charter, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the financial statements referred to above be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002.
