CVS Shareholders Vote to Approve Transformative Merger of Equals with Caremark

WOONSOCKET, R.I. --March 15, 2007--CVS Corporation (NYSE: CVS) said its shareholders have voted to approve the company's merger with Caremark Rx, Inc. (NYSE: CMX) at the special shareholder meeting held earlier today. Caremark shareholders are scheduled to vote on the transaction on March 16.

"We are extremely pleased our shareholders strongly supported our proposed merger with Caremark today," said Tom Ryan, CVS Chairman, President and CEO. "This landmark combination will uniquely position CVS/Caremark to deliver new products and services that will make a meaningful difference for both employers seeking to control costs and consumers seeking greater access and choice as they look to stretch their healthcare dollar further. We look forward to Caremark shareholders approving the transaction tomorrow and getting to work on delivering the significant financial and strategic benefits that only this deal can provide."

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This document contains certain forward-looking statements about CVS and Caremark. When used in this document, the words “anticipates”, “may”, “can”, “believes”, “expects”, “projects”, “intends”, “likely”, “will”, “to be” and any similar expressions, and any other statements that are not historical facts, in each case as they relate to CVS or Caremark or to the combined company, the management of either such company or the combined company or the transaction are intended to identify those assertions as forward-looking statements. In making any of those statements, the person making them believes that its expectations are based on reasonable assumptions. However, any such statement may be influenced by factors that could cause actual outcomes and results to be materially different from those projected or anticipated. These forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, statements relating to anticipated accretion, return on equity, cost synergies, incremental revenues and new products and offerings, are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties. There are various important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in any such forward-looking statements, many of which are beyond the control of CVS and Caremark, including macroeconomic condition and general industry conditions such as the competitive environment for retail pharmacy and pharmacy benefit management companies, regulatory and litigation matters and risks, legislative developments, changes in tax and other laws and the effect of changes in general economic conditions, the risk that a condition to closing of the transaction may not be satisfied, the risk that a regulatory approval that may be required for the transaction is not obtained or is obtained subject to conditions that are not anticipated and other risks to consummation of the transaction. The actual results or performance by CVS or Caremark or the combined company, and issues relating to the transaction, could differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, any forward-looking statements relating to those matters. Accordingly, no assurances can be given that any of the events anticipated by the forward-looking statements will transpire or occur, or if any of them do so, what impact they will have on the results of operations or financial condition of CVS or Caremark, the combined company or the transaction.
