PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

The accompanying proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of A.C. Moore Arts & Crafts, Inc. (the "Company" or "A.C. Moore") for use at the 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "Meeting") to be held on Thursday, May 22, 2003, at 9:00 a.m., prevailing time, at the Holiday Inn, 542 Route 9, Fishkill, New York, and any adjournments or postponements thereof. This Proxy Statement and accompanying proxy card are first being mailed to shareholders on or about April 15, 2003.

The cost of this solicitation will be borne by the Company. In addition to solicitation by mail, proxies may be solicited in person or by telephone, facsimile, telegraph or teletype by officers, directors or employees of the Company, without additional compensation. Upon request, the Company will pay the reasonable expenses incurred by record holders of the Company's Common Stock who are brokers, dealers, banks or voting trustees, or their nominees, for mailing proxy material and annual shareholder reports to the beneficial owners of the shares they hold of record.

Only shareholders of record, as shown on the stock transfer books of the Company, at the close of business on April 10, 2003 (the "Record Date") are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. On the Record Date, there were 18,986,879 shares of common stock, no par value per share ("Common Stock") outstanding.

Proxies in the form enclosed, if properly executed and received in time for voting, and not revoked, will be voted as directed on the proxies. If you sign and return your proxy card but do not indicate how you want your shares voted, the persons named in the enclosed proxy will vote your shares of Common Stock "for" the election of all nominees for directors hereinafter named and "for" ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ("PricewaterhouseCoopers") as the independent auditors of the Company for the year ending December 31, 2003. With respect to any other matter that properly comes before the meeting, the proxy holders will vote the proxies in their discretion in accordance with their best judgment and in the manner they believe to be in the best interest of A.C. Moore. Sending in a signed proxy will not affect a shareholder's right to attend the Meeting and vote in person since the proxy is revocable. Any shareholder who submits a proxy has the power to revoke it by, among other methods, giving written notice to the Secretary of the Company at any time before the proxy is voted.

Edgar Filing: A C MOORE ARTS & CRAFTS INC - Form DEF 14A

The presence, in person or represented by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Meeting. All shares of the Company's Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy (including broker non-votes) and entitled to vote at the Meeting, no matter how they are voted or whether they abstain from voting, will be counted in determining the presence of a quorum. If the Meeting is adjourned because of the absence of a quorum, those shareholders entitled to vote who attend the adjourned meeting, although constituting less than a quorum as provided herein, shall nevertheless constitute a quorum for the purpose of electing directors. If the Meeting is adjourned for one or more periods aggregating at least 15 days because of the absence of a quorum, those shareholders entitled to vote who attend the reconvened Meeting, if less than a quorum as determined under applicable law, shall nevertheless constitute a quorum for the purpose of acting upon any matter set forth in the Notice of Annual Meeting.

Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote on each matter which may be brought before the Meeting. The election of directors will be determined by a plurality vote and the two nominees receiving the most "for" votes will be elected. Approval of any other proposal will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares cast on the proposal. Under the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law, an abstention, withholding of authority to vote or broker non-vote will have no effect on the vote and will not be counted in determining whether the proposal has received the required shareholder vote.

PROPOSAL 1

Executive Compensation

Compensation Committee Report

The Compensation Committee of A.C. Moore's Board of Directors establishes A.C. Moore's general compensation policies, compensation plans and specific compensation levels of A.C. Moore's most highly compensated executive officers, and reviews the design, administration and effectiveness of compensation programs for other key executives. The Compensation Committee's executive compensation policies are designed to provide competitive levels of compensation, integrate pay with A.C. Moore's annual and long-term performance goals, reward above-average corporate performance, recognize individual initiative and achievements, and assist A.C. Moore in attracting and retaining qualified executives.

A.C. Moore's executive officer compensation program is comprised of base salary, annual cash incentive compensation, and long-term incentive compensation in the form of stock options, and various benefits available to all full time employees of A.C. Moore, including participation in group medical and life insurance plans and a 401(k) Plan. The Company seeks to be competitive with compensation programs offered by companies of a similar size within the retail industry.

Base Salary and Incentive Compensation. Prior to the beginning of each fiscal year, financial and other goals are established for the Company. Each executive officer is responsible for accomplishing the goals pertaining to his or her area of responsibility. Base salaries are based on the results of individual performance, as well as other considerations such as the executive officer's level of responsibility, years of service with A.C. Moore, professional background and surveys of compensation levels of comparable retail companies. Incentive compensation is based upon the achievement of Company profit objectives. Each executive officer of the Company received bonus compensation during 2002 except Jack Parker who has excluded himself from the Company's incentive compensation program. See "Summary Compensation Table."

Stock Options. A.C. Moore uses its 2002 Stock Option Plan and its 1997 Employee, Director and Consultant Stock Option Plan (the "Option Plans") as long-term incentive plans for executive officers and key employees. The objectives of the Option Plans with respect to executive officers are to align the long-term interests of executive officers and shareholders by creating a direct link between executive compensation and shareholder return and to enable executives to develop and maintain a significant long-term equity interest in A.C. Moore. The Option Plans authorize the Compensation Committee to award stock options to officers and key employees. Stock options granted to executive officers are based upon the level and degree of responsibility of the positions they hold. In general under the Option Plans, options are granted with an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant and are exercisable according to a vesting schedule determined by the Compensation Committee at the time of grant. In 2002, 2001 and 2000, the Board of Directors granted options to purchase an aggregate of 312,300 shares, 306,600 shares, and 368,400 shares, respectively of Common Stock under the Option Plans. Information concerning the option grants to certain executive officers is set forth in the Summary Compensation Table.

Policy with Respect to Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. Generally, Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and the regulations promulgated thereunder (collectively, "Section 162(m)"), denies a deduction to any publicly held corporation, such as A.C. Moore, for certain compensation exceeding $1,000,000 paid during a calendar year to the chief executive officer and the four other highest paid executive officers, excluding, among other things, certain performance-based compensation. Where appropriate, the Compensation Committee has taken action to reduce the impact of this provision. For example, the Compensation Committee intends that the Option Plans qualify for the performance-based exclusion. The Compensation Committee continually evaluates to what extent Section 162(m) will apply to its other compensation programs.

Discussion of 2002 Compensation for the Chief Executive Officer. In considering the compensation for Mr. Parker, the Chief Executive Officer, the Compensation Committee reviewed his existing compensation arrangements and compensation levels of comparable retail companies. The Compensation Committee accordingly made the determination that the annual compensation for the Chief Executive Officer be established at $450,000 for 2002. In 2001 and 2000, the compensation committee had established Mr. Parker's compensation at $350,000. Mr. Parker, as a major shareholder of A.C. Moore, elected not to participate in either the incentive compensation program or the Option Plans. Mr. Parker also elected to reduce his compensation to $380,000 for 2002 and to $300,000 for 2001 and 2000.

As part of his overall compensation package, Mr. Parker was also provided various life insurance policies, including a split dollar life insurance arrangement for Mr. Parker and his wife.
