Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 25, 2010, Iveda Corporation (the Company) entered into an Operating Level Agreement (the OLA) with Digital Ally and Tecnologia y Diagnosticos Del Norte S.A. de C.V. (TDN) pursuant to which the Company agreed to provide SVC-1002, streaming video converter, to Digital Ally s in-vehicle surveillance system, video hosting and video archiving services to a Federal Government Agency in Mexico. The Company serves as a sub-contractor to TDN pursuant to a separate agreement signed by TDN and the government agency in Mexico. Gross revenues are $280,000 for upfront fees and $142,000 for SVC-1002 (Streaming Video Converter), plus monthly fees for remote video hosting and storage, and maintenance for the first phase of the project and an additional $100,000 for second shipment of SVC-1002 and monthly fees for the second phase of the project for a total of 164 vehicles. The services will be provided at agreed upon monthly fees with early termination provisions such that when due to justified causes that the need to continue the service originally contracted would cause damage or harm to the Agency. The contract may be terminated for any number of reasons, including Iveda s failure to perform in accordance with its terms, and that the contract is subject to a variety of risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to: performance risk.
