Why are these men smiling?

Charles B. Wang
*Computer Associates
Chairman*

Sanjay Kumar
*Computer Associates
President and CEO*

Russell M. Artzt
*Computer Associates
Executive Vice President*

Is it because they don't know 46% of their customers want out?

- A June 2001 study by Penn, Schoen & Berland Associates, Inc.* shows that only 15% of Computer Associates' customers think the Company treats them well.
- Only 1 in 3 think "honesty" applies to CA.
- Only 1 in 5 say CA has "integrity."
- Customers call CA's senior management "unscrupulous," "arrogant" and the "root of Computer Associates' poor customer service."

It is time for new leadership at Computer Associates.

A company that abuses its customers and lavishly rewards top executives for doing so can't create value for shareholders CA stock has returned a negative 11% to shareholders over the past 5 years, while in 1998 the Board of Directors granted Messrs. Wang, Kumar and Artzt over $1 billion in stock.

There is a better way, and a better team poised to lead the company into a brighter tomorrow. Ranger Governance, led by software pioneer Sam Wyly, is proposing new management under a truly independent Board of Directors.

Ranger Governance has a plan to unlock the value and potential of Computer Associates. The new Board will strategically realign the Company into four decentralized business units, and create a culture of innovation, accountability, extraordinary customer service, and real growth.

Integrity. Innovation. Increased Value for CA Shareholders.

Now that would be something to smile about.
